Lecture at Baptist Church.

Capt. S. Alberti, having lately escaped from Siberia through friendly assistance, is able to give one of the most thrilling and interesting experiences ever presented to the American public. Having served as an officer in the Russian army eleven years, two years in Turkey, three years in the Canadian mountains, and six years in Siberia in different capacities, namely, as engineer in the mines and cable transporter from place, thus knowing practically the everyday life throughout Russia and Siberia.

He came to American several years ago but had to return to Russia for the purpose of settling some business in regard to an estate left him by a near relative, when he was taken a prisoner and sent back to Siberia; on this occasion not to serve the country but on honorable capacity, but as an exile. He managed to make his escape through friendly assistance, and will impart to all the world his experiences and what actually exists in Russia and Siberia, where there is so much suffering and torture.

It will be time well spent by anyone to attend this lecture, as it is instructive and elevating, giving them an opportunity to learn something they will never forget in a lifetime, and it is not given by a person that has traveled through that country for pleasure but from the everyday life of one that has passed through all its privations. Illustrated with 100 stereopticon views and moving pictures.

At the Baptist church, Wednesday evening, October 2nd, at 8 o'clock. Admission 25c. Reserved seats 35c. 29-31.

Leonard-Donica Wedding.

A marriage that was the social event of the week took place in St. Ann's Catholic church Tuesday morning, October 1st, at half past ten o'clock when Miss Helen Donica of Grove Avenue, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Donica, was married to James Leonard of Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

Rev. Father E. J. Fox performed the ceremony and Charles Leonard of Beloit, Wisconsin, and Miss Marie McCarthy of Chicago, a cousin of the bride, accompanied the bridal couple to the altar rail.

Miss Donica wore a pretty, delicate gown of white mousseline de soie over silk and Miss McCarthy also wore white. The artistic interior of the church was made further beautiful with floral decorations of white blossoms, palms and ferns. A high central cluster of aspen-like lilies was placed above the tabernacle and bouquets of marguerites, asters and gladioli adorned the altar on each side, while within the annexed rail pines and ferns were nicely arranged on the side altars were trimmed in white carnations and over the chancel rail was suspended a large arch of asparagus fern and hydrangea under which the wedding party stood.

The ceremony was read immediately after the entrance to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. F. O. Willmarth, and a high mass followed. The church choir sang the chorus music of the mass and Mrs. Willmarth sang the solos, also singing during the ceremony, "O Promise Me," and later Millard's, "Ave Maria." Many friends gathered to witness the marriage and the wedding was pronounced one of the prettiest that have occurred here. It is also the first wedding that has taken place in this church for years.

The wedding breakfast was served at the Donica home at noon to a few relatives, friends and young ladies of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard left at three o'clock for a short trip to points unknown and will then return to Lake Geneva where Mr. Leonard conducts an agency for musical instruments.

Miss Leonard was born and raised in this neighborhood and has been a teacher in recent years in the Kelsey, Donica and White schools. She is widely known for an industrious and thoroughly conscientious young woman whose capabilities have been acknowledged. Her school work has been appreciated and it is generally known that she has not offered excellent positions in grade schools in towns on the north shore and Libertyville, Lake county, which she declined, preferring to remain nearer home.

Her home in St. Ann's church will be greatly missed, she having always taken an active interest in the choir, Sunday school and care of the altars.

Mr. Leonard has visited around Waucconda and is a friend of the Davlin and Murray families. His uncle, Mrs. James McGilly of Delevan, Wisconsin, has frequently visited here.

They will be at home after November first.

A Fable For Critics

Once there was an Ox. He was a fine, hefty Ox. He could pull a big load. He never balked, but always liked to go straight ahead.

But the Ox had enemies. There was the Flea and his whole big Family. "We don't care whether this Ox travels or not," said the Flea and his Folks. "All we want is some of his blood." Whereupon the Fleas eternally pestered the Ox and gave him That Tired Feeling.

Then there was the Tom Cat and his brothers—the Doubting Thomases. "We don't know whether this Ox is going the right way of not," said the Thomases. "Any how, we'll scratch his back for him." Whereupon the Felines jumped on the back of the Ox and scratched him for fair, which made the Ox exceedingly sorrowful.

Then there was the Fiste Pup and his Fellows Fistes—a whole litter of Fistes. "We don't care how slow the Ox goes," said the Fistes; "the slower the merrier for us. All we want is to lag behind him and bite his Tail." Whereupon the Fistes snapped continually at the Tail of the Ox, which gave the Ox a mighty mournfulness.

Finally the Ox, pestered constantly with the Fleas and the Felines and the Fistes, got to looking sickly. He stopped and lay down on his job, and there was no more going forward for him.

KEY TO THE SITUATION: The town is the Ox. The Fleas and the Felines and the Fistes are those citizens who criticize every progressive movement and do everything they can in their petty ways to make the Ox quit pulling in the right direction.

MORAL: Give the Ox a chance to pull. Everybody boller, "Git up!"

A Duck That Hatched a Law Suit.

The case of Huston vs. Reddick which drew a large crowd to the town hall last Friday night, including women and children, was tried before Justice Lines. The case concerned the claim of two men to nine ducks, valued at about $4.00 it is said. G. W. Spunner represented C. S. Huston and L. E. Bennett appeared for Charles Reddick. Both the plaintiff and defendant are farmers living west of town. Huston claimed that his duck of the valued Roman breed stole a nest on the Reddick farm and that Reddick kept and raised the ducklings. The case dragged on until towards midnight and was finally continued until Monday evening when it was decided in favor of Huston who was given possession of the ducks.

There are also four grandchildren, Charles and Genevieve Fletcher, Mrs. Susie Iverson and Miss Maybury.

The funeral was held Tuesday at the home at one o'clock and was attended by many friends. The Reverend J. F. Brigham of Sharon, Wisconsin, an Episcopal minister of eighty years, and an old friend of the family, conducted the services. A young ladies' quartette from the Baptist church sang accompanied by Miss Beulah Otis. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery.
