Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, of Lilydale, N.Y., Grand Worthy Wise Templar, and Member of W.C.T.U., tells how she recovered by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. FINKHAM:—I am one of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can today thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing-down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and reading of the course your Compound had made, I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of my troubles. My family and relatives were naturally as gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incurable. She took your Vegetable Compound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong, and her home to her great joy and her husband's delight was blessed with a baby. I know of a number of others who have been cured of various kinds of female trouble, and am satisfied that your Compound is the best medicine for sick women."—Mrs. Elizabeth H. Thompson, Box 105, Lilydale, N.Y.—$3.00 per bottle of original of above letter proving effectiveness not to be doubted.

Best of Health and Well-being. Jack's Fatal Oversight.

"I like you well enough, Mr. Usual," said the perplexed young woman; "or, at least, I'm not sure I like you as well as I do Jack Cawdry. He says he thinks of me 365 days in the year."

"He wants one day off every four years, does he?" exclaimed young Usual, with indignant scorn. "That kind of devotion doesn't commend itself to you, does it, Clarice?" Jack's doom was sealed from that moment.

Edythe—How sweet the moon is! Why do you start so, Willie, when you look at it? Willie—Er—why, you see, I've been knocked over by automobiles several times.

In Early Days. Capt Kidd had just lowered a chest of treasures into the sea, after carefully charting the spot. "I suppose," he mused, as he watched the bubbles rise and float upon the water, "I suppose that one of those corporation pirates would call that my sinking fund."

Failed to Make Good. Miller—Did you ever read that wonderful book, "How to Live an Old Year?" Giles—Yes; the author was an old schoolmate of mine.

Safe for a While. "It's funny," said the sick man's wife, "but the doctor says he hasn't discovered yet what's the matter with you."

In the Blood. Adelle—Clarence, don't you think you could overcome somewhat your fondness for your club? Clarence—No that would be impossible. I inherit it from my mother. She was a club woman.

Indian Stamp Dances. To the white citizen who has been for years familiar with the ancient and meaningless dances of the Indians on Oklahoma reservations and in the domain of the Five Tribes the announcement that these festivals have become stamp meetings in some sections will be at once pleasing and surprising.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 ounces—two full pounds—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 4-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents.

Students of Advanced Age. Rev. Edward Robie of Greenland, N. H., a student at the Harvard theological summer school, is 83 years of age and doubtless is the oldest student at any educational institution in the world.

Insist on Getting It. Some grocers say they don't keep Defiance Starch. This is because they have a stock on hand of other brands containing only 12 oz. in a package, which they won't be able to sell first because Defiance contains 16 oz. for the same money.
