New Zealander Travels North

"Giddy!" Don't be surprised if you're greeted in the hall with this cheery word spoken by a tall, fair-haired boy with an impish grin. He's Barrington's friendly A.F.S. student from New Zealand, Geoffrey Pickles.

Geoff has been getting settled for the past few weeks with his American family, the Rices, and already he and Art are jolly good friends.

Geoff is an extremely witty and clever boy, but he also has his serious side. He is a good student and works hard. His future includes plans for college and a possible career as an architect. As a senior at BHS, he is taking U. S. History, Contemporary Civilization, American Literature, physics, and art. In New Zealand he attended one of its outstanding public schools which has an enrollment of about 900 boys. Yes, that's right! All boys! However, he seems to be adjusting jolly well indeed to co-education! In fact, Geoff is getting along "rawther" well with everyone and everything. Oh, yes! There is one minor difficulty. He complains that when you get out of your chair in the auditorium, "that slippery old seat stands up with you." (He hasn't complained about the cafeteria chairs yet! Since he's an avid fan of the good old American hamburger, maybe he's too busy eating to notice the pink monsters.)

Geoff is also quite a sports fan. In New Zealand, his school offers rugby, cricket, fencing, boxing and softball. ("Softball is for bunkers," he says in a tone which implies it isn't good to be a bunker!) Recently, Geoff went go-carting for the first time. He had a wild time according to Art!

As far as social life is concerned, Geoff says there are very few differences. "When we take our women out for the evening, we mean it. We stay out much later than you do here."

Geoff has other hobbies, too, besides going out for the evening. He likes antique cars and architecture and enjoys mountain climbing. (Sorry, Geoff, this is prairie country, but this school does have plenty of stairs to climb!)

There's a lot more to know about Geoff. Why not get acquainted with him? He's our kind of people and an all-around regular guy—oops, regular chap!

Juniors Take PSAT

Hey, junior! Going to college? You may want experience in taking the tests necessary for college entrance. The PSAT is a test designed for juniors in order to give them this experience, and so that a junior and his counsellors can see his potential in college work. The PSAT will be given on Tuesday morning, October 10. Sign up in the counsellor's office.

The test scores are in two categories—verbal and math. These scores will not be sent to colleges.

The ACT (American College Testing Program), which is used by all Illinois State schools and various others, will be given at 8:00 on November 10 at a cost of $4 in Elgin Community

Get Out and Sell Magazines

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY, $13,500 of it. That's what AFS needs to bring four more foreign students to BHS.

"You can do your part by selling magazines," said Miss Werhan, sponsor of AFS.

AFS will kick off the campaign with an assembly October 3rd at which Parker Jones will speak on his experiences in Turkey and our four exchange students will be introduced. The selling period is from October 4 to October 15.

The quota this year will be $10 per student. But this is not without rewards for you. Each student who fulfills his quota will receive a prize.

The class with the highest sales each day receives a box of candy. The best class at the end of the campaign will go on a trip to Chicago, during school.

Educator's Cooky Duster Clipped

"It seems that the Dutch Elm disease finally hit my moustache!"

For 18 years a moustache has adorned the face of Mr. Russo, head of the Adult Education Program. In a fit of passion several weeks ago, he shaved it off.

"I have had a moustache ever since the war. I suddenly realized that I didn't know what I looked like underneath." Instead of being afraid of what he might reveal, he removed it, much to the dismay of his wife who has never seen him without it.

"Surprisingly, only one out of twenty close friends has noticed the change. I guess that people aren't as aware of one's appearance as much as one might think."

Partially due to wifeish pressure and a chilly upper lip, Mr. Russo plans to grow another moustache. He swears he can accomplish this in five days, so come quickly to see the change in the Adult Education Program!

Homecoming Theme "Autumn Carnival" Projects Under Way

The theme "Autumn Carnival" will highlight the BHS Homecoming Week, October, 15-20. Chosen from among 50 suggestions by Student Council's Homecoming Committee, the winning theme must be closely associated with float slogans and decorations for the dance. It was submitted by Greg Armstrong and Holly Yates who received the $5.00 prize.

Committees and chairmen are formed and functioning. Bob Schwemm and Vic Dahir are overchairmen. John Block is in charge of general week activities. The Bonfire, which will be held on October 19 and immediately followed by a soc hop on the tennis courts, is under the direction of Greg Armstrong.

