STRANGLED HIS ENVOYS.

Morocco's Sultan Incensed Because Touatians Go to Algeria. LONDON, Jan. 8.—Advices from Tangier show that the Moorish mission sent to Touat to arrange for the annexation of the oasis to Morocco failed. The Touatians had reconsidered their desire to have the Sultan of Morocco for their protector and preferred a connection with Algeria—in other words, with the French.

NEWSPAPER DECISIONS.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office, whether directed to his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed for it or not, is responsible for payment.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages; the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post Office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima-facie evidence of intended fraud.

LET each one test his ambitions and see to it that they are worthy in themselves and laid on solid foundations, remembering that the truly valuable man is valuable in every stage of his career. Carlyle says: "Do the duty which lies nearest thee—which thou knowest to be a duty. Thy second duty will already have become clearer."

TRUE modesty is ashamed to do anything that is repugnant to reason; false modesty is ashamed to do anything that is opposite to the humor of those with whom the party converses. True modesty avoids everything that is criminal, false modesty everything that is unfashionable. The latter is only a general, undetermined instinct—the former is that instinct limited and circumscribed by the rules of prudence.

REFINEMENT in pupils can hardly be expected where it is lacking in teachers. They fail to realize that manner, as well as matter, goes a long way toward success in life, and that the future good of their pupils depends largely on the refined courtesy, which should be learned unconsciously from the teacher. Business men well understand how important a pleasing address is to the young man who wishes to obtain a situation, or who wishes to hold it when once it is secured. The young woman who adds to her intelligence a gentleness and a regard for the amenities of life will always be more acceptable socially or from a business standpoint than one who is careless in speech and coarse in manner.

THE only inevitable difference between a composition destined to an ephemeral existence, and one for which the author hopes a longer lease of life, is a difference of topic and of treatment. There is, in fine, no reason in the nature of things why the same man should not be capable of creditable effort in both journalism and literature. provided, of course, he can find the time and vigor to labor in both fields. One may add that the systematic arrangement and fluent expression of ideas, which must needs become not only habitual but almost automatic with the trained journalist, will, far from proving drawbacks, be found valuable aids to the literary artist in whatever direction his mind may be addressed.

THERE has ever been a lively discussion over the essentials to literary success. James Payn, the English novelist, who scorns the idea of inspiration, and seriously proposed the establishment of a school for teaching our boys how to write novels, as modern universities fit them for divinity or dentistry, has declared his belief that the chief thing necessary to win success for an author is a large and properly adhesive piece of shoemaker's wax attached to the seat of his work-chair. It may be doubted whether this is not an extreme conclusion. Hitherto ideas have been given some prominence in the outfit of the successful author, and they are not always readily attainable, as was discovered by the hero of that venerable pleasant who requested his stationer to fit him out with a trenchant pen and put a few caustic ones into the parcel as well. Until this golden era of the magazines and the syndicates the principle laid down by an American author of note has received general adhesion—namely, that to succeed in literature one should either have something new to say or be able to say something old in a new and entertaining fashion.

"So Bunkum is dead, is he? What were his last words?" "He didn't have any. He died before he could say 'em!"—Puck.

HUNDREDS ENTOMBED.

TERRIBLE CATASTROPHE IN A COAL MINE AT KREBS, I. T.

The Horrible Disaster Caused by an Explosion—Details Are Meager but It Is Known, However, That the Loss of Life Is Appalling.

McALLISTER, I. T., Jan. 8.—Two hundred men are entombed at mine No. 11, a coal-shaft operated by the Sage Coal and Mining company at Krebs. The awful disaster took place about 5 o'clock last evening and was caused by an explosion.

The noise of the explosion was heard by the whole surrounding country and the little town was not long in surmising the dreadful meaning of the concussion.

The top of the shaft was at once the objective point of every man, woman and child above ground, and soon the most harrowing scenes were enacted by the friends and relatives of the poor unfortunates, who were imprisoned in the mine, with only the slightest chance of rescue for those not already dead.

All was confusion for a time and no one seemed to know what to do, the result being that much valuable time was lost in commencing the work of rescue, the frantic conduct of the women tending to interfere with the efforts of the cooler-headed men to bring order out of the chaos.

They succeeded at last, however, and a force was organized to go down in the mine to render what assistance was possible to the victims. They had not returned when the last word was received from Krebs, and it is not known how many men were rescued.

It has been impossible so far to learn the nature of the explosion or its cause. It is known, however, that the loss of life is simply appalling.

SENATOR PEPPER'S BILL.

He Would Have the Government Loan $100,000,000 to the People of Indiana.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Mr. Pepper, the Alliance Senator from Kansas, introduced a bill of a purely Alliance character, intended to secure the loan by the national government of the sum of $100,000,000 to the people of Indiana.

