Our meeting was called to order by Betty Badgett, circle chairman and hostess. She shared with us a portion of Marjorie Holmes book, Love and Laughter, entitled, "A Woman in Spring."

Pat Ghimenti, United Methodist Women's president, was present to bring to our attention the needs for leadership in our organization. She spoke of the circle as the "training ground" for the larger role of leadership in U.M.W. She brought with her charts on which we could volunteer to assist with the April 27-May 2nd Rummage Sale. We signed up for various hours and to bring foods for the bake sale and casseroles and salads for the workers.

A new Picture Directory will be made and our pictures will be taken during both daytime and evening hours, April 24-27th.

At the April U.M.W. meeting we will be able to volunteer to make cakes to be taken to Elgin Mental Hospital for one Birthday Party per month. Three cakes are needed for each month. Yvonne Knepp is chairman .

Mary Carlton volunteered to take to Mrs. Platz cookies baked by Betty Badgett.
