

BARRINGTON REVIEW.

VOL. 10. - No. 29.

BARRINGTON, ILL., SATURDAY, NOV. 30, 1895.

$1.25 A YEAR.

A PROMINENT MAN GONE.

Henry Kampert Dies Sunday Morning at 9 O'clock.

WAS AN ENERGETIC WORKER IN GOD'S VINEYARD

Was Town Clerk for the Town of Cuba from 1885 to 1892—Served as a Justice of the Peace, resigning from that Office in 1894.

Elegie auf Heinrich Kampert.

Am heiligen Sonntag, kurz nach neun Uhr, Bracht traurig der Bote die Worte, Dass selig dem Kranken der Geist entfuhr. Zu Christus, zum herrlichsten Orte. Die Herde hat es mit Wehmuth gehoert, Ein Bruder in Kraft sei gestorben. Hat dankend darob sich zu Gott gekehrt, Dass ihr und auch ihm sei Hell geworden.

Die Glocke verkundend mit dumpfen Ton Ein edler Held sei heut verschieden, Der nun gekroent mit dem Gnadenlohn, Erschaue was er geglaubt hienieden, Schnell flog die Kunde von Mund zu Munde, In Kirchen und Hausern wuszt man bald, Von dem man gehofft dass er gesunde, Das Trauerlauten der Glocke gait.

Angethan mit einem Sterbekleide Liegt der Edle vor uns auf der Bahr; Ihm der vieler Leute Stolz und Freude, Ist vor Alter ungebleicht das Haar; Doch der Tod zerbrach die starke Eiche, Kuehl gebettet senkt man ihm ins Grab; Was die Erde bekommt ist nur die Leiche, Seine Seel' ist Jesu Christi Hab.

Seine Lieben voll des Missgeschickes Freuen sich aufs frohe Wiedersehen; Stehn am Sarge thraenenvollen Blickes, Fragen sich, warum doch dies geschehn, Kennen Keinen der Thraenen werther Als der Gatt', Vater, Sohn, Bruder ist; Selbst im Himmel sehn sie ihn verklaeret Der entschlafen ist als sel'ger Christ.

Wie ein entmastet Schiff liegt am Strand, Entleert von seiner reichen Ladung, Hat sich von ihm geloozt das Lebensband, Kein Wink des Lebens brachte Labung; Der letzte Kunst verstopfte der Tod, Den ihm der Kapitaen boordert; Doch Rettung wurde ihm im Glaubensboot, Bevor sein Geist ward abgefordert.

Uns thut es leid um Dich du lieber Mann, Dass du in deinen besten Jahren, Da noch dein kuehner Geist auf vieles sann, Musstest bereits von hinnen fahren; Zwar fuer Dich bracht der Uebergang Gewinn, Denn muehevoll ist's hier auf Erden, Drum loeste williglich Dein eiler Sinn, Sich ab, von zeitlichen Beschwerden.

Gott der da reichlich Gaben ausgetheilt Laesst seinen Trost auch auf uns trifen; Die Gnade ist die unsre Wundenheiligt, Sein Geist muss reichlich in uns fliesen, Im Sturm ist er ein Ruder das nicht bricht; Ein Arzt der jeden Schaden kennt; Durch Dunkelheit bricht stets des Tages Licht; Wer its der seine Huelfe hemmet?

Durch Fleiss, Geschicklichkeit und Gottes-Huld, Erwarbst Du Gueter die habenswerth, Durch die, die Deinen, die stark und gesund, Sich naehren moegen am eignen Herd, Als zaertlicher Gatte und Vater lieb; Spartest Du sorglich fuer die Deinen; Fuer sie schlug stets warm der heilige Trieb; Niemals Wunder dass heute sie weinen.

Es bleibe Dein Vorbild denen heilig, Fuer welche Du wirktest Tag und Nacht; Du nahmst es mit Deiner Seele eilig, Befahst Dich dem Herrn, der Dich bewacht; Du fandest den Hellen in der Jugend Und hattest das Zeugnis er sei Dein; Im Glauben strebtest Du nach der Tugend, Und wurdest im Blute Jesu rein.

Des Vaters Segen ruh auf den Kindern, Gewaehre Gott seinen heisse Bitt'; Es wuerde den Schmerz der Mutter lin lern, Ging jedes lieb Kind zu Jesu mit, Dann scheiden wir nur aufs Wiedersehen, Es lasse doch dies der Herr geschehn, Er bring uns zusammen in Himmelschoehn, Wo wir nich mehr auseinandergehn.

Barrington, Nov. 28, 1895. THEO. SUHR.

One of our esteemed citizens, Mr. Henry Kampert, eldest son of Henry and Louisa Kampert, was born October 20th, 1850, and died November 24, 1895, at his residence near Barrington. He was born in Sonneborn, Lippe-detmold, Germany, and when but 3 years of age his parents emigrated to New York, and shortly afterwards removed to Illinois, locating near Barrington, where they are still living, and where Henry received his education and grew to manhood, beloved and respected by all who knew him.

Two brothers preceded him to the Great Beyond. On May 16, 1872, he was united in marriage to Miss Hannah Meiners, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Meiners, who reside in Barrington at the present day. Twelve children, three sons and nine daughters of which the oldest is 22 years of age and the youngest is 2 years, blessed the union.

On Sunday morning, Nov. 17th, Mr. Kampert, accompanied by his wife, attended services at the Salem church, which were conducted by Rev. J. Keipert, of Naperville, that morning. Mr. Kampert enjoyed the services very much, and in the afternoon they paid a visit to Mrs. Kampert's parents. It was here that Mr. Kampert suddenly complained of being ill. After reaching home he took to his bed which he was never again to leave alive.

Medical assistance was immediately summoned, who pronounced the disease inflammation of the bowels, and other doctors were called into consultation, but medical skill and good nursing proved of no avail, as Mr. Kampert grew rapidly worse, and surrounded by his loving family and kind relatives, he breathed his last a week later.

Mr. Kampert was a leading member of the Salem Evangelical church, and was an earnest worker in the church. He served as clerk for the Town of Cuba from 1885 to 1892, and was elected Justice of the Peace after leaving that office, which office he resigned in 1894. He was an extensive buyer of cattle which he shipped to the Chicago markets.

Mr. Kampert, by economy and industry, accumulated quite a large amount of this world's goods. He was highly respected by his large circle of acquaintances for his honest and upright dealings.

The funeral occurred at 10:30 on Wednesday morning, services being conducted at the residence and afterwards at the Salem Evangelical church, Rev. Theo. Suhr officiating, assisted by Rev. Fidler, of Naperville, in German, and D. B. Byers, of Naperville, in English. The remains were followed to their last resting place in Evergreen cemetery by a large procession of friends and acquaintances.

THE REVIEW extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

RAILROAD SPECIALS.

Engineer Cunningham has received engine No. 29 to be used as the pusher, and the 24 has gone in for repair. John breaths easy once more as the 29 is new, just out of the shop, while the 24 was a total wreck.

Conductor Geo. Johnson is seemingly having bad luck. Last Sunday evening it is reported that some miscreant misplaced a switch at Crystal Lake letting his caboose and 10 cars in the ditch. The wrecking train was called for to pick up the derailed train.

Conductor Dolan has been sick and confined to bed for several days. We hope he will soon be out again.

The midnight Barrington train was several hours late Monday night on account of a freight getting stalled between Palatine and Barrington.

Mrs. W. H. Dayton, of Griffith, Mo., spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Jenks.

The C. & N. W. succeeded in getting two small trains of stock into Chicago Monday night, and were the only trains south until Tuesday morning.

Train No. 503, the paper train which is due here at 4 a. m., was over two hours late Tuesday morning on account of heavy snow.

Traffic on the J. was completely demoralized Monday night and Tuesday morning owing to the heavy storm. A double-headed train became blocked in the snow at Turner and also one at Roundout. The snow plow flanger was the only thing that was run with any success.

William Antholtz had a narrow escape from death last Monday evening during the heavy snow storm. He was cleaning out switches and did not hear the near approach of a train until it was right upon him, when he gave one step and was thrown to one side of the track by the pilot. Owing to the train going very slow he was not injured, but received a scare that will keep him on the lookout for trains for some time to come.

Fireman Spriggs, who is stationed at the boiler house, reports that his coal is disappearing very fast. Somebody better take a warning from this as the old man is on the outlook for the guilty party.

Inspector Egan of the "J." took in the sights of Cuba, last Saturday.

Inspector Donlea made a business trip to Chicago, Monday.

Operator Webb resumed duty Monday evening after an absence of several weeks.

Subscribe for THE REVIEW and read all the news.

CUBA.

John Gale entertained a number of friends at his home, Thanksgiving.

John O'Neil spent a few days this week with his parents.

"All right, Charlie, but you hadn't ought to have done it."

James Givens came home to spend Thanksgiving with his mother.

There is one thing certain; and that is, you can get just what you want in the window glass or paint line at J. D. Lamey & Co.'s. Give them a call and see for yourselves.

LAMPHERE-DAVLIN NUPTIALS.

Miss Lizzie Davlin United in Marriage to Mr. W. Lamphere, of Elgin.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie T. Davlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Davlin, to Wm. H. Lamphere took place Wednesday evening in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends. Rev. Father P. M. O'Neil, of the Transfiguration church, Wauconda, officiated at the ceremony. The bride's sister, Miss Evelyn Davlin, acted as maid of honor, and Frank Horten was best man.

The bride was gowned in old rose satin and carried bride's roses.

After receiving the congratulations of those present, Mr. and Mrs. Lamphere departed on their wedding journey. On December 10th they will be "at home" in Elgin, where they will make their future home, and where Mr. Lamphere is engaged in business.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful presents.

Few young people enjoy a wider circle of friends in this vicinity.

THE REVIEW extends its best wishes to the happy young people. May they live long and prosper.

BARRINGTON LOCALS.

Mrs. L. E. Runyan, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Effelyn, visited Chicago Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder, of Mayfair, were guests at the home of W. H. Snyder Sunday.

Frank Mejer, of Chicago, visited his parents Sunday.

A. W. Meyer was the guest of A. K. Townsend at Elgin Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Conner, of Waukegan, was a guest of Mrs. L. E. Runyan a few days last week.

Rev. T. E. Ream will preach next Sunday evening from the topic: "Life's Little Things; God's Concern." All are invited to the service.

NOTICE—Anyone having in their possession any property belonging to the Fire Company will please return same to the engine house at once.

J. M. Thrasher, our optician and jeweler, made Chicago a visit the forepart of the week, selecting an elegant line of jewelry suitable for holiday presents.

A man must indeed be liberal when he will have his railroad ticket punched twice on one journey. Who was it?

Prof. J. I. Sears was a Palatine visitor Saturday. Prof. Sears justly enjoys the reputation of being the most competent music teacher in this part of the country.

The Corbett and Fitzsimmons fight is now scheduled for Jan. 10. It is to be hoped that the lusty-lunged heroes will refrain from their bellowings during the holidays.

It is announced that Gen. Miles will spend his Thanksgiving at Washington. It is to be hoped that the stuffing of the General's turkey will be of a more substantial nature than is that of his boom.

A. W. MEYER & CO.

WE LEAD—OTHERS FOLLOW AS BEST THEY CAN IN OUR

SHOE TRACK.

We have, on the merits of our goods, built up the largest shoe trade in the city. Our marked success has been on account of furnishing our customers the best styles and the highest value in every shoe at the lowest prices.

We Call Your Especial Attention to our Ladies' Invisible Cork Sole Shoes. They will keep your feet warm and dry.

Price, only $2.75 a pair

OUR $1.45 LADIES' FINE SHOE is a hummer. They are worth 50 to 75 cents a pair more.

OUR $2.00 LADIES' FINE SHOES are the best in town, and others will ask you 50 cents a pair more for the same quality.

OUR $2.50 LADIES' FINE SHOES are bargains. We have them in all widths and last. They would be cheap at $3.00 a pair.

OUR $2.75 LADIES' DRESS SHOES, you can have them lace or button on A, B, C or D last. Everyone likes a dressy shoe that fits perfectly, looks stylish and is comfortable.

No advance in the price of the W. L. Douglas' Men's Shoes.

We believe nothing can be found that will suit our customers better than the W. L. Douglas' shoes. They are popular both in style and prices. $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 Per Pair.

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL SHOES, 90c, $1.00, $1.10, $1.25 to $1.75 a pair.

They are made to wear and give satisfaction.

Men's, Ladies' and Children's Rubbers in all sizes. PRICES THE LOWEST.

The Snag Rubber Boots Will Outwear Two Pair of Other Kinds

We have customers who say that a pair of these overs will wear two and three winters. Don't buy any other.

LOWEST PRICES. SMALL PROFITS.

A. W. MEYER & CO., Barrington

CLOSING OUT SALE

As I am going out of business, I will sell my entire stock of

CLOTHING

Consisting of Men's, Boys', and Children's Overcoats, Suits, Vests and Pants and also my stock of

HATS, GAPS, TRUNKS AND SATCHELS

at a discount of 20 per cent.

Dry Goods,

Notions, Jewelry, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Shoes, Felt Boots, Rubber Boots, Overshoes, Lined Rubber Shoes of all styles, Rubber Coats, for Men and Boys, Crockery and Glassware, Window Shades, Shirts, Overalls, Sewing Machines, and Best Selected Geese Feathers

At a Discount of 15 per cent.

