Electrolysis Is The Answer

Anyone who is interested in good grooming and an attractive appearance is likely to read about electrolysis. It is the only method which will remove your unwanted hair permanently, and it is not a new technique. Successful results have been reported and discussed favorably in the medical journals since 1875, more than a century ago.

Nowadays thousands of women make appointments every week with their electrologists, but very few openly tell their friends or relatives about the positive results. Most people are too embarrassed to mention facial or body hairs, and so the facts about permanent removal must often be learned from responsible beauty editors or medical columnists.

Fortunately, there is a skilled electrologist at Clear Reflections in the Barrington Commons who can remove those telltale hairs quickly and conveniently in the privacy of a professional office.

Now past its 100th anniversary, electrolysis is a boon to mankind which goes on making converts every day. The reason is obvious—success and permanence make an unbeatable combination.

Take away those unwanted hairs and what you have left is confidence in your own charm and attractive appearance. Phone Clear Reflections at 381-9020 for your appointment.

Clear Reflections has provided 18 years of service at the same location.

October, 1994

Dear Reader,

October marks a very important milestone in the history of Barrington Lifestyles Magazine. It is the 10th Anniversary of its existence! And those years have, indeed, sped by.

It has always been a pleasure to present Barrington Lifestyles each month. There have been hectic deadlines, last minute changes and the usual anxieties that "go with the territory" of publishing. But it has always been exciting to present each issue to you. Your kind notes, letters and feedback have meant much to us. We thank you for your enthusiasm and loyalty.

A very special thank you goes out to our advertisers. Without them we simply could not bring Lifestyles to you each month. They have been beautiful to work with. It is fun to see them each month, or at least "telecommunicate", in some instances.

Let us continue to hear from all of you. So many of you have now become our friends. And that is a wonderful bonus, indeed!

We look forward to the next ten years. Let us grow together. Until next time, may all your thoughts be sunny,

With warm regards,

Glenn McMonigal

Beautiful Dreams Becoming Realities

by Glenne McMonigal

Theresa and her fellow Japanese artists have recently opened their own studio in Kumamoto and she has had two exhibitions in a Kumamoto City gallery. She plans to participate in an international exhibition in Tokyo this month with more exhibitions to follow. Behind Ms. Mura is a washi fan (of handmade paper), one of her designs.

Many of us have dreams to fulfill. Many of these dreams will never be realized. A courageous few persevere and are determined to make that dream a reality. Theresa Mura is one such person.

Theresa, daughter of Romeo and Catherine Mura of Lake Barrington and a 1986 graduate of Barrington High School, now lives in Kumamoto, Japan and has for the past 2½ years.

Ms. Mura has begun her third year as a professor at I.E.C. University in Yatsushiro, Japan where she teaches a variety of different subjects including Eastern and Western cultures to high level English speaking Japanese students. She also offers private lessons in conversational English.

In addition to learning and appreciating the Japanese culture, Theresa is there to study Nihon-ga (Traditional Japanese painting), Shodo (Japanese calligraphy), Yaki-mono (Japanese pottery) and Ikebana (Japanese floral arranging).

Theresa explains that the Japanese style of painting is done on paper (torinoshi) not canvas. The paper is treated with dosa (a glue substance) which keeps the pigments from soaking in the paper. The results are very vibrant colors! You then outline the image in sumi ink. The colors, or pigments, are granular form—with sand to rock consistencies. The larger rocks are ground.

Friends Of The Sparrow To Meet "At The Club"

Barrington-based Friends of the Sparrow and Jay Gatsby, announce a gala evening "At The Club", on Saturday, November 12, at the Biltmore Country Club in Barrington. Dinner, dancing, auction of donated items and the ambiance of the Gatsby era to be included!

All proceeds will benefit Home of the Sparrow, a facility located in McHenry, IL which provides transitional housing and support services to homeless women and their children.

Event committee members: Co-Chairs—

Kristy Fischer and Michelle Gillett; Decorations—Jeani Allaway, Jody DeLaChapelle and Linda Sheppard; Music—Margie Blomquist; Auction—Karen Rossi; Food—Polly Grafton and Mary Neal; Invitations—Kate Lewis; Underwriting—Marilyn Patrick and Micki Chapin; Publicity—Pat Pulsifer and Carol Edmond; Mailing—Connie Blomquist; Reservations—Sandra Barker.

Reservations are being accepted at $90.00 each. For further information, please contact Michelle Gillett, 526-8123.

Niva (glue) and hot water are then added. This newly created material will have the same consistency as water colors or acrylic, but doesn't look like either and will range from transparent to thick.

Theresa and her fellow Japanese artists have recently opened their own studio in downtown Kumamoto. She has had two exhibitions of her Nihon-ga paintings at the trendy shopping and art gallery district of Kumamoto City. This month she plans to participate in an international exhibition in Tokyo. In November she will have her third exhibition in Kumamoto with two more exhibitions planned for June and September 1995.

In Kumamoto Ms. Mura plans to open a branch office of the Japan International Foreign Artists Club (J.I.A.C.) based in Tokyo. The purpose of the J.I.A.C. is to develop and improve their art through the exhibition of their work, to promote mutual understanding and cooperation between countries, and to contribute to the prosperity of humankind and the achievement of world peace.

In addition to overcoming the communication differences and cultural differences, which according to Theresa is a daily challenge, she has indeed accomplished much.

Her travels have also taken her to Hong Kong, Thailand, Korea and Guam.

What are her plans for the future? She will pursue graphic design and teaching Japanese style painting—and perhaps open a gallery in the not-too-far-distant future. For this young woman it is a given she will make this dream a reality.

You may contact Theresa by calling 381-5745.

Gary S. Churchill, M.D. Achieves National Accreditation

Gary S. Churchill, M.D. and staff are proud to announce they have been awarded the certificate of accreditation by the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care, Inc. (AAAHC). This award means that our office and surgical facility have met nationally recognized standards for quality health care set by the Chicago-based accrediting organization.

Our patients are the ultimate benefactors from our participation in the accreditation program.

In order to achieve accreditation, our office underwent an extensive on-site survey of its facilities and services. The survey team, composed of physicians and health administrators, evaluated all aspects of patient care.

Not all ambulatory health care organizations seek accreditation and not all who undergo an on-site survey receive favorable decisions. In fact, our office is the only private plastic surgery facility accredited by the AAAHC in the entire Chicago area. In a letter to Gary S. Churchill, M.D., the AAAHC President said, "The dedication and effort necessary to achieve accreditation is substantial. Gary S. Churchill, M.D. is to be commended for this accomplishment."

The AAAHC conducts its accreditation program on a national basis and has accredited more than 440 ambulatory health organizations including single and multi-specialty group practices, ambulatory and office-based surgery centers, college and university health services, health maintenance organizations and other managed care systems, dental group practices, community health centers, and occupational health centers.

AAAHC is a private, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization. It receives professional guidance and financial support from the American Academy of Cosmetic Surgery, American Academy of Dental Group Practice, American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons, American College Health Association, American College of Occupational & Environmental Medicine, American Society of Dermatologic Surgery, American Society of Outpatient Surgeons, Association of Freestanding Radiation Oncology Centers, Federated Ambulatory Surgery Association, Medical Group Management Association, National Association of Community Health Centers, and the Outpatient Ophthalmic Surgery Society.

Gary S. Churchill has been practicing Facial Plastic Surgery for 5 years in Barrington, Illinois. Our office staff consists of Shawna Lewis, Office Manager; Catherine Zedan, Patient Liaison; Connie Andres, Surgical Technician and Glenna Parmar, LPN. If you would like more information about accreditation and what it means, you can call our office at (708) 304-1000 or the AAAHC at (708) 676-9610.

What's Up At Lasting Impression Hair Design, Ltd.?

At Lasting Impression Hair Design, Ltd. we are continually moving toward our vision to progress into the future and create total quality service for our clients.

In an effort to satisfy our clients desires, we are currently performing these services:

Stress Relieving Treatments, a relaxing invigorating "back rub for your head." Once you've experienced it you'll keep coming back!

One to One Make-up Class on Application where you will learn new application techniques, new color choices or just basically what makes you look and feel great.

Hawaiian Manicures where hands are dipped in a soothing warm bath of paraffin. The heat causes the pores of the skin to open and allows moisturizers to penetrate into the skin more readily like a "mini sauna" for your hands. "

Facial Waxing to keep brows neat and rid of unwanted hair.

These are some of the many services we perform daily. Most of the staff has enjoyed these treatments and believe you would too.

As we are always looking for ways to improve our total quality services, we have made some great changes in our staff.

Debbie Seibert, with us for the past 4 years, has served you in many areas and is now our talent in nail care, skin care and make-up application. Debbie constantly works to keep up with current trends in application and education on products which will make her motivated and committed to her profession.

How You Can Make A Difference

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. It is estimated that this year alone 182,000 women will be diagnosed with breast cancer. Further, 46,000 women will die from it.

The National Breast Cancer Coalition (NBCC), a grassroots advocacy effort, will be gathering 2.6 million signatures (one name for each woman living today in this country with breast cancer. These signatures will be taken to the White House this month demanding that breast cancer become a national priority, that breast cancer be declared a national health emergency and that President Clinton call for a comprehensive strategy to end this epidemic.

In 1991 a similar effort was made. Consequently the breast cancer research budget nearly tripled.

