The dance given in Forbes' pavilion last Saturday night was fairly well-attended, and proved a very pleasant affair. As a rule but few dances have been given here on Saturday evening; but it seems four hours of the pleasure is sufficient and Saturday night will become popular for dances.

The local republican committee talk of establishing some sort of headquarters here "to keep the boys in line" during the campaign. A democratic very sarcastically suggests that the headquarters be decorated with placards showing the advanced cost of commodities during the past four years. Another says "The full disner part which the republicans used in their campaign emblem four years ago was never filled. The big can which Charley Downing caused to be made for the Barrington trusts is in storage here and should be the main exhibit at campaign headquarters.

Clarence Fisher is out in South Dakota and writes to parties as follows: The harvesting is progressing rapidly. Owing to the very hot weather and heavy dews this season the wheat is very poor and rusted badly. A great many fields are so badly damaged that it will not pay to harvest the crop. The wages paid here to harvest hands is $2.50 a day and board.

The Quaker Evangelist, David Tatum, of Chicago will speak in the M. E. church, Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, on "How to Save the Boys." Every parent in Barrington should hear him on this subject, for these boys are to be men of the future, the future will be what the men make it; and the men will be what we make the boys. Come out.

Several of the sports of the ring side of a race for a short bout between a local bantam weight and an unknown. This calls to mind the story told of the mill once held in the lay loft of a Barrington livery barn between a representative of Britain and an unknown. Many "prominent" citizens crowded up a ladder to see the fun and all down a hay chute when the bantam was knocked out and left for dead. They say the sudden retirement of a number of our leading citizens from that scene was more comical than any scene in a "Trip to Chinatown."

The Junior Christian Endeavor society with a membership of over 40, meets regularly on Monday evening. A number of new comers were present at the last meeting.

The services next Sunday evening will be conducted in the English language.

A Sunday school picnic will be held in the near future, the 24th of this month is likely to be the date.

Miss Luella Pladge has been chosen to represent the Y. P. M. S. at the annual convention to be held at El Paso, Illinois, early in September.

The anthems rendered at the Sunday morning and evening services by the choir added largely to the meeting. Nothing preventing, this will be kept up hereafter.

The pastor remarked on Sunday that beautiful costly churches or temples do not of necessity mean God-pleasing services. God looks to our hearts and lives. The Jews had a very costly temple at Jerusalem in the days of Christ but their service was a lip service and an abomination to God, because their hearts were wicked.
