

COOL TO THE KAISER

NO RIOTING BUT LITTLE ENTHUSIASM SHOWN IN LONDON.

ANTAGONISM IS STRONG

"German Invasion" Hobby Causes People to Suspect Emperor's Prostration for Peace Desire for Peace.

London, Emperor William of Germany, the guest of King Edward, made a speech Wednesday at the Guild hall, where he was entertained by the city of London. He urged the strengthening of the Anglo-German relations and emphasized his unalterable desire to foster the peace of the world.

The day passed off without the expected Socialist demonstration, much less any disorder or rioting. The reception accorded Emperor William by the people of London has been respectful, but compared to that given some other royal visitors of recent years, it was in no sense enthusiastic.

The atmosphere which has prevailed during his appearance in England has been tinged with decided coolness, and there is no doubt that the English people are relieved that the passage of the German emperor through the streets of this city was attended by no disagreeable incidents.

A large section, if not a majority of English people, persists in believing Germany to be Great Britain's one enemy among the nations and this sentiment has been fanned recently by continuous warnings from the leading newspapers and reviews, as well as from military experts, that Germany's chief naval and military activity is directed toward schemes for the invasion of England—that Germany plans to surprise England some day when she is fully prepared to strike suddenly, just as Japan surprised Russia.

"The German invasion" is becoming a hobby to the anti-Germans and a subject of ridicule for pro-Germans; the idea has, however, unquestionably affected the mind of the public and it is tending to surround with suspicion Emperor William's professions of his desire for peace.

HARRIS SUED FOR $20,000.

Ex-Treasurer of Pennsylvania Accused of Accepting Bribe.

Pittsburg, Pa.—The most surprising of the many sensations which have developed since the failure of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny, in 1905, occurred Wednesday when Thomas Hinaker, receiver of the defunct institution, entered a suit inasmuch in the United States district court against ex-State Treasurer of Pennsylvania Frank G. Harris, claiming $20,000 with interest from October 23, 1903.

This sum, it is charged, was paid Harris by Cashier Clark of the bank, as a bribe for his part in permitting the promoters of the Pennsylvania Development company to use the funds of the Enterprise bank and the state.

MURDERED BY A ROBBER.

Steamship Agent at Au Sabie (Mich.) Decks Is Killed.

Au Sabie, Mich.—John Ferris, assistant agent on the Osceola & Au Sabie Steamship line, was shot Wednesday by a robber and died in the afternoon. Ferris was alone and unarmed when the man entered and demanded the money in his office. He refused and was shot in the abdomen and back, the man escaping with a few dollars. Ferris managed to drag himself to his bedroom and called the central office on his company.

INDIAN BATTLE TALE FALSE.

Denied by Superintendent Shelton, of Ship Rock Ute Agency.

Ute Agency, Ship Rock, N. M.—Superintendent Shelton, of the Ute Indian agency at this place, positively denies the report sent out from Durango, Col., that another battle took place Tuesday between the disaffected Utes and the United States troops. The report had it that six Indians were killed by the soldiers. Superintendent Shelton further states that all of the disaffected Utes are now under arrest at Ship Rock.

States Papers Lost in River.

Ontario, Ont.—Photographs and official data secured by the international boundary surveyors the past summer in their work of delimiting the Alaska line have been lost by the upsetting of a canoe in the Bradford river.

Killed and Maimed by Blast. Columbus, O.—Two men were killed and three or four injured Wednesday in an explosion of the Hercules Nitroglycerine factory at Bradner, in Wood county. The factory was demolished.

Parsons Haven for Espionists.

New York.—Any woman who wants to get married has only to go to Parsons, according to Miss Helen Varick Howell, who recently returned from that land of matrimonial opportunities, after having organized, on behalf of the secretary of war, a canal zone federation of women in Panama. "You may not think it," Miss Howell said, "but no woman need remain unmarried in Panama. There are scores of lovely bachelors here longing for the comforts of a K. K., and so the place is a great matrimonial market."

WHEN MONEY WAS SCARCE.

Practically Unobtainable During Period of Missouri's History.

