Martyre to Science.

At Lisbon, during the plague, Dr.
Camara Pestana was intected while searching for plague in a person supposed to have died of pneumonia. It was plague; and the intreple searcher died also. He wrote down his horrible symptoms to the very end, for the benefit of medical selects.

Envy.

There is not a passion so strongly rooted in the human heart as envy.—

Pity the Boor Horse Fly.
Every purchaser of a motor car dis-courage the life of the Acres fly.
Some acrt of a bug or fly will have to the restrict of the control of the control of the total control of the control of the control of the kick up. We don't know what ef-lect a chadre beetle would have on autos. The question is referred to Judge Adan P. Gristischoo for an expert ophion—Genevatomie (Kan.) Globe.

Insisted on Wedding Veil.
This from Servia: "The partitle priest of Nish retused to perform the priest of Nish retused to perform the victo and Mars Heisar in Belginde catherial because the bride wore all the shops being closed, it was impossible to procure a veil and a substitution was finally improvised from a lace curfuln."

Loss Without Consolation.
The consolation in losing a vermi-form appendix is that a man can go through life, after the operation, and no one can tell by his appearance that he is something short. But when it tomes to losing hair, it is different.

One of the things that has made the Poincer Life Insurance Co. grow so rapidly has been the promptness with which it pays its death claims. The business policy of the company is to make a careful medical examination, thus securing preferred risks, and then to stand by our hazards accepted. No quibbling, no delay; but always prompt and courteous with CASH IN FULL the day proofs of death
