

A CAPPELLA AND ORCHESTRA TO PERFORM IN CIVIC OPERA HOUSE

Last Friday the members of the a cappella and the orchestra received quite an ineffable surprise. No wonder! It isn't every day that high school musicians are invited to Chicago's large and famous Civic Opera House.

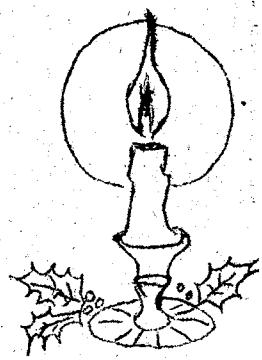

The Chicago Herald American, which is sponsoring a Christmas program for veterans, has invited choirs and orchestras from various Chicago and suburban schools. Barrington, according to Mr. Thomas, was the first to be asked. Six other choral groups and two other orchestras will appear.

The program, which will be attended by wounded war veterans and their friends, is scheduled for this Wednesday, December 22, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Sandwiched in between the school performers will be such entertainers as Frank Sinatra, Marilyn Maxwell, Basil Rathbone, Larry Adler, Eddie Foy, Jr., and Harvey Stone.

The a cappella will sing "The Night Before Christmas," "Willie, Take Your Tiny Drum," and "Go Tell It on the Mountains." Selections by the orchestra will be "Impresario Overture," the "Shepherd's Dance," and the "Morris Dance."

SENIOR CLASS HELPS NEEDY FAMILY

Although it began to look as if the seniors weren't supporting their Christmas project as wholeheartedly as they should, they proved on Friday that they had the Christmas spirit. Canned food, clothes, soap, and money poured in for the family. In the afternoon several senior girls went out and bought more food with the money that had been contributed. About thirty-five dollars was given, a gratifying amount.

The seniors will feel a little happier on Christmas day, knowing that someone else is having a merry Christmas too.

PARTY FOR CHILDREN VERY SUCCESSFUL

At 2:15 p.m. last Sunday sixty children from the Norwegian Lutheran Children's Home at Park Ridge piled out of the bus for two hours of fun.

First they were separated into two age groups. They ranged from eight to twelve and thirteen to fifteen. In these groups they played games and had relays. A puppet show was given by Joy Mantor, Yvonne Hoggins, Jane and Janet Brandt, Nancy Leonard, and Marlene Johnson. Bob Seaver gave a magic show which amused them no end.

Santa Claus (Vivian Jutzi) came into the gym, trailed by many bags and boxes of gifts. As the gifts were opened, great shouts of joy could be heard throughout the gym.

After stuffing themselves with cocoa, popcorn balls, cookies, and apples the children left at 5:15 p.m., thoroughly tired and satisfied.

Credit should be given to all the G.A.A. members who helped Sunday, to the F.H.A. for the refreshments, and to all those who gave gifts to make the children's Christmas happier.

Thursday Mr. Watson informed the seniors that if they cut out a coupon from the Sun-Times before Friday, (Cont. on page 5, col. 1)

TINSEL BALL HIGHLY PRAISED

The annual Christmas dance, the Tinsel Ball, sponsored by the G.A.A., certainly lived up to its traditional success and left many happy memories for all who attended.

B.H.S. should feel very proud and happy to have such a wonderful dance band. Many thought the Star Dusters would fail to provide the heavenly music everyone was hoping for, but after last Saturday night all have changed their minds. Mr. Fred did a grand job of conducting the orchestra, whose members wore bright maroon jackets and white trousers.

Several seventh graders dressed as traditional carolers provided the entertainment for the evening by singing Christmas carols, which added to the desired atmosphere.

The gym was beautifully decorated. A

WINNERS OF MAGAZINE CAMPAIGN TAKE TRIP

HIGHLIGHT WAS "HAMLET"

On Monday, December 20, Mr. Johnson's first hour English class, winner of the Curtis magazine campaign, was rewarded with a trip to Chicago.