YOU can make a difference! Write a personal letter to President Clinton. Call the Coalition Hotline at 1-800-854-4747 and send a mailgram addressed to the White House. The $6.75 cost will be billed to the sender's telephone.

For more information, write the Coalition at P.O. Box 66373, Washington, D.C. 20035 or call the Coalition voice mail, 202-296-7477.

Minneapolis In Miniature

What to do, where to eat, how to shop in Minnesota's largest city? The Mall of America is still going strong—the parking garages are brimming with cars every weekend. But downtown offers dazzling indoor malls like Gaviidae Commons (Saks, Neiman Marcus, and 60 other unique shops) connected by skyways which are tourist attractions in themselves. You can walk for miles without going outside, a blessing during extreme weather. Most of the city's best restaurants are also located in the malls. For example, Goodfellow's (612 332-4800), an attractive eatery offering regional American cuisine, calls the Nicollet Mall home. Azur (612 342-2500), with its French Mediterranean menu, is in nearby Gaviidae Commons. Be sure to visit the new Frank Gehry-designed Frederick R. Weisman Art Museum at the University of Minnesota—a work of art housing works of art—as well as the Walker Art Center/Sculpture Garden. For more ideas and a visitors guide, contact the Greater Minneapolis Convention & Visitors Center, and ask for its Visitor Value discount card. Write them at: 4000 Multifoods Tower, 33 S. South St, Minneapolis, Mn. 55402.

Best Beds

Which is the best hotel chain in the U.S.? A major private consumer agency that publishes a widely-read magazine did an exhaustive survey recently and determined that the Ritz Carlton chain was number one. Survey respondents were asked to rate cleanliness, check in procedures, room service, and other basic criteria.

Frequent Flyer Miles For Paying Taxes?

The answer may be "yes" if a tax bill passed by the House of Representatives becomes law, according to a report in USA Today. The new measure would let self-employed people pay their estimated quarterly taxes by credit card, allowing the use of frequent flyer affiliated cards. Someone earning $70,000 a year would earn enough mileage for a free round trip. Whether the IRS will agree to pay the credit card companies their normal commission, typically in the 1.5 to 3.5 percent range, remains to be seen.

Rental Car Looking Old?

If you're used to shiny, brand-new rental cars, get used to something different. According to the president of one company, you'll be seeing odometers hit 25,000 or even 30,000 miles before cars get replaced with newer models. The reason: the Big Three automakers, who own most of the U.S. rental industry, are selling everything they can produce, drying up the supply for the rental market. When and if retail sales are slow, we'll see newer cars on the rental lots.

Best Spa?

Need to relax or lose weight? The La Costa Spa in Carlsbad, Calif, is a good place to start. Executive Chef Josef Ladeger serves what is arguably the best low-fat cuisine in the country, no doubt one reason La Costa was voted best spa in the United States by readers of the Robb Report. Face Up For Fall

Now is the time to change your skin care program, to get rid of sun damage and clogged pores from the sun blocks and oils that have been used this Summer.

The best way to start is by having a complete skin analysis and then going into a deep cleansing facial.

At the Syd Simons Studio in Barrington, we have many advanced methods of treating the skin in our treatment rooms. We use peels, ampules, and masks for different types of skin.

One is our Freeze Dried Pure Collagen Mask that repairs skin damage from abuse, like sun, poor diet, tanning beds, etc.

One of our fabulous and very popular treatments is Murad's Rapid Exfoliating Peel. This is a treatment that will slow down aging skin, by removing all of the dead cells, so the reproduction of new ones can mature. The major cause of aging on the epidermis layer is the dead cells that are not reproduced. We have separate treatments for acne prone skin.

Now that we have the skin in good condition, let's talk make-up. Fall is always a very exciting time for make-up with new colors, shedding your Summer wardrobe and your Summer make-up. Let Syd Simons teach you how to understand your own bone structure with our private make-up lessons, incorporating the latest trend. We can teach you how to step into fall comfortably and with new self-confidence.

New make-up, new clothes ... all in the right colors, for you. What an exciting fall! Don't forget, we offer manicures, pedicures, nail designs and sculptured nails, so you can have new hands and feet for fall!

I will be leaving for Miami on October 22nd for five days to attend the Skin Care and Make-Up Convention. As always this is great education for all of us at the studio. What I will be learning will be taught to my staff. I have been in skin care and make-up for 23 years, and still there is so much to learn. I will share all of my knowledge with our clients.

Sincerely,

BAHS 1994 Holiday Card Will Soon Be On Sale

Barrington Area Historical Society's 1994 Holiday Card

The Barrington Area Historical Society's 1994 Holiday Card which was created for the Historical Society by Michael Harkman will soon be on sale in the Society's gift shop. The card is a wintry scene with carolers serenading outside the two period homes owned by the Society. The Applebee House which is in the foreground of the card was built in 1889 and was restored in 1988 using circa 1900 photographs. It now houses the Society's gift shop on the lower floor and the administrative offices on the second floor. The house in the background is the Kincaid House, built in 1897. It is presently the site of the Society's Heritage Research Center which is the repository for much of the Barrington Area's History including the Society's vast collection of glass negatives and the artifacts of the Jewel Tea collection.

Robert Coffin and George Van Hagen presented such a stimulating program last year on the homes that were built during Barrington's "estate period" that they have been asked to do a follow-up program. This new program which is part of "The Ameri-

Look Good, Feel Great! Permanent Hair Removal By A Registered Nurse

Electrolysis is the only safe, sensible and permanent treatment for the removal of unwanted hair. It can free you from the limitations and frustrations of temporary remedies (tweezing, waxing, bleach, depilatories) which only result in the regrowth of coarser and more deeply rooted hair.

Electrolysis in this office is provided by expertly delivering a small amount of electrical current through a probe into the hair follicle and the hair root. By using heat (shortwave), chemical action (Galvanic), or a combination of the two (the blend method), the blood supply which nourishes the hair is destroyed. The blend is extremely effective for treating coarse and deeply rooted hair. The blend has been found to be very beneficial to those with sensitive skin as it provides a very gentle treatment with smooth, clean skin remaining. These are the only medically approved methods of permanent hair removal. The blend and shortwave modalities are utilized in this office with great success.

Electrolysis in this office provided by a Registered Nurse, assures the client of a safe and effective treatment. Strict sterilization standards are adhered to as the requirements for sanitation and aseptic technique are strictly followed. These standards include the use of sterile, disposable probes, sterilization of instruments, hand washing and the use of a fresh pair of examination gloves for each treatment.

Electrolysis will enhance your appearance. (Please continue on page 42)

Cottage Gardens Of Yesteryear

The word "antique" conjures up thoughts of a work of art, a beautiful old piece of furniture, or a decorative object made at an earlier period in our history. However, have you considered antiques in the garden? We do not recommend that you place a Chipendale chair, a Van Gogh painting, or a rare Chinese porcelain on display in your garden. We refer, rather, to the renewed popularity of old fashioned flowers, both annual and perennial, which are being rediscovered and cultivated again. To explore this subject, the members of the Garden Club of Inverness will meet on Thursday, October 20, 1994, at 9:30 a.m. in the North Park Fieldhouse on Highland Road in Inverness. The guest speaker will be Annette Rods, a master gardener and former columnist (Star Publications), and garden writer for the Chicago Tribune and herb publications. Annette will take a look back to cottage gardens of yesterday for sources of plants as well as for inspiration. These gardens were noted for old varieties which were appreciated for their grace and fragrance. Learn how to participate in this revival of flowers that are too valuable to go out of fashion. The Garden Club of Inverness is a member of the Garden Clubs of Illinois and the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc. Some objectives of the more than 250 member clubs of The Garden Clubs of Illinois are: to encourage, advance and stimulate an interest in horticulture through education; to encourage development of home grounds and civic beautification and to provide an outlet for creative expression. For more information about the Garden Club of Inverness, contact our Membership Chairman, Janet Sholiton (991-4861).

Toasting Tips For Wedding Guests

No wedding party is ever complete without the traditional toast to the bride and groom. Unfortunately, many of us are not the best public speakers. If hundreds of eyes should fall upon you for words of wisdom and congratulations, don't "uuuummm...", "aaahhh...", and "well...", you way through the special moment.

Champagne toasts are cherished highlights and definitely merit special thought. According to the experts, a toast is the perfect opportunity to express thoughtful sentiments that all too often go unsaid. With the following tips, your message will come through loud and clear—and, most importantly, from the heart:

- Think about what makes the bride and groom so special as individuals and as a couple
- If you could make one wish of happiness for the couple, what would it be?

- Speak to other friends and relatives of the couple, get their input;
- Think about what the main message of your toast should be (love, commitment, relationships, etc.);
- Keep your message brief. It should not take an hour to express your sentiments—one to three minutes should be sufficient;
- Touch on a specific experience you have shared with the couple;
- Practice reciting the toast several times before the big day.

If you heed these few simple tips, toasting the newlyweds should be a joyful and memorable experience for all of the guests. Remember, too, that a toast should always end on an optimistic note—everyone should be able to look to the future with love in their hearts!

Making Your Wedding Unique To Yourself And Your Spouse

Today's savvy husband—and wife-to-be will not have to learn the hard way when it comes to planning their wedding. They've heard many horror stories from married friends and relatives who made wedding blunders, and know what to avoid.

