PYGMALION' To Be Presented
In Barrington This Weekend

"Pygmalion" will be presented for the first time in the general public Friday and Saturday, Feb. 11 and 12, at Barrington High School. Tickets will be sold at the door for $1 each at the performance.

The production will follow the popular comedy on the gay domestic life of Margaret Rose and her husband, Mr. Brown. It is based on the story of a young girl of London whose family is thrown into a fashionable circle of London life. A young man is introduced to the family by his friend, and begins to change the girl's speech patterns and manners in order to raise her to a higher social level. The production will be presented by the Barrington Theatre Club and is directed by Leonard Henning.

NINE FOREIGN
Guests Arrive Here Tomorrow

A warm welcome awaits the nine foreign guests who have been invited to Barrington's home by the Barrington-Family Home Association. The guests, who are from countries throughout the world, will be arriving in Barrington on February 12. The association has been working diligently to ensure that the guests have a comfortable and enjoyable stay in Barrington.

St. Paul Church

At a special meeting of the St. Paul Church Parish Council, a new officer was elected for the year. The new officers are as follows: President, Rev. Edward J. O'Brien; Vice-President, Rev. Walter J. Young; Secretary, Rev. John A. Murphy; and Treasurer, Rev. Joseph J. Flaherty.

MRS. SHIRLEY BLUMBERG
To Visit Local Schools

Mrs. Shirley Blumberg, wife of Rabbi Blumberg, is scheduled to visit local schools in Barrington this week. Mrs. Blumberg is expected to speak about Jewish history and culture to the students, and will also conduct a workshop on Jewish customs and traditions.

Masonic Leader
To Visit Local Schools

One of the high points of the Masonic year at St. Paul Parish will be the visit of Masonic Leader to local schools. The leader, who is a member of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, will speak to the students about the history and purpose of the Masonic Order.

Area Taverns
Raided By Illinois Agents

The Indian's Head Tavern in Barrington was raided by the Illinois State Police on February 14. The raid was conducted in an effort to shut down illegal liquor operations in the area. The police seized a large quantity of alcohol and arrested several people.

COMMERCIAL GROUP
Meets At Moose Hall

The Commercial Group will meet at Moose Hall on February 15. The meeting will be held to discuss business matters and to plan for future events. The group is made up of local business owners and professionals.

The Barrington Parking Commission was formed in 1950 to address the growing problem of parking in the downtown area. The commission is made up of representatives from various businesses and organizations.

The parking lot was expanded to accommodate more cars, and new parking meters were installed. The commission also worked to ensure that the parking lot was well-maintained and safe for drivers.

The Barrington parking lot has become a popular destination for visitors, and the commission continues to work to improve the parking situation in the downtown area.