Linda Ernst, Nancy Wisegarver, and John Hallberg are now making plans for the Homecoming Parade on Saturday morning before the big game.

Susie Cruttenden has obtained the services of the Ralph Bergen Band from Chicago to perform at the Dance Saturday night from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Barb Putta and Carol Gerhardt will head the group in charge of decorating the auxiliary gym. Dayanne Schurecht is chairman of the ticket committee.

General admission will be charged. Activity tickets will not be usable as had been originally planned. Senior Class President Denny Dunn heads the clean-up committee.

"Active student participation is a must of this year's Homecoming to be a success," report chairmen Bob Schwemm and Vic Dahir. "So get out and work."

Brigadoon Cast To Begin Soon

Singing roles have been cast and production will soon be underway for the joint Masque and Wig—Senior A Cappella operetta, Brigadoon.

The operetta, which is based on Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe's play concerning a seventeenth century village which awakens only once every hundred years, completely untouched by time, is to be presented November 9 and 10 in the high school auditorium.

Ted Manzke, Sally Sinclair, Janet Smith and Bob Ritzenthaler were chosen for the major singing roles by Mr. Johnson and Mr. Henkel after tryouts last week.

Mr. Johnson, head of dramatics, and Mr. Henkel, head of the vocal music department, will direct the acting and vocal roles respectively. Miss Van Ness is in charge of the dancing, and Mr. White, sponsor of Stage Crew, will supervise the stage settings.

Musical accompaniment will be provided by the BHS orchestra under the direction of Mr. Eugene Adams.

Tryouts for the remaining roles are being held this week, and the results will be announced at least by next week.

Bible School Day Features Sol Estes

"Billie Sol Estes, elder of the church in Pecos, Texas, nationally known businessman, will teach the auditorium class on Bible School Day, Sept. 24 (1961)."

The preceding is an excerpt from the Sept. 22, 1961, issue of the Westerner World. The Westerner World is the Lubbock High School, Lubbock, Texas, newspaper and was voted an All American paper by the National Scholastic Press Association. The quote is from an advertisement for a Pecos church and appeared shortly before his alleged activities were uncovered.

It continued: "Sol Estes is a noted financier and has in the past been named one of the ten outstanding businessmen in the nation. A dedicated Christian, he will inspire you as he speaks on 'Vision'."

The ad was discovered by BRONCHO news co-editor, Leslie Aranow, at the recent ISHPA convention at the University of Illinois.

Year Wait Brings Results

This year, all students living west of town will easily be able to participate in after-school activities.

The administration has provided a bus to take these students home at 6:15. It travels along West County Line Road, then on to Route 25 and stops at Sunny Hill and Hickory Hill schools. It may make stops along its route.

The service, which began three weeks ago, has an average student attendance of 40 each night.

That the bus does not cost taxpayers or students extra is a welcome fact. This is managed by holding a bus from the regular after school routes for this job.

Although the late-bus has been discussed for the past year, it is to the credit of the administration that something has finally been done. Ideally, so many students should be taking advantage of this program that another bus will soon be required.

Broncho Staff Gets Around

"No Exit Trio" Makes Debut

Three cheers for the "No Exit Trio"! They certainly astounded us all with their professional renditions at the soc hop Saturday night. In case you couldn't recognize them behind the footlights, there was Greg Armstrong at the banjo, with Doug Hudson and Rusty Anderson playing twelvestring guitars.

They delighted us with songs we know like, "If I Had a Hammer," and their lesser known tunes and solos. This very capable trio would be willing to play at any club activity if given a few week's notice. Call one of them for "terms".

* * * * *

Thanks also to Carol Tolpo who lent a true beatnick atmosphere to the hop. She read two original poems between the trio's acts.

Many of us may recognize her as the daughter of Mr. Carl Tolpo, the famous artist who did the statue of Lincoln for the school. She also is talented in the fields of art, dance and music.

These four gifted students share their interest in music and the desire to help their school. They were incredibly willing to spend any amount of time to make our soc hop successful. Thanks again!

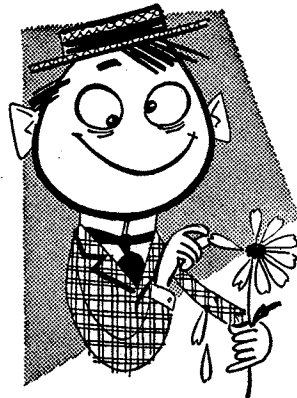

* * * * *

Just a note about the ISHSPA convention that five editors of BRONCHO and our advisor, Miss Kennedy, attended September 14 and 15.

