A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quite before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by Barrington Pharmacy, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

An Ancient Flying Ship.

In the Evening Post, a London newspaper published in the reign of Queen Anne and bearing date 20-22 December, 1709, there is a curious description of a flying ship, stated to have been invented by Bartholomew Lorenso, a Brazilian priest. The paper has an engraving of the ship and a long letterpress description. The inventor claimed that he could travel 200 miles in twenty-four hours.

Hepatitis.

"Jacob Smithers, criminal," said the retired lawyer, "sat in his cell making paper boxes when a dear old lady looked through the peephole in the door inquisitively.

"You poor man," said the old lady, "I guess you'll be glad when your time is up, won't you?"

"Was, no'm, not particularly," Jacob Smithers answered. "I'm in for life."—"Cincinnati Enquirer.

"Bikins tells me he is getting awfully tired of living alone."

"I was talking with him about it the other day, and he says he doesn't know whether to get married or buy a phonograph."—"Milwaukee Sentinel.

"What time will you be home to-night, dear?" queried the good wife as her husband was starting downtown.

"Oh, whenever I get ready," he answered crossly.

"Well," rejoined the good wife quietly, "don't come any later than that, please."—"Chicago News.