All goods are marked in plain figures and as low as the lowest. Remember from these figures you get the discount as above stated.

AUCTION DAYS

On Tuesday, December 3d, and Friday, December 6th including evenings, I will sell goods at auction. Sale commences at 9 a. m., 2 p. m., and 7 p. m. of each of the above days. Terms of Sale, CASH.

I desire to thank my many friends and acquaintances for their liberal patronage in the past.

B. H. SODT,

BARRINGTON, ILL.

Barrington Review.

M. T. LAMEY, Ed. and Pub.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS.

It is about time to make England understand that this hemisphere is not a grab-bag for her.

We are unable to recall the name of the man Mr. Pingree defeated, but he certainly made a thorough job of the undertaking.

The Atlanta exposition is now free of debt. It is wonderful the way the new south has waked up and proceeded to do business.

The road to poverty is easy to find, but hard to travel. The road to riches is hard to find, but easy to travel if you know how to advertise yourself on the way.

It is said that a smile of cynical triumph spread over New York society on learning that the latest heiress to wed an Englishman married one who has no title.

If the general government does not look sharp the municipal authorities along the lakes will have that treaty with England abrogated before it has an opportunity to act.

It almost seems as if there must be some power back of the Sultan when he decorates his murderers. It does not appear credible that he himself would hasten the Turkey carving.

The rottenness of the Turkish empire from center to circumference is attested by every available authority except the sultan, and his opposing testimony only tends to strengthen the conviction that the others are entirely right.

Some months ago a firm in Alabama telegraphed to a Chicago firm to buy 5,000 bushels of wheat for them. The telegram plainly read 50,000 bushels, and that is what the Chicago firm purchased. Before the error was noticed, however, the price in wheat dropped, and there was a loss of $1,000 on the deal, which the Chicago firm had to pay. It sued the telegraph company for the amount and this week lost the case because the claim was not filed within the sixty days limit. An error cipher frequently causes great trouble.

At the Ohio State university a test was made during the fall of last year, the result of which was as follows: An ordinary wagon, with a new three-inch tire, was loaded with 4,480 pounds, the dynamometer being used to measure the draft. On a hard dirt road the draft was 254 pounds; on a grass field it was 468 pounds; on newly plowed land it was 771 pounds. The draft power of a horse of 1,000 pounds is 150 pounds, and therefore two horses could draw the load easily on a grass sod. With a narrow tire, half as much is a full load for a two-horse team, showing a marked advantage for the wide tires, in addition to which they become rollers, and smooth and level the road, and so make it better the more it is used, instead of cutting it into ruts, as is well known the narrow tires do on soft roads.

Immigration is, without doubt, on the increase, though the total for the calendar year will be smaller than it has been in the years when the current of the population movement hitherward was at its height. For the month of September the number of immigrants was over 11,600 in excess of that for September, 1894, while for the nine months the total was nearly 58,000 in excess of that for the corresponding period of last year. If the proportion of increase which has so far obtained should continue during the year, the augmentation for the twelve months would be somewhere in the neighborhood of 77,000. The increase in the volume of immigration would seem to be a reflection of the improvement of material conditions in the United States which has been going on for a year or more.

A good deal of mystery pertains to the water level of the great lakes between the United States and Canada. They constitute altogether an enormous fresh water ocean embracing 77,450 square miles. This is an immense reservoir, and it does not seem likely that the withdrawal of 300,000 cubic feet per minute by the proposed Chicago drainage canal would materially affect it. In a rain of six inches which recently fell over these lakes, the amount of water added to them was 1,079,640,176,000 cubic feet. It would take seven years for the Chicago canal to withdraw this amount of water. There are, however, periodical rises and falls in all the lakes which have never been accounted for. An old boatman on the St. Lawrence river says that these rises and falls of the river occur in periods of seven years, the water steadily rising seven years, and then falling as steadily for the same length of time. At present the St. Lawrence is at its lowest ebb. Next year it will begin to rise, and by 1902 it will be as high as it ever is.

HISTORY OF A WEEK.

THE NEWS OF SEVEN DAYS UP TO DATE.

Political, Religious, Social and Criminal Doings of the Whole World Carefully Condensed for Our Readers—The Accident Record.

William Langford, 12 years old, was instantly killed by falling under a coal car at Galveston, Tex.

John Farwell, aged 60 years, an early settler of Livingston county, Illinois, was instantly killed by being thrown from his wagon at Pontiac.

N. H. Hawley, a brakeman of Ashtabula, O., was killed in Oil City, Pa. He was a son of Gideon Hawley, the oldest engineer on the Lake Shore road.

William Nowlin and his wife, colored, were severely burned by a fire which destroyed their home at Indianapolis, Ind. The woman cannot recover.

At New York Andrew Tinks, a Hungarian, while intoxicated, attempted to murder his 15-year-old stepdaughter with a hatchet, because she rejected his advances, and then committed suicide. The girl is in a dangerous condition. The affair almost created a panic in the tenement in which it occurred.

John Kennedy, ex-president of Typographical Union No. 101, who was expelled last September for having printed in the Dayton Journal certain criticisms of the government printing office, has been reinstated by the president of the International union, to which he appealed.

Archbishop Casanova, of Santiago de Chile, invested the new archbishop of Buenos Ayres with the pallium.

Argentina's minister of the interior has submitted to the senate a bill abrogating all government railway guaranties.

In secret session Bolivia's congress approved the Chilean boundary treaty. This may involve the final disposition of the provinces of Tacna and Arica.

The bark Europa, from Leith to San Francisco with coal, burned at sea. The crew was rescued by the British ship Forfarshire and landed at Concepcion, Chile.

Five members of a gold prospecting party, two of them from California, were found dead near Mazatlan, Mexico. It is thought they lost their way and died of starvation and exposure.

At the La Ferme cigarette factory in St. Petersburg a serious riot was one of the results of a strike, the rioters smashing new machines, which were the cause of the strike. A thousand strikers were arrested.

While skating on Round Pond, Vt., two boys, George Ruit, aged 13, and Jean Beaupre, aged 11, were drowned.

John Bell, a bridge builder, from Carversville, Ill., was shot and killed near Fort Smith, Ark., by a one-armed gambler, Joseph Hunter. The tragedy was the result of a quarrel.

An unknown tramp died in the jail at Beloit, Wis., soon after the police had picked him up unconscious at a camp. His head was crushed. Two companions are under arrest.

Paul Glucksmann, one of the merchants arrested at Purcell, I. T., charged with having applied the torch to his stock of goods and store building during the fire last Tuesday morning, has committed suicide.

The Graphic Herald plant, at Webster City, Iowa, has been sold to Evans Brothers. The senior member of the firm is now in charge of the United States land office at Des Moines and the junior member is the editor of the Williams Reporter.

Rumor in New York has it that the attitude assumed by Commissioner Grant in the police board has so displeased his colleagues that Mayor Strong will endeavor to prevail upon him to resign from the board and take the place of dock commissioner.

John Richards and Thomas Watts, the negroes who waylaid, robbed, murdered and then burned the body of Miss Bagwell, near Greenwood, S. C., are reported to have been lynched. They were taken to the Abbeville jail and a mob went after them.

Frank C. Huffman, the train robber, who was killed in Hickory county, Missouri, by Sheriff James K. Moore, was one of the most notorious bandits that ever operated in central Missouri.

Senator James McMillan of Michigan has purchased an estate in Manchester, N. H. It is known as the "Towne estate." It borders on the ocean and contains seventy-eight acres. Extensive improvements will be made about the buildings.

The ninth annual meeting of the national fraternal congress (American) opened in Toronto. President S. A. Weill, of Pittsburg, presided. The societies represented by the congress include a benefit membership of 1,337,570 and a social membership of 30,056, and the protection in force at the end of the year was $2,847,054.610.

A new bank, to be called the Farmers' State bank will be established in Dyersville, Dubuque county, Iowa, with a capital of $25,000.

Kauffman Brothers, cigar manufacturers at Rockford, Ill., have been closed by the sheriff on two suits by local creditors amounting to $1,360.

CASUALTIES.

Five persons were killed outright, one fatally injured and many others seriously hurt at the corner of Van Buren and Franklin streets, Chicago, Friday. Those killed were firemen. The financial loss will be in the neighborhood of $400,000.

Thomas Kelley, a farm hand at Emington, Ill., was gored to death by an infuriated bull.

Elmer Frazer, of Peru, Ind., an employe of Brownell's planing mill, was crushed to death by a log.

While hunting ducks on the Wisconsin river at Boscobel Fred Renshaw was accidentally shot in the back by Peter Welley and will die.

William Hamilton, aged sixty, a veteran of the Civil War, was killed by a caving embankment at Emporia, Kan.

Russell Keys, a boy of Salem, Ill., while hunting with three companions, was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun.

By the explosion of a lamp at Ottawa, Ill., Mrs. Catherine Mahew, an aged Frenchwoman, was cremated and her house destroyed.

Hawley's block in Danbury, Conn., was destroyed by fire, many of the tenants narrowly escaping death. The loss is $160,000.

Fire consumed eight-story manufacturing building on the corner of Canal and Jackson streets, Chicago, Wednesday night. The building was occupied by twenty firms, who all suffered a total loss of their plants. Financial loss will be over $600,000.

James Cochran, of Moweaqua, Ill., aged 17, died from injuries received while wrestling with his brother.

Fire at Lowell, Mass., destroyed a five-story block in the center of the city, causing a loss of at least $350,000.

Forest fires are raging on the Little Kanawha, near Parkersburg, W. Va. Large tracts of woods and barns and fencing have been burned.

At Union Springs, Ala., a passenger train ran into an open switch and struck two loaded freight cars. The engine and freight cars were demolished, while Fireman Morris was killed and Engineer Lawrence was badly burned.

CRIME.

Otto Troutman, of Parsons, Kan., was arrested on the charge of murdering his wife.

The Coles county grand jury adjourned at Charleston, Ill., after a two weeks' session. One hundred and nineteen indictments were found.

Bad Bay was found guilty of murdering ex-Sheriff A. C. Crain at Ozark, Mo., and was given twenty-five years in the penitentiary.

Police at South Bend, Ind., have arrested Edward Fleming on suspicion of aiding in blowing a safe at Barnett Brothers' meat market Nov. 17.

Amanda Cody and Florence English were hanged at Warrenton, Ga., for the murder of the Cody woman's husband. Florence was a man.

Ex-Priest Dominick Wagner has been released from jail at St. Joseph, Mo., all the remaining cases against him having been nolle prossed.

H. A. Tucker, president of the Bank of Genesee, Idaho, was arrested on a charge of stealing the books of the bank from the vault and admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000.

Mrs. Boyd sued a saloon-keeper at Casey, Ill., for causing her husband's death, and the jury disagreed. The case will be tried again, and if the woman wins, other suits will be commenced.

The jury in the United States court at Auburn, N. Y., found Mrs. Mary T. McMillen, alias Mrs. Mack, guilty of counterfeiting postage stamps. She was sentenced to a year and a half in the penitentiary.

Atchison, Kan., is being flooded with $1 bills raised to $10. The specimens are almost perfect, and the bills have been successfully passed both there and at Leavenworth.

John West, of Ottumwa, Iowa, fearing he would not recover from typhoid fever, shot himself. His wife, who was convalescing from typhoid, is likely to die from the shock.

Thomas Dempsey, who drove his hack in front of a train at Manitowish, Wis., causing the death of Andrew Weblin, has been held for trial in bonds of $500.

A negro supposed to be Moses Sheehy, aged twenty-eight, of Chicago, was shot and killed in Philadelphia by Officers Whalen and Brown, of the Reading Railroad. He was one of a gang of vagrants who had interfered with railroad laborers. When the officers tried to disperse them the tramps set upon them with stones and they shot them in self-defense.

The government has just collected $277.63 from the bondsmen of J. W. Thompson, postmaster at Meadville, Miss., in 1870, and who was short in his accounts.

Charles Hurd, a negro who murdered Jasper D. Kelly, white, at Wartburg, Tenn., was hanged by a mob.

John O. Connor, who was short in his accounts as postmaster at Maryville, Mo., thirteen years ago, and who was captured at Monett, Mo., has been put in jail at St. Joseph, Mo.

Calvin Rains, of Anna, Ill., has been indicted for the murder of J. B. Coulter, the aged farmer with whom Rains and his wife were living.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Labor unions of Chicago and suburbs united in an enthusiastic greeting to Eugene V. Debs on his arrival at that city after his release from jail at Woodstock, Ill. He made a speech in the evening to an immense audience.

Dun's trade review shows the business of the country to be in a fairly satisfactory condition.

The Des Moines-Rapids canal has been closed to navigation for the season.

Mrs. M. H. McGrath, of Fulton, Ill., has been appointed official instructor in the unwritten work of the Rebekah degree, I. O. O. F.

The insurance laws codifying commission at Columbus, Ohio, heard arguments from representatives of the accident insurance business.

The directors of the Calumet and Heckla Mining company have declared a dividend of $5 per share, payable Dec. 18 to stockholders of record Nov. 25.

The foot and mouth disease has appeared among cattle in Brazil, and Secretary Carlisle has directed that the regulations for the disinfection of hides be applied to the hides of meat cattle originated in any part of South America.

The Lutheran conference of Northwestern Kansas closed a three days' session at Minneapolis. Western Kansas churches were reported as needing much assistance.

