BARRINGTON REVIEW

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1931

Review circulation is paid circulation . . . that is the kind that counts.

Historic Landmark Being Restored After 93 Years of Service

The old historic Barrington Center church, once used as a recruiting station for Civil war soldiers, is being restored to the freshness and vigor of former days, after almost a century of service to the community. It is emerging in a new dress of white paint, new windows, and fresh decorations on the inside. It is reported that the inside work will not be finished because it is doubted whether a modern decorator would retain the antique atmosphere of the present finish.

The edifice, which was erected in 1838 by a small band of devout Methodists, embraces the geographic center of Barrington township, three miles southwest of the village.

A few of the "old-timers" recall some of the dramatic scenes staged there when soldiers left their wives and mothers to go to the battlefields. The adjacent cemetery contains a number of civil war soldiers as well as some dating back to the War of 1812.

Forest Preserve Acquires Defunct Railroad Property

Lonc Squatter Contends He Will Fight for Land and $4,000 Home

The Palatine, Lake Zurich & Wauconda railroad, which has been inactive for two years, sold a mile of its 100 foot right-of-way to the Cook county forest preserve, the sale being effective Saturday at midnight.

With the exception of one small piece of land the forest preserve received all the territory under consideration. The exception represents a tract of land and a $4,000 home owned by J. O'Carroll, the only squatter who has not agreed to leave.

A dozen other squatters are moving this week. O'Carroll contends that he will contest the case to save his home. His time was extended until Friday to vacate.

According to Myron H. Dietrick of Wauconda, receiver for the railroad, all squatters who do not move will stand the risk of being ousted by an eviction order issued by Circuit Judge Edward Shurtleff.

The strip of land was bought by the forest preserve for a consideration of $30,000.

The Palatine, Lake Zurich & Wauconda railroad, better known as the P. L. Z. & W., carried passengers and freight over its 10-mile line for many years. For the next two or three years a small sized bus, equipped with train wheels, operated on the tracks, but this also failed.

During its existence, the P. L. Z. & W. provided a convenient method for people in Wauconda and Lake Zurich to travel to and from Chicago by transferring at Palatine. Before the train went out of existence it had become out-of-date due to insufficient funds for maintenance.

Mrs. Leslie McClure Suffers Broken Ankle on Vacation

Mrs. Leslie McClure, 536 Grove avenue, was injured Saturday night at Cable, Wis., when her left ankle was broken in a peculiar accident.

Mrs. McClure had alighted from an automobile parked on the main street of the village and was stepping down when her foot slipped in between two hidden timbers. Mrs. McClure fell to the ground with her left ankle firmly wedged in an upright position. The severe twist that her leg received broke both bones above the ankle and dislocated the main joint.

It was necessary for Mr. McClure and companions to take her 45 miles to Ashland, Wis., for medical treatment. She remained in a hospital there for several days before being taken back to Camp Crescent near Cable.

Robert Mundhenk Writes of Interesting Trip in Europe

Robert Mundhenk, 12-year-old Barrington boy, who is traveling through the principal countries of Europe as a reward the won in a contest conducted by Spartan Radio company through the local dealer, the J. & A. Radio Co., is enjoying the trip immensely. In the following letter he tells of some of the unique places he has visited:

Dear Friends:
Cherbourg, a leading seaport of France; Paris, (Gay Paree) with its statues and monuments, galleries, and its famous Eiffel Tower; Avignon, a medieval city with its Palace of the Popes, and other old buildings; Nice, only a port and a tourist resort but with great beauty and a fine climate; Genoa, a great seaport and famous for the birthplace of Columbus; Pisa, with one of the seven wonders of the world, the great leaning tower; Rome, famous for many things including its ruins; Florence, the city of art and beauty; Venice, the island city where every street is "Canal Street"; famous for its St. Mark cathedral and St. Mark's square, considered the greatest square in Europe—all this I have seen and many others just as famous I have yet to see, thanks to the help of the kind people of Barrington.

Due to the great amount of time spent on sightseeing I will be unable to write everybody personally so I will try to reach them through the columns of the Barrington Review.

The trip across was most enjoyable (very calm). No, I didn't get seasick.

Sincerely yours,
Robert L. Mundhenk

Bath Tubs and Wash Cloths Are Curios in Poland, Strakas Say

That the country of Poland has recently passed in brilliance which requires that he citizens take at least one bath a month, should be of considerable interest to Jerome A. Straka, soap salesman who left Barrington six months ago to ply his trade in that country.

