The conundrum social given by the Ladies' Aid society in the church parlors Friday evening of last week did not attract a very large crowd, but those who attended were well pleased with the social and its puzzling menu.

Adolph Hasse is experiencing the result of being a good neighbor. Last fall he loaned his hedge shears to some one and now, needing them himself, he can't remember to whom he loaned them. He says that if the borrower will kindly return them he will "set 'em up" to the best he has.

A. G. Smith is printing 300 cook books for Crescent Div. No. 1, Grand International Auxiliary, a ladies' society which is organized in behalf of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. They hold a bazaar in Chicago next week, and the proceeds from the sale of the cook books go towards swelling the proceeds.

Those who heard Mr. Mayer preach when he was here some time ago, will be pleased to learn that he will occupy the pulpit at the M. E. church tomorrow morning. The pupils of the Sunday school will hold their usual Easter concert in the evening.

The village election promises to pass off as quietly as the town election did, unless something unforeseen turns up. A petition has been circulated having on it all the names of the present board and clerk with the exception of August Kimmet, who has been substituted for Mr. Horstman.

The Board of Education met last Tuesday evening to consider and transact necessary business before the election of the new board. It was decided to do away with the eighth grade public graduating exercises, as many pupils consider this point in their education a good stopping place, whereas it should be the stepping stone into the finish.

The Barrington Social and Athletic club will give a dance at Stott's hall, Barrington, Friday evening, April 15. Astello's orchestra of Chicago will furnish music for the occasion. Tickets 75 cents. Supper will be furnished by Mrs. Charles Fletcher for 50 cents a couple. This will be the last dance of the season and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

The town election passed off very quietly last Tuesday and was far behind our usually exciting contests. There was no opposition to the Republican ticket except for the office of collector, for which office Bernhardt Meyer polled 14 votes. The result was as follows: Supervisor, M. Reynolds, 195; clerk, Ira Frye, 198; assessor, J. H. Shierding, 194; collector, J. H. Allard, 184; commissioner of highways, James Freeman, 197, and school trustee, Charles Wehrenberg, 197.

A representative of the H. Parmelee Library Co. of Chicago is in town trying to induce our people to take up its course of readings. The plan of the company is to secure fifty members in each town at $3 each. Fifty books are sent out each month for a term of five years, and only members are entitled to the use of the books. Some business house in town will have charge of the library. This is not a cheap library of trashy, paper bound books, but the very best of recent literature, treating on all interesting, instructive and entertaining subjects. This is a splendid opportunity for our citizens to secure an up-to-date library at a small cost, and our citizens should not fail to take advantage of it. Call at THE REVIEW office if the agent has not called on you.

The marriage of Mr. Charles F. Nason to Miss Jessie Gullet occurred at Aberdeen, Miss., on Thursday, March 31st, at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. N. McMullan, pastor of the Baptist church at Aberdeen, officiated at the ceremony, which was performed at the sickbed of the bride's sister at the latter's earnest request. The bride is a native of Monroe county, Miss., and has many friends in this place, who had the pleasure of making her acquaintance during her residence with Mrs. W. Johnson at this place. Mr. Nason is one of Palatine's well known citizens, and is a young man of integrity and good habits. The many Palatine friends of the happy young couple extend congratulations and join with THE REVIEW in wishing them long life, prosperity and continued happiness.

PALATINE BOARD MEETING.

PALATINE, ILL., April 4, '98.

The Village Board met in regular session with President Battermann in the chair, and all the trustees present with the exception of Horstmann. The treasurer's report for the month of March, showing a balance of $3410.07, was read and ordered placed on file. The following bills were received and orders drawn on the treasurer for like amounts:

Enterprise, village election notice, $1.25.
H. W. Meyer, supplies, $5.15.
J. Bergman, labor, $6.00.
Henry Schoppe, scraping, $5.70.
Wm. Tegtmeyer, scraping, $5.70.

Loges & Schultz, repairs, $10.80.
Henry Law, salary, $40.00.
Herman Schroeder, salary, $5.00.

Motion prevailed that C. H. Patten be allowed $470.00, the balance due him on water works contract. The president appointed the following judges of election: Al Hanns, Julius Lincoln and Herman Pahlman, and Frank Keyes, Harry Schoppe and A. G. Smith as clerks.