The Thomas Bradshaw Shoe company with a capital of $25,000, has been incorporated at Turner, Ill. Operations will be commenced Feb. 1 and 100 persons will be employed.

The Southern Illinois Medical association closed a two days' session at Anna. Specialists from Chicago read papers and performed surgical operations before the delegates.

The Iowa Horticultural society meets at Hampton Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and arrangements are complete for one of the best meetings the society has ever held.

Rev. A. R. Bickenback, of Lyons, Iowa, has been installed as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Dixon, Iowa. The services were conducted by Rev. F. S. Arnold, of Fulton, Ill.; Rev. A. M. Carter, of Sterling; Rev. W. S. Marquis, of Rock Island, and Rev. J. W. Skinner, of Morrison.

In the United States circuit court at Syracuse, N. Y., the jury in the case of the Atlas Knitting company of Amsterdam, N. Y., against Abraham Hart and others of Chicago, returned a verdict of $9,073.34 in favor of the plaintiff.

The first case in Michigan under the new compulsory school law came up in St. Clair, when two parents were fined $5 each for refusing to send to school their daughters.

Robert B. Fort, of Lacon, Ill., will enter the race for republican nominee for senator from his district. He is the only son of the late Colonel Fort, former congressman from this district.

The committee appointed by the national conference of the Free Mission church to try Rev. Mr. Davis, of Minneapolis, on charges preferred by Professor Crinell, has decided to drop the case.

The national fraternal congress at Toronto has adjourned. A committee was appointed to co-operate with the Ohio commission, which will inquire into insurance and fraternal societies.

At the second annual convention of the National Hardware association, in Pittsburg, reading of papers occupied the day and the delegates were given a banquet in the evening by local merchants.

The coal operators and miners came to an agreement at Boone, Iowa, and the strike is over. The men will receive 90 cents a ton.

Unless the 10 per cent reduction is restored, it is thought there will be a general strike on the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad.

Nearly all hope for the safety of the schooner Edna M. Champion, which sailed from Philadelphia Oct. 12 for Port Tampa, Fla., is gone. She carried a crew of nine men.

LATEST MARKET REPORTS.

CHICAGO.

Cattle - Common to prime	1.50	@ 5.10
Hogs	2.00	@ 3.65
Sheep - Good to choice	1.40	@ 3.60
Wheat - No. 2	.55	@ .57
Corn - No. 2	.27	@ .28
Oats	.17	@ .18
Rye	.36	@ .37
Eggs	.19	@ .20
Potatoes	.16	@ .24

MILWAUKEE.

Wheat - No. 2 spring	.56	@ .57
Corn - No. 2	.29	@ .30
Oats - No. 3 white	.19	@ .20
Barley - No. 2	.35	@ .36
Rye - No. 1	.37	@ .38

PEORIA.

Rye - No. 2	.36	@ .37
Corn - No. 3	.28	@ .29
Oats - No. 2	.18	@ .19

KANSAS CITY.

Cattle	1.75	@ 4.40
Hogs	3.25	@ 3.60
Sheep	2.00	@ 3.65

TOLEDO.

Wheat - No. 2	.64	@ .65
Corn - No. 2 mixed	.28	@ .29
Oats - No. 2 mixed	.19	@ .20

CHICAGO THEATERS.

AMUSEMENT ATTRACTIONS FOR COMING WEEK.

What the Managers of the Various City Play-Houses Offer Their Patrons—Drama, Vaudeville and Operatic Engagements.

McVICKER'S THEATER—"Bonnie Scotland" will continue to be presented at McVicker's Theater till Saturday evening, Nov. 30. The play is strong in interest, plot and situations. The highland costumes are remarkably picturesque and the scenery equally so. The company that is presenting the play is of exceptional ability and all the points of the play are brought out prominently. The bagpipers and sword dancers are a novelty and create much enthusiasm.

Following "Bonnie Scotland" at McVicker's, Dec. 2, Mr. Joseph Jefferson will begin his annual engagement in Chicago. It has as yet not been decided whether he will open his season in "Rip Van Winkle" or in "The Cricket on the Hearth."

On the afternoon of Dec. 5, Thursday, at McVicker's Theater, a benefit will be given the Actors' Fund of America. Those who will participate are Mr. Joseph Jefferson in the one act comedy, "Lend Me Five Shillings," the fourth act, which is the strongest, of "The Witch," an act from "The Brownies," and a number of other prominent features. The charity is a worthy one, as it takes care of any number of the sick and needy in the theatrical profession.

"Rory of the Hill," an Irish drama, by James Connor Roach, which had a six months' run at the Academy of Music, New York, will shortly be seen at McVicker's Theater. It is said to be the best Irish play written since Boucicault's days. Mr. Connor Roach, who also plays the leading character, has been praised by both pupil and press for his great work both as an actor and author.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE.—Beginning last Sunday, Nov. 17th, at the Chicago Opera House, Miss Camille D'Arville and her excellent company of lyric artists presented for the first time in Chicago, Ludwig Englander and J. Cheever Goodwin's historical comic opera, "A Daughter of the Revolution." As the title indicates, the story follows historical incidents of 1776. American patriotism in comic opera form should be successful. There will be seen British and Hessian military officers, colonial dames, American officers and troops, who will make the scene most realistic. J. Cheever Goodwin, who wrote the libretto, is well known here as having written "Wang," "The Merry Monarch," "Doctor Syntax" and other successful operas, and in "A Daughter of the Revolution" has made a special effort, and much comedy in action may be expected. Miss D'Arville has a great part in the title role. She has three changes of costume to make during the opera, which gives her opportunity to appear as soldier, servant maid and grande dame. It is one of the most pretentious offerings that Miss D'Arville has yet been seen in, and her voice was never richer than the present season, and one may look forward to a great operatic night on Sunday, and another brilliant triumph for Miss D'Arville.

Other Attractions for Next Week.
Columbia.....Brownies
Holley's.....Hansel and Gretel
Grand.....A Trip to Chinatown
Haymarket.....Joseph Murphy
Alhambra.....Girl Wanted
Academy of Music.....
.....On the Mississippi
Lincoln.....Hanson's Superba
Hopkins' (West Side).....
.....Continuous performance
Hopkins' (South Side).....
.....Continuous performance
Olympic.....Continuous performance
Havlin's.....The Land of the Living
Sam T. Jack's.....Burlesque
Lyceum.....Vaudeville
Schiller.....The Witch

Dramatic Notes.

Robert McCleery and Thomas Fitzpatrick, who courteously preside at the Chicago Opera House box office, will have a benefit at that theater on next Sunday evening. The program includes volunteers from all the current attractions at the other theaters, and the evening promises to be a veritable "passing show" of Chicago amusements.

At Holley's for two weeks, commencing Monday, Nov. 25, will be "Hansel and Gretel," the fairy opera that so much has been said about. The tour in America is under the direction of Augustin Daly.

Henry Dickson will give a series of Shakespearean recitals at Steinway Hall late in the season.

Augustin Daly has, it is said, surpassed all previous efforts in his production of "The Queen's Necklace," which Mrs. Potter and Mr. Bellew bring to the Chicago Opera House following Miss D'Arville's engagement. "Le Collier de la Reine" will, it is said, reveal many charming dramatic episodes in the life of the fascinating and unfortunate Marie Antoinette.

NEWS OF ILLINOIS.

A WEEK'S DOINGS IN THE PRAIRIE STATE.

Political, Religious, Social, Personal, Commercial and Miscellaneous Occurrences Gathered from Many Sections—Happenings tersely told.

Hon. Charles S. Lawrence of Springfield, Ill., was found dead in bed at his farm, near Elkhart, Logan county.

In the Sangamon county, Illinois, circuit court, the case of Representative Milroy H. Gibson, of Chicago, indicted on the charge of receiving a bribe to make a favorable report on the condition of the Interstate Building and Loan Association of Chicago, was set for trial this week.

Railroads sometimes have old-fashioned farmer's ways after all. The St. Louis Air Line railroad will work out its taxes, amounting to $2,000, on the roads of Spencer county. A Rockport paper suggests that the road haul stone into the county from along its line where there is an abundance of stone in order to macadamize the roads.

The Chicago Legal Adviser calls attention to the fact that it is not the duty of farmers to cut down the noxious weeds in the public highway, and says that a statute passed by the recent legislature makes this an imperative duty of the highway commissioners in every township, under a penalty of from $5 to $25 fine for neglect to perform this duty.

There are verbal pictures of real life sometimes given which are positively refreshing. The Mt. Vernon News, for instance, says: "A farmer coming into town with a wagon heavily loaded with apples, lost the hindgate of his wagon on West Broadway, near the L. & N. depot, and did not discover the fact until he had driven a distance of two blocks. School had just been dismissed and the children were swarming on the streets. We could describe what happened, but think such description unnecessary. Most of us have been in just such wrecks."

The members of the Rockford First Congregational church have started a crusade against the postoffice being kept open for the delivery of mail on Sunday. Resolutions have been passed asking for the co-operation of the other churches in a petition to the postmaster general requesting that it be closed. The action was brought about by the announcement that the new Federal building would be thrown open for public inspection next Sunday. In the meantime, these same members will continue to have the street cars run, the butcher deliver meat, the Monday morning newspaper (for here comes Sunday labor), and in short all these features of the Sunday of to-day.

A very important case with regard to the interpretation of the Australian ballot law was passed upon by the State Supreme court. In most elections held under the law heretofore, indeed, in all elections held strictly according to the letter of the law—many ballots have been cast aside and declared worthless because of some technical omission or commission, although the intention of the voter might be very evident. The court holds that in such cases, the ballots shall be counted as the plain intention of the voter indicates. The case decided is the well-known election contest case in Christian county, involving the choice of a county superintendent of schools.

A recent article in a Chicago paper regarding the excavation of an Indian mound was being discussed in Pana the other day, when J. H. Miller stated that he had, through curiosity, done some digging in the Indian mound five miles due east of Oconee. The mound belongs to Clark Price and its altitude is so great as to give a beautiful view of Pana to the observer. The doctor removed the earth to a depth of about six feet, when his spade struck right across the hips of a skeleton. Further search revealed skulls and other portions of skeletons, which were heaped one upon the other, as though slain in battle and thrown there for burial. Large numbers of stone hatchets and arrow tips are found in the vicinity of the mound.

The McClelland mystery of Centralia is branching out and may become famous yet. A dispatch from Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "Then years ago Alexander McClelland and a young son suddenly and mysteriously disappeared from Centralia, Ill. Last summer the skeletons of an old and young man corresponding to McClelland and son were discovered near the residence of an older one of McClelland's sons, not far from Centralia. Investigation strengthened a suspicion that the missing McClellands had been murdered by the older son, who was accordingly arrested and is now on trial for his life. The attorneys for the defense have written District Clerk Howbert, of Colorado Springs, that the missing ones have been traced by a slight clew to this city in 1885, where they probably settled on a ranch. The authorities are making diligent search in the hope that an innocent man's life may be saved."

The friends of the late Curtis Robinson, formerly a prominent real estate dealer of Chicago, and who died in 1892, were amazed to learn that he is charged with having deserted a wife in Massachusetts in the early '60s, when he came to Chicago, and his three children are probably surprised to find their right to inheritance challenged by their Massachusetts relatives.

There is a good story being told on ex-Gov. Francis, of Missouri, and a party including one or two prominent Illinois politicians, who lately fished and hunted at King's Lake. Of course it has been kept out of the papers. They had a fine lot of dogs with them at the lake, some $2,500 worth of them, one alone being valued at $600. They set a lot of traps with meat and forgot to feed the dogs. In consequence the dogs were caught in the traps and killed. No further particulars are necessary.

Gen. Carbon, Madison county, where there has been considerable work for the state board of arbitration recently, is not such a place that the ordinary American citizen would seek after. The miners in the place have been causing considerable trouble within the past few weeks and the authorities who have been investigating the matter have come to the conclusion that it is a wonder that there has not been more trouble than there has been. "Why," said one of the members of the state board Tuesday, "I don't believe there are more than two families in the place which are of the same nationality. There is not an American or a Negro in the town. The Americans won't go there and the Negroes cannot stay there. I was talking with a Mr. Flynn, who seemed to be about the most important man in the locality."

The case of Llewelyn Roberts against Miss Harriet N. Haskell, principal of Monticello Seminary, at Godfrey, for $100,000 damages for ruining his business, has been dismissed in the Circuit court at Edwardsville, because of the plaintiff's failure to give bond for costs. Roberts conducted a grocery and confectionery store near the famous old seminary, and did a thriving business with the students. Some of the young ladies at Miss Haskell's school formed the acquaintance of cadets at the Western Military Academy of Upper Alton. They were, however, unable to carry on a correspondence for the reason that all letters for the seminary were subject to Miss Haskell's scrutiny. The latter claimed that the young ladies arranged and did receive their mail through Roberts, and a boycott was ordered on his establishment, which resulted in breaking him up in business. He brought suit against Miss Haskell for $100,000 damages last spring, and the case attracted much attention at the time.