"However scarce money may be at times at the present," said an old Missourian, "the oldest inhabitants will recall when it was almost unobtainable and other commodities had to be used as media of exchange. The wolf's scalp was worth a dollar because it was a state bounty upon the death of a wolf, and wildcats' skins and deer skins also had a purchasing value. Skins of the fur bearers were likewise abundant and valuable. When the first crop of Austria county, in 1837, went to Jefferson City to deliver the county revenue, he met an old friend on the way who, needing money, wanted to borrow the actual coin of the county's revenue. The cool-hearted sheriff lent it to him and went on to the capital and delivered only the scalps. By the time of the next settlement the loan was repaid and the sheriff made his next settlement complete. No note or other obligation that the word 'money' was given."—Columbia Herald.

The Peaceful Cow.

She was even more afraid of cows than most girls, so when she spied a placid animal recumbent under a tree, she advanced to stroke it, but at first refused to go through the pasture at all. Her husband calmed her fears, wanted to borrow the actual coin of the county's revenue. The cool-hearted sheriff lent it to him and went on to the capital and delivered only the scalps. By the time of the next settlement the loan was repaid and the sheriff made his next settlement complete. No note or other obligation that the word 'money' was given."—Columbia Herald.

TO PRETENDERS.

A Wholesome Word for Guidance.

Just a word to you, "Collier's" and "Yellow Journalist" and "Citizen" are glaring examples of Modern pretense. It gives you a view-point from which it is difficult to understand that some people even nowadays act from motives of old-fashioned honesty.

There are honest makers of foods and healthful beverages and there are honest people who praise them. Perhaps you are trained to believe there is no honesty in this world. There is, although you may not be of a kind to understand it.

Some of you have been trained in a sorry class of pretense, but your training does not taint the old-fashioned person trained without knowledge of pretense and deceit.

These letters call to us absolutely without solicitation. We have a great many thousand from people who have been helped or entirely healed by following the advice of Collier's and Citizen's food or drink which may be causing the physical complaints and change to Postum Coffee or Grape-Nuts food.

You are not interested enough to know the technical reasons why the change makes a change in the cells of the body. Your knowledge, or lack of knowledge, makes not the slightest difference in the facts.

You can print from old and worn plates all the cheap books your printer will produce, and sell them as just as you can, but such acts and your "learned" editorials are but commercial, and seek only "dollars" and much by pretense.

When you branch out into food values you become only ridiculous. Stick to what you know. The field may be small but it is safe. This first notice is from the President of the "Christian Nation", a worthy Christian paragon of New York. New York, Oct. 2, 1907. Battle Creek, Mich.

Dear Sirs: I am, this morning, in receipt of the enclosed money order for one of my subscribers, which I forward to you, and which I am sure you will be glad to use. I am personally acquainted with the man to whom the order is for, and know that he has no objection in writing, other than to do good.

Cordially,
John W. Pritchard, Pres.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 1, 1907.

Noticing Postum Food Office advertised each week in your reliable paper, I concluded to try it, and feeling it a duty towards those who may have suffered as I have from indigestion, desire to state what a wonderful benefit I have received from Postum, although using only a short time, and also do, I allow, realize and appreciate its good effects, but friends remark: "How much I have improved and how well I look," and I tell the facts about Postum every day, for since using it I have not had any attack of indigestion. It is invigorating, healthful; does not affect the nerves as ordinary coffee does; and I expected to find much health in general advertising, yet, finding Postum has done so much better for me than I expected to, I am more inclined to "Prove all things, hold fast that which is good." I am so thankful for good health that I wish it known by those who are afflicted with indigestion. Postum has been to me. You may use these few lines as an ad. If you so desire and my name also.

Very truly yours,
Ann A. Reeves.

215 McDonough St., Brooklyn.

Coffee hurt her, she quit and used Postum. She didn't attempt to analyze but she enjoyed the results. Undersneath it all "There's a Reason." POSTUM CEREAL CO., LTD.

TIED TO A CHAIR.

Unable to Move About On Account of Kidney Troubles.

