BARRINGTON REMAINS WET

Proposition to Abolish the Dram

Shops Defeated. Spinner

Elected President.

The Village election Tuesday brought out the largest vote ever polled since its organization, 315 votes being cast.

The issue was license or no license. The proposition to abolish the dram shops was defeated by a vote of 149 to 131. Thirty-five votes did not declare themselves upon the issue.

The "Good Citizenship Ticket," supported by the Young Men's Christian Association, was defeated with the exception of one trustee, H. J. Lageschulte, who was elected by a good majority. The run between George Spinner and Frank Waterman for president of the board was close, the former winning by 17 votes. George J. Hager, candidate for trustee, carried off the honors running 29 votes ahead of his ticket.

The newly elected members are good business men and we predict will give the citizens of this village a business administration. Mr. Lageschulte's popularity is plainly shown as he ran 23 votes ahead of his ticket. He has done much to build up this town in the way of making improvements. The location of the Bowman Dairy Company in this village is largely due to Mr. Lageschulte's efforts. The result in detail is as follows:

George W. Spinner.....105

"Don'ts" By a Reporter.

Don't lie to the newspaper man, give it to him straight and ask him to help you out. Nine times out of ten he will.

Don't forget to tell the reporter how sorry you are that he is in such a lousy business. He might need your sympathy.

Don't try to tell a newspaper man how the paper ought to be run. If you know so well somebody will find it out and pay you for your information.

Don't bring in free advertising thinking it is needed to fill up space.

Don't tell a newspaper man what you will stop your subscription if he prints a certain story, unless you really want it printed.

Don't cuss the reporter because your idea of what happened doesn't exactly agree with his report; the chances are that his training has enabled him to grasp the situation better than you. —Des Moines Register

Give Them Banquet.

At the close of the G. A. Post's regular meeting on Friday afternoon, April 12th, the Woman's Relief Corps surprised the "Old Boys" with a sumptuous "pork and beans" banquet served in their usual good style. The lively sociability made their hearty establishment all the more enjoyable. The Post cannot thank the Corps too warmly.

The "Little Red Wagon."

Much ado seems to have been made over an article recently published in the Review about "the little red wagon." This is entirely a personal matter and should not reflect upon the Review or its staff, as it is signed by a citizen in good faith. The article can be seen on the files of the Review signed by me. The car who would insult a lady by an anonymous communication ought to be subjected to a good juicy coat of tar and feathers. Only a fanatic or a cad would be guilty of such an outrage.

Help! Help! Help!

Nothing very serious the matter—don't get excited—but your HELP is needed.

Every man, every woman and every child can HELP. This town needs your HELP.

It is a good town, but every good citizen wants to see it become a better town. But unless the good citizens stand by the town, lend a hand, put a shoulder to the wheel or get in front and pull, without balking, there won't be any noticeable progress.

Towns are not Top-sies. No town "just grows." It's the people in a town and around it who make it grow by feeling it the right sort of diet.

A pig in a poke won't get fat. Nor will a town with its light hidden under a bushel attract attention from outside.

Unless you throw corn into a lean shoat the animal never will become a fat porker. It is just as necessary to feed a town and community with fresh material from the outside world.

It is up to you and each of us to get out and forage for the town. Speak a good word for it. Write a good letter for it. To you the place where you live is the most important place in the world. It is the center of the world. The universe revolves around it.

This being so—and you can't deny it—why not HELP advertise the center of the universe! Why not tell your friends and acquaintances elsewhere that they are missing by living away from the real center!

Talk has built up many a town—every town, in fact. Talk can build up this town. You can't talk too much if you talk right.

P. S.—HELP! HELP! HELP!

A REST ROOM.

A Good Idea for Some Progressive Merchant of this Village.

A progressive man of the village, a comparative newcomer who is observing, says that in his opinion one of the great needs of the town is a "rest" or waiting-room for farmers' wives and children; a place for all who wish to wait down town a time for many different reasons; a place where a few home conveniences might be had free. The man suggests that such a place located in one of the business houses would increase the trade of any merchant accommodating enough to provide such a room. This man says that a farmer said to him "Where do we have to go when obliged to wait in town for our horses to be shod, our grip to be ground, while waiting for trains or while shopping is done? The stores don't want us loitering around in muddy or wet clothing, using their space to meet friends and pass the time. They expect us to buy goods and to pass out to make way for other customers. Where shall we go? Who beside the saloon keepers offers us warmth, space and chairs without asking us to spend our money if we don't care to, who—else gives us a bite to eat without charging? No saloon keeper ever asked for my room if I wasn't spending money."

Mrs. Cannon Entertains Club.

Mrs. Ray Cannon received the Woman's Club yesterday and entertained them with beautiful music sung and played by young ladies whose talents are known beyond a local administration. Miss Selma Torgler and Elvora Arps of Palatine. Mrs. L. H. Bennett read a very good paper on "The Old Masters" which she had written. Twenty members were there and seven guests. Compositions from Bach St. Saens and Moszkowski and Miss Arps sang six selections from Franz Liszt.
The next meeting will be on May 2nd Mrs. L. H. Bennett's work meeting where a prize will be given for the best hand work exhibited.

The School Election.

The school election for district number 4 will be held at the school house in this village Saturday evening April 20th from 6 o'clock to 8:30 for the purpose of electing a president of the board of education, two members for full term and one to fill vacancy for one year. This election is an important one, although often given but little attention. Nearly as much money is expended by the board of education as by the village board and the best men are too good to fill the position.

The terms of President Plagge and Members L. A. Powers and George Stiefenhofer expire this year and they are candidates for re-election. Albert L. Robertson is mentioned to fill vacancy for one year caused by death of Silas Robertson. No one questions the ability of the gentlemen named above to look after the best interests of the district and the voters will make no mistake in electing them to office.

Get out and vote and show that you are interested in the management of one of the best institutions we have in these United States—the public school.

Will-Plat Cemetery.

On Wednesday the members of the Evergreen Cemetery Association went in a body to Elgin and Dundee to inspect cemeteries there in order to gain ideas on the best plans for plating the new portion of our cemetery. It is desired that the work may be given to surveyors soon, so that the association will be in a position to offer lots for sale by midsummer or early fall. The men in charge of this matter are giving time and thought that they may be successful in making a well arranged and convenient cemetery. The present members are L. C. Plagge, Charles Hawley, G. Landwer, F. A. Lageschulte. The annual meeting will be held May 6th at which time a new member will be chosen to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of M. B. McIntosh.

Let us figure on your job printing.

Result of a "Dry" Vote.

The Chicago Chronicle of Thursday says in an editorial—Many Illinois towns and cities went "dry" at the elections of Tuesday, yet there are people who will predict that as much liquor will be sold under the "dry" regime as under the "wet." The difference is that in a prohibition town the whisky is usually very bad, while in an open town it may be fairly good. The one thing certain is that anybody who will make judicious inquiries for liquor in a prohibition town will eventually find all that he needs and usually more than is good for him. The chief effect of local prohibition is to drive the liquor traffic into holes and corners.

To Beautify Village Streets.

To raise money with which to beautify the village streets and for prizes for the best kept yards, flower gardens and the like the Village Improvement association of Tynabrook, Mass., held its annual fair in the town hall recently. This one of the prettiest towns in the state and through the improvement association's efforts keeps alive its traditions as well as its good looks. A feature of the evening's entertainment was the presentation of "Willow Dale," a rural play in three acts, by the best amateur talent in this section. Genuine success marked the efforts of the young people in their theatrical venture, the play making a hit with the townspeople.