The new regiments of the state militia, authorized by the last general assembly, have not been forthcoming as yet, and it has been hinted that it has not been so easy a matter to raise the men as was at first supposed. The authorities are at work on the new battalions, and the enlistments are now being solicited, as the following from the Mt. Vernon Register indicates: "Neil P. Pavey is in receipt of a letter from Colonel R. M. Smith of Effingham, commanding the Fourth regiment, I. N. G., informing him that Governor Altgeld had commissioned him to raise another regiment of 1,200 men for the state militia, and it is probable Mt. Vernon will be granted permission to organize one of the companies composing it. At present there is no appropriation for the equipment of the contemplated regiment, but as sufficient funds will be available in a short time, it is altogether probable that this city can now have a company of 'soldier boys,' if it wants one bad enough to work for it. Colonel Smith promises to do all he can to secure the coveted honor for this city. The new regiment will be equipped with new uniforms, rifles and other accoutrements."

The capture of "Dr. D. Allen" in the Weakly settlement, northwest of Shelbyville, reveals a case very similar to the Dr. Fraker life insurance swindle, attempted in Missouri. On June 19, 1894, George W. Hinkle, of Barr's Store, a small village in Macoupin county, accompanied by two friends, Tenney and Smith, started for Grafton, on the Missouri river, on a pleasure expedition. It was nearing dark when the party reached the river, and the trio concluded to take a bath. Hinkle paddled away from the shore, and after a time startled his companions with a cry for help. They attempted to respond to his appeals, but were unable to reach him, and he disappeared, drowned, as it was generally supposed. At the time of the alleged drowning he had $5,000 life insurance in the Galesburg Covenant, and $2,000 accident insurance in the Travelers. The insurance companies suspected fraud, but the latter company eventually paid over to Hinkle's widow's lawyer the $2,000, to be held in trust until the 1st of October. The Covenant made a fight and has had detectives searching for Hinkle. They learned two weeks ago that he was in Shelby county, and he was found at work at a saw mill north of Shelbyville. When arrested he confessed his identity, and said "he was glad he was alive." He was taken to Carlinville for trial.

Neuralgia of the Heart.

THE TERRIBLE DISEASE THAT ATTACKED MRS. HENRY OSTING.

Slowly Losing Her Life—Physicians Were Powerless—Friends Were Helpless—At Last She Found a Remedy With Which She Cured Herself and Laughed at Physicians.

(From the New Era, Greensburg, Ind.)

Hearing through Messrs. Bigney & Co., druggists, of Sunman, Ripley county, Ind., that Mrs. Osting, wife of Henry Osting, a prominent and influential citizen of that town, had been cured of a bad case of neuralgia of the heart and stomach the editor of the New Era determined to know for the satisfaction of himself and the benefit of his readers the truth in regards to the matter, and took advantage of a trip to Sunman last week.

The Osting residence is a very handsome one, and on every hand is seen the footprints of good fortune. Mrs. Osting herself, hale and hearty, invited us into her cosy parlor. One could hardly believe by looking at the lady, who showed all signs of good health, that she was but nine months ago a despondent victim of that dread disease, neuralgia of the heart and stomach. In answer to the question if she had been cured of a bad disease of neuralgia by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and as to whether she objected to an interview, she replied in her pleasant way, "Why, no sir, I don't, for they've done me such a wonderful good that I feel I owe everything to them." And the statement was to be believed, for she was the example of perfect health, and we were informed by her neighbors and friends that but a short while ago she was only a living corpse.

Mrs. Osting continued: "No sir; I never did have good health; I was always naturally weak. When quite young I began experiencing trouble from my heart and stomach which the doctors said was neuralgia. I was continually suffering great pain, but not one of the many well-versed physicians from whom I received treatment was able to do me any good. Severe, sharp pains would shoot over my entire body and more severely through my heart and stomach. My entire system became nervous as pains would increase; my appetite began to fail, and for weeks I could not eat a meal—just mince over the victuals. I couldn't sleep, and would only pass the nights in agony. It's a wonder that I kept up at all for it's so little that I could eat and sleep for I suffered so. No physician could do me any good. My family physician said the case was hopeless. I was discouraged. I had tried every medicine that I could hear of, that was claimed to be good for my troubles, but not one did me the least good. Finally, I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and our druggist, Mr. Bigney, advised me to try them, for he said they had done so many people good. I had no faith in patent medicines then, for none had done me any good, but I thought I would try them, for surely they couldn't hurt me. I found relief immediately after I began taking them, and the longer I took them the better I got. By the time I used six boxes I was entirely cured. I never had been able to do my work before. I began taking the pills last October and in December I was well and able to do my work. I can truly say, for the benefit of other sufferers, that I owe my health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

To confirm her story beyond all doubt, Mrs. Osting made the following affidavit:

STATE OF INDIANA, ss
COUNTY OF RIPLEY, ss
Mrs. Henry Osting, being duly sworn on her oath, saith the foregoing statement is just and true.

Mrs. HENRY OSTING.
Sworn and subscribed before me, July 20, 1895.
V. W. BIGNEY,
Notary Public.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are considered an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, that tired feeling resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

There may be religion in art, but there is no art in religion.

Full information respecting the best fruit and farm land in Riversville Co., Cal. Address Hemet Land Co., Hemet, Cal.

Features of sporting life—broken noses.

The Sunny San Luis Valley. FOR SALE—The best improved Rancho (farm) in Southern Colorado. 320 acres. Address F. P. Baker, Topeka, Kas., or N. R. Baker, Alamosa, Colorado.

An army officer who failed in his many attempts to borrow money, was advised to "strike" his flag.

Many influences combine to reduce health to the danger limit. The reviving properties of Parker's Ginger Tonic best overcome these ills.

You can coax a man a rod easier than you can push him an inch.

Everyone knows how it is to suffer with corns, and they are not conducive to graceful walking. Remove them with Hindercorns.

The time to shoot folly is not when it flies, but before it flies.

I believe Piso's Cure for Consumption saved my boy's life last summer.—Mrs. ALLIE DOUGLASS, LeRoy, Mich., Oct. 20, '94.

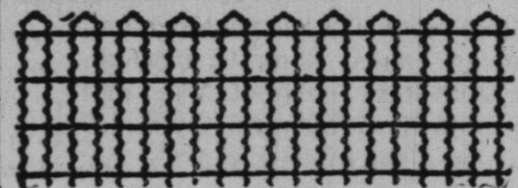

Education is an acquired habit.

DR. KILMER'S SWAMP ROOT

The Great KIDNEY, LIVER & BLADDER CURE.

At Druggists, 50c & $1. Advice & Pamphlet free.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

STEEL WEB PICKET FENCE.

Also CABLED POULTRY, GARDEN AND RABBIT FENCE.

We manufacture a complete line of Smooth Wire Fencing and guarantee every article to be as represented. If you consider quality we can save you money. Catalogue free.

De Kalb Fence Co., 121 High Street, DE KALB, ILL.

Timely Warning.

The great success of the chocolate preparations of the house of Walter Baker & Co. (established in 1780) has led to the placing on the market many misleading and unscrupulous imitations of their name, labels, and wrappers. Walter Baker & Co. are the oldest and largest manufacturers of pure and high-grade Cocos and Chocolates on this continent. No chemicals are used in their manufactures.

Consumers should ask for, and be sure that they get, the genuine Walter Baker & Co.'s goods.

WALTER BAKER & CO., Limited, DORCHESTER, MASS.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away!

ROTO-BAG

makes the nerves strong, and brings back the feelings of youth to the prematurely old man. It restores lost vigor. You may gain ten pounds in ten days.

GUARANTEED TOBACCO HABIT CURE.

Go buy and try a box to-day. It costs only $1. Your own druggist will guarantee a cure or money refunded. Booklet, written guarantee of cure and sample free. Address nearest office.

THE STERLING REMEDY CO., CHICAGO, MONTREAL, CAN. NEW YORK.

CASCARETS candy cathartic cure constipation. Purely vegetable, smooth and easy, sold by druggists everywhere, guaranteed to cure. Only 10c.

"The Companion has been growing better, brighter every year for more than sixty years."

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION

"52 Times a Year." Subscription, $1.75.

The Volume of The Companion for 1896—the 70th year of its publication—will give weekly entertainment and instruction in abundance for every member of the family.

Six Holiday Numbers. 700 Large Pages. For all the Family.

Special Souvenir Numbers, double in size and appropriate to each season, are published at Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's, Washington's Birthday, Easter and Fourth of July.

The size of The Companion page is four times that of the leading Magazines. In each Volume nearly 700 pages are given, profusely illustrated. Only $1.75 a year.

Both young and old find in each week's issue amusement and education in the Serial and Short Stories, in its Editorials, Anecdotes, Health and Miscellaneous Articles.

More than 200 Famous Men and Women have contributed to the next Volume of THE COMPANION. Send for Full Illustrated Prospectus and Sample Copies Free.

50-ct. CALENDAR FREE

REMARKABLE OFFER!

SEND this slip with $1.75

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 201 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Mass.

Send Check, Post-Office or Express Order, or Registered Letter, at Our Risk.

Barrington Review.

ESTABLISHED IN 1885.

Published Every Saturday at

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS

—BY—

M. T. LAMEY, Editor and Pub.

Entered at the postoffice at Barrington, Ill., as second-class matter.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1895

CHURCH NOTICES.

THE EVANGELICAL SALEM.—Rev. T. Suhr, pastor. Services every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath school at 9:15 a. m. Teachers' meeting Sunday at 6:45 p. m. Children's Mission Band meets every first Sunday in the month at 2:30 p. m. Young people's meeting Tuesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. Prayer meetings Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. Choir practice Friday evening at 7:30. On Saturdays the pastor holds school for the children of the congregation. Young People's Missionary Society meets first Tuesday in the month at 7:30 p. m. Women's Missionary Society first Thursday of every month 1:30 p. m. Mission Prayer meeting first Wednesday of every month at 1:30 p. m.

ST. ANN'S CATHOLIC.—Rev. J. F. Clancy, pastor. Services every alternate Sunday at 9 o'clock a. m.

GERMAN EVANGELICAL.—Rev. J. B. Elfrink, pastor. Services every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath school at 9:30 a. m.

BAPTIST.—Services every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m.; Sabbath school at 12 m.

GERMAN EVANGELICAL ST. PAUL'S.—Rev. E. Rahn, pastor. Services every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Sabbath school at 9:30 a. m.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.—Rev. T. E. Ream, pastor. Services every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m.; Sabbath school at 12 m.; Junior League at 3 p. m.; Epworth League at 6:15 p. m.; Sunday school teachers' meeting Fridays at 7:30 p. m. at the parsonage; prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m. in the church.

Announcement.

THE REVIEW, recognizing the fact that there is not a person in this community who can not afford to subscribe for his home paper, has decided to send out a personal representative to solicit your subscription. We are endeavoring to improve THE REVIEW with each issue, and if we have you on our subscription list it will encourage us to still further increase our efforts.

Would you not rather read about people you know than read about someone you never heard of? We hope that you will give him your encouragement.

Our representative will also call on the business men of the neighboring towns for job printing. Having had a great many years' experience in the printing business in large cities he is competent to give you figures from a calling card to a 1,000 page book. THE REVIEW has put in an extensive plant of new type, etc., and will turn out only first-class work at prices as low as you can have it done anywhere, if not lower. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

OUR VILLAGE BOARD.

A town or city in order to be prosperous must have men at its head who are not afraid to do what they would do if their private interests were at stake.

They must be men who know what the corporation needs and should have, and when they meet in council they should feel that they are there for the purpose of discussing the pros and cons of every question. It is in a thorough discussion that the points are brought out. Every member should remember that he was elected by the people, and that it cuts no figure whether he makes a few enemies by doing what he thinks and knows to be right.

Our present Village Board is making a great mistake by not establishing fire limits.

We have buildings in the business district of our town that would be a credit to any city, and for that reason our Board of Trustees should pass an ordinance to prohibit persons from putting up little frameshanties which will constantly prove a menace to the safety of these fine structures.

It would cost nothing to establish fire limits, and why do they not pass this needed ordinance? Have they a personal interest in failing to act? or do they simply neglect this because they haven't the backbone to introduce an ordinance to this effect?

NEW DANGER IN TURKEY.

The sultan is confronted with a new danger in the outbreak of the Kurds, who, it is reported, have already exterminated a considerable part of Christians at Van in Armenia and are reported to be on their way to efface Christianity from Syria.

The porte has little or no power over these semisavages. Their numbers are unknown. No attempt has ever been made to enumerate them, or govern them beyond a collection of revenue. The Turkish Kurds exceed it is believed, a million and a half in number. The Persian Kurds, tribesmen and sedentary, aggregate three-quarters of a million. The Kurds are distrusted and detested. They are brigands and thieves. Their pride is matched only by their fanaticism. They have literature, sports and music. Outwardly professing the Suni religion, or Mohammedanism, they are little more than pagans and render idolatrous honors to obscure deities. They do not dwell within the boundaries of Kurdistan, but roam about between Turkey and Persia. They infest Armenia, a constant terror to farmers and the dread even of the soldiery.

Several times in the past leaders among them had some progress toward the organization of a Kurish Kingdom, and one of these, Sheik Obaidullah, whose tents were south of Van, and who combined in his own character the daring of the soldier and the asceticism of a priest, swept down upon the plains of Persia, where he was joined by other tribes under Turkish instigation. The common purpose of the Kurdish chief and his Mohammedan abettors was to paralyze any movement in Armenia for autonomy. The sheik failed in his object and fled back to the mountains in 1890. The porte was compelled to pursue and arrest him and keep him during the rest of his life under surveillance at Constantinople.

From present appearances the sultan will have a war on his hands which he will be unable to put down with his own forces. This fact and his consent that war ships of the powers shall enter the Dardanelles may hasten active interference for the suppression of anarchy with the aid of force directed by European concert.