The preamble recites that the people of Indiana are laboring under the burden of enormous interest charges made possible by great scarcity of money, the direct result of the legislation favoring the credit-owning capitalists, and hostile to the wage-earner and producer, resulting in the enforced mortgaging of lands in Indiana to such an extent as to threaten their loss. The bill itself authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to issue treasury notes to the amount of $100,000,000. These notes are to be loaned to the people of Indiana on mortgages upon their lands. Every one who accepts a loan of this description is to give a promissory note for the amount, and he is limited in his borrowing to one-half of the cash valuation of his land. To secure a fair rate of interest on the money loaned, the Governor of the State is to collect semi-annually a tax of 1 per cent, and turn it into the national treasury. When the principal of the notes fall due, if the promissory notes are unpaid, the mortgages are to be foreclosed and the land sold. If there is no bidder for a tract the land is to be bid in for the United States, and the occupant is to be permitted to remain upon it in consideration of the payment of a rental equal to a tax of 2 per cent. A safe-guard upon the issue of the Treasury notes under the terms of the bill is provided in a clause limiting their amount to a total not exceeding $100 per capita for the whole country, and not less than $50 per capita for the whole population of the State of Indiana.

Sherman Says Carlisle and Harrison.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 8.—Senator Sherman was in the city last night, en route to Washington. Concerning the Presidential question he said Secretary Blaine could have the nomination if he wanted it, but he did not think his health would permit of its acceptance. With Blaine out of the way he thought President Harrison should be the nominee. In his opinion Senator Carlisle was the proper man for the Democratic nomination, as he most clearly represented Democratic principles.

DEATH OF THE KHEWIDE.

Egypt's Ruler Succumbs to an Attack of Influenza.

CAIRO, Jan. 8.—The Khedive is dead. He had been suffering from influenza which developed into congestion of the lungs. This was complicated with a cardiac affection and this afternoon he succumbed.

Mahomet Tewfik, the dead Khedive, succeeded his father, the exiled Ismail I., now living in Paris. Tewfik was born Nov. 19, 1852. He married (Jan. 10, 1873.) Princess Eminely, daughter of El Hamy Pasha, who has borne him a son, Prince Abbas. The late Khedive was the sixth ruler of the dynasty of Mehemet. Ali, appointed Governor of Egypt in 1866, who made himself in 1811 absolute master of the country by force of arms, and whose position was recognized by the imperial decree of 1841, issued under the guarantee of the five great European powers, which established the hereditary succession to the throne of Egypt under the same rule of those of the throne of Turkey. In 1866 the Sultan agreed to make the succession to the throne direct from father to son, instead of descending, after the Turkish law, to the eldest heir. In consideration of this favor the Khedive agreed to raise the annual tribute to the Sultan's civil list from $1,880,000 to $3,600,000.

The late Khedive, by a wise administration of his government, won genuine respect both in his own country and among foreign nations. Notwithstanding the laws allowed him four wives, he had but one. While the country is nominally a dependency of the Sultan of Turkey, the Khedive has been completely under British influence.

Roberts-Vivian Nuptials.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—New York society turned out in force this afternoon to witness the marriage of Mrs. Susan Lawrence Roberts, widow of the late Marshall O. Roberts, to Col. Ralph Vivian of London.

Deprecates Baden-Powell's Boast.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The Chronicle deprecates Sir George Baden-Powell's assurance that England will win. The paper says that such a premature boast is not likely to smooth the way to Washington.

BEFORE THE KODAK.

While coming out of a Chicago theater a defenseless young man had the sight of one of his eyes probably destroyed by a jab from a needle-like weapon that projected from the hat of a young woman who was accidentally thrown against him.

In a certain Scottish town a quaint character determined to win over the minister to his side on election day. So one Sabbath morning he attended service, an unusual thing for him. He soon got wearied, however, and walked out before the service was over. Near the door he was overheard saying to himself: "Ye canna preach, an' ye wanna vote, an' I'm demd' I'll listen to ye."

Dr. Humphrey Storer, of Boston, who died recently, at a ripe old age, used to relate how when a youngster in his profession and almost starving, he received $50 in a letter requesting him to do something of a questionable character. He put the money into an envelope, directed it to the sender, and ran as fast as his feet would carry him to the postoffice lest his resolve should weaken under temptation.

There are in a certain town in Middlesex county, Mass., two rival undertakers' establishments. One of these undertakers rejoices in a son who shares his parent's pride in the success of the establishment. A citizen of the town had been lying dangerously ill for some time and the two professional men were anxiously awaiting the result. The patient died, and a passer-by saw the small son of the aforesaid, executing a war dance in the front yard of his paternal mansion, while he loudly announced over the fence to all the neighbors: "Hooray! Father's got him! Father's got him!"

Spain's King is Sick.

MADRID, Jan. 8.—Alarming rumors have been circulating concerning the health of the King. It was stated that he had been attacked by grip, but it has been learned that he is only suffering from a cold. No anxiety is felt as to his condition.

Gone to South America.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 8.—J. H. Meek, a prominent politician and lawyer of Dandridge, is missing, and is suspected of being about $25,000 short in his accounts. He was chancery court clerk and managed a school fund of $30,000. Meek is thought to have gone to South America.

