An entertaining evening was spent at the White school last Friday night by the pupils, their relatives and friends. A lengthy but assuredly excellent program preceded the sale of the function "Sacks" which were tasking decreated bags of all unterfals. Sincere praise is due Miss Nicolai, the teacher, and the ghildren for the arrangement of such a pleasant amuse-ment. The proceeds were $38.50. About ten from Barrington attended.

Young men and women who so far forget themselves as to take part in such disreputable actions as characterized the serenade given a wedding party in this village lately, should lay no claim to respectability. They not party in this village lately, should lay no claim to respectability. They not only deserve the censure of the public but they deserve the same treatment at the hands of the authorities as other disturbers of the peace. Several hours in the lock-up and a good stiff fine for disorderly conduct might be a warning.