One of the most tragic mistakes engaged couples make is letting the bride take over all the wedding plans. After all, it is their wedding, not just hers. The end result of this scenario is a stressed out bride who feels resentful towards her groom, and a groom who feels like a guest at his own wedding. As husband and wife they will share everything, so the best place to start is sharing in the wedding arrangements. This approach makes the wedding more special and satisfying for both of them.

Another fatal error young couples make is letting their parents dictate what the wedding day should be like.

Although many of these families have good intentions, their requests come off as demands and cause a lot of hard feelings for all involved, especially the bride and groom.

The wedding day is a symbol of a couple's love, and it should be a day unique and special to both of them. They don't have to make anyone happy but each other. Even if the bride's mother thinks the wedding should take place at her hometown church, and the groom's mother wants to sing as they say their vows, the couple must remember that they're the ones getting married and they shouldn't let family members re-design their dream wedding.

Whether it's the couple's desire to say their vows while jumping out of an airplane, or on a sunset cruise, it's totally up to them. Today's couples realize this, and are enjoying that special day more than ever.

With A Sixpence For Your Shoe

"Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, and a lucky sixpence for your shoe."

Most brides-to-be know the significance of the "old" and "borrowed" items: They will bring happiness to a marriage. The "new" represents stepping into a new lifestyle and the "blue" dates back to a favorite line, "Those who dress in blue have lovers true."

Unfortunately, the tradition of the sixpence is often forgotten. Yet its presence is said to inspire future wealth and good fortune for the newlyweds. The sixpence first became known as a lucky coin when introduced by Edward VI of England in 1551. And beginning with the brides of the Victorian era, it became part of wedding tradition.

Herbal Shampoo Helps Baldness

Finally! A cure for baldness that really works! A revolutionary new herbal shampoo, called Foli-Kleen 2000, has just exploded onto the scene, giving fresh hope to millions of Americans who, until now have helplessly watched their hair fall out.

In fact, the product's intrepid inventor, Jacqueline Sabal, suffered through the same agony of hair loss.

"There it was in the mirror," the 50-something cosmetologist tells us from her laboratory in Pompano Beach, Fla. "I was going bald. There was nothing out there that seemed to work, so I invented my own solution."

"Now I have an incredible head of hair." The magical ingredients in Jacqueline's painless potion are top secret, but she will reveal that they're a special combination of natural herbs.

And a clinical study of Foli-Kleen 2000 showed conclusively that users of the shampoo experienced progressive growth of hair—an amazing 33.9 percent increase over just three months!

"Cleanliness is the key to hair growth," she says. "We simply deep cleanse the scalp of all the debris that's accumulated over the years and allow the hair to push through the scalp."

Foli-Kleen 2000 is available at In Hair Numero Uno P.C. on Northwest Hwy. in Palatine.

Kumon Method Helps Math Ability

Katie, Kelly and Joseph O'Brien at Kumon—Hoffman Estates/South Barrington Center

Any student at the Kumon Math/Reading Center in Hoffman Estates would rather play basketball or softball than practice math if given a choice. At school, many of the students do not like math because they find it difficult to understand the math concepts being taught. The Kumon method is changing all that!

"Kumon has helped me a lot," says eleven year old Kelly O'Brien. She started Kumon classes when she was in the 5th grade. At the time she did not understand her math work, but after about a year in the Kumon program she is feeling very comfortable with math, and starting to know what it is all about. She has improved her grade in math from an average C to a B. Her grades in other subjects have also improved. Same thing for her brother Joseph and her sister Katie. "Math is good because it helps you in school," says Katie. She likes math since she started Kumon classes at the Kumon Math/Reading Center in Hoffman Estates/South Barrington, which meets at the New Life Lutheran Church Building twice a week after school. The classes are open to the public.

The Kumon method was developed in Japan thirty-five years ago by Toru Kumon, a high school math teacher, who wanted to help his 2nd grade son improve his math skills. The worksheets he prepared are still being used in Kumon classes today.

Just like any sport, Kumon believes in Practice! "Practice makes Perfect" is the underlying principle in Kumon. Students keep practicing skills such as addition, subtraction, division, multiplication, or algebra until they master the skill and before they can graduate to the next study level. The students must perfect their skills before they can tackle new problems.

"We want to increase their self-esteem and build their confidence. Kumon brings out a positive "can do" attitude in them," says Pali Shah, principal of the Kumon Center in Hoffman Estates. Learning math and getting better at it gives them a feeling of being smarter and that helps them in all their schoolwork. For most students, getting better in math has helped them be better students overall!

Parents pay $65 a month for Kumon tuition. This includes worksheets that students must complete in about 20 minutes every day, and two days in the after-school Kumon Center. In the sessions, students work at their own pace on individually assigned packets of work. All work must be graded by the Instructor and corrected by the student before the child leaves the Center.

In Japan there are more than 20,000 Kumon Math Centers and over 2 million students. In the U.S. there are over 1300 Centers, with 47 in the Chicagoland area. As a Back-to-school special, the Kumon Center in Hoffman Estates, (as well as other participating Centers), are offering Free Registration and a special promotional program that can save parents up to $100. For more information on the Kumon program dial 1-800-YES-MATH or call Mrs. Shah at (708) 991-1940.

A Perfect Island Escape

By Eleanor Nelson & Sally Howard
Travel House

Life can be stressful. When we get away, whether it's alone, with someone special or with our families, we look to escape the daily pressures we face, to renew ourselves, and to savor meaningful experiences that will provide lasting memories.

These rare getaways are hard to find. I have just found one. I was invited to join an all inclusive island adventure in Hawaii hosted by Tauck Tours. Although Tauck is a tour company, it is totally different than most other tour companies. It allows the client as much or as little individual freedom as they desire.

Imagine being met at the airport in Hawaii and chauffeured by private limousine to the magnificent ocean front Royal Hawaiian Hotel. There you will be greeted and presented with your room key immediately upon arrival. Dining is always at your leisure. Eat whatever you like at any restaurant in the hotel and sign the bill to Tauck Tours. You are removed from all the hassles of traveling, no waiting, no luggage handling, no problems with transportation or dining reservations, nothing but relaxation. During the course of your vacation you will view endless beaches of Hawaii, crystal clear water and plentiful sunshine. Each island appears more spectacular than the last. Upon arrival at each hotel you will find your room key waiting and your baggage inside your room. All with no hassles.

As you arrive in each city you are given a 1-2 hour tour of the city to give you an overview, in case you want to explore again later. However, you are always free to relax by the beach, or pool, play golf, tennis, sail or go sports fishing. Touring is not a must.

I would welcome the opportunity to tell you more about my recent trip to Hawaii. It was fantastic. Call me at 708-381-0600 and ask for Eleanor Nelson at Travel House if you would like a brochure or video.

Imagine being able to see everything ever published by your favorite artist. Imagine being able to select artwork by artist, subject, color, style, size, medium, price or title.

Having selected your artwork let Gallery Northwest help you beautifully frame it. Their full-service framing department offers professional workmanship and a large selection of frames and mats at affordable prices.

Meet
HOWARD BEHRENS
October 15th and 16th
Artists Reception
Saturday, October 15th
4:00pm to 8:00pm
Black Tie Optional
R.S.V.P.

Howard Chesner Behrens' interest in art dates back to his childhood when he turned to painting to fill hours in bed while convalescing from a broken leg. Born in Chicago in 1933, Behrens was raised in a suburb of Washington, D.C.

A military and government career led him to fine art after serving as chief artist in the U.S. Printing Office. During this period he experimented with various painting styles. It was a trip to the West Coast, however that presented Behrens with a major turning point in his career—the adoption of his powerful palette-knife style.

Whatever the subject matter Behrens effectively captures the beauty of life through his observances of mankind's interaction with nature. Bathed in sunlight and touched by sea breezes, his work has captured the hearts of many as well as sold out one-man shows across the nation.

You'll enjoy champagne and conversation with this master painter in the award-winning galleries of The Studio of Long Grove. His reception offers an ideal opportunity to meet one of the finest, most critically acclaimed artists of the day.

"Carolines Puddle"

Janusz Glowacki. This important Polish artist has received accolades throughout Europe, in Brazil, Japan, and now in the U.S. His creations feature color in a rich spectrum and brimming with allusions to his childhood reveries and recollections. Dynamic and expressive, yet tranquil, his work is represented in many important corporate and museum collections.

The Studio is currently exhibiting a small collection of Glowacki's work and response has been tremendous! We hope to bring this exciting artist to The Studio galleries sometime soon. Watch for an announcement, or call for information. This unique painter is a "must-see."

"From the Heart" is the newest of his serigraphs, rich and sumptuous with texture to evoke the feeling of a fresco or a tapestry. Though references to the past are clearly evident, these highly decorative paintings project a bold, contemporary image.

Studio Owner Tom Hillgoss with Works by Alan Wolton

Thomas Kinkade...The Legend Grows...

Thomas Kinkade, recognized as the foremost living painter of light, is masterful in his use of soft edges and luminous colors which give his highly detailed oil paintings a glow all of their own. Says Kinkade, "I attempt to go beyond the topographical details of the setting and into its heart and mood to achieve my artistic goals." It is this warmth, generated in part by the extraordinary "Kinkade Glow", that has created overwhelming demand for Thomas Kinkade paintings and lithographs worldwide.