Highlights of the weekend were meeting at the school at 5:30 in the morning—waiting until six for late Leslie Aranow, news editor, who slept through her alarm—arriving in Champaign an hour ahead of schedule because of John Anderson's, business manager, expert planning—and watching Jody Cordill, jack-of-all-trades, knit a sweater through all 36 hours.

Our night life was quite unusual, I think it was Bruce Nygren's, news editor, suggestion that after swimming in the motel pool, we'd see a movie at the local theater. The theater entrance was swarming with green bugs, a few of which we brought home with us. The biggest splash of the whole weekend was John's new red bathing suit. (Between activities we attended conference meetings at the University of Illinois.)

YOUR EDITORIAL STAFF

Letter to Editor

The school spirit of Barrington High School has improved so much during the past year that I feel that some mention of it is due at this time. This newspaper, I'm sure, is at least partially responsible for the much-improved atmosphere in our high school. The Pep Club should also be given its share of credit for this turn-about in the attitude of the student body.

The purpose of this letter is to offer a suggestion to help us maintain this healthy atmosphere. First of all, I firmly believe that there is a lot of good in Barrington High School. I also believe that there is some good in every student in our school. The suggestion is simply this: If your newspaper makes it a policy to search out these good things instead of noticing and publicizing the bad things, I feel that our situation will continue to improve. People like to hear nice things about themselves. The more nice things you can notice and report, the nicer our students will become. I would much rather read about a senior boy who opened a door for a teacher or a fellow student loaded down with books than about a senior boy who pushed an underclassman in the hall.

If those people who are anticipating writing letters to the editor will begin to be on the alert for good things that are taking place in our high school, I believe that we will all be surprised at the truly fine student body we have if only someone will take the time to notice.

Teachers Enjoy France, Germany

While the German room 332 was quiet and still this summer, its most frequent occupant, Miss Baer, wasn't. She spent her summer at the Wurthemburg Academy in Germany as one of 78 German teachers sent by Stanford University to study.

Baer Behind the Wall

She left June 18, her first stop being Berlin, where she took that little side trip into Communist East Germany. Included on her sightseeing agenda was a visit to Heidelberg where she spent as much time as possible with her family. A weekend in Austria as the guest of Count Meran and a visit at the seat of the Bundas Republic were also high points.

Miss Baer mentioned also that she saw My Fair Lady in Berlin and thought they did a better job of it than did the American theater.

Miss Solon in France

Miss Solon went to France on the National Defense Education Act program sponsored by Emory University. The 80 participants, including Miss Solon, spent the first seven weeks studying at the University of Besancon. The remaining two weeks were spent roaming over all of France doing everything from seeing a tiny out-of-the-way parish to visiting a rathskeller for dinner. During the two brief days in Switzerland, they took a breathtaking ride up into the Alps in a cable car. Most of the sightseeing was crammed into the few hours after classes and on the weekends. They returned by Air France August 21.

Thanks to these teachers, there will be many students who will gratefully have a relief from vocabulary and grammar drills as they listen to detailed accounts of this past summer!

Who's That Art Teacher?

Don't be surprised if you suddenly notice a peculiar change in the appearance of our art teacher. Last year's exchange teacher, Mr. Pepperill, is back in England, and our own Mr. Jones is home again at BHS. After a year at "Pep's" school in London, Mr. Jones has formed some definite opinions concerning American and English education.

In England, he taught at a grammar school composed of the upper 15 per cent of students ranging in age from 11 to 18. The teachers wear long black robes and the pupils dress in uniforms of blazers, ties, white shirts, and trousers. Even the girls are required to wear ties and dark skirts.

Punishment for misbehavior is quite severe. A student is either put in silent detention (facing the wall and sitting absolutely still for a long period of time), or hit sharply with a cane. Although it seems brutal to us, the students learned quite effectively to respect authority.

"I usually found myself talking to the students instead of with them," Mr. Jones comments, "since they don't converse freely with teachers. The relationship between them is much more aloof than in America."

During his stay, Mr. Jones lived in Mr. Pepperill's house. He comments that it was beautifully decorated, and that the only trouble with it was the lack of central heating. The temperature was seldom more than five degrees above the outside temperature. Blimey, in winter that's chilly!