ANOTHER FARCICAL INQUEST.

The identification of some personal effects of one Eugene H. Moore, a letter carrier, eighteen months after the body of the man was found in the sanitary canal, furnishes another occasion for comment upon the general uselessness of the office of coroner and the general imbecility of the functionary who is usually elected to fill the office.

Letter Carrier Eugene H. Moore disappeared from his home on Congress street in April, 1894, and was never again seen alive. About a month afterward the body of a man was taken from the sanitary canal. On his person were found a watch and chain. To the latter was attached a charm, which consisted of seal such as is worn by letter carriers of Chicago and bore the mark "Postal Station D." In other pockets were found letters addressed to Eugene H. Moore, 826 West Congress street, also a bunch of keys. Notwithstanding all these means of easy identification, the verdict of the intelligent deputy coroner was: "Unidentified man; found drowned."

If the bunch of keys had not fallen into the hands of a patrolman Captain H. R. Moore, would probably never have known the fate of his son. The patrolman saw an advertisement asking for information concerning Eugene H. Moore, who carried a bunch of keys which answered the description of the keys in the possession of the patrolman. The patrolman answered the advertisement, and Captain Moore learned for the first time what had become of his son. In view of the ample means of identification the carelessness of the deputy coroner was most reprehensible.

The State of Massachusetts has abolished the office of coroner. Massachusetts cannot be said to be a very low state. It is a much older state than the Illinois commonwealth. The people of Massachusetts have learned a few things by long experience. They have learned that the average coroner's inquest is a farce and that the state's attorney in each county can gather all the evidence in case of a mysterious death or fatality that will ever be needed in the state. How long will it take Illinois to learn this?

—Chicago Times-Herald.

Administrator's Sale.

By virtue of an order and decree of the County Court of Lake County Illinois, made on the petition of the undersigned, Miles T. Lamey, administrator of the estate of Mary Jane Maloney, deceased, for leave to sell the real estate of said deceased, at the July term, 1895, of said Court, to-wit, on the 15th day of July, 1895:

NOTICE is hereby given that on Saturday, the 28th day of December, 1895, between the hours of ten (10) o'clock in the forenoon, and (5) five o'clock in the afternoon, to-wit, at the hour of two (2) o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the dwelling house on said premises hereinafter described, in the County of Lake, and State of Illinois, the following described real estate belonging to the estate of said Mary Jane Maloney, deceased, to-wit:

A piece of land ten (10) rods wide and one hundred and sixty (160) rods long off of the west side of the west half (½) of the southwest one-fourth (¼) of Section ten (10) Township forty-three (43) north, range nine (9) east, of the third principal meridian (3rd p. m.) containing ten (10) acres of land, more or less, will be sold to the highest and best bidder, free, clear and disincumbered, of the dower interest of Dennis Maloney, widower of said deceased, but subject to the right to retain possession of said premises until March first, 1896, and reserving all rents due and to accrue on and prior to the said first day of March, 1896, on the following terms:

Ten per cent of the amount bid by the purchaser to be paid at the time of said sale, and the balance upon report of sale to, and approval thereof by the Court and execution and delivery of proper deed or deeds of conveyance of the premises so sold.

Dated this 21st day of November, 1895.

MILES T. LAMEY,
Administrator.

The Barrington Bank

SANDMAN & CO.

John Robertson, Pres.
A. L. Robertson, Cashier.
John C. Plagge, Vice-Prest.
H. G. P. Sandman.

A general banking business transacted. Interest allowed on time deposits. First-class commercial paper for sale.

Barrington, Illinois

THE ACCIDENTS OF LIFE

Write to T. S. QUINCEY, Drawer 156, Chicago, Secretary of the Star Accident Company, for information regarding Accident Insurance. Mention this paper. By so doing you can save membership fee. Has paid over $600,000.00 for accidental injuries.

Be your own Agent.

NO MEDICAL EXAMINATION REQUIRED.

HANSEN & PETERS,

Livery.

First class turnouts furnished at lowest figures.

BUGGIES, CUTTERS

And other Vehicles for sale.

Horses Bought and Sold.

Barrington, - Ills.

Tender Steaks. Tender Roasts.

Fred Kampert,

MEAT & MARKET.

Is the place to get all kinds of choice fresh meats at lowest prices, quality considered.

Best Sausage, Salt and Smoked Meats.

FISH AND OYSTERS IN SEASON.

BARRINGTON, - ILLS.

WANTED A MAN—to sell Canadian grown fruit trees, berry plants, roses, shrubbery, seed potatoes, etc., for the largest growers of high grade stock. Seven hundred acres, hardy profitable varieties that succeed in the coldest climates. No experience required and fair treatment guaranteed. Any one not earning $50 per month and expenses should write us at once for particulars. Liberal commissions paid part time men. Apply now and get choice of territory. LUKE BROTHERS COMPANY, Stock Exchange Building, Chicago, Ill.

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I haven't lost a day since. I am 55 years old, 6 ft. 4 1/2 inches and weigh 250 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

Dyesville, Ohio. SILAS FARLEY.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle or $5.00 per dozen, prepaid on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
Restores Health

REVIVO

RESTORES VITALITY
Made a Well Man of Me.
1st Day. 15th Day. 30th Day.
THE GREAT

FRENCH REMEDY,

Produces the above results in 30 DAYS. It acts powerfully and quickly. Cures when all others fail. Young men and old men will recover their youthful vigor by using REVIVO. It quickly and surely restores from effects of self-abuse or excess and indiscretions Lost Manhood, Lost Vitality, Impotency, Nightly Emissions, Lost Power of either sex, Failing Memory, Wasting Diseases, Insomnia, Nervousness, which unfit one for study, business or marriage. It not only cures by starting at the seat of disease, but is a Great Nerve Tonic and Blood-Builder and restores both vitality and strength to the muscular and nervous system, bringing back the pink glow to pale cheeks and restoring the fire of youth. It wards off Insanity and Consumption. Accept no substitute. Insist on having REVIVO, no other. It can be carried in vest pocket. By mail, $1.00 per package, in plain wrapper, or six for $5.00, with a positive written guarantee to cure or refund the money in every package. For free circular address ROYAL MEDICINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL. For sale by A. L. Waller, Barrington.

HAVE YOU ENOUGH COURAGE

To read a Sample Copy of the.....

WAUCONDA LEADER?

If so, send your address to us and we will cheerfully send you SAMPLE COPIES FREE. A good advertising medium....

...THE LEADER...

WAUCONDA, ILL.

All the News of Lake County.

DR. M. F. CLAUSIUS,
PHYSICIAN, SURGEON

AND ACCOUCHEUR.

Office at Residence.

Office hours 8 to 10 a. m. Daily.

No Shop-Worn Goods
In the stock of the persistent advertiser. He sells too quick.

PETERS & COLLEN, DEALERS IN LIVE STOCK

If you want to sell or buy, give us a call.

Will attend Auctioneering at all times

Satisfaction guaranteed or no pay.

Barrington, - Ills.

LAWRENCE MUSKA

BLACKSMITH HORSE HOER.

All kinds of repairing done promptly and at reasonable rates.

Langenhelm, Ill

MILES T. LAMEY,

NOTARY PUBLIC and FIRE INSURANCE AGENT.

Collections Given Prompt Attention. BARRINGTON

GEO. SCHAFER,

Dealer in

Fresh and Smoked Meats.

Fish, Oysters, Etc.

Barrington, - Ills

M. C. McINTOSH, Estate and Commercial Lawyer.

Office, Room 32
96 Washington St. - Chicago
Residence, Barrington, Ill.

H. F. KOELLING,

Dealer in.....

PURE MILK.

Milk Delivered Morning and Evening.

Fresh Milk can be had at my residence in the Village at any time of the day.

ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

H. F. Koelling, Barrington

CHARLES DILL, Tonsorial Parlors.

Under Bank Building.
First-class Work Guaranteed.

A nice line of.....

CIGARS and TOBACCOS

always on hand. Agency for

The Woodstock Laundry.

Give me a call.

CHARLES DILL, - BARRINGTON

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

R-I-P-A-N-S

The modern standard Family Medicine: Cures the common every-day ills of humanity.

HENRY BUTZOW, BAKERY

—AND—

CONFECTIONERY.
Fruits, Gigsars, Tobacco, Etc.

ICE CREAM AND OYSTER PARLOR IN CONNECTION.

H. BUTZOW,
Barrington, Ills.

FULL OF GLEE AND SONG.

The Junior League Entertains at the M. E. Church.

A JOLLIER CROWD WAS NEVER BEHELD.

A Most Creditable Program Rendered by an Efficient Corps of Little Artists. An Excellent Supper Served.

The Junior League gave a unique entertainment and missionary supper last Friday evening in the parlors of the M. E. church.

There were about 100 people present, among whom were about forty children full of glee and song.

Every detail of the program, with a few exceptions, was arranged and carried out by the children. Charming little waiter girls waited on the guests during the supper hour, the tables being supplied with an abundance of palatable food. The waiters were distinguished by pretty little paper caps which were very bewitching.

Everyone present pronounced the program a complete success. It was as follows:

1. Singing—Junior League.
2. Remarks—Rev. T. E. Ream.
3. Recitation—Willis Runyan.
4. Singing—Alta Powers and Ethel Austin.
5. Recitation—Lottie Palmer.
6. Recitation—Iva Runyan.
7. Music—Luella Plagge.
8. Recitation—Eva Anderson.
9. Recitation—Grace Freeman.
10. Singing—Junior League.
11. Recitation—Ethel Kitson.
12. Recitation—Della Elvidge.
13. Singing—Nora Plagge and Alma Steinhofner.
14. Recitation—Ida Hutchinson.
15. Recitation—Walter Cannon.
16. Recitation—Ruth Meyers.
17. Singing—Junior League.

The entertainment was a success in every way, financial and otherwise. The sum of $8 was cleared, and a draft for that amount has already been secured and sent to the mission fields of our own country and abroad. God bless the children.

WAUCONDA.

Mrs. Cady returned to her home in Minnesota Thursday of last week, being accompanied by Miss Nellie Price, who will spend the winter with her brother.

The wrestling match turned out a fizzle. But very few people turned out, and that was the reason assigned for not carrying out the programme.

Mr. Wallace will reside in the house in the rear of Chas. Barker's harness shop.

Messrs. J. Gairnor, G. Roberts, Wm. Tidmarsh and P. Maiman were Chicago visitors last week.

Miss Obee, of Langenheim, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Smith the forepart of last week.

Miss Andrews visited at the home of L. Price last week.

Clayton Werden was in town last week. He reports his business in Nunda on the increase.

It was reported that scarlet fever had again visited the home of Joseph Glynn, Lelah being stricken down with the dread disease.

The team of Emerson Cook frightened a great many people on Monday of last week by running away. No damage was done.

The teachers' meeting which was to have been held on last Saturday has been postponed to December 7th.

The entertainment at the M. E. church on Saturday of last week was a success in every way except from a financial point of view. Miss Morris is an excellent elocutionist, and her Indian club drill and delsarte were good. The music was exceptionally fine. The afterpiece entitled "We All Have a Very Bad Cold" was very appropriate.

That "Birthday Box."

If the size, weight and contents of the M. E. Sunday school "birthday box" is any prophecy or criterion there will be one of the best Christmas exercises this year ever held by the M. E. Sunday school. For one whole year the members of the Sunday school from 2 to 72 years of age have been dropping pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters into this "veritable bank" until it is heavy with coin. This will be used for the Christmas exercises, and the more money the better entertainment.

THE REVIEW wants your trade. If you need any printing give us a call.

LAKE ZURICH

A. B. Clark of Palatine, was in town first of the week.

Well, did you eat turkey?

The lake is frozen over.

Frank Roney shipped several cars of cattle to Union Stock Yards on last Wednesday.

Al R. Ficke was a Palatine visitor Wednesday.

Our young people are talking seriously of opening a gymnasium.

Dr. Moffat of Palatine, was in town Tuesday.

Joseph Stahl, of Long Grove, was in Zurich first of the week.

George Baker went to the city Monday.

M. T. Lamey and Edward Heimerdinger, of Barrington, were in our town, Monday.

George Heimer, of McHenry, made a business call here Monday.

Willie Hauslagge visited with his mother at Plum Grove, this week.

Wall Park was seen on the streets of Barrington, Monday.

Sleighting is fine. Cutters are in great demand.

Slocum will soon be ready to grind your grist.

Dr. Clausius, of Barrington, was in our city, Tuesday.

Wm. Eichman entertained guests at his home, Sunday.

Now since we have been favored with one of those genuine snow storms, pedestrians would not kick if the walks in front of residences were cleaned off.

J. Dickson expects to move upon the Berghorn's place.

Fred Holland was in Chicago Friday, on business.

Our merchants are busy getting ready for the holiday trade.

Secure a ticket on J. Blaine's horse raffle.

Chas. Kohl is doing big business in the overcoat line. He had an auction sale at Quentin's Corners, Wednesday.

The ball given by the dancing club of Zurich at Ficke's hall Thursday evening, was a grand success.

Our station agent with his famous steed experienced a slight accident last Sunday. Charles says no damage to that borrowed cutter to speak of.

J. Decker went to Chicago the first of the week.

H. A. Meyer has made some extensive improvements on his farm near this place during the last year. He has built a new residence which presents a fine appearance.

