ANNUAL CELEBRATION

Semi-Centennial Commemoration of Memorial Day Will be Observed by Local People and Organizations.

Next Saturday, May 26, is Memorial Day and the local G. A. R. post and Women's Relief corps have made plans to observe the day. The schools and the churches and lodges will also hold special services in commemoration of the event next Saturday.

Memorial Day will be particularly impressive and significant because this is the semi-centennial of the observance of Memorial Day. Next Saturday before since there has been such a war, with such results, in the history of the human race, it will be observed on May 24, that Fort Sumter was fired upon and the war actually begun.

In addition to the plans of the G. A. R. the procession will form on the public square at 10 o'clock in the morning and march to Evergreen Cemetery. The procession of floats will take place and the last resting place of departed heroes and their descendants will be visited.

The march will return to town about noon. Old soldiers, their wives and comrades will be served with dinner at the Hotel Barrington.

At 1:30 the G. A. R. and W. H. C. will march in a body to the Salem church, where a special service will be held. The W. H. C. will be addressed by the Rev. Herman H. Thomas, A. M. Ph. D., the pastor, that evening.

Next Sunday, May 26, the G. A. R. and W. H. C. will attend memorial services in the morning at 10:30 at the Methodist Episcopal church, and in the afternoon at 2:30 at the Barrington Center church, leaving Barrington at 1:30. The W. H. C. will be there to will repair to Evergreen Cemetery to decorate graves of old soldiers and comrades.

The members of the local camp of Modern Woodmen of America have selected Sunday, June 3, to observe as their annual day, and will be serving the public in the church in the morning at ten o'clock, marching to Evergreen cemetery at 1:30 in the afternoon to decorate graves of deceased members.

English League Meeting.

The May meeting of the English League of the Methodist church was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Freda Freeman on Lakewood. There were about 150 people in attendance (between thirty and forty) and a very pleasant two hours of social intercourse followed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barrington, the newly elected president, seemed quite at home as a presiding officer, and the business was disposed of in a prompt and efficient manner.

A come together time was had by all, having in view a better understanding at the devotional meetings of the league, which was planned. The Rev. O. F. Matteson was invited to arrange this conference. This will last until early in August, after the Dev. Pictures came meeting. At the end of the summer the English league institute in Eustace July 10 to 16. One or more delegates will probably be appointed to represent the English League at the institute.

A call came from Howard Harrelson, the chairman of the committee to gather papers to be on hand at two o'clock on Sunday next, and the folding out bulletin of the papers on hand.

After the business was ingeniously arranged diversions, including entertainment and refreshments were in order.

Ice cream and cake were served.

It was decided that they were under obligation to the hostess for a most enjoyable time.

DUNDEE.

Mr. W. W. H. Heath and daughter, Mayne, are spending several days at Dundee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walker are home from a two week's visit with the Walter Walker family at Racine.

Mrs. Kelley and daughter of Monroe, Wisconsin, are guests at T. M. A. C. V. Dillingham is spending a few days at Dundee.

U. S. Bright is serving on the jury at Geneva this week.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Grasman is sick with the measles.

About fifty friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harsen have gathered at the home of the couple the occasion being the tenth anniversary of their wedding.

The Baptist Young People's social committee has arranged a barbecue ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Helm and daughters three miles east of town.

NOTES OF THE DIAMOND.

News for Bassball Fans, of Local Games and Players—Past and Future Contests.

The V. M. C. A. team was prevented from playing last week by the rain. Next Saturday the boys will play the local baseball team at the Athletic field.

The team has again raised its percentage in the pentagonal league last Friday by overwhelming Palatine 12 to 2. The Palatine players brought a crew of rosters with them, expecting to put it all over Barrington, but after the eighth inning, the local team ran away with a total of 12 scores the Palatine followers all deserted, leaving the team to fate.

May is a great month for baseball.

Friday afternoon at 2:30 the high school baseball team will play the Maywood high school team. Last year the two teams beaten by H. H. Barrington, the only team to beat them was the Maywood, and this year they have them to a eight and nine score in 11 innings on Maywood's grounds.

The team has been doing well and an admission fee of 15 cents will be charged.

The last week has been quite a success in the percentages of the teams of the pentagonal league. The standing is as follows:

Won Lost Pct.

BARRINGTON 3 2 .600

Maine 3 3 .500

Arlington Heights 3 4 .400

Palatine 1 4 .200

WON, LOSE, PCT.

THE SEMI-CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY.

THE AMERICAN people honor today those who fought and those who fell in what is known as the semi-centennial of the Great War.

The older generation grow old while the younger endure. Since the last war was fought, the sons and daughters of another are rising. Yet the sons and daughters of that war are here to stay.

It was different from other wars. It was not fought for land or room or for the right to rule. It was fought for principles so firmly held that both sides were ready to die for them.

The American Civil War presents the unique example of a conflict arising from the same principles of freedom for all men. For principles so firmly held that both sides were ready to die for them.

It was fought with the righteous on the right and the wrong on the left.

It was fought with the righteous on the right and the wrong on the left.

The character of the conflict whose glory and whose sorrow it is, is what makes our country a day a year to remember.

It is to the other side of the world that we look for the cause of the war of the south after nearly half a century of war.

It is to the far East for the cause of the other people. They may disagree, and differ, and be at variance with us. But never again can they be as divided as they were then. In a furnace of war they have been melted down.

Unit of endurance has been welded into one.

The WREATH by the RIVER

A STORY FOR MEMORIAL DAY

BY T. C. HARBAUGH

THE great war had been over for nearly a year. The first gloaming of May the faint wreaths that the soldiers had laid upon the graves of their comrades were still upon the graves. In the valley of Virginia the wreaths had been left, remained, for the years of peace, and the wreaths of the graves of the dead were still upon the graves. Peace, though they grew thin, still clung to the wreaths, and the blossoms added, showing the work of the crimson demons.

On the banks of the Potowmack was one of simplicity, though set among the blossoms of the green grass, and the near the river sang the song of peace as it had done for the years of the war.

A very good natured brother, who is very much interested in the war against tuberculosis, and who likes his little joke at someone's else's expense, was sitting in the store of a hardware dealer, when the latter who was leaning forward and whispering to his wife, asked you to remove her hat.

Whereupon the man became angry, arose, protested and left the
