

Sept. 19, 1974

The Sept. meeting was held at the home of Dorothy Jones with 17 ladies present. Our new Chairman Paula Snyder started the meeting by discussing the Oct. rummage sale. She talked of a tour in Chicago on Oct. 10th to the places "where our money goes" - various children's homes etc. The cost is $5.00.

There will be a film on Oct. 6th at the Church on Mother Theresa's work in India. Tickets are $1.50.

Oct. 27th is Unicef Sunday - Our Church is the host.

Oct. 27th is also the day for collecting money for the migrant workers.

We were asked to contribute small Christmas items for Martin Hall. Peg Nelson is in charge of this project - and asks for the gifts to be delivered in November. Barbara Hoffmann read the treasurer's report. Our current church balance is $18.65. Pledges for the yr. 1974 in the amt of $50.00 have been received making a total in the treasury $68.65.

Paula announced that we lost the Dec. gen. meeting (United Women).

She discussed what our church programs for the year would be, and talked about visiting a shut-in, Eldora Brickett each month. We would like 2 people.

The postess list was passed around. We collected $3.20 in Sunday's funds.

Pat Lockwood offered devotions - substituting for Mary Ann Schultz.

We then discussed the centur piece for the Dec. Gen. meeting - and dressing the baby doll for Lake Bluff thrust stop -

We discussed the possibility of donating money for flowers for the altar at least one Sunday -

Paula adjourned the meeting.

Nov. 1974

This meeting was held at Bertine Hoffmann's home with 9 members present.

Paula made several announcements.
She told us among other things that North Park will speak to our church in January.

The December 12th meeting will be at Pat Rockwood's home.

~~We lost the Dec. General meeting.~~

We discussed again the possibility of giving flowers on Sunday for the altar. Wilma Lindner will see about this.

We lost the Gen. Meeting luncheon in Dec. & discussed the matter - we're planning on 50 people & decided on baked turkey sandwich, cranberry sauce & a lime jello dessert.

Pat Rockwood gave devotions - We then proceeded to work on the table centerpiece for the Xmas luncheon.

Dec. 12, 1974

This meeting was held at the home of Pat Forwood with 10 members present and two guests, Dorothy Myers & Jeanette Mullenbach.

~~I gave~~ the treasurer's report ^{was given} we made a profit of $28.50 on the Knave luncheon - with the balance brought forward of 41.65 we now have $70.15 in the treasury.

The minutes of the last meeting were read.

Myrtle Hilts asked us to consider giving a donation to Barrett Seminary ~~than the Church of Christ~~ of the Church Women's Society.

Wilma Linker announced that we're giving flowers for the altar on Jan. 19th. The cost will be $12.00.

Our ~~Feb.~~ meeting will be a pot luck luncheon at P. Traylor's starting at 11:30.

Marg Zatt conducted our program which was a movie entitled Christmas From the Ages, one called The Other Wise Man, & the final one shown, entitled Silent Night. Marg closed with a lovely poem - It was truly an ~~safe~~ inspiring program.

The January meeting will be at Leila McManis's home.
