FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1904.

Special meeting of Knights of the Globe next Monday evening.

Wanted—Girl for general house work. Apply to Mrs. M. C. McIntosh.

If you wish to witness some first-class races go to Libertyville next week.

Another coat of Oregon mud is being plastered on the structure known as the depot.

To Rent—Rooms in the Lamey building. Inquire of Miss Lamey, corner 21st and Chestnut street.

Lake county republicans will meet in convention at Libertyville tomorrow to nominate county officers.

The Barrington Pharmacy will put in a complete line of magazines and periodicals about September 20th.

Another game of ball such as was played on Hesse's field last Saturday is awaited by friends of the sport.

Some people are like a locomotive when the wheels get going. They make a lot of noise, but don't get ahead very much.

Work is completed putting down the big lateral drain from Chestnut to Franklin street between Williams and Elm streets.

Marriage isn't a failure. In marriage the wife takes the husband's name and in a failure the husband takes the wife's name.

A family reunion was held Labor Day at the Castle home on Grove avenue. Twenty guests were present from Chicago and vicinity.

Mrs. G. H. Constock entertained a party of young people last Friday night in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Willard Abbott of Hoopston, Ill.

H. E. Merrick of Elgin has charge of the telephone exchange during the absence of Arthur Schroeder who is attending the St. Louis exposition.

The man who takes his politics from his father and his religion from his mother is also apt to take his orders from his wife and back talk from his son.

The Lead Hand girls of the M. E. Sunday school will enjoy a day's outing at Lincoln park, Chicago, tomorrow in company with their teacher, Mrs. M. C. McIntosh.

The Lead Hand girls will give a basket social in the near future. Watch for the date and expect a good time. The little ladies know how to give a social that is a social.

A christening party was held Sunday at the Weichert residence when Dorothy, infant daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Weichert was christened by her uncle, Rev. Weichert of Chicago.

The social dance given in Forbes pavilion Saturday evening was participated in by 40 couple, and although the weather was cool for pavilion parties everybody enjoyed the occasion.

Labor Day was observed in Barrington by several of the trades, including wagon makers, blacksmiths, harness makers, hatters and printers. Those workers obeyed the proclamation of the governor.

All members of Barrington Lodge No. 856, I. O. F. are requested to be present at the next regular meeting Thursday evening September 15, when the work of initiatory degree will be bestowed upon three candidates.

Resorts in the vicinity of Barrington were crowded by pleasure seekers from Chicago, Labor Day. It is estimated that over 200 people boarded the 6:37 and 7:00 o'clock trains here in the evening and half as many Tuesday morning.

Walter Lageschulte who lately went to Washington, D. C., to accept a government position, writes to his father that he is much pleased with the work assigned him in the treasury department and enjoying life at the National capital.

A Boston minister has discovered that soda is as good as whiskey for snake bites. It would be interesting to know how he found it out. It is safe to say that nobody else will do an experimenting for the purpose of disproving his statement.

This residence of Dr. George Lytle on West Main street was entered by snake thieves last Friday night. Entrance was secured by a window in the rear. They secured some pastry from the pantry and in the sitting room found a silver watch and gold chain, a very valuable one, and Mr. Lytle's dress shoes. They confined their operations to the lower floor and seemed to have no desire for silverware or other valuables within easy reach.

The program for the coming year's work of the Woman's Thursday club of Barrington has been arranged and will soon be published. It contains many interesting topics for discussion and will prove to be one of the most instructive ever arranged by that organization.

The funeral of the late Richard Earith was held from the family home Sunday afternoon. Services at the house were conducted by Rev. Strum of the Baptist church, while at Evergreen cemetery the rites were according to the Woodmen ritual. A male quartet furnished musical selections.

At Oak Park pavilion, Lake Zurich, tomorrow night a social dance will be given by Joliet parties who will come by special train and bring with them Ebersoll's celebrated Joliet orchestra of five pieces, one of the best musical organizations of that city. The public is invited to this party. Tickets 50 cents.

A party of six young people from this village passed Labor Day enjoying a picnic near Fox river, which might be termed a "camera picnic," in that the chief amusement of the day was in snap shots. Those attending were Misses Georgia Topping and Grace Otis, Esther Sargent of Nunda, Messrs. Reuben Geisse, George Otis and Will Cannon.

There is a scarcity of teachers in the rural districts of Cook county and in order to supply the demand County Superintendent of Schools Nightingale will hold an extra examination for positions, Saturday morning, Sept. 10, at the Atherton building, Chicago. So many teachers securing village and city positions for the coming year is the cause of shortage in the country teaching force.

Narrow Escape For the Cow.
We are informed of a man—a young man—that is he counts himself young because he is not yet 40—who is so deeply engrossed in the admiration of a 21 year old damsel that grave fears are entertained for his sanity. So wrapped up in his new found love in this Romeo that he calls at the home of his Juliet at early noon, high noon and sunset to inquire as to her state of health. If he manages to absent himself Juliet drops the h. h. work and makes hurried visit to his domicile to learn the cause of his absence.

The other evening this pair "with but a single thought, their hearts beating as one" sat on the sidewalk near the cheese factory, when a meek looking bovine, led by a quiet unobtrusive gentleman German ancestry, slowly plodded along the east side of the street.

The bovine edged over towards the interested pair when the German pulled on the rope and shouted:

"Come away you damn foolasses! Vat's dis matter mit you airity yet? You vat leest all dat green start and make yourself der cholic moblions? Hellamittin mit such poesness!"
"Twas a narrow escape for the cow."

You Can Afford to Eat Meat.