Fred Seip, of Chicago, made Zurich a pleasant visit Saturday and Sunday, the guest of relatives and friends. Mr. Seip holds a responsible position with the Standard Oil company. He has a host of friends in Zurich, who are always glad to see him.

SPRING LAKE.

Did you thanks give?

We experienced a blizzard Monday evening.

A number of our young men with their best girls attended the Woodmen's ball at Algonquin Wednesday evening. It was a grand success.

Mrs. Mary Vanderveau visited with friends in Chicago the first of the week.

Frank Cary, who has been working for Christian Albright is now in the employ of Mr. Hymen.

James Crawford, who has been employed in the factory for some time, has gone to Elgin for a few week's vacation.

Wm. McCredie made a call at the factory Sunday.

We would like to ask the city fathers of Barrington, why they do not compel the E. J. & E. Ry. Co. to have a flagman at the crossing in the west part of the village, or at least have a lamp placed at this crossing, as it is a dangerous place for teams to cross after night.

A party of Algonquin friends surprised J. Dwyrak Sunday and spent a pleasant afternoon.

All the Spring Lake sports visited Algonquin Saturday evening, ye scribe among the rest.

If you have any news items, hand them to us, and we will gladly send them along.

Forn Bros. sold a lot of hogs at Algonquin, Tuesday.

M. C. McIntosh has money to loan. Small amounts on short time preferred.

Wolthausen & Landwer

HAVE

Just Received

FULL AND COMPLETE LINE OF

SOME ALL-WOOL. PLAIDS SOME HALF-WOOL.

CALICOS

Henriettas and Cashmeres Flannel Dress Goods

BED BLANKETS,

Horse Blankets

Quilts, Comforters, Etc.

WOLTHAUSEN & LANDWER

Groceries, Dry Goods, Carpets, Boots and Shoes, Etc.

BARRINGTON, ILLS.

HENDERSON'S LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE SHOES

TOOK 1ST PRIZE AT WORLD'S FAIR.

C. M. HENDERSON & CO. CHICAGO, ILL.

JOHN G. PLAGGE, Barrington, keeps 'em.

DO YOU WANT WINDOW GLASS?

It won't make any difference what size it might be, whether it be

Odd or Even, Large or Small,

You can always find just what you want at

J. D. LAMEY & CO., Building Material.

Lead, Oils,
Paints, Etc.

BARRINGTON.

The Columbia Hotel

Mrs. L. Collen, Proprietress.

EVERYTHING NEW, NEAT and CLEAN

The table supplied with everything the market affords.

The patronage of the Traveling Public solicited.

They
Lighten
Labor

Quick Bakers,
Superior Cookers,
Powerful Heaters.

and must please the Housewife because they are perfect in every part.

Great variety of styles and sizes.
A Written Guarantee given with every stove.

Used by Thousands, Should be by You.

Sold by L. F. Schroeder, Barrington, Ill.

KING OF ALL BICYCLES

The Monarch

ABSOLUTELY THE BEST

DESIGNS ELEGANT WORKMANSHIP UNSURPASSED
MATERIAL THE FINEST

FIVE MODELS • WEIGHTS 18 TO 25 POUNDS • PRICES $55 TO $100
EVERY MACHINE FULLY GUARANTEED • CATALOGUE SENT FOR TWO CENT STAMP

MONARCH CYCLE CO. CHICAGO

MAIN OFFICE AND FACTORY LAKE & HALSTED STS.
RETAIL SALESROOM 200 WABASH AVE
EASTERN WAREHOUSE 97-99 READE ST., NEW YORK

BRANCHES: PORTLAND, SAN FRANCISCO, SALT LAKE CITY

Sold by T. V. Slocum, Agt. Wauconda, Ills.

OUT OF THE CITY: A STORY OF THE NEW WOMAN.

INTERNATIONAL PRESS ASSOCIATION.

CHAPTER II.—(CONTINUED)

"It wants to get at Eliza," said the youth in a confidential whisper. "Master says she would give him more'n he brought." He smiled affably at the two little stiff black figures, and departed in search of his mistress.

"What—what did he say?" gasped Bertha.

"Something about a— Oh, goodness gracious! Oh, help, help, help, help!" The two sisters had bounded on to the settee, and stood there with staring eyes and skirts gathered in, while they filled the whole house with their yells. Out of a high wicker work basket which stood by the fire there had risen a flat, diamond-shaped head with wicked green eyes which came flickering upwards, waving gently from side to side; until a foot of more of glossy, scaly neck was visible. Slowly the vicious head came floating up, while at every oscillation a fresh burst of shrieks came from the settee.

"What in the name of mischief!" cried a voice, and there was the mistress of the house standing in the doorway. Her gaze at first had merely taken in the fact that two strangers were standing screaming upon her red plush sofa. A glance at the fireplace, however, showed her the cause of the terror, and she burst into a hearty fit of laughter.

"Charles," she shouted, "here's Eliza misbehaving again!"

"I'll settle her," answered a masculine voice, and the young man dashed into the room. He had a brown horse-cloth in his hand, which he threw over the basket, making it fast with a piece of twine so as to effectually imprison its inmate, while his aunt ran across to reassure her visitors.

"It is only a rock snake," she explained.

"Oh, Bertha!" "Oh, Monica!" gasped the poor exhausted gentlemen.

"She's hatching out some eggs. That is why we have the fire. Eliza always does better when she is warm. She is a sweet, gentle creature, but no doubt she thought that you had designs upon her eggs. I suppose that you did not touch any of them?"

"Oh, let us get away, Bertha!" cried Monica, with her thin, black-gloved hands thrown forward in abhorrence.

"Not away, but into the next room," said Mrs. Westmacott, with the air of one whose word was law. "This way, if you please! It is less warm here." She led the way into a very handsomely appointed library, with three great cases of books, and upon the fourth side a long, yellow table littered over with papers and scientific instruments. "Sit here, and you there," she continued.

"That is right. Now let me see, which of you is Miss Williams and which Miss Bertha Williams?"

"I am Miss Williams," said Monica, still palpitating, and glancing furtively about in dread of some new horror.

"And you live, as I understand, over at the pretty little cottage. It is very nice of you to call so early. I don't suppose that we shall get on, but still the intention is equally good." She crossed her legs and leaned her back against the marble mantelpiece.

"We thought that perhaps you might be of some assistance," said Bertha, timidly. "If there is anything which we could do to make you feel more at home—"

"Oh, thank you, I am too old a traveler to feel anything but at home wherever I go. I've just come back from a few months in the Marquesas Islands, where I had a very pleasant visit. That was where I got Eliza. In many respects the Marquesas Islands now lead the world."

"Dear me!" ejaculated Miss Williams. "In what respect?"

"In the relation of the sexes. They have worked out the great problem upon their own lines, and their isolated geographical position has helped them to come to a conclusion of their own. The woman there is, as she should be, in every way the absolute equal of the male. Come in, Charles, and sit down. Is Eliza all right?"

"All right, aunt."

"These are our neighbors, the Misses Williams. Perhaps they will have some stout. You might bring in a couple of bottles, Charles."

"No, no, thank you! None for us!" cried her two visitors, earnestly.

"No? I am sorry that I have no tea to offer you. I look upon the subservience of woman as largely due to her abandoning nutritious drinks and invigorating exercises to the male. I do neither." She picked up a pair of fifteen-pound dumb-bells from beside the fireplace and swung them lightly about her head. "You see what may be done on stout," said she.

"But don't you think," the elder Miss Williams suggested timidly, "don't you think, Mrs. Westmacott, that woman has a mission of her own?"

dumb-bells with a crash upon the floor. "The old cant!" she cried. "The old shibboleth! What is this mission which is reserved for woman? All that is humble, that is mean, that is soul-killing, that is so contemptible and so ill-paid that none other will touch it. All that is woman's mission. And who imposed these limitations upon her? Who cooped her up within this narrow sphere? Was it Providence? Was it nature? No, it was the arch enemy. It was man."

"Oh, I say, auntie!" drawled her nephew.

"It was man, Charles. It was you and your fellows. I say that woman is a colossal monument to the selfishness of man. What is all this boasted chivalry—these fine words and vague phrases? Where is it when we wish to put it to the test? Man in the abstract will do anything to help a woman. Of course. How does it work when his pocket is touched? Where is his chivalry then? Will the doctors help her to qualify? Will the lawyers help her to be called to the bar? Will the clergy tolerate her in the church? Oh, it is close your ranks then and refer poor woman to her mission! Her mission! To be thankful for coppers and not to interfere with the men while they grapple for gold, like swine round a trough, that is man's reading of the mission of women. You may sit there and sneer, Charles, while you look upon your victim, but you know that it is truth, every word of it."

Terrified as they were by this sudden torrent of words, the two gentlemen could not but smile at the sight of the fiery, domineering victim and the big apologetic representative of mankind who sat meekly bearing all the sins of his sex. The lady struck a match, whipped a cigarette from a case upon the mantelpiece, and began to draw the smoke into her lungs.

"I find it very soothing when my nerves are at all ruffled," she explained. "You don't smoke? Ah, you miss one of the purest of pleasures—without a reaction."

Miss Williams smoothed out her silken lap.

"It is a pleasure," she said, with some reproach to self-assertion, "which Bertha and I are rather too old-fashioned to enjoy."

"No doubt. It would probably make you very ill if you attempted it. By the way, I hope that you will come to some of our Guild meetings. I shall see that tickets are sent you."

"Your Guild?"

"It is not yet formed, but I shall lose no time in forming a committee. It is my habit to establish a branch of the Emancipation Guild wherever I go. There is a Mrs. Sanderson in Anerley who is already one of the emancipated, so that I have a nucleus. It is only by organized resistance, Miss Williams, that we can hope to hold our own against the selfish sex. Must you go, then?"

"Yes, we have one or two other visits to pay," said the elder sister. "You will, I am sure, excuse us. I hope that you will find Norwood a pleasant residence."

"All places are to me simply a battlefield," she answered, gripping first one and then the other with a grip which crumpled up their little thin fingers.

"The days for work and healthful exercise, the evenings to Browning and high discourse, eh, Charles? Good-bye!" She came to the door with them, and as they glanced back they saw her still standing there with the yellow bull pup cuddled up under one forearm, and the thin blue reek of her cigarette ascending from her lips.

"Oh, what a dreadful, dreadful woman!" whispered sister Bertha, as they hurried down the street. "Thank goodness that it is over."

"But she'll return the visit," answered the other. "I think that we are not at home."

CHAPTER III.

DWELLERS IN THE WILDERNESS.

HOW DEEPLY ARE our destinies influenced by the most trifling causes! Had the unknown builder who erected and owned these new villas contented himself by simply building each within its own grounds, it is probable that these three small groups of people would have remained hardly conscious of each other's existence, and that there would have been no opportunity for that action and reaction which is here set forth. But there was a common link to bind them together. To single himself out from all other Norwood builders the landlord had devised and laid out a common lawn tennis ground, which stretched behind the houses with taut-stretched net, green close-cropped sward, and widespread whitewashed lines. Hither in search of that hard exercise which is as necessary as air or food to the English temperament, came young Hay Denver when released from the toil of the city; hither, too, came Dr. Walker and his two fair daughters, Clara and Ida, and hither also, champions of the lawn, came the short-skirted, muscular widow and her athletic nephew. Ere the summer was gone they knew each other in this quiet nook as they might not have done after years of a stiffer and more formal acquaintance.

And especially to the admiral and the doctor were this closer intimacy and companionship of value. Each had a void in his life, as every man must have who with unexhausted strength steps out of the great race, but each by his society might help to fill up that of his neighbor. It is true that they had not much in common, but that is sometimes an aid rather than a bar to friendship. Each had been an enthusiast in his profession, and had retained all his interest in it. The doctor still read from cover to cover his Lancet and his Medical Journal, attended all professional gatherings, worked himself into an alternate state of exaltation and depression over the results of the election of officers, and reserved for himself a den of his own, in which before rows of little round bottles full of glycerine, Canadian balsam, and staining agents, he still cut sections with a microtome, and peeped through his long, brass, old-fashioned microscope at the arcana of nature. With his typical face, clean shaven on lip and chin, with a firm mouth, a strong jaw, a steady eye, and two little white tufts of whiskers, he could never be taken for anything but what he was, a high-class British medical consultant of the age of fifty, or perhaps just a year or two older.

The doctor, in his hey-day, had been cool over great things, but now, in his retirement, he was fussy over trifles. The man who had operated without the quiver of a finger, when not only his patient's life but his own reputation and future were at stake, was now shaken to the soul by a mislaid book or a careless maid. He remarked it himself, and knew the reason. "When Mary was alive," he would say, "she stood between me and the little troubles. I could brace myself for the big ones. My girls are as good as girls can be, but who can know a man as his wife knows him?" Then his memory would conjure up a tuft of brown hair and a single white, thin hand over a coverlet, and he would feel, as we have all felt, that if we do not live and know each other after death, then indeed we are tricked and betrayed by all the highest hopes and subtlest intuitions of our nature.

The doctor had his compensations to make up for his loss. The great scales of fate had been held on a level for him; for where in all great London could one find two sweeter girls, more loving, more intelligent, and more sympathetic than Clara and Ida Walker? So bright were they, so quick, so interested in all which interested him, that if it were possible for a man to be compensated for the loss of a good wife then Balthazar Walker might claim to be so.

