There have been no other petitions of nomination filed with Town Clerk Plagge, so the election will undoubtedly be a very quiet one.

Fifty land owners have made a request to the town clerk that there be printed upon the ballot for nomination to the voters the proposition of laying a special grade of tax of sixty cents on each one hundred dollars on all assessable property of the township for a period of five years for the purpose of graveling two of the principal roads of the township described as follows: commencing at the north corporation line at Mrs. H. Kampert's; thence north to Hollister's corner; thence west to the White school house; thence northerly to Peterson's corner; also from the White school, thence westerly to Cuba milk station, thence northerly to the Waconda road. A similar gravel tax has been in force the past five years, which has given the highway commissioners an opportunity to make Cuba one of the leading townships of the county for gravelled roads.

Sweet Sixteen.

Monday, March 23rd, there was given a surprise party in honor of Miss Beatrice Bennett's sixteenth birthday. A jolly crowd assembled at the home of M. E. B. Bennett. Games were indulged in, prizes being taken by Mabel Peck and Earl Powers; consolation prizes to Hazel Dean and Fred Grimm. At 11:30 a sumptuous luncheon was served.

Union Temperance Meeting.

There was a largely attended Union meeting in the interest of temperance on Sunday last at the Salem church. It was held under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and Mrs. Emily Hill of Chicago, the superintendent of the Cook county organization was the speaker.

Mrs. Frank Gieske, president, and Rev. O. P. Mattison opened the meeting with scripture reading and prayer.

Mrs. Hill's address was given. In its first part, to impressing upon hearers, the very great importance of scientific temperance instruction in the public schools, saying this was where the work ought to begin. In the first grades, so as to reach all pupils before they left the school. In this respect the W. C. T. U. had made its influence felt, throughout the whole land, and great good was being done. Attention was then called to the progress the prohibition movement is making. Beginning with the state of Maine, the different states were named where the sale of liquor was prohibited by law, including Oklahoma which had put into her state constitution a provision against the licensing of the saloon or the sale of intoxicants in any form. Seven states, it was said, now have prohibition, including Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

Interesting incidents and facts to show the growth of the temperance sentiment were mentioned.

At the close of the address, the speaker led in the singing of a piece which had for a refrain, "Illinois is going dry" then "Chicago is going dry" and finally "Barrington is going dry." The fact that "Barrington is going dry" seemed to awaken considerable enthusiasm.

A collection was taken for the work which Rev. W. Widner dismissed the meeting with prayer.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

Herman Rieke Passed Away

Saturday Afternoon. Cause

Was Apoplexy.

Herman Rieke, aged eighty years, who has lived in and near Barrington for fifty-two years, died suddenly Saturday afternoon, March 21st. He was down-town in the afternoon and was seen by friends who observed him to be as well as usual, and after calling for his mail returned to his home one mile north of town, at the residence of Mrs. Louise Schaefer, his sister-in-law, where he has been living for the past six years. He was accustomed to walk to the business district every day, and even though advanced in years, and on this day entered the house apparently strong.

Passing in his room he sat down to read a religious paper he had just received and when called for supper, about an hour later, failed to respond; his room was entered and he was found dead in an arm chair, wearing his spectacles and the paper still in his hands. The inquest was held Sunday afternoon and Dr. Taylor of Libertyville, Lake county corner, pronounced the cause apoplexy.

Mr. Rieke was born in Sonneborn, Lippe Detmold, Germany, October 16, 1827. As a lad of seven he left the old homeland, lived two years in London, England, and in 1845 went from there to the gold mines of Australia. He spent a number of years in that country and then returned to Germany. In 1853 he emigrated to this country and settled among old countrymen near Barrington. He was married to Miss Christine Homuth in 1867 and nine children were born of whom two sons and a daughter died. Mrs. Rieke died twenty-two years ago. Until six years ago the family resided on their farm, just north of town, when Mr. Rieke gave up farming.

He was a quiet, peace-loving Christian, respected by all and a man who had joined the church at Deer Grove when a young man, later becoming a member of the United Evangelical church here.