The clerk was instructed to notify C. P. Barnes to build new sidewalk.

On motion Board adjourned to April 25th, 1898. J. H. OTTO ENGELKING, Clerk.

Barrington Village Board Proceedings.

When President Boehmer called the Village Board to order Monday evening all the members responded to Clerk Powers' roll call with the exception of Trustee Colleen, who was away from town. After the minutes of the previous meetings had been read and approved, the following bills were allowed:

Electric Light Co., $59.47.
Barrington Review, $2.48.
A. S. Henderson, night watch, $35.00.
H. A. Sandman, marshal, $35.00.
Henry Johnson, $21.67.
Fred Wolf, $20.68.
Henry Meyer, $14.74.
James Sizer, $9.00.
E. M. Blocks, chairs, $35.40.
L. A. Powers, stationery, $3.00.

The C. & N.-W. railroad company was given permission to extend their tracks across Walnut street to the Barrington roller mills property, provided they take up the track crossing North Railroad street.

Trustee Grunau reported that there was not room enough to spare on the present village lot for a tramp house. It was decided to buy a lot of H. G. Willmarth adjoining the village property in the rear. The Village Board was given the privilege by Mr. Willmarth to buy the property on "tick" with 6 per cent interest, or pay cash for it. It was decided to do the former.

The settlement of putting up a hose and hook and ladder house was let go over to a future meeting.

President Boehmer informed the Board that the railroad company would see that the Walnut street crossing is properly protected as soon as the work of putting in the double track is completed.

City Engineer Patten was given permission to change the deep well pump to an airless pump, a new kind of a pump which he said would prove more satisfactory. If it does not give satisfaction Patten is to replace it with a pump according to the plans and specifications.

Marshall Sandman was allowed $1.50 for watching fire.

Lambert, Tasche asked the Board to fill up the grade so that he can lay a sidewalk. He wanted the village to furnish posts, crosspieces and spikes. The matter was left with the street committee with power to act.

The railroad company agreed to let the village have some dirt to fill in Main street.

An ordinance granting the Chicago Telephone company a franchise to put in a telephone line was read, but owing to some changes that the Board wanted to make, the matter was left over for an adjourned meeting to be held this evening. At this meeting the ordinance will probably be passed.

Fall to Fix the Price of Milk.

Delegates representing the milk shippers and dealers met in the Briggs House, Chicago, on Monday to fix the price of milk for the next three months. They adjourned without accomplishing their object. The difference of price did not stand in the way, but the dealers refused to treat with the shippers because of the charge recently made by members of the Milk Shippers' union that the practice of skimming milk was almost universal among the dealers.

Unclaimed Letters.

The following is a list of unclaimed letters at the Barrington postoffice April 8, 1898:

M. B. Ratner, H. Kuechler, S. Lomvie, Carl Munsford, Miss Donna Phelps and Mrs. Sophia Emsle.
H. K. BROCKWAY, Postmaster.

TO THE PUBLIC

As all know my store and entire stock of Hardware was destroyed by fire early Thursday morning, March 31st. Although this loss falls heavily on me I desire to make no complaint. The people of Barrington and vicinity have known me for a long number of years, and have given me their patronage to such a large extent in the past that I cannot but feel full of hope for the future, believing that the public will not forget me. I have always endeavored to give my customers full value for their money, and I attribute my success in the past, to a large extent, to the fact that the people appreciate honesty in business dealings in the strictest sense of the word.

I desire to announce that I have opened a store in the Stott block, opposite the depot, and commencing with next Monday morning there will be ready for your inspection a complete line of hardware, tinware, stoves and ranges, oil and gasoline stoves, etc., at extremely low prices. I am also prepared to manufacture milk cans, and do all kinds of repairing and tinwork promptly, at a moderate price and in a first-class manner.

I desire to extend my heartfelt thanks to the public for past favors, and by courteous and prompt service and honest dealings I hope to merit the future patronage of a generous public. Yours gratefully,

STOTT BUILDING L. F. SCHROEDER, Barrington, Ill.