"Guardian Castle" by Kinkade

Alan Wolton

The art of Alan Wolton is now being featured in The Studio Gallery. This major artist paints in oil... very large masterpieces featuring a dynamic use of light. The quality of his work is powerful and breathtaking and captures all of the majesty of the Great Southwest. Raised in South Africa, this native of England has found the American "style of thought" to support his love for light and large dynamic pieces. His works are worth the trip to The Studio.

June is Back!

The Studio of Long Grove offers a full-service framing operation under the direction of June Plantan who is trained in conservation and museum-quality framing. The frame shop has a vast selection of mouldings from the simple to the richly carved, including metals and woods in all the latest finishes. Liners and matting techniques are state-of-the-art and the handcraftsmanship capabilities of the framing staff permit custom treatments featuring fabric wraps in a full range of textures and colors to enhance the art and blend with the decor.

Golf Tips By Ray—The Old Pro

Golf Equipment

Don't be mislead—proper fitting clubs are a definite aid to good golf. Things to be considered in selecting a set of clubs are length, total weight, balance, lie, grip diameter, and angle and loft.

In helping our customers select clubs, we consider their stature—length of arms and legs, size of hands, and general strength.

The weight and length of the clubs are worked out to suit each individual. Personally, I recommend as much length as can be controlled and as much weight as can be handled without causing one to sacrifice clubhead speed.

I believe most players should have clubs with a bit of spring or whip in the shaft and the weight concentrated in the clubhead so that they will have a definite feel of the clubhead. However, I do not recommend extremely whippy shafts except for senior players if they are very slow swingers. The shafts of irons should be a bit firmer than in the woods. The club with head balance or head feel encourages smooth swinging as one will sense, thus it is not necessary to exert strength to attain clubhead speed. In other words, you allow the club to help swing itself.

The lie of the club is the angle between the shaft and the sole. Tall players should use clubs with a reasonably upright lie—players who are 5'9" - 5'10" would find a medium lie most desirable. Shorter players should favor a club with a flatter lie.

The Old Pro—Ray Ewing

Golf clubs, just as all golf balls, look quite similar from the outside, but an analysis of their component parts would reveal many different characteristics and variations. While they are composed of a head, shaft, and grip, there are many important variable elements which must be properly coordinated to provide the golfer with a well balanced golf club suited to his or her individual requirements.

We invite you to visit our store and have our own club maker take a look at your clubs. There is no charge for this service.

If you are ready to improve your game, we can help you by improving your clubs. Do not handicap yourself with an out-dated, mismatched, or inferior set.

Tip For The Day

Soft hands swinging the clubhead will produce wonderful results!

"Without a doubt - the finest training device I have ever seen! I just wish it had been around years ago."

LEE TREVINO

Welcome to Swingtech™

It has been proven that there can be no learning without memory. To play golf, one requires not just a conceptual or voluntary memory, but a complex set of motor skills which have been memorized to become an automatic response, therefore a natural act of body and mind. This process is referred to as MUSCLE MEMORY.

The Swingtech golf training system that you have purchased will enable you to "memorize" a conventional plane and arc, whether you are a novice or proficient golfer.

SWING CORRECTLY THE FIRST TIME.

A beginning golfer's first swing starts the MUSCLE MEMORY process. If the swing is taken incorrectly, the golfer will have to unlearn or unmemorize this fault prior to muscle memorizing the correct one. Capable golfers will verify what a frustrating process this can be. Swingtech ensures that the user is MUSCLE MEMORIZING the correct movements on the first attempts. COMBINES THE UNLEARNING AND LEARNING PROCESS.

For the experienced or established golfer wanting to make a swing change or correction, Swingtech combines the UNLEARNING AND LEARNING PROCESS. With each swing you are training your motor skill memory to unlearn the incorrect movements, while MUSCLE MEMORIZING the correct ones.

CREATES THE ACTUAL 'SWING' FEEL.

Most golfers can, by watching good players, visualize what they are trying to achieve with their swing. Why, then, do we not all swing like Tour Professionals? The reason is that a visual concept of a golf swing does not create the feel. Yet FEEL is what one is trying to achieve. Swingtech will create the FEELING of a correct swing for you.

ENHANCES PROFESSIONAL ADVICE AND LESSONS.

The swing correction process can be enhanced by combining the knowledge of a PGA Professional and the use of your Swingtech device. What your professional is communicating and demonstrating will become easier to translate into movements relative to your strengths and body type. Also, as you practice this new knowledge you cannot revert back to your "old problems" as Swingtech will not allow it.

TEACHES A CORRECT ARC AND PLANE.

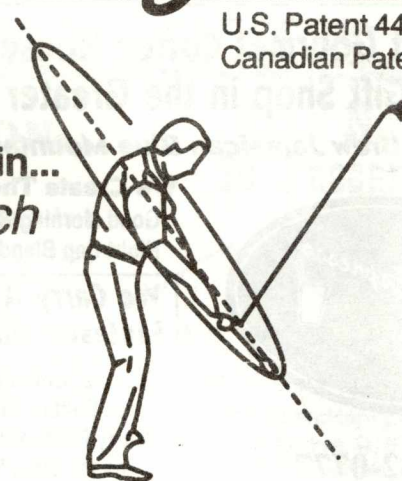

The movements of Swingtech are designed to allow a conventional swing plane, arc and clubhead path. Swingtech, does not allow radical variations such as flying elbows, excess body swaying or over-active hands. It has been proven that a conventional golf swing is more efficient and has a longer life span than a radical one. By correct placement of the axis (suction cup), Swingtech automatically adjusts to a correct arc and plane for the user.

With Swingtech, you will have a feeling that the hands remain quite inactive or passive and that their function on the downswing will become a natural reaction of centrifugal force.

U.S. Patent 4486020
Canadian Patent 1185633

Before you begin...
Let Swingtech
guide you.

THE SWING MOTION.

Golf books devote most of their attention to the swing motion. Because Swingtech controls so many aspects and movements of the swing, the only things necessary for the user are:

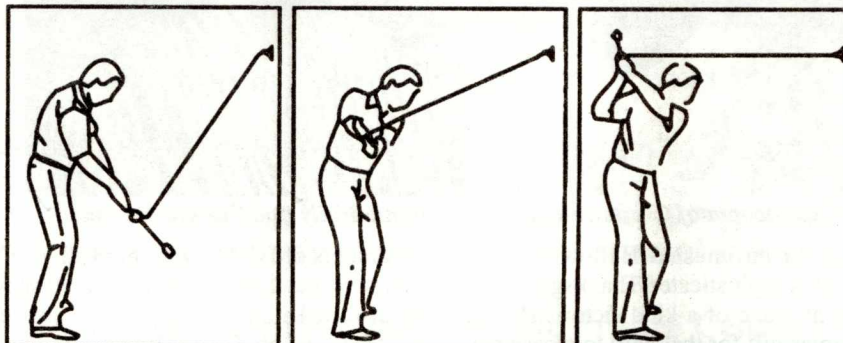

1. to be in balance
2. to maintain a consistent head position
3. to initiate the backswing with the upper body mass, and
4. to initiate the downswing with the lower body mass

Keep it that simple, the mind uncluttered, allow the device to guide you through the swing motion.

Remember that Swingtech, once set up properly, is designed to provide a correct plane and arc for you. Therefore let the device show you the correct swing. DO NOT FORCE YOUR PRESENT SWING.

Grip very lightly with your hands and fingers, allow a total relaxed feeling in your body, then allow the club to swing back and forth from waist to waist. Gradually let centrifugal force extend the club to a full back swing and subsequent follow through. This process creates the correct muscle movement sequences & responses.

Spend as little as five minutes a day on Swingtech and you will be training your muscles (muscle memorizing) in a correct golf swing that will result in better shots, lower scores... and more enjoyment.

Swingtech mounts easily on a wall and is very easy to take with you on your travels. Swingtech comes with a complete instruction video, presented by Lee Trevino. Visit Historic Golf Classics for a demonstration.

Barrington Junior Women's Club's Cornucopia Of Crafts Set For October 27th

Cornucopia of Crafts co-chairs are Connie Baily and Sue Geshwender

Looking for an unusual Halloween door ornament, a sophisticated Thanksgiving arrangement, a one-of-a-kind Victorian Santa, a Christmas gift for that hard to please person on your list, or a to-die-for piece of jewelry or clothing for yourself? The 14th annual Cornucopia of Crafts, sponsored by the Barrington Junior Women's Club, fulfills all fantasies with over 80 crafters from throughout the Midwest with the best of original, handmade crafts.

The show will take place October 27th from 9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. with lunch and dinner available. No strollers permitted. Admission is $3 and $1 for senior citizens.

Members of BJWC work hard all year to make sure that this is no ordinary craft show. The historic Knights at Columbus Barn, just east of Rt. 14 on Kelsey Road, provides a rustic, three room setting for everything from intricate chocolate houses, to exquisite watercolors, handpainted furniture and whimsical items, unusual apparel, precious metal jewelry, elaborate dried and silk decorator items and an overwhelming array of ornaments and seasonal items. Many new crafters have been added, as well as traditional Cornucopia favorites, all who have been juried for selection in the show.

Seeking Women Models Over 30 For Black & White Exhibit

In preparation for a number of art exhibits and for the grand opening of our new expansion we are planning a series of portraits of women. We are currently seeking non-professional models to participate in this special project. Much but not all of the style will be reminiscent of the Hollywood era of Jean Harlow, Marlena Deitrich, and Greta Garbo. We will be arranging appointments for those interested in participating to come in for a brief interview and to possibly have a quick Polaroid picture taken at that time. All participants that are accepted to be photographed for this project will receive a complimentary miniature portrait signed by Al Buschauer.

So whether you're a business woman, or a full-time homemaker, why not give us a call if this is something you'd like to try?

The portraits for the exhibit will range in size from approx. 16 X 20" to 20 X 24".

Al Buschauer has received his Master of Photography Degree from the Professional Photographers of America in 1987. Many of you are already familiar with his work by either having been clients or seeing his work outside of Chessie's Restaurant at the Ice House in Barrington.

Coffee And Tea-Soups And Sauces

Caffee Espresso is located on the southeast corner of Route 14 and Main St., in Barrington. This is a handy little store to know about. Of course, it's a great place for coffee—regular, decaf, cappuccino, espresso—and always hot and fresh.

Caffee Espresso now offers tantalizing dry soup mixes from "Frontier Soups"—hearty selections from the heartland. Dry mixes for dips, spreads, and sauces from "To Market to Market" are available too. Just mix with mayo, sour cream, cream cheese, or catsup and create a masterpiece in a moment.

Caffee Espresso also has scones and cookies. The Otis Spunkmeyer Cookies are fresh-baked on the premises and include such delicious choices as chocolate chip and macadamia nut.

Don't miss the very interesting Herbal Tea display. Herbs, or traditional medicinals as they are called, are offered to soothe many conditions.

But this beautiful coffee house is also a great gift shop. Exquisite English bone-china coffee and tea sets, serving trays, special spoons, Krups coffee and Cappuccino makers and a large (maybe 1000) selection of decorative coffee mugs are just some of the gift items available at Caffee Espresso. Or, create your own gift basket.

Caffee Espresso stocks four different greeting card lines—cards for all occasions. If you prefer a nontraditional card consider some of these new items: Abbey Press Scrolls, scrolls with beautiful messages for that special person including scrolls for kids; Keepsake cards which include a pin or tictack; or Heart magnets with appropriate messages.

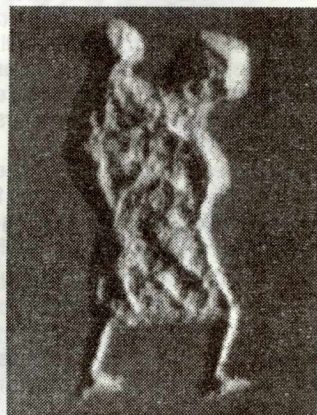

Gift wrap, bows and decorative gift bags are also available at Caffee Espresso.

Come in soon and see all the wonderful things Caffee Espresso offers.

"Parallel Journeys"

An illustrated slide presentation entitled "Parallel Journeys" is slated for 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 20th in the New Hendrickson room of the Arlington Heights Memorial Library. Having just completed a major expansion at the library, the general public is invited to enjoy this new facility and to meet Hopi artist, teacher, father, friend Preston Duwyenie. Born in Hotevilla, Arizona, the third of three mesas on which the Hopi people have lived for centuries, Mr. Duwyenie will trace the evolution of clay, from quarry to pottery, and show the parallels in human development.

The presentation is part of an ongoing cultural awareness project sponsored by Tribal Expressions in Arlington Heights.

"Carried in Beauty"
Duwyenie Pottery Signature

and Connie Baily of Barrington, "The selection available is truly eclectic. We have attempted to choose crafters presenting exceptional quality and items that are not found in typical craft shows."

Once again, Cafe Cornucopia, an intimate food area on the lower level, provides an opportunity for shoppers to relax over lunch, dinner or snacks. The highlight of the Cafe is an array of specialty, gourmet coffees as well as homemade baked goods served all day.

The popular bake sale, where many shoppers find baked goods decorated and wrapped pretty enough to freeze and save for holiday giving, is a Cornucopia favorite. Visit this booth early for the best selections.

The Barrington Junior Women's Club donates all profits from Cornucopia and their spring project to local and Northwest Suburban Charities including Barrington Youth Services, P.A.D.S., the Police and Fire Departments, Barrington Area Library and over 20 additional organizations.

Think Portraiture Now, Beat The Holiday Rush

Fall family portraiture opens up many exciting opportunities for beautiful outdoor portraits. Also consider indoor locations such as in your home or our studio. Why a Reading Specialist?

Some people, many of them adults, cannot read this article. For them, the world seems to operate with a secret code. They haven't learned that code well enough to gain admittance to good colleges or decent-paying jobs.

Jean Comeaux, director of Reading Enriches All Dimensions Inc. in Rolling Meadows, has worked in the field for many years.

"We offer a dedicated team effort to restore any person, regardless of age or orientation, to his rightful place as an effective reader and student. When you think about it, the one common denominator of successful people is probably the ability to read effectively," she said.

Consider Tim, a sixteen-year-old high school junior. Because of his very high intelligence and compensatory talents, he coped quite ably in school until the end of junior high school. At that time, however, scholastic demands began to strain his skills (which he later learned were at only sixth-grade level) to the breaking point. He could no longer compensate; his once high grades became mediocre, then poor. Although Tim had worked with a tutor, the situation did not improve. Tim's parents discovered at R.E.A.D., Inc., that tutoring does not affect a permanent solution. Diagnosis and remediation, on the other hand, by an experienced reading specialist at R.E.A.D., Inc., restored Tim to his rightful place as a top-notch student.

R.E.A.D., Inc. now boasts a 21-year history. It offers specifically designed programs for each person, based on a diagnostic evaluation.

All written language and communication skills are taught concurrently at R.E.A.D., Inc.: basic skills, study skills, functional writing skills, and test-taking skills.

Clientele seeking help from the clinic and center are made up of various types of people from all age groups: from those who have never learned to read, to accelerated students with poor test-taking skills or inappropriate reading speed to corporate employees who need individual or group instruction.

According to Comeaux, factors contributing to reading disability include: frequent illness and absences during the primary grades; emotional family trauma, such as a death or divorce during the first three grades; and a weak auditory or visual memory.

Comeaux said staff instructors are long-tenured specialists in reading, learning disabilities, and Attention Deficit Disorder. They know how to work with students to build skills and confidence, she said.

For more information, call R.E.A.D., Inc. at (708) 392-4747.

Dreading The School Days

"No! I don't wanna go!" your daughter sobs, looking up at you with her wide eyes and tear-streaked face, begging for mercy. Or, clutching his stomach in feigned agony, your son cries, "I feel sick—I can't go to school today!"

The first day of the school year should be an exciting time of new clothes, new teachers and new friends to look forward to. Why is it that some children dread starting school in the fall?

According to Dr. Raymond Huntington, founder and president of the Huntington Learning Center, there are many reasons why children may be reluctant, or even frightened, about returning to the classroom. A new environment can be a tremendous adjustment for a youngster, whether they are moving from one school to another or simply going into a new classroom with unfamiliar students and a different teacher. However, children may also have a particular attitude towards school which creates their intense fear:

1. Lack of self confidence—"I can't do it!" If a child does not believe in himself, he may not think he is capable of succeeding in school. To build your child's confidence, set reasonable expectations and attainable goals, and praise your child's achievements. When a child finds that they can complete small tasks, they will not be afraid to move on to bigger and better challenges.

2. Fear of failure or fear of criticism from others—"You can't do it - you're stupid!" Children who are having trouble keeping up in school may feel afraid or embarrassed to ask questions in class, for fear that their classmates will tease them. When they do not ask for help, this fear of failure often causes students to fall further and further behind in school.

3. Lack of motivation—"I won't do it!" When a child is unmotivated, he would rather avoid a difficult task than face it head-on. Sometimes, children become bored or disinterested when "textbook knowledge" seems meaningless. The key to motivating a child to learn is to make learning interesting. Find examples in everyday life and children will learn without even trying! Reading food boxes and cans, counting cars on the highway, and writing letters to friends are things that we do every day, but activities such as these can spark a child's interest in learning. Other times, a child may just give up without trying if they think they cannot do the work. Again, show the child all of the little things he can accomplish and he will be more likely to take on larger tasks.

4. Negative attitude about learning—Children who have a negative attitude about learning may see school as a chore, like a

Drama "Whose Life Is It, Anyway?" At BHS Oct. 19-22

A brilliant battle of wits takes place in this extraordinary play. A successful sculptor, is paralyzed in a car accident and kept alive by support systems in a hospital. Outwardly he's cheerful and often very funny but he's overwhelmed by the fact that he has lost control of his own life. This play will keep you thinking long after you leave the auditorium.

Mr. Jon Lynn, new to the Fine Arts Department at Barrington High School this year, will be the director. Set design will be done by Mr. Christopher Deignan.

Congratulations to the cast, which includes: Rob Howard, Brooke Rogers, Heidi Duke, Jeff Galfer, Ashley Mabbitt, Andy Wienick, Gabriela Pantigoso, Peter Kirm, Schoenly Hixson, Jennifer Miezio, Dave Radin, Liz Bell, Alex Brown. Understudies are Derick Loafman, Melanie Duke, Ellen Nicholson.

