The Friday club met last week at Mrs. Robert Purcell's and will meet this evening for a gentlemen's night at Mrs. Edward Riecke's.

The Review records in the nine issues since January 4th, ten new residents in town. Mostly tourists, two, twenty-one years from now.

Mrs. George Lytle and son Floyd returned from Buffalo where they had been since October. Dr. Lytle expects to reach home in three weeks.

The young ladies chess club met at Miss Maebel Wagner's Tuesday night. Misses Jennie Fletcher, Anna Dix and Miss Wagner won the prizes in order.

J. S. Hoffinger who was with us five years ago as harness maker is now with us again. Any one in need of new work or repairing will do well to call.

Were you up to hear the "experience" told by Y. M. C. A. members? Some of the ladies contributed to the program. Everyone seemed to have a pleasant evening.

The Baptist Young People's Union will hold an experience social March 23th for the benefit of the society. Save all your odd jobs and send word to the girls looking for work.

Miss Josephine Moore of South Cook street left Tuesday evening with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Siegler, for Holton, Michigan, where she intends to remain until next fall.

A chapter of the Eastern Star lodge is to be established in Palestine this evening. Mrs. G. W. Spunner, the Woolly Matron of our local chapter, with the other sixteen officers will go to Palestine to assist in the work, number of members.

Arnet Lines made a business trip to Dixon Monday.

Rev. C. J. Frey of Chicago visited relatives here last week.

Rev. A. Haeffel will preach a 26th anniversary sermon at Stockton, Ill., Sunday where he was minister at the time the church was built. Rev. Bouse of Chicago will preach in the Salem church Sunday.

The special meetings held in the Baptist church and Y. M. C. A. rooms Saturday and Sunday by George Swan and the Rev. Bruce L. Jackson of the Chicago University were fairly well attended.

The regular monthly business meeting of the B. Y. P. U. which occurs on the second Wednesday in the month has been postponed from March 12th to March 20th on account of the social to be given at the Baptist church on this evening.

Here is a suggestion for some organization looking for an "idea." A young man sixteen years old said lately "Why, don't some one have an ice cream social down here? Everybody would go. I'm dying for some ice cream and you can't buy any in town just now."

Frank Gleason has been much handicapped lately in his laundry work on account of illness among his employees. Heald's Hardware, engineer, Miss Laura Honnith, surter and clerks, and Miss Anna Bessie, laundress are all unable to leave home. Mrs. Gleason is in charge of the other work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Radewicz of Ilwaco Park were in Barrington and vicinity Tuesday looking at small lots with a view to buying one for a permanent home. Mr. Radewicz was formerly editor of a Waukegan paper and later associated with Chicago dailies. He is now in a hardware manufacturing business.

Friday evening was rather windy and disagreeable but the weather did not prevent the O.M.F.W. sister supper in their hall being patronized. The Rebecca Lodge assisted in the preparations and served the supper which included many appetizing dishes besides a good hot water stew of which fifty people partook.

Mrs. Madam Bennett, Hannah Brown, Cora and Mrs. Clara Arps, of Palatine, members of the Woman's club here, were guests of the Woodstock Woman's club Tuesday at their first annual Good Day. Mrs. George Watkins, president of the W. B. P. U. of the Women's Club was present to address the ladies.

Frank H. Hays is township president, and each school should be represented by a large delegation.

W. P. Shales, tinsmith, formerly in the employ of L. F. Schroeder here and well known about town, was recently severely burned about the face by accident. The accident occurred in an Elgin barber shop when the barber by mistake set a carbide acid bottle instead of one of witch-hazel and spilled a handful over Mr. Shales' face. Although he recovered from the effects quickly his face is somewhat marred.

Frank Alverson left late Saturday afternoon to reach Albany, Wisconsin in time to attend that evening a shower given in honor of Miss Agnes Walters, a sister of Mrs. Frank Alverson, but delayed by train until he arrived too late. However, on Sunday evening he and Mrs. Alverson, who went from here two weeks ago, were best man and matron of honor at the marriage of Miss Walters to Frank Pingree of Albany. Little Glen Alverson was one of the flower girls.

Miss Walters, the bride of the above wedding notice, is known by the young people of Barrington as she has visited her sister, Mrs. Walters, here. She is a popular young lady in her home town and her marriage was celebrated with the most exciting charivari for Sunday night ever known in Albany. Later when the wedding party attended a church where the bride sang in the choir, the audience was convulsed with amusement when the embarrassed girl was obliged to sing with the choir "He Promised to be True to Me."

Mr. and Mrs. P. Jacobson, Miss Anna Wrayton and Lottie Dixon of Waukegan were Chicago visitors Monday.

THE HOLSMAN Automobile

PERFECT IN CONSTRUCTION, CHEAP IN PRICE AND COST OF OPERATING

When you see the HOLSMAN machine it will make you its friend for these reasons:

1. Solid tires, admitting of no punctures.
2. Air cooled. No water to contend with, or broken jackets which occur in frosty weather.
3. No live axles.
4. No transmission gears.
5. No drive shafts.
6. No speed gears, in fact, not any gears to contend with. No clutches. The machine rides as easy as the best made carriage and is controlled by two simple hand levers. It is started, guided, stopped, speeded, reversed and fully controlled by these two simple levers.

Should you have a breakdown, repairs are quickly secured. However, the chances of a breakdown are slim in a Holman.

Write me for catalog and descriptive matter.

J. W. Burkitt, Arlington Heights, Ill.

N. B. I'll be pleased to give you a spin in my car and show you the advantages of a Holman. It won't cost you anything. I also have the agency for the Rotary Shuttle Standard Sewing Machine, the best thing in this line on the market. Let the ladies come in my place and let me show them.