Poland's ignorance of the use of soap bath internally and externally, is only one of the many interesting tales that are written home to the Barrington friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome A. Straka, formerly of 542 Grove avenue. (The Strakas had lived in Barrington for four years, Mr. Straka being a district sales manager for Colgate Palmolive-Peet Co. On Feb. 1, 1931 he was transferred to his present European location at Warsaw, Poland. Although they enumerate many interesting experiences in their letters, it is quite evident that one may find more interesting tales in the United States. Their first vacation to the United States will be at the end of three years.

They state that things which are considered absolute necessities for Americans are luxuries for the Polish people. Such things as bath tubs, baking powder, oranges, soft beds, and brown sugar have never been purchased in Poland. Gas stoves are reported as being most uncommon, and toasted bread is unknown. The fact that water is so scarce to Poles and around the Strakas more than any other condition. They report that wash cloths are articles of curiosity; that in washing the Poles splash around in the water with their hands and then are satisfied that they are cleaned up for at least another month.

They also state that the natives do not advocate the drinking of water because they hope to sell something a little more tasty. They eliminate the sale of soft drinks by making them very poor. Milk, too, is so bad in Warsaw that the Strakas have had to give up drinking it altogether.

Mrs. Straka, who has a craving for red raspberries, finally found her long desired fruit in a Polish restaurant. Before she began to partake of the rare treat she discovered that myriads of small worms had taken possession in advance. This was not half so bad, Mrs. Straka relates as the sensation of watching the native people at nearby tables thoroughly enjoying their dessert.

The Strakas find that mastering the language in Poland is very difficult. This summer they are studying other languages, chiefly German and French in anticipation of leaving Poland this fall.

Wm. F. Burkhardt Dies After Illness of Brief Duration

Operated Jewelry and Watch
Repairing Business in Barrington 24 Years

Henry Elmes, 19 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil F. Elmes of Barrington died Saturday evening at the Michael Reese hospital, Chicago, following an illness of six weeks duration. Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. at Klauer's chapel, 1233 N. Clark street, Chicago. Burial followed at Graceland cemetery.

The ultimate cause of his death was a series of complications resulting from two recent mastoiditis operations.

Mr. Elmes was born Feb. 10, 1912 in New York City. In 1921 he came to Barrington to live with his parents at 609 Grove avenue. During the happy years of Henry's life which followed his arrival in Barrington he attended the local grammar school and became very popular with his school mates.

After finishing eight years of grammar school at Barrington he became a cadet at the Illinois Military Institute at Alton. Following his year of military training he spent two years at the Lake Forest academy. A year ago, after definitely determining to make civil engineering his life's occupation, Henry began studying at Chaucery hall in Boston, preparing to take a comprehensive engineering course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

In addition to his parents the deceased is survived by three sisters, Rhoda, Elizabeth (Peggy), and Cecily.

Chicago Boy, Age 8, Drowns Amid Crowd at Crystal Lake

George Hupfer, Jr., eight years old, of 5111 Wellington avenue, Chicago, drowned in Crystal Lake at 2 p. m. Sunday. Fifty bathers, including the boy's parents, were unaware of the tragedy until George's disappearance was noticed.

The boy was able to swim, but it is believed that he was seized with cramps. He had gone to the lake with his parents and on his friends to spend the day when the tragedy occurred. After lunch, the Chicago party dined bathing suits and went swimming at "Bob's camp," southwest of the main beach.

The boy was missed by his father who believed that the boy had gone to shore. The bathers volunteered to form a chain to search for the boy when he could not be found on the shore. He was recovered 25 feet from shore.

Efforts to revive him by an inhalator squad proved futile. A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury, sworn in by E. H. Cook of Huntley.

Wauconda Man, Despondent, Ends Own Life by Gas

Failure to Answer Call of Neighbor Leads to Discovery of Body in Basement

Despondency arising from failure to secure employment for more than a year was thought to be cause for Anton A. Hanson, 60, resident of Wauconda for several years, ending his life by gas in the basement of his home Monday night. His body was found stretched out on three chairs shortly before noon Tuesday, with his head, wrapped in a blanket, resting on a gas plate with all jets open.

Miss Lucy Sowles, who lives next door to the Hansons, discovered the body. The discovery was made during the rainstorm Tuesday morning when she went over to the Hanson house to warn him to close the windows so the rain would not ruin the furnishings. When she got no response to her calls, she investigated further, and, smelling gas coming from the basement, went down and found the body.