The children surviving are Mrs. Elsie and Groff, Miss Anna, Edward and William Rieke of this place, John of Chicago and Otto of Harvard, there are also seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Minnie Hobeln who lives with the Wiseman family on South Hawley street and Mrs. B. H. Landwehr of Elmhurst are sisters, Ernest Rieke of Chester, Nebraska, and Chris Rieke of Blainville, Iowa, who was recently here, are brothers.

The funeral services were held in the Salem church Wednesday at half past one, being largely attended. Rev. Haeleke, for four years, Mr. Rieke's pastor, preached the funeral service and the choir sang in both English and German. The remains were laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery.

"Therefore be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, your Lord cometh."

Hard Times Party.

Mrs. William Hager entertained the ladies of St. Ann's Sewing Circle last evening at her Main street home with a "Hard Times" party. Some of the ladies appeared in costumes, ragged and old, and as any old clothes were permitted, "any old manners" were allowed to correspond, making the evening a round of "high jinks" and laughter, with music and supper.

A farewell party was given for Miss Olive Haeleke Wednesday evening by Mrs. William Solt and Miss Alma Stiefenhofer at the latter's home where seventy people passed the evening with various amusements and words of farewell to Miss Haeleke who will soon live in Joliet.

New Salem Church Pastor.

Rev. A. Haeleke has been appointed to take charge of a mission church of the United Evangelical denomination at Joliet, Ill., and the family are expected to remove from this village next Wednesday, followed by sincere regrets at their departure. Sunday, March 29th, will be the pastor's farewell Sunday here. His active abilities to arouse interest in religion have been recognized and he is considered one who will build up the mission into a large parish.

Rev. Eugene Fusile of Highland Park will fill the new pastor. He is a man under middle age with a family which will arrive next week.

Will Receive Applications.

Applications for the office of village marshal also for the office of night watchman will be received by the president and board of trustees of the village of Barrington at its next regular meeting, Monday evening, April 6th, when appointments will be made for the balance of the current year.

MARSHAL REMOVED

Village Board Met in Special

Session, Friday-

Evening.

A special meeting of the village board was called last Friday evening by President Spunner for the purpose of removing Marshal Donahoe and hearing a report upon the alleged violation of ordinances in the conducting of billiard and pool rooms.

President Spunner advised that Marshal Donahoe be removed from office for neglect of duty. His recommendation was sustained by a vote of five to one, on motion made by Trustee Peters. Peters was appointed as marshal to serve until the next meeting of the board.

Village Attorney Castle reported that he had called upon the alleged violator of the ordinance regulating pool rooms and was informed that the ordinance was being violated inasmuch as the village was not enforcing the ordinance by collecting licenses from all who were running pool tables.

Mr. Castle said it would be only fair that all should be required to pay or none, as long as the ordinance so provided. The clerk was instructed to notify all who had not paid to do so at once.

The Forbes estate case was again heard from Mr. Peters, who wanted to know what was going to be done about the collecting of the fine assessed. He was of the opinion that the village should not go to any further expense in this matter and said he believed it would be better to remit the fine if Mr. Forbes would pay the costs, which he understood Forbes was willing to do. Attorney Castle volunteered his professional services in the collecting of the penalty without further charge.

The legalists thought it could and should be collected and President Spunner recommended that proceedings be begun to collect. No record was made of the discussion and the board adjourned without further action.

CENSURES BARRINGTON BOYS

"An Observer" Tells How Youngsters From Here Mis-behaved

at Social.

The basket social and entertainment given at the Deer Grove school last Friday evening turned out to be a financial success and the school house was taxed to its full capacity by those attending. There were many pretty baskets for which the school wishes to thank the ladies who prepared them; the total amount raised was $41, a record breaker sum for the school. The program consisted of grammatical selections, solos, songs, dialogues and recitations, well delivered and showed that the children had been well trained in an excellent manner by the teacher, Miss Gainer.

But a part of the program had to be given up on account of the ungentlemanly conduct of young men from Barrington. Last week there appeared an article in the Barrington Review about a complaint being made that things were not printed "yellow" enough. It would be a good thing if some of the prominent families of Barrington could have been at this entertainment and have seen how their dear, smart little "Bubblies" appear in public. The writer of this is a strong believer in "home-training." Teach the children manners at home, while
