Libertyville is now a closed town. The saloon keepers realize that the mayor means business when he personally visited their places of business and ordered the saloons closed nights on the hot and closed tight on Sun Sundays. Libertyville has heretofore been a wide open town.

The storm of Sunday which was considered severe in this village, but did no damage, was terrific in the Lake County. Three barns were struck and burned, a horse and cow killed, five houses in Waukegan struck, sewers, and streets flooded and 300 telephones put out of service.

Don't think a man strong simply because he has opinions about things. More than likely his opinions are a bundle of prejudices. Prejudice is always ignorance and ignorance is weakness.

Arthur Cooke Camp, No. 17, Sons of Veterans, was mustered in Monday evening, Aug. 12, in the M. W. A. hall and the officers were elected as follows:

- Commander J. W. Cooke
Sec. V. Com. Willard Durrell
Jr. V. Com. Lewis Wheelock
Camp Council C. E. Jenks
Homer Cooke
Gibbert Barnett
Chaplain Geo. Harris
Secretary Dr. C. W. Swallow
Treasurer E. E. Han
Sgt. of the Guard Clyde Harris
Corporal of the Guard John Davis
Color Bearer M. S. Clark
Rifle Guard Will Harris
Outing Committee A. T. Gilbert
Port Commander in Chief G. E. Abbott, of Pontiac, Ill., act as Installing Officer, and was assisted by Assistant Adjt. Gen. Joel F. Longenecker, of Chicago. The local camps C. A. and W. R. C. were guests at the installation, after which the ladies served a luncheon to the veterans and sons. Then the secret work of the order was attended to.

It must be admitted that Arthur Cooke Camp No. 17, is one of the best, praiseworthy organizations we have instituted here. As year after year rolls by the constant thinning of the Grand Army ranks is very noticeable, and unless something is done to replace them with younger men, it is only a question of a comparatively few years when the annual remembrance of our heroes, Memorial Day, will pass into history as a relic of the past.

The local camp was organized with 24 charter members, and there are fully as many more eligibles in this immediate vicinity, who are expected to join the ranks later.

"Regular as the Sun" is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by the Barrington Pharmacy, 25c.

Wet And Dreary. With a telephone in your home you defy "blue" weather and enjoy the peace and pleasure of a contented life. When tired or discouraged you may sit down and talk to a distant friend or relative without effort. Regardless of your finances, we have a rate for your purse, Chicago Telephone Company.

Sharks and the Dead Whale.

The presence of any large quantity of easily absorbable food is always sufficient to secure the undivided attention of the shark tribe. When "cutting in" whales at sea, I have often been amazed at the incredible numbers of these creatures that gather in a short space of time attracted by some mysterious means from heaven only knows what remote distance. It has often occurred to us when waiting in the neighborhood of New Zealand to get a specimen with abundance without a sign of a shark below a bird above. Within an hour from the time of our securing the great mass of flesh to the ships, the water within at least an acre had been alive with a swelling multitude of sharks, while from every quarter came drifting steadily an innumerable host of sea birds, covering the blue surface of the sea into the semblance of a plain of new fallen snow.

The harpooners and officers from their lofty position on the cutting stage saw scores upon scores by simply dropping their keen edged blubber spades upon the soft crowns of the struggling fish, the only place where a shark is vulnerable to instant death. The weapon sinks into the creature's brain, he gives a convulsive writhing, two, releases his hold and slowly sinks, followed in his descent by a host of his immediate neighbors, all anxious to provide their own pound of sealupure within their own yearling maws.—National Review.