Dead Several Hours
Dr. J. A. Ross, whose home is only a few blocks away, was called and after making an examination of the body, declared that Hanson had been dead for several hours.

Hanson was at home alone at the time of the tragedy. Mrs. Hanson was visiting relatives in Chicago and was to have returned Tuesday night. She was notified of her husband's death in time to return for an inquest which was held Tuesday afternoon by Judge John L. Taylor in the Wauconda village hall. A verdict of suicide was returned by the coroner's jury.

The federal department which is the final authority on the spelling of geographical names is the United States Geographic board. As far as is practicable, the United States Post Office department accepts the decisions of this board in all its official spellings. In the case of Pittsburgh, Pa., the board decided in 1911, at which time it decided in favor of the spelling "Pittsburg." This decision, however, met with a great deal of opposition among citizens generally in Pittsburgh, and in 1911 the board consented to reconsider the case. One of the deciding factors in the final decision was the "original" seal of the Borough of Pittsburgh, which was struck in 1793, and which was brought forward as evidence. The Geographic board's final decision in 1911 reversed the original decision, and established Pittsburgh as the official spelling of the name of this city.

Moss Rose Legend

According to German tradition, the legend of the moss rose is as follows: "Once upon a time an angel, having a mission of love to suffering humanity, came down on earth. He was much grieved at all the sin and misery he saw and at all the evil things he heard. Being tired, he sought a place to rest, but as he fared with his master, so it fared with him; there was no room for him, and no one would give him shelter. At last he lay down under the shade of a rose and slept until the rising sun awoke him. Before winging his flight heavenward, he addressed the rose and said that, as it had given him shelter which man denied, it should receive an enduring token of his love, and so, left it leaf and twig by two, the soft morn'grew around the stem, and there it is today, a cradle in which the new-born rose may lie, a proof of God's power and love."

New Starting Device Added to Hudson-Essex Cars

The Hudson Motor Car Company will add as optional equipment to their automobiles the latest improvement and convenience in motoring, known as "Starix," an automatic starting device which starts up the motor without any thought or effort on the part of the driver, according to information received by the Barrington Hudson-Essex Company.

The new device, which is regarded with particular significance by engineers, instantaneously starts the motor when the ignition switch is turned on, and if for any reason the motor stops, it will be started up again automatically through this simple device. It is predicted that "Starix" will have wide acceptance throughout the industry. It will be available on Hudson and Essex cars on Aug. 17.

A Tonic for "TIRED CARS"

FOR more than twenty years—"grinding the valves" has been the accepted method of "restoring pep" to tired motors.

But too often the "grind effect" lasts only a short time and fails to give the car the pep it needs from the within the past few months new theories have been advanced obsolete and ordinary grinding of valves. It has been learned that the old methods were accurate only by chance—but generally inaccurate when or fifteen

These are small amounts in the ordinary conception of measurements but leave relatively enormous slots around the valves through which the gas of the explosion is forced back into the intake manifold, ruining the "mixture" for the next charge, or lost entirely into the exhaust manifold.

If your car falters on the get-away or in a pull—if it heats up suddenly—if it uses too much gasoline or is hard to start (granted that the pistons are tight and ignition system is OK) it's a 100 to 1 shot that the valve seats are causing your trouble.

This from a car that was giving 13 miles per gallon.

Drive in, and ask to see real precision tools in valve work, including the Eccentrometer, pictured above.

This precision service costs no more than ordinary valve grinding and will pay for itself in less than 5,000 miles, yielding you dividends in economical, satisfactory operation for 15,000 to 20,000 more.

An ordinary "valve job" may help this condition—may leave it just about as before—and MAY MAKE IT WORSE. But an accurate reconditioning of the valves and seats with our new equipment will correct these conditions and make your car run as sweet as the day you bought it. And the job WILL LAST FOR 20,000 TO 25,000 miles.

