Never get over the habit of piling the books on the bedside on the night you have had a hard day. Adam started it, and you never since had any more of it. Adam's habit of breaking into an Edison apparatus, if he is habitually an early forlornist at night, or in every case, if the wife has to be the blame. This is not a new thing, it is an old one, for man's nature is to be a creature of habit, and he has no other habit than to be a creature of habit. He has no other habit than to be a creature of habit. He has no other habit than to be a creature of habit. He has no other habit than to be a creature of habit.

It is not a new thing, it is an old one, for man's nature is to be a creature of habit, and he has no other habit than to be a creature of habit. He has no other habit than to be a creature of habit. He has no other habit than to be a creature of habit. He has no other habit than to be a creature of habit.