The group of sophomores left school in a bus at 8:30 Monday morning and proceeded to their first stop, the Museum of Science and Industry. Upon their arrival at the museum they observed the various exhibits until lunch time. After eating in the cafeteria, the group saw the "Oscar" demonstration sponsored by the Bell Telephone Company. Then they again boarded the bus bound for the Loop to view the Christmas decorations and do some shopping.

After spending some time in the stores the sophomores proceeded to the Apollo Theater, where they saw the highlight of their trip--the movie production of Shakespeare's "Hamlet." Laurence Olivier played the leading role.

The group arrived at B.H.S. at 7 p.m. after an enjoyable trip. Included in the group were Charlotte Alexander, Robert Beckhart, Elsie Behrens, Ruth Blanke, Bonnie Jean Easterly, Peter Fisher, Dorothy Griffin, David F. Hansen, Raymond Hartwig, Louise Henning, Roger Hick, Virginia Kossack, Donna Mahler, Earl Nightingale, Nancy Ottoson, Keith Pedersen, Marjorie Piffner, John Popp, Margaret Reeve, Irene Reuter, Stephen Roake, Natalie Schleh, Howard Steward, Adele Swanson, Martha Van Steenderen, and Janice Wood.

One glance at all the happy faces was evidence that everyone was having a wonderful time and that the Tinsel Ball would be remembered for some time to come. Congratulations, G.A.A. and Miss Conway.

BISON TOPPLE BRONCHOS TIE FOR LEAD

Hopes for an undefeated season were dissolved Friday evening as the Barrington Bronchos lost to the Bensenville Bison, 57 to 42. As a result of the defeat, Barrington now shares first place in the Northwest Conference with Bensenville. Each team holds a 5 to 1 won and lost record.

From all indications in the first half, it looked as though a close game was in the making. The score at halftime was 23 to 21 in Bensenville's favor. Barrington's usually high scoring attack was stalled throughout the whole game, since Bensenville employed a very effective zone defense.

During the last half the Bison pulled quickly away from the Bronchos and maintained about a 10 point lead. In the last moments of the game this lead was increased to 15.

The brunt of the Bensenville attack was carried by three players--Zielinski, Anderson, and Kellar. Zielinski scored 14 points; Anderson, 15; and Kellar, 13 for a total of 42 of the 57 points scored.

There were no excuses given for this loss. The Bison were easily the best team Barrington has played this season. Bensenville rang the hoop with impossible shots, and the Broncho pressing defense didn't bother the opposition in the least. On the other hand the Bison employed a zone defense that prevented any easy shots.

Barrington takes its hat off to the Bensenville Bison!

BRONCHOS TO PLAY ALUMNI, ZION-BENTON

Tonight (Thursday, December 23) the Bronchos will journey to Zion and engage in a game with the Zion-Benton team. This should be a hard fought contest. The Broncs will be trying to recover from their first defeat of the season, and Zion will be after revenge for the licking they took from Barrington in football.

December 29 will be the date for the Alumni game. This is the contest that will bring back former Broncho stars to see what they can do against the present team. Such former stars as Chick Saveley, Jack Flock, Bud Pomeroy, Ken Jeppsen, Walter Kocher, and Johnny Buell will return to try to beat their old alma mater.

Everyone has to pay to get in, and the money will be used by the athletic department for equipment. There will be two games; the second team alumni will play the frosh-sophs. It promises to be an interesting game, and it's for a good cause.

PONIES BUFFALOED BY BISON 29-25

As indicated by the first quarter score, 5 to 3 in favor of Barrington, the game proceeded at a slow pace Friday night. It was characterized by very tight defensive play by both teams. The Ponies penetrated the Bisons' zone defense for only ten field goals and held their opponents to only seven. However, Barrington was assessed with 20 personal fouls, three boys fouling out. Barrington took 44 shots from the field, but failed to hit a good percentage. When the ball falls short of the rim approximately 17 percent of the time, one can feel reasonably sure that the team isn't hitting that night.

From the side lines everything indicated that Barrington's front line boys had control of the ball the greater part of the time. Had they been able to hit, Bensenville's tight zone defense would have been forced to switch to man-to-man.

Barrington made a great improvement on their free-throw percentage. They sunk 5 out of 6.

