

Barrington Local Happenings Told in Short Paragraphs

Miss Rose Kampert is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. I. Sprouse, at Nunda.

Miss Florence Cullen of Lake street was the guest of Miss Violet McIntosh at her home in Chicago on Sunday.

New telephones are George Nightingale, 572 Dr. Shearer, Groff building, 464 W. Frank, 1116; Henry Butzow, 232.

Loads of furniture are seen in all directions for March 1st, means moving day in rural districts and there are many changes this spring.

Neil Coltrin of Austin visited the early part of the week with his aunt, Miss Eva Castle.

Theis Bros. moved their barber shop to the Groff building Thursday.

Miss Florence Peck gave a small "Progressive Hash" party Saturday evening for her cousin, Miss Lillian Castleman of Lombard, Illinois.

Mrs. C. A. Hollister returned Thursday from a visit to Waukegan and Ravenswood since early January.

Mrs. Ray Kimberly and daughter Ruth of Waukegan were here Wednesday at the Martin home on Franklin street.

The W. R. C. initiated two new members Wednesday.

It is generally understood that Chicago consumers will be asked to pay 8 cents per quart for milk next winter. At this figure it may be embarrassing to carry out Roosevelt's recommendations. It prohibits twins, anyway.

Mr. Swan, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of the University of Chicago, and Rev. J. L. Jackson will be at the Baptist church next Sunday night. Saturday night there will be a special service to which all Christians are especially invited.

Dr. D. H. Richardson on Saturday attended a re-union of the class of 1882 of Rush Medical college in Chicago at 125 Michigan avenue where a banquet was served. This is the first time in twenty-five years that the class has been re-united.

Fred B. Bennett of Woodstock has entered into a law partnership with Charles Barnes of that city who is considered one of the best lawyers in this section of the state. We are glad to see Fred, who is a product of Barrington, coming to the front. He deserves success.

George B. Church, of a wholesale paint company, has purchased the Hotchkiss house on Grove avenue, better known as the Frank Robertson home, for $3,500. Mr. and Mrs. Church and child will move to Barrington from Chicago immediately.

The Woodstock Woman's club will observe the club guest day on Tuesday afternoon, March fifth. Mrs. M. C. McIntosh of Chicago, who is president of the Barrington Woman's club has been invited to speak at the meeting in regard to the work which has been done by the Barrington club since its organization two years ago.

The Sunshine class of the Baptist Sunday school was entertained by Miss Violet McIntosh at her home in Chicago on Saturday afternoon from three to seven o'clock. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed with music and games, and at five o'clock a luncheon was served at one long table in the dining room. Mrs. McIntosh assisted her daughter in receiving and entertaining the guests.

H. C. Schendorf and family have rented the Robertson house on Cook street and will move here as soon as Dr. Weichelt and family move into their new home on Lake street. The Schendorf family have been located on a stock farm near Waukegan for several years, and Mr. Schendorf is in business in Chicago where he has a restaurant and buffet on Clark street.

Mr. and Mrs. Landau of Deerfield called on friends here this week.

Miss Lenella Weinert and Mr. Davis of Chicago spent Sunday visiting Barrington friends. Miss Weinert returned to her home Wednesday.

Messdames Delos Church and George Waterman went with Dr. Richardson to Cary Wednesday to attend the funeral of Moore West, aged eighty years, who died February 25. Mr. West was the husband of one of the Crabtree girls who lived here years ago.

An afternoon of sewing and visiting for the Dorcas society Tuesday in the Baptist church guild room was followed by a supper served to the ladies and the public. A very fair patronage was accorded the society. The most appealing supper served for fifteen cents, worth thirty-five. Five dollars were the earnings.

Henry White went to Wisconsin Tuesday for a short trip.

Mrs. William Thorpe was in Chicago a part of the week settling affairs in the estate of her mother who died this winter.

The Royal Neighbors enjoyed an evening's fun among themselves in their hall Monday evening with a large membership present. There were general "high jinks", and ice-cream and cake were served.

Henry Rohlfner does not seem to recover from his attack of pneumonia and is still unable to walk.

Mrs. C. O. Winters and sister, Mrs. McCaughey, left Monday for a week's visit in the city.

Miss Esther Kampert and R. D. Wells spent Sunday with the latter's aunt, Miss Basley, of Waukegan.

Miss Alec Murray of Evanston visited with her daughter, Mrs. George Knaggs, several days last week. Miss Martha Murray of Evanston, a sister of Mrs. Knaggs, is at her home this week.

Little Lenora Dolan, the youngest daughter of Thomas Dolan, is somewhat better after a painful illness of two weeks with a disorder of the hip.

Miss Laura Hauk of Libertyville was here several days this past week.