Clara was tall and thin and supple, with a graceful, womanly figure. There was something stately and distinguished in her carriage, "queenly" her friends called her, while her critics described her as reserved and distant.

Such as it was, however, it was part and parcel of herself, for she was, and had always from her childhood been, different from any one around her. There was nothing gregarious in her nature. She thought with her own mind, saw with her own eyes, acted from her own impulse. Her face was pale, striking rather than pretty, but with two great dark eyes, so earnestly questioning, so quick in their transitions from joy to pathos, so swift in their comment upon every word and deed around her, that those eyes alone were to many more attractive than all the beauty of her younger sister. Hers was a strong, quiet soul, and it was her firm hand which had taken over the duties of her mother, had ordered the house, restrained the servants, comforted her father, and upheld her weaker sister, from the day of that great misfortune.

Ida Walker was a hand's breadth smaller than Clara, but was a little fuller in the face and plumper in the figure. She had light yellow hair, mischievous blue eyes with the light of humor ever twinkling in their depths, and a large, perfectly formed mouth, with that slight upward curve of the corners which goes with a keen appreciation of fun, suggesting even in repose that a latent smile is ever lurking at the edges of the lips. She was modern to the soles of her dainty little high-heeled shoes, frankly fond of dress and of pleasure, devoted to tennis and to comic opera, delighted with a dance, which came her way only too seldom, and yet behind all this lighter side of her character a thoroughly good, healthy minded English girl, the life and soul of the house, and the idol of her sister and her father. A peep into the remaining villa and our introductions are complete.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Meat or Molasses.

Nature as a rule can be depended upon to adjust herself to circumstances, no matter how varying they may become. In this way, the present advance in meat, which strikes directly at the poor, is not an absolutely unmixed evil. Its effect upon the consumption of molasses, especially throughout the south, has already been noticed, and it is highly probable that the advance, if it continues, will create a more or less well-defined boom in molasses. When the poor are deprived of meat they fly to molasses as the next best thing, and the product becomes the leading foundation of their meals. So that the decrease in the consumption of meat instantly increases that of molasses, striking a fairly equitable balance.

Several petrified forests have been discovered in Arizona.

OUR WIT AND HUMOR.

TIMELY ETCHINGS FOR OUR LEAN READERS.

Satirical Points and Pithy Sayings—End of the Romance—Serious, but Not Contagious, or, Life in Slyne's Alley—Things She Didn't Know.

HE golden-rod has ceased to blow. The shining chestnuts fall. And through the quiet pensive air Now flies the big football.

He waits upon the crowded street,

In silent grief, alone; Alas, alas, alas, Alas, The breezy summer's flown!

"No more for me the big brass wheel Will blow across the bar And fill my white-winged sails of joy For fairy lands afar;

"No more the garden on the roof Will bloom to make me gay. No more I'll roam to Coney Isle The swift equine to play.

"The play-house curtain's been rung down— For me the play no more; Nor can I for the Polo Grounds On jocund pinions soar.

"I know the airy summer's flown, Not by the leaflets brown, But by my spirits faded blue— My wife is back in town!"

The Romance Ended.

Gilbert—You led me on, an' then giv' me de marble heart; you hav' took Mend'cz Gonzola 'cause he's a forriner, deny it if yer can—(bitterly) Agnes, why did yer giv' me de rigid shook? Agnes (haughtily)—Go thy ways, Gilbert Fitzherbert, or I'll sick my dog on yer!

Things She Didn't Know.

"I am going into a stock company, Emily." Mr. Rising announced with pardonable pride.

"Will you like that, John?" Mrs. Rising's question was given with a tone of surprise.

"Well, rather," returned Mr. Rising.

"I shall be an officer."

"Oh, John, that's splendid. Will you wear a uniform?" Mrs. Rising asked with interest.

"No, Emily, the officers don't wear uniforms," replied Mr. Rising.

"How did you get to be an officer, John?" Mrs. Rising asked a moment later.

"A majority of the stock elected me," Mr. Rising answered.

"Will we have to live in the country, John?"

"What put that in your head, Emily?"

"I'd like to in the summer, and thought it would be better on account of the stock."

"That's a curious notion, Emily. The stocks are all right, A No. 1. No water in the concern. They want me here at headquarters."

"Why, John, I didn't suppose there was any stock without water."

"Precious little in these days, but this ranks first-class on the market, and they let me in on the ground floor. Hello! there's the president now. I'm off," and Mr. Rising joined his business associate on the street.

"It beats me," said Mrs. Rising, as she went about her household duties. "I don't think John's mind is affected, but if stock can vote, and the officers not wear uniforms, I'd like to know what the world is coming to. I suppose he meant city water would do as well as the country, but men are crack-brained on some things. I'm thankful I don't have to worry about business. It's all I can do to look after three meals a day."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Serious, but Not Contagious.

Liz—Say, Mag, do you know 'im? Mag—Naw, his fambly just moved in-ter our alley last week—but his ma told de neighbors dat he is interleckshual; nobody knows what dat is, but it must be a turrible painful disease, from de looks of him.—Truth.

A Glean of Intelligence.

"I thought you said this horse you sold me was an intelligent, reliable animal."

"It is."

"Why, it tries to get over the fence every time it sees a girl in bloomers."

"Yes. That's what shows its intelligence."—Washington Star.

How's This!
We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.
WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, Ohio.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price, 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.
Hall's Family Pills, 25c.

Exclusive Fame.
A critic who desires to be reckoned among the inspired adulators of Mr. Sargent speaks of the artist's portrait of "one Coventry Patmore, Esq." And this is fame. The author of "The Angel in the House," the poet whom John Ruskin has been delighted to honor, the writer of felicitous phrases that will live as long as the language described as "one Coventry Patmore, Esq." Well, the ages will see to it. Conceivably there will be a time when Mr. Sargent will be more indebted to his sitter for the preservation of his renown than the sitter to his Sargent.—Fun.

It is a Pleasure

To recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all afflicted with blood or skin diseases. My blood was out of order, and I suffered for years from psoriasis. I tried several remedies without benefit. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for two months I was restored to my former good health and feel like a different person. As a blood purifier I think Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal.

CHAS. L. COCKELREAS, Irving, Illinois.

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla. 25c.

World's Fair! HIGHEST AWARD.

IMPERIAL GRANUM

Always WINS HOSTS of FRIENDS wherever its Superior Merits become known. It is the Safest FOOD for Convalescents!

Sold by DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE!
John Carle & Sons, New York.

A few Doses of DR. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills will relieve Pains in your Back, Sides, Muscles, Joints, Head, etc. and all Kidney Troubles; Rheumatism, Gout, Anæmia, and other Blood Troubles, caused by sick kidneys.

A few boxes will cure.

All druggists, or mailed postpaid for 50c. per box. Write for pamphlet.

HOBB'S MEDICINE CO., Chicago, San Francisco.

BLOOD POISON

A SPECIALTY Primary, Secondary or Tertiary BLOOD POISON permanently cured in 10 to 35 days. You can be treated at home for same price under same guarantee. If you prefer to come here we will contract to pay railroad fares and hotel bills, and any part of the body, Hair or Eyebrows falling out, it is this Secondary BLOOD POISON we guarantee to cure. We solicit the most obstinate cases and challenge the world for a case we cannot cure. This disease has always baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians. $500,000 capital behind our unconditional guaranty. Absolute proofs sent upon application. Address DOCK REMEDY CO., 307 Masonic Temple, CHICAGO, ILL. "Cut out and send this advertisement."

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c and $1.00 at Druggists.

DIE AT THEIR DUTY.

CHICAGO FIREMEN PERISH FIGHTING FLAMES.

Five Men Buried Under Falling Walls—Girl Leaps from the Burning Building to Her Death—Many Others Injured—Financial Loss Heavy.

At Chicago five persons were killed and eight injured, two of them fatally, at a fire which destroyed the Exchange building, Van Buren and Franklin streets, Friday morning. The dead are:

MARTIN SHERRICK, pipeman, engine company 2.

JOHN DOWN, pipeman, engine company 2.

JOHN PRENDERGAST, pipeman, engine company 2.

KITTIE LANDGRAF, employe A. Stein & Co.'s garter factory.

LIEUTENANT PATRICK O'DONNELL, of engine company 2.

Fatally injured:

BERNSTEIN, JACOB, 16 years old, fell from the fifth story window; both legs and right arm broken; taken to the county hospital.

driven to frenzy by the choking, blinding smoke, leaped in midair to what appeared certain death. A fireman's strong arm extended from the fire escape was almost wrenched from its socket as he caught the flying human figure.

A second later another girl threw herself headlong. But no protecting arm saved her, and, turning over and over, she fell to the sidewalk below, a mangled, bleeding mass of humanity.

The dead girl was:

KITTIE LANDGRAF.

In addition to this fatal case there are lying injured the following:

David McNally, driver engine company 2.

Hattie Brennan, overcome by smoke; will recover.

Edna Ritter, overcome by smoke; will recover.

Mary Pink, overcome by smoke; will recover.

Hattie Ray, overcome by smoke; will recover; taken home.

Nellie Feecey, prostrated by smoke; will recover; taken home.

Olga Keller, right arm and leg injured taken home; will recover.

Susie Keidel, fell on ladder; injured internally; will recover; taken home.

er, Kittie Landgraf and Harry Niell made a wild attempt to let themselves down to where they could touch the top round of the ladder with their feet. In this attempt they slipped and fell headlong to the pavement. That all were not picked up dead was a marvel to the firemen, police and spectators. The rescue of Olga Keller, who jumped and was caught by Captain Hermanson, was one of the most thrilling scenes of the hour.

The building, erected four years ago by Kuh, Nathan & Fischer, cost $140,000. Upon this Abraham Kuh said that $90,000 insurance is carried. Of the total insurance and valuation of stocks in the office end of the building fronting on Van Buren street, at No. 215, Mr. Kuh estimated that $100,000 would cover the stocks. The portion of the building fronting on Franklin street, at 276 and 278, was occupied by large firms which carried heavy stocks and Mr. Kuh estimated the valuation at something near $250,000. For the record part he said that this was insured.

CANADA'S IMPORTANCE.

Becomes the Main Highway to the British Empire.
London, Nov. 25.—The Times

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Reportorial Gush.

From the Lamont Observer: Given birth by the ruthless hand, without a doubt, of some vindictive incendiary, the hungry flames began their onward march of devastation in a shed in the rear of Peter Fishback's saloon an hour before daybreak last Sunday morning. Stealthily the demon crept toward the main building, the second floor of which was occupied by Mr. Fishback and his family. All was quiet within, where all slept, unheeded of the nearness of the unwelcome guest, which was with each moment's passing becoming fiercer and fiercer, as though it were filled with a fiendish desire to kiss in a kiss of death with its hot breath the innocent sleepers in the home so soon to be destroyed. The rear of the main building became a seething mass of flames, and still the sleepers knew not their danger. Breaking through the rear windows the hot and smoky torrent invaded the dwelling rooms.

A Child Enjoys

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle on hand.

Many a silly woman has been able to lead a wise man around by the nose.

A man may unlearn, but a woman never.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth. Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething.

Married men ought to oppose the single tax.

"Hanson's Magic Corn Salve." Warranted to cure or money refunded. Ask your druggist for it. Price 15 cents.

Were the "mills of the gods" fought in a prize ring?

Coe's Cough Balm. Is the oldest and best. It will break up a Cold quicker than anything else. It is always reliable. Try it.

No virtue that is the result of fear can be taught by example.

FITS—All Fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. No Fits after the first day's use. Marvelous cures. Treatise and 62 trial bottle free to fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 363 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

It is exceedingly bad husbandry to "harrow" up the feelings of your wife.

A FAMOUS PAPER.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION has become famous because there is hardly a famous man or woman in Great Britain or the United States who does not contribute to the paper each year. The writers engaged for 1904 promise to make the paper more attractive than ever before.

To those who subscribe at once, sending $1.75, the Publishers make an extraordinary offer—to send free a handsome four-page calendar, 7x10 in., lithographed in nine bright colors, retail price of which is 50 cents. THE COMPANION free every week to Jan. 1, 1906; the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Double Numbers free, and THE COMPANION a full year, 52 weeks, to Jan. 1, 1907. Address THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 199 Columbus Ave., Boston.

Men should not talk to please themselves, but those that hear them.

THE CHICAGO FIRE—SHOP GIRLS JUMP TO THEIR DEATH.

M'NALLY, DANIEL, driver of engine company No. 2, buried in the ruins, but rescued.

NEIL, HARRY, 17 years old, fell from the fourth story, and was crushed.

TURNER, MRS. NELLIE, jumped from a fourth story window and sustained fatal injuries.

The fire was one of the most difficult to handle that the firemen have had to contend with in recent years. It was attended by a series of disasters. The first happened at 9 o'clock, a few moments after the discovery of the fire, when a number of employes in the building jumped from windows to save their lives. Four hours later, at 1 o'clock after the flames had been nearly extinguished, a safe on the fifth floor fell to the first, carrying the intervening floors with it. Five firemen who were at work on the second floor were buried in the ruins. Four of them were killed. The loss of property amounted to $375,000.

Hanging between life and death, a score or more of shrieking, screaming girls clung to the window casements of the building soon after the fire broke out, at 9 o'clock. One of the girls,

Ellen Kippard, prostrated by smoke; taken home; will recover.

Jo Chenery, janitor; head injured and hands burned.