Keith Pederson copped scoring honors with 14 points. Anderson of Bensenville made 7 points, all of them free-throws. The scoring for Bensenville was unusual in that they made more points by free-throws than by field goals. No one man made more than two goals.

DISCUSSION CLUBS DEBATE WORLD FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

MONDAY AFFIRMATIVE DEFEATS FRIDAY NEGATIVE

An affirmative debating team from the Monday discussion club met the Friday negative group last Friday in a debate concerning World Federal Government. The verdict, offered by Miss Gorman, who acted as judge, was 13 to 9 in favor of the affirmative.

Lack of time was perhaps the major handicap to both teams, particularly to the negative. A half hour was allotted. The opening talks alone occupied twenty minutes, leaving only a brief period for the rebuttal, which is often the most interesting part of a debate.

The negative's arguments centered around the language barrier that inevitably separates nations, the unwillingness to part with national sovereignty, and the fact that the United Nations has not yet been given a chance to make the peace. The affirmative stressed the need for immediate action, the failure of the U.N., and the dire necessity for a law-making, not a treaty-making, organization.

The affirmative side consisted of Ted Huszagh, Kit Laseh, Barbara Schauble, Carol McCoy, Bill Thomas, and Janet Parmalee. The negative included Jim Frey, Richard Ellerbrake, Martha Fontaine, Dorothy Friedlander, Guy Armanetti, and Vivian Jutzi.

FRIDAY AFFIRMATIVE VERSUS MONDAY GROUP

In Room 107 the negative team of the Monday group downed the Friday affirmative. Despite a valiant effort by Forrest Berg-horn and Nancy Leonard, the negative team of Gale Whitmer, Dunlop Anderson, John Birmingham, Dick Aspinwall, and Giles Mellon walked off with the victory without much trouble. Others on the affirmative side were Sarah Mee, Linden Chiles, Dick Weldon, and Betty Piltz.

Although time did not permit as extensive a period for rebuttal as might have been wished, the debate showed spirit and preparation on the part of most of the members.

MAGAZINE SALES FUND IS DISTRIBUTED

The money received from the Curtis Magazine Campaign for the Barrington junior and senior high schools has been officially distributed to the various clubs and organizations needing financial help.

The benefits of the campaign are already being felt. Those who attended last Wednesday night's performance of the a cappella choir and their performance Thursday morning in assembly were aware of the splendor the stoles added to the occasion, and certainly it will be long before the outfits of the Star Dusters will be forgotten.

The distribution of the funds is as follows:

|---|--------------|
| Junior high basketball shirts | $ 80 |
| Broncho expenses | 90 |
| Student Council for Christmas expenses and National Honor Society | 50 |
| Masque and Wig for stage equipment | 50 |
| Dance Band uniforms | 245 |
| Stoles for a cappella choir | 135 |
| Cheerleaders' outfits | 90 |
| Square Dance Club for music, records, and costumes for boys | 100 |
| Transportation and food for children entertained at the Christmas party | 55 |
| I.E.A. student insurance deficit | 30 |
| Discussion Club | 15 |
| Corral | 20 |
| Records for junior high music appreciation class | 20 |
| Jr. High Dramatics | 20 |
| | 1,000 |

Including the money left over from last year there will be approximately $50 left in the fund as a reserve for emergencies.

LATIN CLUB CELEBRATES CHRISTMAS

The Latin Club held their Christmas program in the band room Friday.

Christmas carols were sung in Latin during the first part of the program. These included "Silens Nox," "O Sanctissima," "Adeste Fideles," and "Tintinnabulum." The group was accompanied by members of the club on various musical instruments. Those participating were Belle Gorman, piano; Edith Haffner, violin; Kit Lasch, viola; Carol McCoy, cello; Donald Miller, clarinet; and Mrs. Baker, flute.

Latin Bingo then followed. This consisted of drawing cards with English words on them from a box. The object was to see if these words matched Latin words on the Bingo card. Emily Kampert was the winner of this game.

The program concluded with the distribution of Christmas gifts which each member had contributed to a grab bag. Jack Schwemm as Santa Claus passed these among the members.