Asked what the one thing was he liked most about England, Mr. Jones quickly replies, "eighteen holes of golf for 40 cents!" Then he adds, "Seriously, I've certainly enjoyed this opportunity to travel and live as others live. I even had a chance to see places like Rome, Norway, and East Berlin."

With a year of wonderful memories and experiences behind him, truly, there'll always be an England . . . at least for Mr. Jones!

BHS Activities Organize for Action!

M&W Inductions To Be Held Tonight

Fifty sophomores, juniors, and seniors are being inducted today into Masque and Wig, BHS' dramatic organization. Formal ceremonies will take place this evening at 7:00 in the auditorium. As part of the induction, all new members attended school today in their "Sunday best".

To join Masque and Wig, each inductee took part in one of two activities. Each either executed a major project such as a scale model of the BHS auditorium or sewing a complete costume, or prepared a minor project as a skit to be presented to fellow Masque and Wig members at tonight's ceremonies.

Regular meetings of Masque and Wig will be held every Tuesday after school. Presiding at these meetings will be president, Ted Manzke and vice-president, Abby Spreyer. Other officers are Anne Boyd, treasurer; Paula Gross, secretary; corresponding secretary, Nancy Giesen; and assistant treasurer, Gloria Michelotti.

Pat Baumgartner is business manager. Sue Church heads this year's scenic arts department. Nancy Giesen and Mari McAuliffe are properties committee co-chairmen.

Jackie Novak and Judy Weaver are in charge of fine arts. Abby Spreyer and Gloria Michelotti are publicity co-chairmen.

Brian Allen, Lynn Barile, and Bob Busse are stage manager, make-up chairman, and top lighting man, respectively. Jeff Irwin heads the sound department. Costumes are under the direction of Marge Gillilan.

Highlighting the 1962-63 theatrical season will be the operetta, "Brigadoon," the Junior-Senior class play, and the children's play in the spring.

Frosh Dramatics

Freshman Dramatics will elect three governing board members at the Tuesday, October 2, meeting.

The organization meeting, Sept. 18, drew a turnout of 40 students. Discussion of the year's coming events was the major topic.

Miss Brunsting, sponsor, announced that she was very pleased with the attendance but hopes still more freshmen will join.

Allo Etudiants!

The French Club held its first officers' meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 18.

The officers, elected last year, are Janet Wagner, president; Beth Hawley, secretary; and Jill Daubenspeck, treasurer.

The regular meeting will take place on the first Tuesday of every month. The first meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 2, and is open to all members.

To join, one must have taken one year of French or be taking it now. Dues are 50 cents per semester.

Projects being planned for this year include a travel-adventure film showing and the annual French banquet.

GAA Runs As Independent Club

G.A.A. has begun the year with a major change in its policy. It has decided to run as an independent association and not to belong to the state G.A.A.

Tennis and softball activities are under way now and there will be many other exciting sports to join later in the year. These include bowling, basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, and badminton. There will be an entry fee of 20 cents for each sport. Every girl who attends a certain activity five out of six times will receive a participation award in the spring.

This year's officers are as follows: president, Cheryl Comes; vice-president, Candy Lorenz; point chairman, Marty Leeson; secretary, Carol Schick; treasurer, Pam Richardson.

"Surely every girl can find at least one activity in which she would like to participate," says Cheryl Comes. "Let's make this year the best G.A.A. has ever had."

PSAT Continued College. Get application blanks before October 31. Seniors who are going to apply to the Illinois State Scholarship Commission must take the ACT on November 10.

This year there will be no fall College Night, but there will be one early in the spring.

"During the year, there will be representatives from several colleges who will be available for conferences by any BHS student interested in the College," added Miss McKinney.

The first representative will be from Bucknell University on October 2 at 2:30. Bucknell is located in Lewisburg, Pa. It has an enrollment of about 2400 students, and is a liberal arts school.

Another representative will be from Iowa Wesleyan on Friday, October 5, at 9:00 a.m. Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, is the home of the college. The enrollment is about 700 students. Talk to your counsellor if you are interested in these two colleges.

Watch the Counsellor's bulletin board for the calendar of the College visitors.

