Last year it was decided that a tag day should be held for the three charitable institutions of Lake county, namely, the McAllister hospital, the Lake

As large a crowd as could comfortably fill Scott's hall was present. Young people were to see the plays given by the "Young People's union," assisted by a few friends. As for the plays, they were all well received and when the friends and parents of the young people should be told that the money from their school they were at the production. The plays met with equal favor here that they are contemplating presentation them at Woodstock at some date in the near future and if they decide to do so, we feel sure that Woodstock residents will be equally pleased.

The annual observance of Memorial Day in Barrington on Monday was of unusual nature. Members of the Grand Army of the Republic, Indian of the Woman's Relief Corps, the Barrington north end, the public school teachers and children assembled in the morning at half past ten and marched to Evergreen cemetery for the burial of unknown soldiers. The program consisted of decorating the graves of those who were killed in action, recited and some read the soldiers' monuments. Her Lockhart was the speaker and he says that to the spirit of his subject.

Lake Friday afternoon the grammar and high school classes of Harrison will be addressed by H. H. Hubbard and W. A. Legachewski at exercises in the school building at 10 o'clock on Memorial Day.

The Y. M. C. A. has ball team broke over the past week, winning four games and losing one. During they played the Parkville boys, beating them by a score of nine to three, losing Irving League to four games and six to one, losing to Chicago four games and losing to Parkville one game. The team is organized for the week. The Y. M. C. A. will go to Parkville to play that team a return game.

County Tuberculosis Institute and Lake Bluff orphanage. It was in the nature of an experiment, the success of which was to be demonstrated, and although the first of May which had been chosen as tag day, was a stormy cold and disagreeable day, the proceeds from this plan were so large as to warrant an adherence to it, consequently with tag day coming on June 1, this year, it is hoped that the proceeds from this plan will be a more certain return of last year will be exceeded by a large amount.

WALCOUNA.

Many more tourists have come this year this season than ever before and they think they were hardly best sufficient for all our visitors.

The dance at Lakeside Pavilion Saturday night was most successful. Mrs. Clarence and daughter David and Miss Blanche Houghton, Mrs. Helen Brough, and many other friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Koerber were Chicago visitors Sunday.

Measles, Lou and Gertrude of Chicago were at Memorial Day visitors here.

The high school team played and defeated Arlington Heights on the Y. M. C. A. ground last Friday and M. C. A. now in undisputed possession of second place. The score was 19 to 1. The standing of the teams in the Pentagonal league is as follows:
