The business and program will be preceded by a potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock which the Supper club is hosting.

A native of Chicago, Dr. Bond received his bachelor of arts degree from Northwestern university and divinity degree from Garrett Biblical institute, also at Evanston.

Prior to his appointment as district superintendent he served pastorates of the Edison Park and Morgan Park Methodist churches.

Twice he served as a delegate to the General Conference, top governing body of the Methodist church. He is a trustee of Northwestern university and is a member of the budget committee of the Chicago Community Fund.

Dinner arrangements are in charge of a committee headed by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Chamberlin and including the Rev. and Mrs. Carl G. Mettling, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schwemm, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schniepp, Mr. and Mrs. John Iverson, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Mariner and Mr. and Mrs. William C. Glennon.

A Family Night dinner program is scheduled at the Methodist church this Thursday evening at 6:30 with the Woman's Society of Christian Service as the sponsors.
