Gardner Post Check Currency Bill.

One of the commercial needs of the country has long been some safe, cheap and convenient system of transmitting money by mail. We have already the and convenient system of fransmitting money by mail. We have already the express and postal mency order sys-tems, but these are not allogether sat-isfactory, though they are no doubt. The Gardner post check currency bill now before congress appears to meet all the requirements of a safe, cheap and convenient mailable exchange, and to hand like other govern irrency until they come into on of some one destring to sem-through the mail. Then the baces are filled with the nam-ige and his address, and a two mp is placed on the bill. By pipe process the bill is trans-

trumental and Dramatic Progr by Pupils of Sears' School. That a musician is not without honor in his own town was proved Wednesday when audiences of consid-erable size gathered at the three recitals given in the village hall by the arly achievements as instructor single him out for praise and emulation. His long identification with Barrington's musical growth has made it a foregone conclusion that programs given by himself or pupils, will prove musical treats and to him 'should be accorded the best appreciation of all residents for his incessant devotion to the elevating of the standard of musical de-velopment. The natural pride which is felt in possessing such a thorough qualified artist in harmony and execu tion is well founded.

The programs were wisely selected to show each pupil's musical expression and skill of capable rendition. About twenty-live different students figured in the instrumental numbers playing a variety of instrumental numes six pupils of the oratorical dep-ment of Sears' school of music : oratory assisted in entertaining.

In the evening a large attendance gathered to enjoy the two humorous plays presented—"Mr. Bob" and "The mys presented—"Mr. Bob" and "The Margon user Trap."