The student director will be Shauna Sever with Mike Sweeney and Beth Hutchens as Stage Manager and Assistant Stage Manager.

criminal who has been sentenced to 13 years of hard labor! As a parent, you can change this bad attitude by making learning enjoyable. Set an example by taking an interest in learning yourself. Reading with your child and helping them with their homework are only two things you can do. Your child will be enthusiastic about going to school when they see that learning can be fun!

5. Lack of basic skills—"I don't know how to do it!" You child will certainly be frustrated if they cannot keep up with their classmates or school assignments due to a lack of basic skills. If your child was having problems at the end of the school year, they may have even more difficulty with the introduction of new material. By working on a child's weak areas through tutoring, knowledge will fall into place, then self confidence and motivation are sure to follow!

Only an academic check-up can show your child's strength and weaknesses, and determine if they have the basic skills to succeed. The Huntington Learning Center offers comprehensive academic skill check-ups and provides tutoring in reading, writing, spelling, phonics, and math at all levels, plus SAT and ACT prep for college-bound high school students.

If you have questions, or would like to schedule an academic check-up for your child, please contact the Huntington Learning Center in Barrington at (708) 382-3655 or Huntington Learning Center in Buffalo Grove at (708) 459-5939.

Venice, Verdi and Violins Honors OMNI's Top Volunteers

enjoy the evening air in the Japanese garden.*

Venice, Verdi and Violins was the order of the evening at OMNI Youth Services annual Ambassador Appreciation Dinner on Saturday, September 17.

The dinner is held annually to show appreciation for OMNI's Board of Ambassadors, a group of 44 local business and civic leaders from all over the northwest Suburbs. The dinner was sponsored and hosted by Mike and Louise Sullivan at their home in Barrington Hills, Illinois. Mike Sullivan is the chairman and founder of the Board of Ambassadors. Having been involved with OMNI's Board of Directors, he launched the group not only for financial support, but also to build a network of resources for strategic planning, in-kind donations for special events and volunteer support.

Forty people attended the event, which featured fine Italian cuisine and music by a string quartet.

Contemporary Hopi And Santa Clara Pottery Show

Preston Duwyenie's personal challenge is to help others gain an appreciation of Native American culture, and to expose Native Americans to non-native modernism. In keeping with these stated goals, Tribal Expressions has agreed to provide an open forum for Preston to present his view of Hopi culture. Preston's Hopi background largely motivates what he does and spirituality weighs heavily in the content and style of his own pottery and "Shifting Sands" jewelry.

In addition to his appointment as a Professor of Traditional Pottery, Jewelry, and Design at the Institute of American Indian Arts, in Santa Fe, Preston has conducted lectures and workshops throughout the United States and Canada. An illustrated slide presentation entitled "Parallel Journeys" is slated for Thursday, October 20th in the Hendrickson room of the Arlington Heights Memorial Library. Preston will trace the evolution of clay, from quarry to pottery, and he will discuss parallels in human development. Ongoing cultural presentations will be made, as necessary, during the open house at Tribal Expressions.

Preston will be accompanied by the award winning Santa Clara potter, Debra Trujillo. Debra attended the Institute of American Indian Arts, and has practiced traditional methods of building, finishing, and firing pottery since 1979. Her contemporary scraffito style pots have received awards at Red Earth Fine Arts Festival, Oklahoma City, Heard Museum Indian Market Fair, Phoenix, Aspen Celebration for the American Indian, Aspen, and at SWAIA Indian Market, Santa Fe.

Green chili stew, horno oven bread, and bread pudding will be available to visitors, as part of Preston and Debra's ambitious effort to share their culture. An artists reception is planned for Friday October 21 st, with a continuing open house on Saturday and Sunday October 22 and 23. The public is invited to participate at this event at no cost.

NATIONAL KITCHEN and BATH MONTH

When the magic begins.

KITCHEN & BATH

don't just dream it, do it.

Hardwood Touches Baths

Ask architects and interior designers why they put hardwood floors, cabinets and woodwork in bathrooms, and the word they use is "warm."

"It's clean, without being sterile. I like to use natural materials to warm up a room."

The Hardwood Manufacturers Association (HMA) recently asked design professionals about solid hardwoods in bathrooms, where practicality meets comfort. "There's nothing like hardwoods. I just did a whole walnut bath," says Grant E. Scott, AIA, an architect in Pittsburgh, Pa.

But what about moisture?

With the right sealant, there's no reason not to put hardwoods in a bath," says designer Marie Schwartz, ASID, of Baltimore, Md. "Hardwoods are perfect for bathroom cabinetry—long-wearing and beautiful, too." She recommends a non-yellowing acrylic finish. "It stands up well to spills," she tells the HMA. Another designer noted that today's finishes resist water and "just about anything else you'll find in a bathroom."

How Does Your Kitchen Rate?

How functional and fashionable is your kitchen? Answer these questions from the National Kitchen & Bath Association to find out how the most important room in your house rates.

Storage system:

- Do your cabinets feature time-saving accessories such as roll-out shelves, divided drawers and lazy susans?
- Is there enough cabinet shelf space?
- Is the cabinet door style and color up-to-date?
- Is there a place to sort recyclables?

Countertop:

- Is there enough counter space?
- Is the countertop material undamaged and in good shape?
- Is the counter color/pattern up-to-date?

Mechanical elements:

- Do you have enough electrical outlets?
- Is there a good ventilation system in the cooking area?

Appliances/Fixtures:

- Are all of your appliances a pleasant color that looks good?

Room orientation:

- Is there a casual dining/conversation area in the room?
- Is the kitchen arranged so that "people traffic" is directed away from the cook's activities?

If you answered "no" more than "yes", you may need a new room. Take the first step and bring this evaluation with you to Barrington Homeworks Kitchen Center at 301 East Main Street in Barrington.

Co-owner James R. Walker is a Certified Kitchen Designer, approved by the National Kitchen & Bath Association as competent by training and experience to design and install complete kitchens while subscribing to a strict code of conduct and design principals.

Joe Schafer—Vice President

Elgin Symphony Opens 45th Season

Trumpet fanfares will resound throughout Hemmens Auditorium as the Elgin Symphony Orchestra opens its 45th season on October 15 and 16 in Elgin. Accompanying the fanfares will be a gala champagne reception, sponsored by the Elgin Symphony League, which will take place twenty minutes before each concert.

The Orchestra, under the direction of Robert L. Hanson, principal conductor, will welcome guest pianist Ramon Salvatore to play the "Concerto in F for Piano and Orchestra" by American composer George Gershwin. Two other works from the same era will contrast with the Gershwin piece, the "Symphony No. 5 in B-flat" by Sergei Prokofiev, and the "Festive Overture" of Dimitri Shostakovich. As is traditional, the Elgin Symphony will open both performances with "The Star Spangled Banner," with text by Francis Scott Key, written in 1814 to the tune of a popular party song.

Guest pianist Ramon Salvatore is a Chicago native who received his music education from Millikin University and the New England Conservatory of Music. He received a fellowship to study at the Royal Academy of Music in London and performed with the Society of St. Martin-in-the-Fields after making his debut in London's Wigmore Hall. Mr. Salvatore has focused on 19th and 20th century American music in a recent tour, where he has played on live broadcasts, college campuses, and concert series, including a three-concert series of American music at New York's Carnegie Hall, which was sponsored by Northwestern University and New Music Chicago. He has recorded on Premier and Cedille Records as he has held teaching positions at Ithaca College, the University of Kansas, St. Cloud State University, Chicago's Merit Music Program, and the Charterhouse School in Surrey, England.

The October 15 performance will begin at 8:00 p.m., and the October 16 concert will start at 3:30 p.m. Pre-concert Chats by Daniel Maki are held 45 minutes before both concerts to give information about the music on the current program.

Tickets at $8-22 are available by calling the Elgin Symphony Ticket Office, 708/622-0300. Senior and student rates, along with special group rates, are also available. Clas-

Native American Art Presentation Oct. 14 - Oct. 16

Gallery owners, Steve and Janet Fabiani are pleased to present a show, sale and lecture aimed at celebrating the rich heritage and artistic excellence of the Navajo Indians. This show was inspired by the recently released book, Enduring Traditions, the Art of the Navajo by photographer/writer team, Jerry and Lois Jacka. The show features a visit by award winning visual artist Peter Ray James as well as the Jackas to share their insight into Navajo culture and autograph their book. The Jackas are also the authors of Beyond Tradition, Contemporary Indian Art and its Evolution but perhaps are best known for their work with Arizona highways, of which five issues were devoted to their work.

Peter Ray James, whose work is featured in both of the Jacka's books is a multi-talented artist known for paintings of colorful village scenes, Navajo ceremonial figures as well as ceramic masks of Yeis or Yei-Bi-Cheis (holy people of Navajo lore). His use of color is extraordinary and exciting and each mask is a unique storyteller, no two are the same.

Peter Ray James will lecture formally on Navajo culture, art and spiritual beliefs. In addition the gallery will also offer a fantastic selection of jewelry and art by other artists featured in the Jacka's new book. Also, there will be a guest appearance by Gene Waddell, owner of the Lone Mountain Turquoise Mine.

Southwest Trading Co. invites you to share this extraordinary event!

Friday, October 14, 1994 the book signing and lecture will be in collaboration with the Mitchell Indian Museum, at their location in Evanston, IL. 7:00 PM reception, 7:30 PM lecture, 8:30 PM informal discussion and booksigning.