WALL PAPER

I respectfully call the attention of the public to the fact that I have just received another immense stock of Wall Paper. I have personally selected the cream of the 1898 designs. Only the prettiest patterns have been selected for the Barrington trade. They must be seen to be appreciated. You are cordially invited to call at my store and see my line of Wall Paper. My time and my clerk's time is at your disposal from morning until evening. Don't for a moment think that because you call at my store and ask me to show you my goods that you are expected to buy. I don't do business that way. I know that I can offer the best bargains in wall paper and consequently it is a pleasure for me to show you my stock. I know that an investigation on your part will bear me out in my claim that I have

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY.

M. T. LAMEY, Ed. and Pub.

Entered at the postoffice at Barrington, Ill., as second-class matter.

SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1898.

A torpedo boat and a torpedo boat destroyer are one and the same thing.

The Canadian Pacific railway will this coming summer construct a line from Stickeen river to Teslin lake. Thence a steamboat will convey freight and passengers to Dawson City.

It is melancholy to note how large a proportion of the great American people are still ignorant of the solemn fact that knives at table are intended to cut with, not to eat with.

One expert declares the gold of Alaska is of glacial origin. Another says it is not. Meanwhile the common man does not care whether it is or not so he gets some of it.

Because of the careless wording of resolutions passed by the Texas legislature there will this year be necessary two state elections in the Lone Star State, one on the first Tuesday of November, the second on the second Tuesday. Oh, Texas!

Sympathies follow the pocket interest. No doubt the Rothschilds are with Spain rather than the United States in the present crisis because they have loaned Spain an immense amount of money on the Almaden quicksilver mines, whose revenues are pledged to them for payment.

It would be easy enough for the United States to recruit an army of 1,000,000 men in one month, but land soldiers are not what we need. The present crisis has developed the situation clearly and revealed to us that what we need most of all are coast defenses, a navy and naval militia.

Germany appears to be getting on faster than any other nation in industrial prosperity. Money in circulation has increased in amount 50 per cent in the past 20 years and the value of her industries 116 per cent in the same time. The national debt, counting out that incurred when the government bought the railroads, is only $7 per head of the population.

The rival republics on the west coast of South America are Argentina and Chile. It is hard to say which is more powerful and impossible to say which is more ambitious. Chile possessed herself of a first class armored cruiser, the O'Higgins, which cost nearly $5,000,000. Thereupon Argentina contracted for the building of a similar one, the San Martino, now constructing at Leghorn, Italy. One of these nations will not sell her cruiser to the United States or to Spain unless the other does, and each waits for the other to take first action.

In the furtherance of her hostile designs toward England Russia may appropriate millions of dollars for the enlargement of her navy, but she cannot budge a peg toward the accomplishment of that aim unless British shipbuilders construct the vessels for her. There the British have her blocked square. Peter the Great sought assiduously centuries ago to advance naval construction in his great frozen realm, but his ambitions have never been realized.

The sum total of lynchings in this country has reached proportions that cry to heaven for vengeance. The tragic list reached 115 last year, nearly all in the southern states. Mississippi alone murdered ten negroes in this way—no whites. In some cases the dastardly, cruel killings were merely for giving evidence against the brutes in various sections who call themselves White Caps. In others it was for horse and mule stealing. Again a man was lynched just because he was a negro school-teacher, another for no particular charge except that the lynchers did not like him. Paris in the insane days of the French revolution was not worse than some of these localities are where such crimes are committed in the American republic. It is not for one moment to be supposed that it is the reputable citizens of the lynching localities who commit or countenance these awful deeds. It is, on the contrary, a lawless element with no respect for human life. An insane fury seems to possess them. Respectable citizens should rise in a mass and put a stop to the lynching crimes before they disgrace and demoralize the United States further. It is a duty owed to civilization.

Balloon Polar Expedition.

The second attempt to reach the north pole will probably be made during the coming summer. This time it will be Frenchmen who will try it, in order to plant the French flag on the north pole and incidentally to find out what has become of Andree, the daring Swede, that was swallowed in aerial regions last summer. We infer from a letter the north pole balloon of this year writes to the New York Journal that he is going to undertake the hazardous voyage chiefly to confer glory on France.

