If You Know!

If we, by any skill in advertising could make the people of this region actually KNOW the bargains we are offering our store would not hold the customers that would come—a large claim but it is amply justified.

Our trouble isn't to buy the goods, or to sell them, it is simply to get people to read and to believe the facts.

We want you to know the truth about us. Ask any acquaintance who recently has visited our store. Come yourself, "just to look," and if you don't find things exactly as we say, you needn't ever come again.

SCHOOL NOTES.

A singing class is being organized in the high school under the direction of M. W. Mattison.

An examination will be held December 14th in the court-house in Chicago for the benefit of those who may wish to teach in Cook county.

Parents who think they have a grievance should see the teachers. If they could manage to see the teachers before any difficulty arises, it might never arise.

The meeting of the first grade teachers was held in Harvey, Friday, December. The meeting of fourth grade teachers will be held in LaGrange, Friday, December 13th.

Lowell Bennett, Sanford Rieke and Willis Kampert were recently dismissed and the board of education refuse to re-instate them until they agree to attend strictly to their school work.

Little Clarence Lageschulte, who is in the east part of town and who is unable to attend school because of paralysis, is receiving private instruction from Miss Smith, the second grade teacher.

In a recent spelling test in the high school the following pupils spelled the entire list correctly: Lillian Angelsen, Willie Kampert, Lizzie Gilly, Mabel Schaefer, Nellie Kirmse and Nina Kirmse.

Miss Margaret Shipman, teacher in the high school this week, left her position last Friday. She is a good teacher and the board of education would have retained her longer had she desired to stay. Miss Shipman thought well of most of her pupils. She is now substituting in the Wankegan high school.

Miss Gladys Bray, the new teacher, is a young woman of 16½ scholarship and has had three years experience in the high school at Chicago. At LaGrange, Ill. home is in Austin and she was educated in Chicago schools and university.

All teachers are ready and anxious to make the acquaintance of parents. But how is the acquaintance to be built up? Parents are busy with home duties and business, or attending club meetings or social events or perhaps entertaining guests. Teachers are also busy people, especially at hours becoming for calling, save evening, and this is when teachers often find something to do that pertains to their personal work.

Then to some of our teachers spend but four evenings each week in Barrington and should they begin making calls it would take all the time, for if they do not call at all homes represented in the school, which homes should they visit? Which is needed is not that one teacher shall become a favorite in some homes and another teacher the favorite. In other homes, but rather each teacher should have the respect and support of every home. If parents really desire to know the merit of teachers, they must learn it in the schoolroom and not in parlors. Strong teachers rely more upon their work than upon popular friendship. These statements are not to be construed as an argument against teachers visiting the homes, for the more knowledge a teacher has of the environment of the children, the better qualified she is to govern them.

Mrs. Joseph Schulz.

Mrs. Joseph Schulz died at her home in Dundee, last Saturday, November 20th, aged fifty-four years. She was well known in this vicinity, formerly living on the H. J. Lageschulte farm south of town. She leaves a husband and six children. The funeral was held in Dundee, Tuesday, December third.

A Dangerous Deadlock.

That sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at Barrington Pharmacy 35c.

High School Teacher—Sometimes you appear really manly and sometimes you are quite effeminate. How do you account for it? Student—It's hereditary, I suppose. One half of my ancestors were males and the other half females.—School Board Journal.

The Arctic Blueberry.

In August, when blue and salmon berries ripen in the reindeer moor, Eskimos are everywhere with sealskin leather parka, their gay colored parkas, the hood with water-repelling fur border, adding a picturesque color note to the chiaroscuro. The arctic blueberry is delicious, more delicious than its kindred of the States, while the salmon berry is an aesthetic delight as it lifts its royal yellow fruitage from a bed of autumnal luted leaves of waxlike texture. American housewives combine the blue and salmon berry into a delicious preserve. The natives bury them in the ground, marking the place with a cover of willows. There they freeze and are taken out as needed and eaten with seal oil.—Circle.

Spring From the Soil.

The man's shirt front was far from spotless, and his waistcoat and coat were covered with grime and grease, but a large buttonhole bouquet was placed on the lapel of his coat.

Rejected Advice. Blobs—Why don't you consult a doctor about your insomnia? Slobs—What! And run more bills? Why, it's because of what I owe him now that I can't sleep!

Up-To-Date Millinery Store.

Miss Jukes has tried to demonstrate that a first class, up-to-date, milliner pays here in Barrington. She has worked hard to please and the fact that her present quarters are small, shows that strict attention to business, study to please and a good stock of millinery supplies, will pay.

Miss Jukes expects soon to move to the Zimmerman building, north of the Review office, which has been entirely remodeled; she will be better enabled to display her full line of goods, although it is not quite as prominent a location as on Main street. The new store will be open to all points, with larger and more suitable store room. She will be pleased to see all of her old customers and as many new ones as feel inclined to patronize home industries, where fair treatment and polite attention are the motto.

You will find her goods as stylish as many of the city stores show; hand made and up-to-date millinery to be located in the new place by December 10th. Go and examine her stock of latest, up-to-date hats, silks, velvets, plush and felt, feathers, ribbons, veils and ornaments, etc.

"To Stay at Home is Best."

It is easy for a woman wage earner to understand why the average man lives in such horror of the social evening. With the hurly-burly of business, talking with many people, the nervous strain and the noise of traffic, the quiet home looks very pleasant. If the adored one can't be dragged out of the house, why not let him stay in? If you don't want to leave him, you can remain with him. You can get to your tea fights and card parties in the afternoon. After all are they so wonderfully fascinating? A flutter of silent skirts, a nibble of chocolate, an exchange of gossip, a good-do, a good-by, and all is over. No wonder the poor man would rather face death. Record-Herald.

Annual Election.

At the annual election of officers for the Lake County Agricultural association, which was held at Libertyville Wednesday afternoon, the following officers were elected:

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mine, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by Barrington Pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Thanksgiving Party.

The Thanksgiving party of the Thursday club occurred at Mrs. Arthur Weichert's last Friday evening. Three ladies, Mrs. S. Peck, Mrs. J. Collen and Mrs. L. Powers were the committee in charge of all arrangements. They planned a progressive dinner as amusement and Mrs. Charles Hawley selected the first prize, a hand painted plate; for those who did not play cards, a game of dominoes was offered and Mrs. H. K. Brockway won a picture. There were present about thirty-four, including gentlemen guests. A luncheon was served.