Mrs. Anna Beebe, River and Monroe Sts., Anoka, Minn., says: "I had to sit in a chair day after day unable to move about on account of rheumatic pains in my back, hips and legs. I was short of breath and my heart would flutter after the least exertion. I had dizzy spells and bearing down pains and the kidney secretions were much disordered. I thought I would not live long, but since using Doan's Kidney Pills I am a different woman, can do my own work and have no fear of those troubles returning."

HERE'S A NEW DEFINITION.

And Many There Are Will Say Senator Platt Was Right.

A rather cynical joke has been recently directed to Senator Platt. The senator, on his last visit to the Manhattan Beach hotel, a western millionaire's daughter, to be presented to him.

"The little girl, in the course of one of her many chats with the aged statesman, said: 'Senator Platt, I don't like the political economy!'"

"Political economy, my dear child," Senator Platt is said to have replied, "is the art of never buying more votes than you actually need."

BABY'S ECZEMA GREW WORSE.

Hospitals and Doctors Could Not Relieve Him—But Cuticura Remedies a Speedy, Permanent Cure.

"Eczema appeared when our baby was three months old. We applied to several good doctors and hospitals, each of which gave us something different every time, but nothing brought relief. One of our friends recommended to us Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. A few days afterwards improvement could be noted. Since then we have used nothing but Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and now the baby is six months old and is quite cured. All that we used was one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes Cuticura Ointment, costing in all $1.25. C. F. Kara, 243 East 45th Street, New York, March 30, 1906."

Eluding the Teacher.

Willie came to school for the first time, in one hand he carried a cap and in the other a bunch of bananas. "You can't come in here with those bananas," said the teacher. Willie went out. In a few minutes he came back, walking slowly and painfully. "Where did you put the bananas?" asked the teacher. "I hid them all right," gasped Willie; "they're safe inside of me."

Sher white goods. In fact, any of the wash goods when sew, one of their attractiveness to the way they are laundered, this being done in a manner to enhance their textile beauty. Home laundering would be equally satisfactory if proper attention was given to starching, the first essential being good starch, which has sufficient strength to stiffen, without thickening the goods. Try Defense Starch and you will be pleasantly surprised at the improved appearance of your work."

Those Railway Crooks.

"Yo that's the great railway man." "Why does he look so gloomy?" "He's trying to make himself think that hard times are coming."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Saying "Hello" to Heart Throbs.

"It is a curious thing," said a prominent lecturer recently, "how some books have strong radiating personalities, so that you feel like saying 'Hello!' every time you come across them. Last Christmas I visited friends at the farm and the supper dishes had been put away, the chores done and the evening lamp lighted, we gathered beside the table for a good old fashioned 'chat'. On the center table were strewn the Christmas remembrances taken from my heart when I was a child, a small book of 'Heart Throbs' and read to them from its pages the 'piece' I spoke in school 40 years ago.

"That was enough to set in motion the friendly entertaining spirit of 'Heart Throbs,' and the music was forgotten as we took turns reading the humorous and pathetic bits of prose and verse that have been preserved in this wonderful volume. Some books have great literary value, some have historical significance, but 'Heart Throbs' is the only book I know that slips you on the back in a friendly sort of way, sending itself to your moods and proving faithful to every emotion. Next to my love of the Bible I love 'Heart Throbs.' It is the most notable book of the time."

Restricted Choice.

"The people and the corporations," said Senator La Follette, "the other day, remind me of a woman and her little boy. There was a very large chicken and a very small duck on the table and the woman, passing with the carving knife raised, said: 'Johnny, which will you take, chicken or duck?' 'Duck,' piped Johnny. 'But the mother shook her head at 'Johnny,' she said in a firm, yet kindly voice, 'you can't have duck, my dear. Take your choice, darling, take your choice, but you can't have duck.'"

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the laundry and the woman, passing with the carving knife raised, said: 'Johnny, which will you take, chicken or duck?' 'Duck,' piped Johnny. 'But the mother shook her head at 'Johnny,' she said in a firm, yet kindly voice, 'you can't have duck, my dear. Take your choice, darling, take your choice, but you can't have duck.'"

Great Comfort. "You," remarked Mr. Russell, impressively, "the doctor says if I don't take a rest and not work so hard I'll be dead in a year."

"Ah!" exclaimed his wife. "what a consolation it must be to you to know that your life's insured."
