AT THE CHICAGO THEATRES

MUSIC.
One of the most important bookings ever made at the Majestic theatre, Chicago, where nearly all the great stars have played, is that of Adeline Genee, greatest of all dancers, who will fill the star during the week of February 27. It is the first time she has appeared in Chicago at popular shows on a bill which includes a great number of skilled entertainers. She will be assisted by a company of ten beautiful dancers and will present three of her most exquisite specialties—"Homes and Disturbances," with music by Gus O'Dell and Mouskewitz; "Dance De Chase," a beautiful and poetical composition; and third, that great old song which this fairy-like daughter of Terpsichore has made her own.

Three years ago Mlle Genee came to America under the management of Etan & Bringer, appearing for a season at the New York theatre in the memorable musical production, "The Soul King." This made the name of Genee as loved and famous in America as it had been in England.

Since then Genee has appeared in "The Silver Star" and "The Bluebell Girl," and is now appearing for a brief season in a variety which she desires she like immensely.

POWERS.
At Duquesne theatre, Charles Frobenius presented his play "The Bluebell Girl," in which Mr. Bellows has been the star for a long time, and popular success has been his. The play, which has been since appeared. The production of "The Bluebell Girl" was made by Mr. Frobenius only after repeated requests from theatregoers all over the country. The strongest point that can be given of the extraordinary vitality and held upon playgoers' affections of Charles Bellows' impersonation of this famous character, lies in the fact that already Mr. Bellows has played the role over 2,000 times, and his part has been one of his freshest and most popular.

"Haffes," despite the fact that he is a foreigner, is so successful and successful a man that he has often been called the best specimen of what a perfectly rounded stage hero should be. And Mr. Bellows is a man who loves to act "Haffes" every minute he is on the stage, thereby for the joy of every audience appears to have in it. Mr. Frobenius has surrounded Mr. Bellows with a splendid company of leading players, including Gladys Hanning, Elliott Page, Jane May, Kate Hanning, Frank Connor, Frank McCormack, Frank Westerman, Ernest Stalling and Bernard Fairfax.

VICINITY NEWS NOTES

Mapplings in the Surrounding Country Which Will Be of Interest to Our Many Readers.

A target tournament will be given by the Chicago Telephone company in the field for communicating in the city of Woodstock last week.

Attorney J. K. Davis of Washington, who is promoting the new Washington, Rockford & Elgin electric road, has been increased at the Washington city council and announced that the traction company will cut that city out of their plans entirely. It is now rumored that they will try to get franchise rights in Keosauqua.

Personalities in "Prig's Progress."
The "Prig's Progress" is a gallery of portraits, admirably described, and so capturing in their self-revelation as those of Whitman. His personages live for us as few figures could the drama of Shakespeare live. They are not like the characters of Ben Jonson's plays, constructed by hanging a load of observations on a series of ethical abstractions; they are of a human scale and human flesh, exhibiting Edward Twopenny, "Pierrot and Angeline."
