

CROWDS AT MEETINGS

Evangelical Campmeeting Has Most Successful Opening in Its History—Twenty-five Ministers Present.

Weather and beauty of grounds brought many people to the Harrington campmeeting this year, and the hotels and dormitories have been filled from the place into halls and additional cottages...

Warm words of praise are heard on every side for the beauty of the grounds. The management secured Mr. Boyd...

Dr. C. A. Meek of Ames College, LaFare, Iowa, gave several lectures on the subject of the Christian life...

E. S. Wyding of Allentown, Pennsylvania, preached two well received sermons on Wednesday and Thursday...

The children's meetings are in charge of Mrs. Frank Glucke and the evangelists...

The program for the remaining days of the campmeeting will be as follows: Monday morning at 10 o'clock Rev. F. Buse of Chicago will speak...

On Sunday the morning worship will be at 10 o'clock in the main hall and the afternoon service begins at eight o'clock.

GROW ALFALFA HIS PLEA

Practical Farmer Tells How It Grows—Urges Farmers to Take Up Crop Without Delay.

The value of alfalfa on the average farms of Illinois is a subject of the alfalfa and its feeding value is questioned...

Enough, however, is known of the alfalfa that this wonderful plant to safely predict that it means much to the farmers of the future...

There are the average farmer will change his farm methods there are two questions which must be answered in the affirmative...

The limited space allotted will not permit of a full description of the alfalfa which the well known methods should be prepared and that it should be remembered that failure to introduce alfalfa...

The second question—as to the value of alfalfa—is an interesting one, and one which is of great importance to the farmer...

ARE LAYING RAILS

The Washington, Rockford & Elgin Traction company's road between Palatine and Woodstock will be completed in two months...

This ceremony took place at Palatine and was presided by a local priest from Rockford and Woodstock...

Sunday schools will be started in Indian and respond in reports. Already twenty-five schools have been assigned to the various sections...

AGED RESIDENT DEAD

Mrs. Julia Dodge Settled at Home Here Last Saturday Evening—Over Half a Century.

Mrs. Julia A. Dodge, a pioneer resident of the vicinity, died last Saturday morning, August 19, at her home...

Mrs. Dodge had been a resident of the vicinity over half a century and was probably as well known as any woman in this community...

She was the oldest daughter of John and Polly Hendrickson and was born January 17, 1824, in the town of New York...

She was the mother of eight children, two of whom died in infancy. Her surviving children are: Mrs. Margaret M. Moore, Mrs. Alice A. Egerton...

The funeral was held at the Baptist church here on Saturday afternoon, August 20, at 2 o'clock...

HORSESHOERS MEET

Master Horseshoers' Protective Association Held Monthly Meeting Here Last Night.

The members of the Master Horseshoers' Protective association of Barrington and the surrounding towns met last Saturday evening in a hall at Chicago...

The members of the Master Horseshoers' Protective association of Barrington and the surrounding towns met last Saturday evening in a hall at Chicago...

T. KEENAN DEAD

Former Resident of This Village Died at Chicago Home Here Last Saturday Evening.

Thomas Keenan died yesterday morning at his home in Chicago, Ill. He was 72 years of age and had resided in this village for three years...

RACES AT ELGIN

Stock Coach Race Speed Commence Tomorrow at Elgin.

Delightous and exhilarating time, thirty-five speed and motor pilots are expected to start the Elgin stock coach race tomorrow...

When the victor crosses the tape in the Elgin trophy race on Saturday the James Vanderbilt classic will have been forced into third place among the world's great automobile races...

CHURCH NOTES

St. John's R. C. Church, Sunday school, will be held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 27, at the church...

St. John's R. C. Church, Sunday school, will be held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 27, at the church...

St. John's R. C. Church, Sunday school, will be held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 27, at the church...

St. John's R. C. Church, Sunday school, will be held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 27, at the church...

St. John's R. C. Church, Sunday school, will be held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 27, at the church...

St. John's R. C. Church, Sunday school, will be held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 27, at the church...