SQUARE DANCERS LEARN NEW DANCES

Had anyone been near the high school last Sunday, December 12, he might have heard the happy and excited conversation of five Square Dance Club members. They had just returned from a short period of instruction in round dancing with Mr. Bossing of Western Springs, Illinois. While there, they learned "The Merry Widow Waltz," "The Glowworm Two Step," "Laces and Graces," "Alice Blue Gown," and "The Far Northland."

The five members were Alyce Tilley, Richard Biek, Joanne Meenan, Audrey Witte, and Dick Puffer. They were so interested in learning more of these round dances that they even considered starting a club.

lars apiece some students who are almost ready to graduate will give the seniors extensive tests, interviews, and advice. If one had this done by someone who had his degree and was in this line of business, it would cost at least thirty dollars.

PERSONALITIES OF THE WEEK

Helene Herriman, the brown-haired, green-eyed senior girl of the week, was born August 3, 1930. Her hobbies are swimming and knitting, and in her high school career she has participated in band, orchestra, the Star Dusters, a cappella, and girls' glee club. When she graduates, she plans to go to the University of Illinois, where she will study art or take a general course. As advice she tells us: "Work hard through high school." When asked about her ideal man, all she would say was, "Horten-th."

One of our athletes is Glenn Wothausen. He was born August 14, 1931, has brown hair and blue eyes, and measures 6' 2".

His activities have included discussion club, square dance club, basketball, football, and baseball. His ambition is to finish the building trades' house. Then, after graduation, he will attend the Chicago Business College to study business administration.

His pet peeve, he states, is "Scotchmen (not you, Mr. Watson)." He said that parenthetical statement had better be included to save misunderstandings.

Glenn's ideal woman is 5' 2" tall, has blue eyes and brown hair. He says his hobby is women.

As an unusual incident he asks, "Black cats and cars don't mix, do they, Lonnie?" His advice to underclassmen is, "Save your shekels!"

Next comes John Franklin Tukey. Don't let that confuse you; it's just Jack, hiding behind his formal title. Big, blond, and blue-eyed, he was born June 20, 1931, and now measures five feet, eleven and one-half inches tall. He has played basketball, football, and baseball. Besides all the time he puts in at athletics, he is now a member of discussion club and has been in camera club and square dance club. His hobbies are playing the piano, (mostly popular pieces), hunting, and hockey.

Upon graduation, he plans to attend college, where he will study either business administration or chemical engineering. His pet peeve is French, and he says we ought to be able to guess who his

ARGYLES, ARGYLES
AND MORE ARGYLES

Fads are a popular trend with girls everywhere. It used to be jeans along with their dads' shirts and ties, and their favorite pair of beat-up loafers, which wouldn't have been complete without a penny stuck proudly in the top. But today the trend has shifted, and knitting seems to be the general topic.

To some people the knit two, pearl two, slip stitch over stitch may seem confusing, but it isn't so hard as it looks. It's really fascinating to do, and when it's all done, one has something to be proud of.

Peggy Reeve made a pair of gay mittens and a matching stocking cap in her "spare" moments. Sue Shepard has knitted quite a few pairs of bright argyle socks. This is really something to be proud of. Joan Gruenewald knitted one sock, and by the time she had finished it she was so disgusted she refused to make the second one. Her first flop turned out too small for the intended foot. Anyone know of a person with a peg leg who is in need of a sock?

After making her brother some mittens, Donna Duerwachter is now attempting a pair of argyle socks too. She got off to a bad start because of a helpful person who gave her the wrong directions.

Helene Herriman, Ellen Kleinsmith, Jo Barnes, Donna Pinkerman, Yvonne Hoggins, Joy Mantor, and many other girls can usually be found knitting at one time or another in hopes of finishing their project before Christmas.

Joy Paulson is still painstakingly working on the pair of argyles she started the first of September. Her motto is, "Knit, rip, knit, knit, rip, rip." Bless this knitting!