A Winning Combination

Barrington Kitchen and Bath Studio welcomes National Kitchen and Bath Month! What a perfect time to come into our showroom and meet with one of Barrington Kitchen and Bath Studio's designers.

We provide a unique "award winning combination". With the personal touch that is offered by our highly trained professional designers and our installations being handled by our sister company, Delta Renovations, Inc., we really do have the best of both worlds for you and your family as you go through this exciting time.

This gives you a choice when it comes down to design and price.

The questions that you need to ask yourself prior to your first visit is 1. What do I

Cabinets Plus And The NKBA Celebrate National Kitchen And Bath Month

When Richard Kunzweiler founded Cabinets Plus in 1962 he never dreamed his business would grow to include his four sons or that the firm would forge such close ties to the National Kitchen and Bath Association (NKBA). "The kitchen business is constantly changing. We need to keep up with not only new cabinetry styles and consumer preferences but also the details of how modern kitchens are installed," says Steve Kunzweiler, president of Cabinets Plus. "The mission of the NKBA is not only to promote the kitchen and bath industry but also to educate its members." Steve should know, he along with Cabinets Plus salesman Richard Reed are past presidents of the Chicago, Midwest chapter of the NKBA. Salesperson Claudia Penna, worked for the required seven years and passed a difficult series of tests to attain the NKBA's highest rating of Certified Kitchen Designer (CKD).

Brothers Kevin and Keith Kunzweiler like to point out that Cabinets Plus does business a little differently than most dealers. "The craftsmen who install your kitchen or bath, work for Cabinets Plus, they are not subcontractors. The laminate and Corian tops we sell are made in our countertop shop. These factors let us have more control over the quality of the installation and generally make our jobs move along more quickly than others." The quality of their work and products is displayed in a beautiful showroom, located at 706 E. Northwest Highway in Palatine.

Thirty plus years of experience and that special attention to detail have made Cabinets Plus an outstanding member of the Palatine business community and a great supporter of the National Kitchen and Bath Association.

Distinctive Kitchen Designs Named Top Dealer In Illinois/Indiana Territory

Krengel & Associates, Inc., Wood-Mode Custom Cabinetry Manufacturer's Representative, recently named Distinctive Kitchen Designs in Wauconda the number one Wood-Mode dealership in territory 03. The territory, which covers the entire Illinois and Indiana state areas, represents more than 60 dealerships.

Distinctive Kitchen Designs, established in 1989, has been a Wood-Mode dealer since 1991. In that three year period, Distinctive Kitchen Designs has been recognized for being the top Wood-Mode dealer in territory 03, as well as being invited into the Wood-Mode Master Club, three years running.

The Club, which is comprised of the top 25 Wood-Mode dealerships nationwide, ranked Distinctive Kitchen Designs third in the nation in 1993. "To achieve this honor in two and a half years is an accomplishment I am very proud of," says Star Norini, owner of Distinctive Kitchen Designs and a Certified Kitchen Designer. "Many dealers do not receive this recognition in twenty years."

Norini believes that Distinctive Kitchen Designs' success is the result of dedicated hard work and referrals from satisfied clients. "We specialize in custom kitchen design," said Norini. "We are a design firm, not just a retail business."

Distinctive Kitchen Designs works with top builders and remodeling contractors, which according to Norini, allows her and her staff of designers to concentrate on designing a custom kitchen which best fits the needs and tastes of their clients. "We do not do installations, plumbing hookup or electrical work," Norini emphasizes. "We leave that up to the contractors since that is what they do best. Designing is what we do best. "Norini also emphasizes that each kitchen designed by her and her designers is completely custom. "We work with all ranges of budgets, tastes, styles and preferences."

Distinctive Kitchen Designs is located in Wauconda at 203 South Main Street. Star Norini and her staff of designing professionals are waiting to make your dreams of the perfect kitchen come true!

Benefit Luncheon & Fashion Show

To honor the 35th anniversary of Northwest Community Hospital, it's auxiliary will host it's annual benefit luncheon and fashion show on Wednesday, October 19th, 1994 at the Arlington Park Hilton Hotel, Arlington Heights, Illinois. The social hour begins at 11 a.m. and will be followed by the luncheon and fashion show at noon.

This year's fashions will be presented by Saks Fifth Avenue, Oakbrook. In keeping with the anniversary, as well as the continuing growth of Northwest Community, the theme of the show will be "New Horizons".

Proceeds from the benefit will be used to establish Health Village. The Health Village is an exhibit area in the JFK Health World Museum. Scheduled for completion in 1995, this museum will become the nation's first children's "hands-on" health education and learning center. The 75,000 square foot facility, located in Barrington, Illinois, will use Disney-like interactive exhibits. The Health Village introduces children to the support and caring environment of the medical community. The exhibits in the area peel back the shroud of mystery that often surrounds visits to the hospital. Children will explore a scaled down hospital, a dentist and doctor office, emergency room and ambulance.

Six-Session Freedom From Smoking Program

A six-session Freedom from Smoking Program developed by the American Lung Association will be offered at EHS Good Shepherd Hospital from 7 to 8:30 p.m. beginning Wednesday, October 19.

Sponsored by EHS Good Shepherd's Health Evaluation Lifestyle Programs (HELP) department, the program is designed to make quitting a less stressful experience by helping smokers develop better ways to cope with situations that trigger the desire for a cigarette.

During the sessions, smokers develop an individual plan of action to quit. In addition, they learn relaxation techniques, how to identify triggers and way to avoid weight gain.

Freedom from Smoking is offered in six 90-minute sessions over a five-week period (dates). The cost is $75 per person.

For more information or to register, call 708-381-5282. The stop smoking program also can be provided onsite at area businesses and industries.

Draperies & Blinds, Etc. Offers In-Home Shopping Convenience

"Many of our customers have such busy schedules that it was difficult for them to arrange a time to meet at our Lake Zurich showroom," says Willis Elias, owner of Draperies & Blinds, Etc. "So, we decided to go to our customers."

If you ask either Elias the location of their 31-year-old company's new showroom, they'll tell you it is in the trunk of their car. Actually, the shop is in Zion, IL, but they pack up the samples and travel to customers all over Chicago and the suburbs. This saves the customer time, and also allows them to see how the fabric texture and color looks with the rest of their furnishings. "We make all of our draperies," Patti Elias says,

"so another major advantage is that when Willis or I see the location early in the game, we can make unique recommendations that better address the look and feel of the home or business."

Both Willis and Patti have found that their brickless and mortarless showroom concept has resulted in additional savings they've been able to pass along to their customers - a real bonus considering customers already take advantage of "factory-direct pricing" so to speak.

"Who knows," says Willis, "next year our customers may want to see our selection on CD-ROM!"

The Townhomes With Beautiful Space

In a beautifully manicured upscale complex complete with gorgeous clubhouse, tennis courts, and swimming pool, there is a perfect townhome that is blessedly convenient to everything: I-90, Woodfield, Harper Junior College, all kinds of shopping and eateries, and good roads in every direction.

Professionally decorated in grey and soft peach, with white ceramic floors in the foyer and kitchen, it has a bright, spacious living room with a fireplace and balcony, a full dining room, 2 bedrooms, 3½ baths, and a finished walkout lower level that would be an ideal exercise/media center since it has a huge hot tub, a wet bar, a full bath, and built in shelves and cabinets. (There is also a laundry room and nice, big storage room.) The 2-car garage is attached. The price? $235,000.

Northwest a ways, in a country setting, there is a 2-year-old beauty of a townhome you would swear has never been lived in—so pristine it is. All in creamy white with a bleached oak kitchen, it has a cathedral ceilinged living and dining room with a fireplace and skylights, a deck, 3 bedrooms, 2½ baths, and a full English basement finished professionally with drywalled ceiling and recessed lighting, a study (or 4th bedroom!), a family room, and new Berber carpeting. It is gorgeous—and a great buy at $142,500. Perfection for the young family—or anyone!

The secret of getting more money when it comes to selling your home.

The secret is simple: you plan ahead. Every year you review your home's needs — not just to keep it running smoothly, but to keep it as competitive as possible with the homes being built. If updating is done well and consistently over the years, your home should sell quicker, easier, and for more money than a home that's simply been lived in and given a cosmetic once-over at the last minute.

There's a bonus, too. You'll enjoy life more in a beautiful home. For advice on what to do when, just call. Think of us as your home-investment counselors.

We're the real estate professionals with the business expertise.

The Prudential
Preferred Properties

Now that you own a home, where do you go from here?

October is a month of preparation. Preparation for the holidays, the entertaining at home, and the winter, while the weather for outside activity is still favorable. Many homeowners, have lists of jobs for the Fall Cleanup. Once those jobs are done, the owner is secure knowing that everything around the home is protected from the harsh winter months. But is the investment protected? Is the house the same as it was when originally purchased? No change in bathrooms or kitchen?

Recently I was driving past my friend Napoleon's home and I could see that he was making changes. I stopped. Before I got up the driveway, Napoleon was out to meet me. "Napoleon, what's going on?", I asked. "Why, I'm reinvesting in my home. I bought it in 1978 and since then I've done everything to maintain it perfectly. I neglected nothing. It's in the same good condition as when I bought it. Truly an A+ 1978 house. But this year I thought to myself that it's now 1994 and I'm living in a 1978 house with all the features of a 1978 house. Whoops, I thought, maybe it's time to 1994 the old 1978 house."