St. John's R. C. Church, Sunday school, will be held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 27, at the church...

St. John's R. C. Church, Sunday school, will be held at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, August 27, at the church...

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

Short Local and Personal Items—Brief Paragraphs About the Town.

Mrs. Paul Miller of Arlington Heights was a Barrington resident yesterday.

Mrs. Lena Nix of Oakton is visiting her in-law, Mrs. Charles Peterson of Springfield.

Mrs. M. E. Fletcher visited with friends in Harvard and Lake Geneva last week.

Mrs. J. H. Clark returned to her home in Chicago after a week's visit in St. Paul.

Mrs. Albert Schulz and daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth's mother, Mrs. Fred Wagnon, Gus Nix and son Earl of Wood River, Nebraska, are visiting his home...

Miss Marie and Olga Nix of Elgin, Ill., are visiting here from Oakton, Wisconsin, where they have just returned.

William Shearer of Clarence, Iowa, is here on a visit to his relatives. Several days visit with his son, Dr. W. Shearer.

William Wagoner, who has been in the hospital in Elgin for treatment, returned home last week and is much improved.

Miss Jennie Fletcher and sister, Mrs. W. W. Terrell of Milwaukee, returned Tuesday after a trip to St. Paul, Minn., where they were on a visit to their relatives.

Local Royal Neighbors to the number of 20 visited with Crystal Lake and the members of the club enjoyed the social entertainment and dinner and planned the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors on August 27th...

LAKE ZURICH.

News of the week's sailing boats will be found in this column.

Get your school books and school supplies early. The school term will begin on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stoy of Philadelphia visited here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Turner drove to Palatine Tuesday to visit their dental work done.

The Lake Zurich Athletic club has held their first game at the Libertyville fair.

Henry Hillman received a shipment of five million new wax. He is offering them at price sale.

The farmers in this community are about done threshing and according to reports the grain is well threshed.

Charles W. Andrews bought another automobile in Chicago last week. He now owns two machines in his possession.

Mayor and Frank P. Claiborne gave for a tea, day visit to Mr. Clark's home in Oakton, Iowa, Nebraska, are visiting his home...

Miss Gertrude Wisniewski of LaSalle, North Dakota, is visiting here with her mother, Mrs. W. W. Wisniewski. She is expected to remain about two weeks.

Mauns are now at work putting in a new concrete sidewalk on the highway to the Hoop property along the lake. This will be a great improvement.

The baseball game here Sunday between the Lake Zurich club and the Chicago club was a close one. The result in a two team 11 to 6 in favor of the latter. The victory will be a great help to the team.

The women's Ladies Aid club is still busy getting subscriptions for a new water to use on the lake. With their usual liberality they have been greatly improved and it is about ready for the coming season.

Quite a number from here went to Palatine last Friday when the first rail for the new electric line was laid. There is no doubt in the minds of local people but that the road will be running so far as this village by fall.

Albert Hoff has purchased a lot of John Johnson for $900 and intends building a residence on it this fall. In the spring he will leave the farm to Mrs. John Johnson and move here where he will live in a large new apartment house.

At the annual session of officers of the Elgin Athletic club held last Wednesday the following were elected: Walter Fredin, president; Otto W. Wagoner, secretary; Charles W. Wagoner, treasurer; Chicago Athletic club, 1911-1912.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Frank Wood, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brink and daughter, Miss Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Hill and daughter, are on a camping-out number eight on the east side of the lake expect to return here in the fall. Mr. Wagoner is a representative of the Elgin district for the week ending August 20th.

Many Hicky Nuts. It is expected that there will be a heavy crop of hicky nuts this year. The nuts will be in the market in the fall. The nuts will be in the market in the fall. The nuts will be in the market in the fall.

Butter Price Unchanged. The price of butter remained the same last week. The price of butter remained the same last week. The price of butter remained the same last week.

The gratulation committee reported the result of the Chicago race. The result of the Chicago race was a close one. The result of the Chicago race was a close one.

Don't overlook our "Business notice" department in the paper.