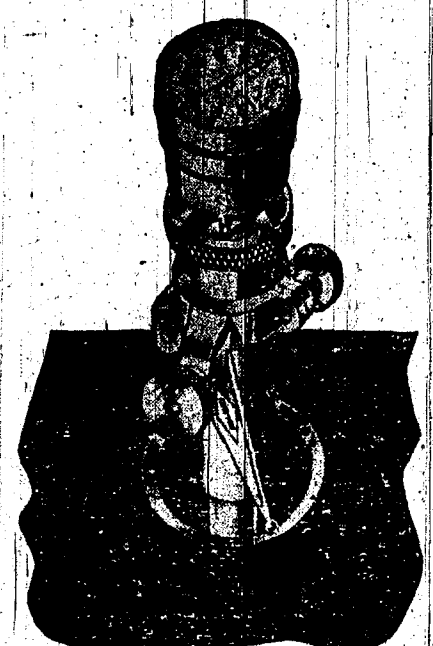

Here's an unsolicited report just received from a Barrington vacationer in New England:

"We have now travelled about 1,100 miles and the car is running fine. Have averaged nearly 19 miles per gallon of gas."

laundered to SNOWY WHITENESS by multiple suds!

Cleaner clothes... no risk to dainty fabrics

By MRS. MARTHA LANG
Our Consultants in Improved Laundering Methods

MANY women marvel, on learning that we wash clothes at controlled temperatures between 95 and 170 degrees. They wonder how, without boiling, we can get garments so snowy white... so thoroughly, hygienically clean.

The famous "multiple suds" method. She washes all of her own caps and uniforms in a tub, so they are washed immaculately, hygienically clean.

● Silks, washable wools and dainty, colored garments are washed at body temperature, 95°—to avoid all risk.

● Colorful house dresses, aprons, robes and similar materials are safely laundered at water of 120°, assuring long life.

● At water of 160° we wash those garments formerly boiled to insure whiteness—such as table and bed linens.

The answer lies in the multiple-suds method, which gently, safely removes every lingering trace of dirt with no risk to dainty fabrics. With 3 to 5 successive sudsings, and 4 to 6 rinsings of rainsoft water, we flood your clothes clean. The heat of the water depends upon the fabric and color. Woolens, silks, rayons, and colors suspected of not being fast are always washed in lukewarm water.

All through our laundry, you'll find the same care for your clothes. It starts with the classifying of each piece by color and material.

It is not completed until your washing arrives at home, beautifully done!

Capture for yourself the hours of leisure provided when you "let our Laundry do it." Phone for service!

Let an Electric Motor fill your SILO

A PORTABLE 5 h. p. electric motor serves the farmer well during the silo-filling season. Quickly and safely it cuts ensilage, blows it into the silo. At the snap of a switch there is even power for cutting all the corn one man can steadily feed into the cutter—all that one binder can cut in the field.

Many Other Uses

Filling the silo is only one of the many economical uses the portable motor can be put to in speeding through farm chores. One of the Public Service Company's representatives specially assigned to rural electrification will be glad to tell you all about electric farm motors. Just phone or write your nearest Public Service Store. Your Local Implement Dealer can also give you this information.

Portable electric motors and some of other labor-saving appliances may be seen in operation daily at the Public Service Company's Model Farm, two miles west of Mendota, LaSalle County.

St. Pauls Defeat Methodists and Salems This Week

Winners Hold Record of 13 Out of 14 Games; Will Play Baptists Friday

By winning two more games this week in the Sunday school soft-ball league the St. Paul team definitely clinched their hold on first place for the season. On Monday night they won from the Methodist team by a score of 2-1 in one of the closest games of the season. St. Paul's winning run came in the seventh or last inning of the game. Wednesday night they defeated the Salem team by the same ratio, but many more runs came in. The score was 14-7. Two of the victors' points were home runs, the accomplishments of Charles Berg and Norman Reese.

The St. Paul team has a record of winning 13 out of 14 league games this year. On Friday the team plays its last game of the season with the Baptist church team. The remaining games, however, concern only the Salem, Baptist, and Methodist churches in the contest for second, third, and fourth places.

The present standing in the church league is:

St. Paul 13 W 1 L 1 Pct. .928
Salem 6 W 1 L 1 .600
Methodist 2 W 0 L 2 .181
Baptist 1 W 0 L 1 .111

AFTER 40

bowel trouble

Constipation may very easily become chronic after forty. And any continued constipation at that time of life may bring attacks of piles and a host of other unpleasant disorders.

Watch your bowels at any age. Guard them with particular care after forty. Whenever they need any help, remember a doctor should know what is best for them.

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin" is a doctor's prescription for the bowels. Tested by 47 years' practice, it has been found thoroughly effective in relieving constipation and its ills for men, women and children of all ages. It has proven perfectly safe even for babies. Made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients, it cannot grip; will not sicken you or weaken you; can be used without harm as often as your breath is bad, or when your tongue is coated; whenever a headachy, bilious, uneasy condition warns of constipation.

