Stop Women And Consider

This Fact — that in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are conding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years. The present Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lyvia R. Pinkham, was for years under her direction, and has ever since her decease continued to advise women. Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty causes them to shrink from coposing homeselves to the questions and probable from cropaing homeselves to the questions and probable from cropaing and examination is unnecessary. Without cost you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great. MRS. PINKHAM'S STANDING INVITATION:

MRS. PINKHAM'S STANDING INVITATION:
Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mss. All letters are received, opened, real and answerd by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence to a woman; thus has been established this confidence has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest. The confidence of the second of the seco
