It may be inferred that "The Availa-ble Energy of Timothy Hay," just is-sued by the department of agriculture at Washington, will be shortly follow-ed by "The Diplomatte Energy of John Hay," published by the department of state.

It is possible that sympathy extended to Japan on the theory that it is the under dog in the fight may be mis placed. Jupan expects to be on top of large part of the time.

At one time it would hardly have been believed that all this war talk could go on with the kaiser's vocal ap-paratus out of commission.

However, Russia isn't delaying any in the work of rushing men and muni-tions of war to the front.
