BARRINGTON REVIEW

Vol. 40, 403 BARRINGTON, ILL.

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1914

Flag day was widely by the government... the flag, June 14, occurred this week... was observed here in the resident districts, but not actuated in the business district, where the display would have seemed the proper thing to show our supposed patriotism to strangers and visitors.

Curse of the Irish Summer

George Fletcher is the son of a farmer in the summer of the epidemic of typhoid fever which has been rampant in the north and west. He says: "Typhoid cases are more numerous than the public imagine."

There is no doubt that the epidemic of typhoid fever which has been rampant in the north and west... is due to the fact that the water supply is contaminated by the sewage of the city.

Return Dates for Hay-Fever Exiles

By ERNET L. SMITH, M.D. Having hay fever complicated with asthma must be even more careful. The date as to when they may safely return therefore depends upon the date of the first hotting period.

Many Cases of Tobacco Heart

By DR. JAMES BULLY, Consultant of St. Paul, Baltimore, Md. Tobacco heart is not given as the cause of death in any case, nor are physicians required to report the disease to the health department.

"Don't's" for Those Who Are Climbing

By JOHN TRAINER. Don't say you can't until you have tried. You can even have more ability than you imagine. Don't forget that genius does not come to men, but men of genius do.

Lover's Trials

By HELEN OLDFIELD. WELL-KNOWN journalist, whose pungent witticisms and clever practical jokes still are remembered by those who have known him and still, and who never loses an opportunity to do his best for the benefit of his fellow men.

Greatest Is Ordinal of Asking Father

By HELEN OLDFIELD. It is much upon this principle that the world manifests its providential law, and is being laughed at, and there is nothing which is more a subject for just than the ordinal of "asking papa."