The Fortnightly cingel club, which has had twenty parties this winter, a meeting on Wednesday evening, have concluded the series and do not expect to meet again this season.

The talk on Mt. Vernon given by Mrs. Clare Sears at Miss Beulah Orin's Colonial party Friday night pleased the Portia club young ladies greatly being instructive and entertaining. All the girls wore powdered hair and fancy garments with pretty effect. The Misses Eva Robertson and Grace Freeman were guests of the hostess.

The marriage of Miss Winifred Smith to Otto Zimmerman will occur Sunday night at six o'clock at the Zimmerman home in the DeVol residence.

A family party and a few friends met at the home of William Thies on Grove avenue last Thursday afternoon to surprise the gentleman and congratulate him on having reached his 69th year. Mrs. Thies had planned the party and there were 30 present who dined at five o'clock.

W. W. Welch of Chicago was here on business Saturday.

Dozens of ladies took advantage of the home baking sale held by the Women's Relief Corps in the G. A. R. hall Saturday afternoon and all the good things were sold as fast as they arrived. The net receipts were about $14.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Willmarth Monday, February 25th, a daughter.

We see that the Nunda Herald republished our recent article headed "Don't Gossip." Evidently that village is afflicted, as is ours, with lengthy and active tongues. "Misery likes company."

Miss Alta Powers entertained the Froelich Club cingel club Monday.

Ambrose Cashin of Chicago was here Friday at the Lamey home on Elm street.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will give another home-baking sale in March.

"Mr. Dooley" says that if the doctors would open more windows and let more people we would believe in them more.

Rev. Father E. J. Fox moved into the new parish residence on Franklin street Saturday.

The annual sessions of the Illinois State Milk Producers' Institute was held at Spanglers, Ill., Wednesday and Thursday of this week and proved a profitable meeting for those who attended.

Earl Jencks returned home Saturday after three weeks visit with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Bowersox of Belleville, Kan., and his aunt, Mrs. Werner of Hobron, Nebraska.

Mrs. Richard Barker was in Barrington over Sunday at her brother's, Charles Hutchinson.

Mrs. Frank Plagge and daughters surprised Frank Plagge last week Thursday evening with a party to mark his 44th birthday which was the next day, February 22. Friends to the number of twenty called and the time was passed in games, orchestra music arranged especially for the party and with a late supper.

Gus Generaux of Cary was here Monday for a visit with his mother who recently met with an accident.

Mrs. Ida O'Casey of Chicago visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seem from Friday to Monday.

Dr. Weichelt has been annoyed by some individuals of this village who are below the standards of common decency, and he hereby warns them to keep off his premises under penalty of prosecution.

McHenry County is grieved over the mysterious death of Earle Eldridge, game warden, who was found dead in a swamp last Sunday. No cause of death has been ascertained but it is thought to have been murder and detectives are working on the case.

The F. E. Hawley farm situated two miles west of Barrington on the county line road was sold February 21st to Charles Helm from near Dundee. The farm contains 199 acres and sold for $72 per acre.

Miss Marie Silberman of South Bend, Indiana, came Thursday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Henry White, and sister, Mrs. Dawn Silberman.

Mrs. Kate Prouty was hostess of the Woman's club Thursday and entertained the ladies with a most sincere welcome. A Washington and Lincoln program was offered by Mesdames Stott, M. E. Bennett and L. H. Bennett, Miss Arps and Eugene Bennett.

Mrs. Generaux fell on the rear steps of the Howarth residence this week and broke her arm. The accident will leave its effects for quite a long time and is a deplorable one. Mrs. Kitson and Miss Emma Wiseman, the nurse, are now assisting at the Howarth home. Mrs. Howarth gains but slowly from her long illness.

IT PROVES IT'S WORTH

The HOLSMAN Automobile

PERFECT IN CONSTRUCTION, CHEAP IN PRICE and COST OF OPERATING

When you see the HOLSMAN machine it will make you its friend at once for these reasons:

1. Solid tires, admitting of no punctures.
2. Air cooled. No water to contend with, or broken jackets which occur in frosty weather.
3. No live axles.
4. No transmission gears.
5. No drive gears.
6. No speed gears, in fact, not any gears to contend with. No clutches. The machine rides as easy as the best made carriage and is controlled by two simple hand levers. It is started, guided, stopped, speeded, reversed and fully controlled by these two simple levers.

Should you have a breakdown, repairs are quickly secured. However, the chances of a breakdown are slim in a Holman.

Write me for catalog and descriptive matter.

J. W. Burkitt, Arlington Heights, Ill.

N. B. I'll be pleased to give you a spin in my car and show you the advantages of a Holman. It won't cost you anything. I also have the agency for the Rotary Shuttle Standard Sewing Machine, the best thing in this line on the market. Let the ladies come in my place and let me show them.