His name is Louis Godard. He has several theories as to the fate of Andree and his companions. One is that they have been blown by the winds upon the northern coast of Greenland or Franz-Josef Land, where they have been detained by the snows and ice of the present winter, and Godard thinks it possible that he may rescue them in this case. The French balloon that will head for the pole will carry seven persons. Two of them, Godard and Sucoof, are trained aeronauts. The balloon is constructed on precautionary plans that may save the machine from collapse. Instead of being one huge bag of silk, it is composed of one great central bag with ten smaller auxiliary ones surrounding it. Thus, if the central one splits, the ten small ones will still be able to sustain the weight of the whole. The balloon will be amply provisioned and built to contain gas enough for a two months' journey in air.

The party will go by sea to Spitzbergen, thence enter the balloon and be blown northward or otherwise, as the case may be. Godard mentions that the distance from the Spitzbergen islands to the pole is not quite so great as from New York to Chicago.

Co-operative Colonists.

A brief announcement in the news dispatches gives the information that Eugene V. Debs will start his first co-operative colony near Belfast, Skagittis county, Wash. The colonists begin with the opening of spring to till the soil and prepare for their co-operative commonwealth, share and share alike. The announcement is attended with some sneering prophecies that the enterprise is bound to be a failure, since no such co-operative colony ever did live.

Just here is where the prophets make a mistake. Co-operative colonies have hung together and amassed millions of dollars in property and money. Well known instances are Harmonist brethren of Pennsylvania, the Shakers, the Oneida community and the Zoar Separatists in northwestern Ohio. Every one of these communities when they concluded to disband had millions to divide and bequeath. The Zoar Separatists owned 7,000 acres of the best land in Ohio and were worth $3,000,000 when the other day they decided to break up their community. The division will leave every individual member of the organization worth over $30,000.

The truth is that any co-operative colony whose members hang together harmoniously, live simply but comfortably and work faithfully cannot help amassing riches. The only trouble is that they grow tired of the community life and its restraints. After an existence of nearly a century the Zoar Separatists disbanded, for no other reason apparently than that they were simply tired of the colony life.

The International League of Press Clubs has done itself honor in electing as its president for the coming year Mr. P. C. Boyle, editor and proprietor of the Oil City Derrick. There was some question whether Oil City was a large enough place in which to hold the next meeting of the league, considering the size of that distinguished body in the minds of its own members. But there was no question of the fitness of Mr. Boyle to be its president. He has wrought faithfully and unselfishly for its prosperity since the foundation. In the journalism of Pennsylvania Mr. Boyle is a strong and striking figure. His life is one of action, his nature large and kindly. A soldier in the civil war, he passed from the army to engage in the stirring scenes connected with the discovery and development of the oil wells of Pennsylvania. When the real history of the Pennsylvania oil industry is written, if written it ever is, P. C. Boyle will be one of its most picturesque and even romantic characters.

What kind of rule the Spaniards live under may be judged from the fact that the government has a monopoly of the tobacco trade of Spain, of the revenues of the Almaden quicksilver mines, the richest in the world, and also of leading railroads in the kingdom, and with all these resources the rotten old realm is yet bankrupt and has been for years. There is not much chance for an ambitious youth to rise and make a fortune in Spain.

EASTER

The little girls got tired first, but the boys would not stop until the fifty were found. Then the whistle was blown and the children glistened about the full nest.

Dick's was the last find, and as he was the biggest boy there he counted to see if there were really fifty eggs.

"Why, there's fifty-one!" exclaimed he, and sure enough a pure white egg lay among the fifty gaily-colored ones like a lily in a pansy-bed.

What a surprise for everybody! How did the egg get among its bright companions?

Could any boy have brought it in his pocket by mistake?

"Who found this white egg?" asked the children's friend.

"Oh, I did," said Dick, "and it was a hard one, too. I saw lots of easy ones, but as I was the biggest I thought I ought to leave them for the littlest ones. The hunt was almost over and I thought I shouldn't find a single hard find."

"But where did you find it? I hid only fifty colored eggs," said the lady.

"The whistle was blowing for us to stop hunting," said Dick, "and I happened to notice pussy curled up in her basket by the fire in the dining-room, so I stopped to pat her, and as she crooked up her back my hand touched something hard under the cushion in her basket. I lifted it and peeped under—and there was the pretty white egg!"

Little Dick was at first troubled a bit, but soon he laughed loudest of them all when it was discovered that his find was a porcelain darning egg!