When babies fret

THERE are times when a baby is too fretful or fussy to be used to sleep. There are some pains a mother cannot get away. But there's quick comfort in Castoria.

For diarrhea, and other infantile ills, give this pure vegetable preparation. Whenever coated tongues tell of constipation; whenever there's any sign of sluggishness, Castoria has a good taste; children love to take it. Buy the genuine—with Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on wrapper.

Mixed Two-Ball Foursome and Two Ball Sweepstakes Are Main Week-end Events

Due to adverse golfing weather of the week, little progress was made in the first rounds of the two ball sweepstakes and two ball foursome tournaments which began at the Barrington Hills Country club Sunday.

A two-ball foursome and two ball sweepstakes were the main events at the club over the week-end.

Pilmsoll Deserving of Title "Seamen's Friend"

By agreement among several of the more important maritime nations of the world, the Pilmsoll line, marking the safe loading point for vessels, has come almost into universal use. It has been the means of saving the lives of thousands of seamen. Before Samuel Pilmsoll made his stand for humanity, seamen were at the mercy of scornful owners, who thought only in terms of insurance. No thought of the men who would go down with their ships stayed their hands.

Then came Samuel Pilmsoll, "The Seamen's Friend." He had been prosperous; he had known disaster. From a position of affluence he had come to common lodging houses. In them he met seamen and heard their stories. He was roused to a great anger, and there and then took an oath that he would never rest until he had revealed the villainy of the "ship-knackers."

He knew that before he could achieve anything he had to get into parliament. That meant money. Out of the pit of poverty he climbed. He was elected to parliament and devoted his energies to the measure he had suggested for saving the lives of the seamen. In the face of violent opposition he prevailed and the measure became a law requiring a mark on the hull indicating the safe loading line.

Word "Camera" Derived From Renaissance Toy

The primitive Aryan root "kam" meant "to bond," and the Greek "camera," derived from it, was used to denote anything with an arched cover or roof. Hence came the Latin "camera," meaning "a room," and ultimately, through French, the English "chamber." A common toy of the rich in Renaissance times was a dark room letting in light only through a small lens, which threw an inverted image of the scene outside on the wall opposite it. This was called a "camera obscura" or "dark room." The problem for the inventors of photography was to make permanent the image in the "camera obscura"; hence the instrument with which they ultimately accomplished it was called a "camera."—Exchange.

Thousands See First Train

When the Shinkins-Sivas section of the Ankara-Sivas railway, in Turkey, was officially opened, thousands of Turks saw their first train. A special train took 800 invited guests of the state railway administration to Sivas for the opening ceremony. The majority of the 35,000 gathered to see it pull in had never seen a locomotive and cars before. Bronze medals struck to commemorate the completion of the line were given to the guests.

Napoleonic Chessmen

A set of Napoleonic chessmen was recently shown at a Napoleonic exhibition at Austerlitz, Czechoslovakia. According to the story, they were sent to St. Helena and were made hollow so that they might contain detailed plans for Napoleon's escape from his island prison. The chessmen "reached" Napoleon, but the former emperor never learned their secret, because the messenger to whom the gift was entrusted was killed at sea.

The Appian Way

The Appian way of Rome, the ancient Via Appia, is the great-grand sire of all good roads and of noble avenues, which for ages has outshone the Unter den Linden and Fifth avenue. It stretched from Rome to Brindisi. It was built by Appius Claudius in B. C. 312 and was called the Regina Viarum, the queen of roads. Today you may walk it in Rome, flanked by its great tombs of the Scipios, Octavia, Seneca and others.

Potential Sugar Crop

About 8,000,000 sugar maple trees in the Dominion of Canada are tapped annually and the maple sugar output for 1930, was valued at more than a million and a quarter dollars. The tree is mainly to be found in eastern Canada where there are approximately 60,000,000 trees and fewer than one-quarter of this number are tapped so that the potential output of this section is 50,000,000 pounds of sugar annually.

Disease is the Home

When there is a communicable disease in the house, the mother must substitute knowledge for superstition and enlightenment for prejudice, in the opinion of Dr. W. W. Bauer, a Hygeia Magazine author. She must therefore mingle with the respect she feels for her parents and grandparents a certain skepticism toward their views and take only advice from the family physician.