Aside from all the trials and tribulations of knitting, the finished product is worth the effort, if you have patience and time to devote to it.

ideal woman is. Asked for his advice, he stated that the only thing he could think of was that we should all work hard, but we wouldn't anyway, so what would be the use?

KAROUSING KID

Well, gang, it looks as if we might have our White Christmas after all. Now that we have snow all around us, everyone seems to be in the holiday mood and going full speed ahead with plans for Christmas.

Sunday morning two B.H.S. teachers were taking full advantage of the snow. They were seen walking down the middle of Main Street slinging snow balls at each other. I won't mention any names, but their initials were Miss Gorman and Miss Conway.

Say, now, B.H.S. has certainly achieved something to be proud of. Everyone should agree that the a cappella and orchestra must be pretty good to be invited to sing at the Civic Opera Building. The kids weren't the only ones that were excited. In the confusion Mr. Thomas stated that Bing Hope and Bob Crosby were going to be on the program too. The best of luck to all of you in the program. We know you'll do a swell job.

The transportation for the girls' bowling classes seems to be a major problem. Some of the girls got a ride back from the Jewel Tea in a laundry truck. By the way, how does it feel to set pins, Joan and Ellen? Hard work??

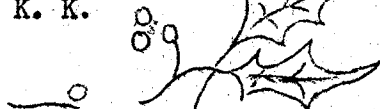

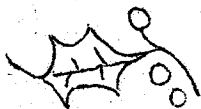

All our old alumni are beginning to return to Barrington for the Christmas vacation. It certainly seems swell to have them back. Only a few more months to go, seniors.

Our Star Dusters made a marvelous show at the "Tinsel Ball" Saturday night. There's no doubt about it. They were "tops," and those maroon coats and white pants are just the thing. It's a pleasure to listen to them.

This one is for all junior English students. Do you suppose that Subordinate Clause is the grandfather of Santa Claus? (groan!)

Well, kids, have a Merry Christmas. I'm sure that after all the numerous packages are opened on Christmas morning everyone can rightfully agree that there actually is a Santa Claus.

See you in '49,
K. K.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

What is your Christmas desire?

Bob Thomas: "All I want are my two front teeth." (Don't we all, Bob?)

Marianne Hartwig: "A tall, dark, handsome man, including muscles and money." (What a dreamer!)

Jack Nightingale: "I want a shirt or something like that."

Glenn Wolthausen: "I want to have Lady Luck on my side, and also two front teeth for Lonnie."

Doris Ann Jahnke: "I don't know; I haven't the slightest idea. Anything will do."

Mildred Hartley: "I want a wig." (Mildred claims she doesn't like her hair.)

Miss Strouss: "I'd like another vacation to New Orleans for the Mardi Gras, with all expenses paid."

"Bumpy" Burke: "Just clothes and money."

Joey Battin: "I want a man who can afford a mink coat."

George Hansen: "I need some freckle-remover." (You aren't alone in that, George!)

Mary Jane Malone: "Gee, but I'd like thirty words a minute in typing."

John Sproul: "I think I'd like a new case for my camera."

Ray Wendt: "Oh--a, a motorbike, maybe."

Nancy Armstrong: "I'd like basketball for the sixth period girls' gym class."

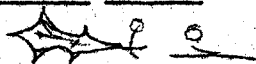

Ellen Schleh: "I want a new high school with an electric eye to open the door."

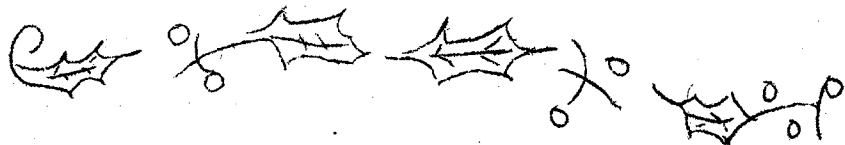

Chuck Smith: "All I want for Christmas is the record, 'You Call Everybody Darlin'. Don't you?"

Dick Rippy: "I want a car I can speed with in the snow and slide without wrecking it."

Dick Weldon---"I want some warm weather, y'all."

Unidentified Female---"An early date to the Prom."