When later Baby Robin was brought, in by his nurse to see the happy little egg-hunters, he explained the mystery by going straight to pussy's basket and saying:

"Pussy, baby hide mamma's boofer egg in your baxit for you. Did you find your Easter egg?"

And Dick had the reward for his unselfishness in letting others have the "easy finds," when wee Robin saw the white egg among the others and cried out with glee:

"Come, pussy, here's your boofer egg!" EUGENIE L. BECKWITH.

All the flowers of the Arctic region are either white or yellow, and there are 762 varieties.

AND THERE WAS THE PRETTY WHITE EGG.

Egyptian Statue of Christ.

This picture is one taken of an ancient terra-cotta statuette in the collection of the late Doctor Grant Bey of Cairo. It represents the Madonna and child and is, no doubt, of Christian origin. It will be noticed that the Madonna wears the crown of the Isis and the royal infant is distinguished by the lock of Horus, which designates him as the son and heir of the Great King, the anointed one, or the Christ. That the Christ was recognized as the Horus is proved by the early Christian crosses.

An Easter Song.

Every face is beaming,
Every step is light,
All the world is beautiful
From merry morn till night.
The little streams are dancing
And flashing, just for fun,
And joyfully to meet the sea,
The mighty rivers run.

And twice ten thousand flowers,
And twice ten thousand more,
Are waking in the lonesome woods
And by the cottage door.
To count the Easter lilies
Is more than you or I
Can hope to do the long day through
How hard so'er we try.

Every face is beaming,
Every step is light,
For o'er the threshold Easter slipped
At waning of the night,
And little birds are singing
Like mad for joy of life,
And all the hours, in sun and showers,
With brimming joy are rife.

Uplift the songs of Easter,
Let none today be still,
When this great world is like a cup
That flowers overflow,
When blossoms deck the orchard,
And boughs are pink and white,
And winds go by, like wings that fly,
From merry morn till night.

—Margaret E. Sangster.

Easter Lilies Fading.
See! those Easter lilies laid
On the cross begin to fade.
If the one who bore them hither
Had a faith that will not wither;
If he hath within his bosom
Love to God and man in blossom,
Tho' his dearest hopes decay,
Health and riches pass away,
Unseen crosses he can dress
And give life Easter cheerfulness.

—Fletcher Bates.

NEWS OF ILLINOIS.

IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS OF THE LAST SEVEN DAYS.

The Populists Have Agreed to Fuse with the Democrats This Year and in 1900—Gov. Tanner Gets the Resignation of Gen. Wheeler.

Populists Vote for Fusion.

Springfield.—The Populist state central committee met at the Palace hotel in this city on March 29 for the purpose of outlining a plan of action for the coming campaign. Thirty-five of the fifty-one members of the committee were present, and the meeting was warm and protracted. One member of the committee said that all were in favor of continuing the fusion with the Democrats, but in order to maintain it they propose not to ask anything of the Democratic state central committee, but to demand what is wanted.

When the committee met a strong minority had already organized opposition to fusion, and the proposition to hold the state convention in connection with the Democrats was bitterly fought. The resignation of H. E. Taubeneck as chairman was accepted, and Charles Palmer, the secretary, was authorized to act in his stead until the new committee was selected. Joseph Hupp of Ottawa led the anti-fusion fight. The committee fixed upon May 17 as the date for holding the state convention in this city—the same date that the Democratic convention is to be held. A resolution was adopted pledging the party to co-operate with Democrats and Silver Republicans along the lines laid down by Butler, Teller and Jones, the chairmen of the three parties.

Gen. Wheeler Resigns.

Springfield.—Gov. Tanner has received and accepted the resignation of Brig.-Gen. H. A. Wheeler. The resignation was tendered at the request of the governor and is brief and formal. It simply says: "By request of Gov. Tanner I hereby tender my resignation as commander of the 1st brigade, Illinois national guards." This is the outcome of the Kavanagh incident growing out of the parade of the 7th infantry with the Clan-na-Gael guards on St. Patrick's day. With the resignation of Gen. Wheeler also came those of his entire staff, as follows: Lieut.-Col. William N. Pelouse, assistant adjutant-general; Lieut.-Col. Leroy T. Stewart, assistant inspector-general; Lieut.-Col. Frank H. Ray, inspector of rifle practice; Lieut.-Col. John Milton Oliver, judge advocate; Lieut.-Col. James H. Etheridge, assistant surgeon-general; J. Joseph Barnett, quartermaster; Maj. Robert G. Clarke, commissary of subsistence; First Lieutenant Willis Counselman, aid-de-camp; First Lieutenant Gilbert W. Weeks, aid-de-camp. Col. Henry L. Turner, commanding the 1st brigade by virtue of his rank and time of service. Col. Turner ranks from Nov. 18, 1893.