Nothing is more disheartening to a man than the discovery that he has married a woman who loves to keep his writing table in order. —Elmira Gazette.

When people read a good thing about a man in the papers they look at him the next time they see him as if they hadn't seen it; when they read a mean thing about him, however, they look as if they had seen it. —Aitchison Globe.

MR. HILL SWORN IN.

THE NEW YORK SENATOR TAKES THE OATH OF OFFICE.

Proceedings in Both Branches of the National Legislature—Both Houses Adjourn Until Next Monday—Bills Introduced and Referred.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—When the Senate met every State was represented by its two Senators, except the State of Nevada, from which Mr. Jones has not yet been sworn in for his new term, and the State of New York, whose Senator-elect David B. Hill, had not yet taken the oath of office.

As soon as the journal was read, however, Mr. Hill was sworn in, under the escort of Mr. Hiscock.

Among the petitions presented and referred were several from Oregon and Washington in relation to the lands of the Northern Pacific Railroad company: several from the Illinois State Grange in favor of an income tax, and of a popular vote for the election of Senators; of free mail delivery to farmers; of improved water ways; of free binder twine, and against dealing in options.

Among the bills introduced and referred were the following:

By Mr. Peffer—For the loan of money to the farmers of Indiana.

By Mr. Cullom—To regulate commerce carried on by telegraph.

On motion, Mr. Cockerell was excused from service on the Committee on Immigration; Mr. McPherson from service on the Committee on Territories; Mr. Colquitt on Inter-State Commerce, and Mr. Voorhes on Relations with Canada; and Mr. Hill was appointed to those places.

Mr. Gorman was also excused from service on Relations with Canada and Mr. Colquitt was appointed in his place.

The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Morgan instructing the Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire into the condition of the Nicaragua canal was taken up and on motion of Mr. West was amended by instructing the committee to inquire also what amount of money has been actually expended for any purpose, and what contracts or other obligations had been made by the company.

Mr. Allen addressed the Senate in support of the Nicaragua canal project.

At 1:40 the Senate adjourned till Monday.

Work of the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Comparatively few members listened to the opening prayer. After the approval of the journal and the appropriate reference of various Executive communications, on motion of Mr. Springer of Illinois it was ordered that when the House adjourned to-day it be to meet on Monday next.

Mr. Richardson of Tennessee, chairman of the Committee on Printing, offered a concurrent resolution authorizing that committee to examine into the errors in the index of the "Record" of the present session and to take steps to remedy the defects. The resolution was agreed to.

The following bills were introduced and referred:

By Mr. Hermann of Oregon—Granting pensions to Indian war soldiers.

By Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania—For a survey of a ship canal to connect Lake Erie and the Ohio river.

By Mr. Bingham—To reduce the postage on first-class matter.

Committee Work.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Two important committees of the House effected an organization to-day. The Appropriations committee authorized the appointment of sub-committees, and deferred action on the census deficiency appropriation, requested by Superintendent Porter, until they can begin work.

It is practically settled that there will be no assemblage of the general appropriation bills in the Appropriations committee, and the distribution of the appropriation bills among several committees will remain as in the two previous Congresses.

The Ways and Means committee did a little routine business preparatory to beginning work on tariff legislation. Reuter Springer, son of the chairman, succeeds John M. Carson as principal clerk. Alexander J. Jones, a Chicago newspaper man, was appointed assistant clerk, and J. D. Darnelle of Springfield, Ill., messenger. Only eight members (a bare quorum) were present.

GUATEMALA IN THE THROES.

Apparently Well-Founded Reports that Revolutions Are in Progress There.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 8.—There are apparently well-founded rumors that there are revolutions in progress in Guatemala, as no dispatches since the presidential elections of Jan. 1 have been received from any part of that country. The Governor of Chiapas, a Mexican State bordering on Guatemala, telegraphs that he is without any information from that country, but has sent dispatches asking information regarding the actual state of affairs.

"Old Silver" Is Dying.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Frank S. Flint, the veteran catcher of the Chicago White Stockings and better known as "Old Silver," is very low with consumption and may not survive the day. Universal regret is expressed at the news. Flint, in his day, was one of the most skillful and popular players of the league.

Liabilities of $150,000.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 8.—George H. C. Neal & Co. this morning made an assignment, with liabilities of about $150,000. The assets are not known. Neal & Co. has been one of the leading dry goods firms of the city for forty years. The senior partner died a few days ago.

SEC. 7. All of the cost of said sidewalk, showing in separate items the cost of grading, materials, laying down and supervising, shall be paid to the Clerk of the Village of Norwood Park, certified to by the Village Inspector of said village, together with a list of the lots or parcels of land on which the sidewalk is to be laid, and the names of the owners thereof, ascertained by computation of the amount of special tax to be charged against each of said lots or parcels, and the amount of such special tax, together with a copy of this ordinance, in the manner prescribed by the Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled "An Act to provide additional means for the construction of sidewalks in cities, towns and villages," in force July 1, 1875.