Here's the point. It seems that relatively few people consider the importance of updating their homes. It's only when selling that they become aware of the projects that could have been done over the years to revitalize the home...skylights, fireplaces, decks, sunrooms...while adding value to the home.

When Realtors are asked to do a market analysis on a home, the homeowner invariably asks what to do to sell the home for top dollar. Sometimes there is so much to be done that the task to complete it within a reasonable time period and budget is overwhelming. It's now a rehab project. However, if these projects had been done during the years the homeowner lived in the home, he would have enjoyed the upgrades himself. And when it became time to sell, he could put his home on the market immediately (to take advantage of a good market).

Dated kitchens and baths cost the selling homeowner dollars ($'s). Additionally, a home that was not updated when sold costs the entire neighborhood dollars ($'s) since the current value of a home is based on the average selling price of the neighborhood. (Appraisers compare homes sold within a one mile radius of the home they are appraising.) If the homes sold were not updated, then the average sales price would be at the low end of the market range rather than the top end. That's a loss. That puts less dollars in the homeseller's pocket.

Don't let the season pass; do something about it!

The 90's homebuyers are looking for low maintenance, energy efficiency and 1990's conveniences. How many more years are you going to live in your present home? Are you, like my friend Napoleon, going to use and enjoy the benefits of your home improvements or are you going to do a lot of rehabbing at the time of sale for the new buyer to enjoy?

Before jumping into a home remodeling project, time must be spent planning. Put your dream on paper and decide how involved you want to be in the project. This is a good time to call The Prudential Preferred Properties. Our Realtors can tell you if the project is an enhancement adding value to your home or a project that would devalue your home. Our Realtors will give you names of professionals equipped to counsel you on your project. It's always a good idea to talk to professionals to understand what you can expect and what the remodeling project can reasonably cost.

Don't allow your home to fall into obsolescence. You enjoy the benefits of the up-to-date conveniences and amenities while adding thousands to the value of your dream house. Call The Prudential Preferred Properties today for your list of experts experienced with home remodeling. We are The Dream House Headquarters.

Zone In On High Efficiency

Heat-N-Glo Fireplace Products, the innovator in gas and wood-burning fireplaces, has taken its direct-vent technology (introduced and patented in 1987) and incorporated it into this high performance fireplace.

The direct-vent system vents directly out the back of the unit to the outside eliminating the need for a conventional chimney system and chase. The air-tight firebox takes all of its combustion air from the outside and thus is ideally suited for today's tightly sealed homes—even in a bedroom. This balanced flue system keeps the warm air in and the cold air out. By designing the 6000 Supreme with four built-in heat tubes and an optional blower for heat circulation, this fireplace offers maximum heat output and true heating efficiency in a gas fireplace. In addition to the high efficiency of this fireplace, the 6000 Supreme is standard with a variable regulator to adjust the flame and BTU input with the turn of a dial. Studies show that 80% of all home time is spent in 20% of your home.

Heat-N-Glo Fireplace Products are available at House of Fireplaces on Route 19 in Elgin.

Palatine's Sweet Adelines Gather Their Skirts And Head West

The Country Chords Chorus of Sweet Adelines International, presents Petticoats West, its annual show under the direction of June Berg. The show will be held at St. Viator High School in Arlington Heights on October 15, 1994 at 7:29 PM.

Featuring several quartets and The Kitchen Band from the Lutheran Home of Arlington Heights, the show is based on the "Mail Order Bride" theme. The script will take all on a wagon train journey, weaving its way across the wild frontier with songs, both new and old. Travel with the chorus as Bronco Billy teaches a handful of ladies to endure the hardships of wagon train travel. With a variety of characters, the lessons are hard and what is learned is tolerance and thankfulness for what they are doing. Of course, music helps to tell the story, and the show opens with Happy Trails, written and composed by Dale Evans. Fiddle in the Band, a rousing upbeat, foot stomper, demonstrates that the pioneers did have some fun along the way.

The Country Chords Chorus is celebrating its 35th year as a chartered member of Sweet Adelines International. This is the largest singing organization for women, dedicated to educating and promoting four-part harmony, barbershop style. While this American art form originally started with men singing in quartets, it has expanded into choruses for both men and women, some chapters attaining a membership of over 100 members.

Dedicated to teaching its members how to sing, perform, and plan, Sweet Adelines is a wonderful organization for women to develop their skills and talents, not to mention gain confidence while having fun and gaining great friendships. Especially appealing to the younger women who sing are vocal, staging, choreography, costuming, public relations and marketing, goal and teamwork classes.

Along with the annual show, the chorus performs for benefit dinners, conventions, taste of Palatine, Frontier Days, Arlington International Racecourse, WGN's Pumpkinfest, you name it. Several quartets are ready to sing at birthday and anniversary parties where a personal touch is needed with close up entertainment.

Ladies interested in more singing information or for show information should call Karen at 381-5819.

Maintain The Ascetics Of Your Home And Neighborhood

Expanding garages may be a distraction from an elegant home. Also, if a collection of cars in your driveway takes on the look of a car dealership, it is time to look for an alternative method.

CircleAffiliated Systems Inc., an agency for major machine tool builders supplying systems to the U.S. automotive industry, has expanded its market to meet the needs of car collectors in parking or storing cars. The Car-Lift design is a high quality product and is very popular in Europe due to its extreme flexibility in utilizing limited spaces. This design is also used in commercial parking applications. CAS Inc. has installed a large number of Car-Lift's for car collectors. The units are now built in Spring Grove, Illinois.

Barrington Area United Way Annouces Its 1994 Campaign Leadership

Gary D. Pett, Chief Executive Officer of Harris Bank Barrington and Abby L. Fredrick, Assistant Vice-President of Suburban Bank of Barrington, will cochair the 1994 Barrington Area United Way campaign.

Each fall the Barrington Area United Way raises money from local businesses and residents on behalf of 31 health and human service agencies serving the Barrington community. In 1993, the Barrington Area United Way raised $283,000.

"We have a great group of enthusiastic volunteers lined up and ready to go. People are volunteering their time, efforts and resources to make this a successful campaign as we face the mounting needs of our community. It is truly a community effort and the many residents of the Barrington Area who receive help from our local agencies will reap the benefits," stated Pett.

Other community leaders who will be helping out include, J. Stanley Pepper of Pepper Construction, chairman of the local business division, James Fitzgerald, chairman of the Pillars Club, a newly formed leadership giving division, and Robert Woodsome, chairman of the residential mail division.

To ensure a great start for the campaign, both Harris Bank and Suburban Bank will be running pacesetter campaigns in September. Traditionally, a pacesetter company agrees to run their employee campaign before the annual kick-off event to set an example for other area companies.

"A business supporting United Way through an employee campaign is an outstanding display of corporate citizenship furthering their commitment to the community, employees and the customers they serve. This is the community where we do business and where a number of our employees live, we all have a responsibility to give something back and ensure services are there when people need them," explained Fredrick, a United Way volunteer for many years.

The campaign kicks off on Thursday, September 29 at breakfast meeting in the Allstate Commercial Plaza in South Barrington. In the weeks to follow, businesses will be solicited for corporate gifts and asked to run employee campaigns. Residents will be asked to designate their employee pledges to the Barrington Area United Way, and prominent community leaders will be asked to join the Pillars Club for gifts-of $1,000 or more.

From a Woman's Point of View

by Gail Wickstrom, Wickstrom Ford

We have been planning an addition to our dealership for many months now. Last weekend the first step of bringing in additional electricity was completed.

We are going to add to the south east end of our building a drive-in service write-up area. Seven or eight vehicles will be able to fit in the area at one time and be out of the elements. Everyone here is excited by the new addition but also dreading the chaos the construction will cause. We plan to have a greeter in the front of the building to help our customers around the confusion the construction will probably cause.

We are also adding a larger glass enclosed waiting room and glass walled general office. We in the office are very excited about being able to visually see the activity in the dealership and also the outdoors. Unfortunately I'm going to have to mend my ways a little and try not to have such a messy desk.

We know that our customers will bear with us through the construction and we will be better able to serve them more efficiently when we are finished.

We Carry The Largest Selection Of Children's Literature In The Area

Encouraging children to read is one of the most important things parents and teachers can do. Many of the districts have incorporated high quality literature into the daily classroom activities. "I praise the schools and parents for stressing literature at all grade levels," says Elizabeth Jordan Temple.

Jordan Temple Book Center carries the largest selection of children's literature in the area. Books are divided into age levels: under 4 years old, 4-8 years old, 9-12, and 12 and older. The earlier readers, that are so popular for 4-9 year olds, are conveniently displayed in spinning racks.

October is traditionally the month that publishers distribute new picture books and classics. For those of you looking for school gifts or early Christmas gifts, stop in to Jordan Temple in Crystal Lake this month.

"Many classrooms are asking for children to donate books to the class or library instead of bringing snacks to school for their birthday celebrations," says Elizabeth Temple. "The teacher pastes a bookplate or the student's picture into the book. The kids love this and it enriches all the classrooms of our communities."

James Michener, a great professor and writer, sums up the importance of reading when you are young: "If you don't read widely when your lifetime values are forming, you may miss the book that could ennoble your life. They'll be cheering on the other side of the fence, but you won't be in the game."

The knowledgeable staff at Jordan Temple will help you find a children's book just right for your child.