Bad Wreck Near Bloomington.

Bloomington.—The east-bound passenger train on the Big Four, which left Bloomington at 9:10 a. m. Tuesday, ten minutes later met with an accident which resulted in injury to almost every passenger in its three coaches, about 100 in number. While descending the grade approaching the Kickapoo river, three miles from the city, the tender was derailed. The derailed tender tore the stringers from the bridge, but the train got safely across. Just as the last truck left the tender rolled to the right down the twenty-foot hill, followed by all the cars, which landed bottom up in the ditch. The injured were taken to farmhouses. Seven doctors were sent from this city, and for two hours were kept busy. Those most seriously injured are: Mrs. Mary Ferguson, Bloomington; face cut by glass; may lose an eye. Edward Rhodes, Bloomington; student at Champaign; upper lip cut; nose broken; may die. Mrs. Caroline Dunbar, Montgomery, Ill.; an old lady; internally hurt; may die. Mrs. J. H. Adams, Rosslyn, Wash.; aged 69; terribly bruised and cut; will probably die; was going to Westville, Ill. Miss Sidonia Bruner, Peru, Ill.; student at Champaign; arm broken.

Women's Club Unite.

Peoria.—The women's clubs of the 14th congressional district have organized a federation. These officers were elected: President, Mrs. Virginia Balance Bash, Peoria; vice-presidents: Tazewell county, Mrs. Conrad Luppen, Pekin; Mason county, Mrs. D. Harpham, Havana; Peoria county, Mrs. H. W. Masters, Lewistown; Marshall county, Mrs. Laura Kline, Henry; Putnam county, Mrs. Mills, Magnolia; corresponding secretary, Miss Addie L. Turner, Pekin; recording secretary, Mrs. B. Strawn, Lacon; treasurer, Mrs. Donat Miller, Canton.

Will Not Celebrate This Year.

Carlinville.—Gen. John A. McClernand, president of the Sallioh Battlefield association, through the secretary, Capt. Fenwick Y. Hedley of Bunker Hill, announced that no anniversary or observance will be held April 6 and 7, the anniversary of the battle, on account of the floods and interest in the Spanish difficulty.

WOMAN AND THE WHEEL.

From the Gazette, Delaware, Ohio.

The healthfulness of bicycle riding for women is still a disputed question between eminent physicians and health reformers. Used in moderation it surely creates for women a means of out-door exercise, the benefit of which all physicians concede. Used to excess, like any other pastime, its effect is likely to be dangerous.

The experience of Miss Bertha Reed, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Mr. J. R. Reed, 335 Lake St., Delaware, Ohio, may point a moral for parents who, like Mr. and Mrs. Reed, have experienced some concern for their daughters who are fond of wheeling. In the fall of '96 Miss Bertha who had ridden a great deal, began to fall in an alarming manner. She grew steadily paler and thinner, and it appeared she was going into consumption. Rest and quiet did her absolutely no good. A physician found her pulse at 104—a very high rate. Thinking this may have been due to temporary nervousness when he examined her, he watched her closely, but her pulse continued at that rate for two weeks. He was satisfied then, from her high pulse and steadily wasting condition that she was suffering from anemia or a bloodless condition of the body. She became extremely weak, and could not stand the least noise or excitement. In this condition of affairs they were recommended by an old friend to get some of that famous blood medicine, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They did so, and almost from the first dose Bertha began to improve. She continued to take the pills and was by means of those pills made entirely well, and more grateful people than her parents cannot be found in the whole State of Ohio.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved a boon to womankind. Acting directly on the blood and nerves, they restore the requisite vitality to all parts of the body; creating functional regularity and perfect harmony throughout the nervous system. The pallor of the cheeks is changed to the delicate blush of health; the eyes brighten; the muscles grow elastic, ambition is creased and good health returns.