BRUNHEIMER, JOHN, fell from the third story, and was crushed.

The burned building is a seven-story brick in the form of an "L," with fronts at 276 and 278 Franklin and 215 and 217 Van Buren street. The first alarm, turned in at 9:15, was immediately followed by a "4-11," which brought twenty-three engines to the scene. The firemen first turned their attention to the terrified girls employed by the garter factory on the fourth floor of the buildings Van Buren street "L." These crowded to the windows and seemed determined to throw themselves to the pavement before ladders could be put up to effect their rescue. No sooner had the ladder touched the building than a fireman started to mount it. When he reached the second section of the extension ladder his weight caused it to slip back, or shorten. This brought its top some four or five feet below the sill of the fourth-story window.

Evidently crowded from within and certainly frenzied by fear, Nellie Turnlishes an article on the Pacific cable and the proposed direct steamship service to Canada. It says that the success of the movement is largely due to Canada. The government does not intend to subsidize the Australian-Pacific service from Australia to Vancouver. It is also understood that the government will subsidize the Atlantic section of the service only on condition that better time can be made over the Canadian Pacific railway than can be made under existing conditions. In both the steamship and the cable schemes the principle is recognized that in order to have British connections exclusively the line must in the first instance be carried westward from the center. By the acceptance of this principle Canada obtains a position she has never occupied before as the main highway of the British empire.

Murder at Sioux City, Iowa.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 25.—William Royce deliberately murdered Millie Patten, who refused to live with him further. Royce armed himself, declared his purpose, sought the woman and shot her, killing her instantly.

Is a prize fighter and champion in every contest with
RHEUMATIC PAINS
It knocks out in every round, and on its belt is written
"I CURE."

YOU SEE THEM EVERYWHERE

the food for all such.

How many pale folk there are! People who have the will, but no power to bring out their vitality; people who swing like a pendulum between strength and weakness—so that one day's work causes six days' sickness! People who have no life for resisting disease—thin people, nerveless, delicate! The food for all such men, women, or children is Scott's Emulsion. The hypophosphites combined with the oil will tone up the system, give the blood new life, improve the appetite and help digestion. The sign of new life will be a fattening and reddening, which brings with it strength, comfort and good-nature.

Be sure you get Scott's Emulsion when you want it and not a cheap substitute.

Scott & Bowne, New York. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

BARRINGTON LOCALS.

John Coffen spent Thursday in Chicago.

Felt boots from 50c upwards, and rubbers cheap, at John C. Plagge's.

Lambert Tasche, who has been ill for some time, is rapidly improving.

Miss Pearl Wells is the guest of Miss Nellie Donlea.

Miss Jennie Jayne, of Chicago, spent Sunday at home.

Benjamin Beinlach joined the M. E. church last Sunday.

The early prayer meeting at the M. E. Church on Thanksgiving morning, was well attended.

Mrs. Heise, who has been spending the summer with her son at Fort Hill, has returned home.

Carpet sweepers. Have you one? Wolthausen & Landwer will sell you one at a very small figure.

Mrs. Clark Harrower, of Englewood, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. S. Church.

Mrs. Benton is keeping house for Mr. S. Kingsley.

Miss Carrie Kingsley gave a party to her Sunday School class of young people. Candy pulling was the feature of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pomeroy spent Thanksgiving day with relatives in the city.

Mr. Gieske, of Michigan is visiting relatives here this week.

It is reported that our football team intends to give a series of dances this winter.

Rev. and Mrs. Nate of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McIntosh ate Thanksgiving dinner with M. C. McIntosh.

Fancy stand lamps and hanging lamps are cheap at A. W. Meyer & Co.

Christopher Bruns, of Elgin, visited with relatives here this week.

Herman Marckhoff and Rev. Wm. Schweiker, of Elgin, attended the funeral of Mr. Kampert, Wednesday.

Low prices on holiday dress goods at A. W. Meyer & Co's. What others ask 30 cents a yard for, their price is only 20 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Flint, of Chicago, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. James Sizer.

Miss Daisy Zimmerman of Elgin, is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zimmerman, this week.

The football game between the Palatine's and Ravenswood's took place on the former's grounds last Thursday, and resulted in a tie.

Mr. Frank B. Sadt, who has been with "The Daily Hotel Reporter" of Chicago, for some months past, is now assisting his father in closing out his stock of goods.

Wolthausen & Landwer are headquarters for rugs. An elegant and appropriate holiday present. Prices low.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Froelich, Mr. A. L. Waller and daughter, Olga, and Mr. M. C. McIntosh attended the German Opera at the Auditorium in Chicago. "Der Freischütz" was highly appreciated; and the party speak highly of "Annie" "Agatha," and "Kasper."

M. C. McIntosh has for sale a few good notes of $100 to $500 each, well secured, which will net the investor 6 to 6 1/2 per cent.

Rev. Byers, of Naperville, occupied the pulpit at the Salem church Thursday, and will preach at the same church to-morrow.

Gloves and mittens in large varieties at lowest prices. John C. Plagge.

Louis and Miss Carrie Wendell, of Chicago, were guests at the home of George Schafer Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lines and son were guests at the home of Leroy Powers Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Butzow entertained a number of guests with a fine Thanksgiving dinner.

56 piece decorated dinner set—Fine porcelain ware, only $4.37; less money than it can be purchased for in Chicago. It would make a nice holiday present. A. W. MEYER & Co.

Frank Gieske, of Libertyville, and Bert Gieske, of North Dakota, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Garbisch, of Palatine, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gieske Thanksgiving Day.

Everybody that has tried some of 100 per cent pure buckwheat flour sold by John C. Plagge, is buying more of it. He has just received the third shipment of this flour. Try some. Only 35 cents for a 12 1/2-pound sack.

Owing to an unusual amount of snow which fell this week, the football game between the Barrington's and Irving Park Cycling Club, which was to have taken place on Thanksgiving day, did not materialize; the game being declared off the early part of the week.

The large sales of ladies capes and jackets the last few weeks at A. W. Meyer & Co's, shows that they are up-to-date on styles and low prices.

Miss Amelia Thies, of Plum Grove, entertained about 20 of her friends at a Thanksgiving supper. After the bountiful supper had been given ample attention, games and vocal and instrumental music made the time pass very swiftly for the guests.

Toilet Soaps, 3 cakes in box, from 15 to 25 cents per box, at Wolthausen & Landwer's.

Rev. E. Rahn filled the pulpit at the Palatine church Sunday morning and in the evening preached at Plum Grove. His father, Rev. J. C. Rahn, occupied the pulpit at St. Paul's church Sunday morning and evening.

Revival meetings are in progress at the German Evangelical Salem church. Services every evening at 7:30 o'clock, to which everybody is cordially invited.

Owing to the Hawley road being impassable on account of heavy snow drifts a man was yesterday stalled, and had to unload his 540 pumpkins. The road commissioners should see to it, that the roads are kept in as good condition as possible.

□ Fine cashmere dress goods in most any color you might desire at 30, 35, 40, 50; 65 cents and up at A. W. Meyer & Co's.

Rev. Fidler, of Naperville, who assisted Rev. Suhr in the revival meetings for the past week, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Edward Peters is ill.

George Bauman, who has been sick for the past seven weeks, is able to be around.

F. L. Waterman has bought the Hubbard Portable oven that baked the 44-ton cake that was on exhibition at the Pure Food show in Chicago.

Miss Amelia Beinlich entertained relatives from Plato Centre Thursday.

Miss Farrel, of Oshkosh, Wis., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. FitzSimmons.

John C. Plagge placed an order for a car load of Washburn Crosby's "Gold Medal" flour, and also a half car of Pillsbury's Best. Now is the time to lay in a supply, because the prices are way down. It will pay you to read his advertisement and give him an order.

Miss Lena Grabenkort was united in marriage to Mr. Herman Lageschulte last Tuesday evening at the Salem church parsonage; Rev. Suhr officiating. On Thanksgiving day they held a reception, at which a number of friends and relatives participated. THE REVIEW wishes them success.

Prices low on Ladies' fur scarfs and muffs at A. W. Meyer & Co's

Our street commissioner, H. A. Sandman, deserves special credit for the promptness with which he has the snow cleaned off the village crosswalks. It is a credit to the town. Let all our citizens join in and see to it that their walks are kept clean likewise.

The Cook county grand jury will finish its labors to-day.

The largest sale of flour the last ten days was made by A. W. Meyer & Co.; Their Fancy Patent flour is a superior grade, that is why it leads.

Dr. Clausius was a Chicago visitor Wednesday.

Emil Schaefer was in Chicago Tuesday and purchased a stock of goods for his harness store.

Lake Zurich shippers of fowl shipped them from Barrington over the North-Western line.

Those decorated chamber sets at A. W. Meyer & Co's make good Holiday presents. They can be bought for $2.60, $2.50, 3.25, $4.50 and upwards.

THE REVIEW extends its thanks to Lawyer M. C. McIntosh for some "extra copy" furnished us on Thanksgiving Day.

FOR RENT—Three good houses in Barrington. Rent for $8, $10 and $12 per month respectively.

M. C. McINTOSH.

On last Wednesday morning about 7:30 o'clock, Marshall Sandman went over to the jail to release Christopher Lange, who had been put in the "cooler" by Night Watchman Henderson the night before. On opening the jail door he found the man lying face downward beside a pool of blood. Officer Sandman summoned medical aid at once. On reaching the jail Drs. Richardson and Kendall found that the man had cut a deep gash in his neck with a razor. To officer Sandman Lange said he wanted to die, and that he had taken this way of ending his life. The doctors sewed up the wound, and then the man was sent to the hospital in Chicago. It is thought he will recover. He is a man about 35 or 36 years of age, and has no particular place he calls home.

B. Y. P. U. RALLY.

There will be a grand rally of the Fox River District association Friday afternoon and evening, December 6th, at the Baptist church. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at these meetings. A male quartette from the Chicago University will render several fine selections in the evening.

Come one, come all,
To the Baptist call.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by A. L. Waller, druggist.

Another "divine healer" is said to have arisen in the east. The "divine healer" gives promise of becoming as plentiful as the ward healer.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. Wm. KEIL, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by A. L. Waller, druggist.

Reports from New York say that the Heine fountain is still out of site.

How to Prevent Croup.

SOME READING THAT WILL PROVE INTERESTING TO YOUNG MOTHERS. HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THE DISEASE.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by A. L. Waller, druggist.

"No stain on the west," says a morning paper. No, nor flies either.

The Secret of Beauty.

Of complexion, hands, arms and hair is found in a perfect condition of the stomach and digestive organs. Keep yourself right in these respects by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and nature will do the rest for you. In 10c, 50c and $1 sizes, at A. L. Waller, druggist.

The plain-clothes detective is almost as successful as the private species in the matter of shooting innocent citizens.

Intelligent People.

And people of good taste are earnestly recommended to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for disorders of the stomach. Constipation and indigestion cured. A trial of this great remedy can be made for 10c. (10 doses 10c), also in 50c and $1 sizes, at A. L. Waller, druggist.

The Chicago soldiers who have just said good-by to southern banquets and southern beauties should be careful not to mistake dyspepsia for love.

A Preacher

Of Waterloo, Ind., Rev. S. P. Klotz, writes: "I have been afflicted over 20 years with dyspepsia or sour stomach. Have tried different remedies without much benefit. A 10c bottle of Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin gave me great benefit. Have taken nearly one large bottle and feel like a different person." A. L. Waller, druggist.

The "sealed proposal" plan of locating the next republican national convention is not acquiring the degree or popularity its promoters expected.

Good advice: Never leave the house on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by A. L. Waller, druggist.

THE PRICE OF FLOUR REDUCED

MARVEL, our Best Patent Flour

gives the best of satisfaction in every way. We can offer this Flour now at the Reduced Price, $3.50 per barrel.

Our Superlative, $3.35 per bbl

This is a Flour that is hard to beat. Try it and be convinced.

JOHN C. FLAGG BARRINGTON.

FIRE INSURANCE

If you have not placed your insurance yet, John C. Plagge can make it to your interest to call on him. He represents seven good companies.

Plagge & Co.

Keep for sale at reasonable rates

COAL FEED, FLOUR, Paints

Dry Lumber, Lath, Shingles and Posts, Sash, Doors, Blinds, Moulding, Pickets, etc., Building Papers, Tile, Glazed Sewer and Culvert Pipe, Cord Wood.

BARREL AND LUMP SALT.

 Barrington

Place your Insurance in one of the following Companies represented by MILES T. LAMEY at Barrington, Ill.:

London and Lancashire of England.
Fire Association of Philadelphia.
Norwich Union of England.
Phoenix of Hartford.
German American of New York.

All losses promptly and satisfactorily adjusted. Insurance placed on dwellings, farm property, commercial buildings, household furniture and stocks at reasonable rates.

MILES T. LAMEY, Resident Agent.
BARRINGTON ILL.

R. R. KIMBERLY,

General Auctioneer

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS.

Next Auction, Thursday, Dec. 12th, 1895.

9 o'clock a. m., at Spinner's Barn,

Barrington, Ill., where he will offer for sale at auction anything you might wish to dispose of.

 For Bargains Attend These Sales

Colts Broken to Harness

at reasonable rates. Any Horse that kicks or has bad habits of any kind will be broken satisfactorily. I'll give you a guarantee to this effect.

Leave Orders at Abbott's Drug Store, Barrington, Illinois.