Blockheads for Apprentices

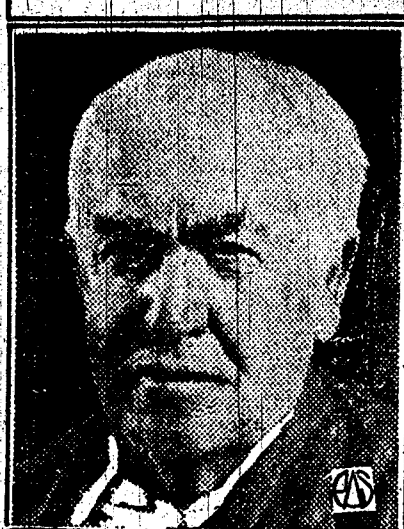

Apprentice barbers at Frankfurt, Germany, learn to shave by using strange looking blockheads. Since it is difficult to get customers for the young men who are being taught to use the razor, wooden figures for human heads are used. These remain calm and quiet while the students go over them with their sharp instruments, says Popular Science Monthly.

Had It Coming

The little niece of a friend of mine, aged seven, was going to have a new dress for a very special occasion. When her mother showed her the material she looked disappointed, then said:

"Well, mother, I've put up with your sewing all these years. This time I think you might have bought me a dress."—Chicago Tribune.

Wizard Is Ill

Thomas A. Edison has been worried when he took to his bed after the recent hot spell. The 84-year-old inventor's wonderful powers of recuperation were evidenced again.

Achievement in World Seldom Won by Haste

A doctor says: "The man who lives longest is the man who never does anything in a hurry." This is called to the attention of speed maniacs. It is undoubtedly true, also, that those who proceed at a leisurely pace in all things, secure a greater enjoyment out of life. It is only the presence of peril that requires haste. Precipitancy has evil consequences, all the way from dithering to divorce; and the plaintive cries of the unfortunate are usually due to something they have done in a hurry. The carthorse provides, bounteously, but not necessarily to the swift. Even the fortunes, the greater ones, are of slow accumulation in most cases—sometimes piling up through the generations.

The spiritual achievements are likewise more the result of meditation and contemplation than of any rapid-fire thinking. Ruskin said, "All one's life is music if one touches the notes rightly. But there must be no hurry." A enforced rapid rate of movement is a vice. We are creatures of time, but we need not be its driven slaves.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Buzzard Attacks Plane

Various observations have been made on the behavior of birds when encountering airplanes, and the least interesting of these is sent by Mr. G. Abbey, Norton Manor gardener, Sutton Scotney, to "Bird Notes and News." "During the late autumn of 1930 the common buzzard was seen about here many times. One day a bombing airplane came over and was, at once, attacked by a buzzard. The bird flew over, under, in front, and at every angle, just kept clear; returned to the attack, and finally made off, and was out of sight in half a minute. The eagle-like size made it appear at first to be a Moth airplane attacking the giant bomber."—London Mail.

Board to Examine Engineers' Plans for Sewer Channel

Will Meet Monday; Seek Avoid Prohibitive Costs Early Proposals

Several engineering plans to Barrington's sewer system will be given final consideration by village trustees in regular meeting Monday night.

These plans for rebuilding, which contemplate costs of from $375,000 to $600,000 were discussed informally at a meeting last Thursday night attended by the trustees, Village Attorney D. B. Maloney, and Village Engineer Edwin Hancock.

To Fox River

One plan was to replace the present plant with a new and larger unit and carry the effluent through a large pipe line to the Fox River. Another plan involved the separation of the storm and sanitary sewer using the present system of pipes, storm water and installing a sanitary system. A variation of this plan would be that of laying a pipe or two banks, and thus avoid the cost of the present plant.

These engineering plans made basis for a meeting and two-day discussion between members of the board and citizens residing west of Barrington, who were plaintiffs in the drawn out case against the village.

Year to Get Out

The board will have to decide its final engineering solution prior to deciding whether or not to follow the proposed appeal of Judge Ed. Shurtleff's decision against the village. This decision, rendered May 1930, ordered the village to abandon its present disposal plan and dispose of property sewage at some point other than Flint creek above the lands of several plaintiffs residing west of Barrington. The limited time extended by the court, covering the decision, providing that the village would be engaged in a definite and acceptable plan of change within a limited time were elapsed.

If the village does appeal, the change in the sewerage system is necessary, regardless of higher decision. The present plan is too small for the land required. A reversed decision, however, cut down the cost of change considerably as it would leave the village free to rebuild without changing disposal plant site.