Spanish Club

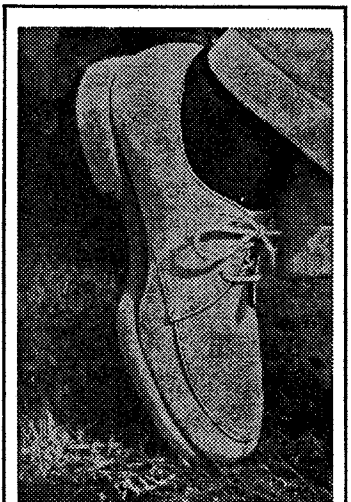

Buenos Dias Classes De Espanol! The first meeting of the Spanish Club was held Tuesday, Sept. 18 in Mrs. Cripp's room which was filled with every available desk taken.

It was decided that the meetings should be held on the first and third Mondays of each month. The date of the next meeting will be announced over the P.A. and anyone wishing to come is welcome. The requirements are that a member must have completed a year of Spanish or be taking Spanish now. Students who are not taking Spanish this year but who have already had a year, are invited to join in order to "keep in practice".

Dues are one dollar a year and can be paid either to the treasurer or to Mrs. Cripps.

Officers presiding over the club are Nylan Petterson, president; Doug Hudson, vice-president; Pokey Dugan, secretary; John Block, treasurer; and Lori Armstrong, historian.

The first meeting of Spanish Club was merely introductory, mainly to get old and new members acquainted with the procedures. "As yet the club's plans are rather sketchy, although there will be a Homecoming float, a Christmas party, complete with pinata, a dinner during the spring and bake sales after school," reports Nylan Petterson.

Bronchos Down Woodstock for 2nd Win

Harriers Gain First Win Sutherland Paces Field

by Dick Shatwell

After failing to take top honors in the first two meets, the Broncho harriers defeated the Woodstock Blue Streaks last Thursday while running in the presence of the largest group of Barrington spectators ever to attend a meet.

As usual Jerry Sutherland led the pack almost from the start. De French was in hot pursuit finishing easily in second. John Ariola and John Nielsen took fourth and fifth respectively. Stan Williams placed eighth and Bob Oldenberg finished in tenth.

The final score was Bronchos 20 and Woodstock 37.

In cross country scoring, one point goes to first place, two to second and so forth. A team may enter as many runners as it wishes but only the top five go toward the team's total. The other entrants are called "pushers" and their purpose is to finish within the top ten so as to place the opponents' runners out of the top ten.

In the Woodstock meet Bob Oldenberg finished tenth forcing the fifth man of the Streaks to take eleven points. Lowest score wins.

In our first competition, the Bronchos lost to Niles by a score of 34 to 23. Jerry Sutherland managed a second for the Broncho cause.

In the large Maine West meet, Captain Sutherland led all 54 competitors over the finish line. De French came in fifth. Also in the top 20 finishers were John Ariola, 11, John Nielsen, 13, Bob Oldenberg, 15, Stan Williams, 16, and Chuck DeLoach, 17.

Coach Jones was very pleased with last Thursday's performance. He feels the team is gaining the confidence and experience they lacked two weeks ago, and if they continue to mature, Palatine will have some competition in the conference.

Mr. Jones also said, "The crowd was hardly out of control but it was the biggest and best there's been. It helped the boys considerably."

This afternoon the harriers put their talents against the Pirates of Palatine at Palatine.

Barrington's Frosh-Soph Cross Country squad appears to be coming of age. In their first conference meet of the season, the harriers came within three points of stopping Woodstock, 29-26. Though they had been impressive in their victory over Niles East, the Ponies had been soundly defeated in a previous meet with Maine West. Although their ranks had been depleted by having two of their members running for the varsity team, they fought Woodstock all the way.

The Ponies' Pete Noftz was Barrington's only finisher in the top three as he battled the Streak's Pickos for first place during the last half mile. Noftz captured second place, while fourth and fifth were taken by the Ponies' Webster and Murphy, respectively. Timon and Sutherland also scored for our harriers.

Coach Win Jones was especially pleased by the Ponies' showing.

"They're going to get a lot better," he promised, and there seems to be every indication that he is right.

Next Thursday, the Frosh-Soph will clash with Libertyville in a home meet after their participation in the Lake County Meet on Tuesday. The cross country teams were very pleased with the exceptional turnout at their last meet, and they hope as much school spirit will be shown when they take on the Wildcats of Libertyville.

Stamm, Showers Lead Bronchos To Victory Over Blue Streaks

by Steve Laughton

In less than three minutes of the first quarter, the Broncho defense crushed the Blue Streak's hopes of an early scoring chance with a 56 yard run for a touchdown by Jim Condill on a pass interception. On the Streak's next offensive drive Steve Laughton again stymied Woodstock's hopes with an interception that he ran back 35 yards to the thirteen yard line. This set up the first of Gary Showers' two brilliant TD runs. The third TD came on a run by Russ Stamm from 12 yards out.

Showers Runs Two

Gary Showers' second run for the money came from five yards out after wonderfully executed downfield blocking by Gary Fink, Bob Suwalski and Bob Santoro.

Stamm made his second of three tallies on a fake by junior quarterback Dave Fredericks who tossed for the six pointer.

Woodstock scored twice but both extra points were blocked by Santoro and Bob Hagemann.

The last score by Stamm came after two successful scores were called back by penalties and it was a screen pass to the right by Showers that finally was good for the score.

The only pass caught by an end in last Saturday's thriller was on a half back running pass from Showers to Laughton.

The Broncs will try to make it three in a row tomorrow night at Palatine as they face a struggling Pirate team

Bronchos Gain 382 Yards
Statistic-wise the Bronchos were even farther away than the actual game. The Bronchos gained 124 yards via the airways and 256 yards on the ground for a total offense of 382 yards.

Woodstock gathered 46 yards in the air and 28 yards on the ground for a 74 yard total. The Bronchos gained over 460 yards while downing their opponents from Racine Horlick 32 to 26 two weekends ago.

But, the Bronchos fumbled five times and recovered three while the Blue Streaks fumbled only once and didn't recover it. The Bronchos were penalized 10 times, consequently losing 120 yards. Woodstock erred six times for 60 yards.

The Blue Streaks averaged 43 yards a kickoff, the Bronchos, 31 yards. The Broncho kickoff return team garnered 25 yards to the visitor's 141.

Score by quarters:

Barrington	19	6	7	6	38
Woodstock	0	0	6	6	12

Colts Win, 21-6

The Colts, paced by fullback Jim Whitaker, humbled Woodstock's Little Streaks 21-6.

Whitaker, who also tallied the lone TD in the Col's first meeting with Glenbrook South, ran his total to three when he racked up two more against Woodstock.

Barrington was on its way to another score when they fumbled and Woodstock recovered. The Little Streaks then broke into the scoring column with their first touchdown. They didn't make the extra point.

In the fourth quarter the Colts got their third and final touchdown. Ron Hopkins sprinted 40 yards to Woodstock's 30 yard line. Quarterback Duane Muehler then passed to Hopkins for the TD and the game's final score.

In the first game of the season, the Colts defeated Glenbrook South 7-0. The B team also beat Glenbrook by a score of 33-0.

HOOF BEATS

by Bill Nielsen

Looking ahead we certainly can see that the Bronchos outlook is favorable this football season. In the past 12 years Coach Frederick has brought the Bronchos to 74 victories with 20 losses. I'm sure that all of us can be proud of this record.

We walked out to the football field to get some comments from team members. Ernie Coe exploded with, "Eight in a row, Bingo!" This reflects the spirit of the whole team. These boys have worked hard and are sure to go "all the way".

Mark Landwer added, "We'll step on 'em." Although Palatine, who we play this weekend, is a good team, we're much better. And Mark's prediction will come true.

But there is another side of the story, and it concerns YOU. We of the student body must be on hand at all times to keep up our team spirit and morale. We must cheer them on to victory.

We certainly have a team to be proud of. As expressed by Coach Frederick, "Our team is working hard to represent you".

To sum up, we can be our team's spirit and morale is high, but is our school's?

In 1942 this song was sung triumphantly at games and softly at ceremonies by every student in Barrington High. It was the most popular school song. Today it is unknown. Here are the words; the cheerleaders will teach you the tune.

And when those Buckin' Bronchos of Barrington

Kick their heels and start to play,
Oh it's a tough old fight for anyone
Or anything that's in their way.
'Cause they're a galloping bunch of mavericks

And they suit us to a "T".
You can take the whole menagerie
But it's the Buckin' Broncs for me.
* * * *

So then we'll sing a song for Barrington
For it's there our loyalty is ever—
EVER!

Right behind those Buckin' Bronchos
And our foes will down us never—
NEVER!!

Raise a cheer for Barrington
For it's there I'll always be!
For if the Bronchos live in Barrington
Then it's the Buckin' Broncs for me!
