

Local Men of Wealth Offer Barrington Furnished Building for Young Men's Christian Association.

This town now has an opportunity to procure a modern building to house a young men's christian association, the only one of this kind that we possess...

It is estimated that about 200 men each paying one dollar a month will be required to support properly an up-to-date facility of this kind...

At present we have no places of assembly for young men...

At present we have no places of assembly for young men...

TERMINAL STATUTES

Bell Telephone Users May Send Telegrams at Any Hour by New Arrangement.

Only telephone companies through out the United States are not recognizing that after February 1 every Bell telephone will be a terminal...

ATTEND BAPTIST

The Young People of the Baptist Church Will Make Money for New Window.

A most excellent program will be conducted by the members of the Baptist Church...

MORE WINTER CROWDING

Forecaster G. Hog Seen Shading and Returns to Dan for Six Weeks More.

If the old proverb is to believed we will have a winter that will be a winter for the Professor Moore of the national kingdom...

ENDEAVOR NAMES DEPUTY.

J. B. Morse, a Young Libertyville Business Man, Receives the Appointment.

Jay B. Morse, the most popular young business man in Libertyville, makes his home in Libertyville...

R. N. A. MASQUE BALL.

Local League Has Planned Annual Dance for Middle of February.

The local Royal Neighbors lodge has announced that the date of their annual masquerade ball will be Friday evening, February 15...

EXAMINE TESTED COWS

Supervisors Committee Has Secured Twenty and will Give Public Demonstration Tomorrow.

The supervisors committee of milk and cream has secured twenty cows to be examined tomorrow...

GUTTER PRICE REMAINS FIRM

Elgin Board of Trade Quotes Commodity at 25 Cents Per Pound Output 829,300 Bushels.

Price of butter was declared firm at the Elgin market on Monday afternoon, the same as last week...

DIES AT AGE OF SEVENTYEIGHT

Mrs. Margaretha Robert died Sunday morning at eleven o'clock...

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS

Happenings of a Week Told in Brief Paragraphs—About the Town and Vicinity.

Frank Glavin visited his wife and friends here this week.

Miss Lulu N. Cule (sowably sister of the Westfall home, near Chicago) is in Chicago for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Woodcock were Harrington called Sunday.

Miss J. B. 'Annie' and D. D. [unclear] were Harrington in Cary Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey of Chicago [unclear] with relatives in this village.

George Froelich, junior, who is studying at Wharton, visited at his home here Sunday evening.

Mr. Foster Weigel, who was ill for some time, was taken to a [unclear] hospital in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Huston left for Orlando, Florida, where they will remain until March 1.

A surprise party was given Monday night on Earl Zimmerman's honor of his seventeenth birthday.

The village trustees will meet in their regular session on Monday evening.

Miss Hannah Androm of the [unclear] is visiting with Mrs. [unclear] at her home in Chicago.

Miss Martha Noyes of Park Ridge is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. [unclear] of Chicago.

Food C. Care visited Harrington Sunday evening. He is representative of the Woodcock. He represents the [unclear].

Miss Alice Plumb and John Bulliver visited at the [unclear] home here last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith of this town are happy over the arrival of a baby girl at their home last Friday morning.

E. F. Wood is making his final packing up the rooms above H. H. Banks & Company's new department store.

George Yverson, son of Henry Yverson of this town, returned from the war and will remain at home for some time.

Parade were reviewed last week by Harrington friends, from Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kinsbury, who are visiting here at the [unclear].

The action case of the household goods belonging in Miss Nettie Linn's home will be attended and decided by the court.

Miss F. P. Hansmann and daughter returned to their home in Cary Monday afternoon.

Mr. E. F. Williams of South Hawley street entertained the girls of the [unclear] at their [unclear] party last Saturday evening.

Miss Jeanie McElroy who was called to the [unclear] residence of this village for so long, is at last being home again.

Mr. Mary E. Pease and daughter and Frank Ballinger of Elgin are passing the winter here.

The Portia club met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. [unclear].

There are no other intimate relatives.

JUDICIAL ELECTION APRIL 4.

Charles Whitney Has Endorsement of Lata and Methodist Counties—Primary February 25.

From present indications it looks as if Attorney Charles C. Whitney of LaSalle village has a fair chance to land the judges seat on the circuit court bench...

NEW EIGHT BELT LINE MAY CONNECT WITH E. & C. RAILROAD.

Proponents of the belt line railroad, which is being built...

OWL CLUB BALL A SUCCESS.

Had Large Crowd and Cleared a New Record for the Club.

Perhaps one of the largest crowds that have ever attended a dance in this town...

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith of this town are happy over the arrival of a baby girl at their home last Friday morning.

E. F. Wood is making his final packing up the rooms above H. H. Banks & Company's new department store.

George Yverson, son of Henry Yverson of this town, returned from the war and will remain at home for some time.

Parade were reviewed last week by Harrington friends, from Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kinsbury, who are visiting here at the [unclear].

The action case of the household goods belonging in Miss Nettie Linn's home will be attended and decided by the court.

Miss F. P. Hansmann and daughter returned to their home in Cary Monday afternoon.

Mr. E. F. Williams of South Hawley street entertained the girls of the [unclear] at their [unclear] party last Saturday evening.

Miss Jeanie McElroy who was called to the [unclear] residence of this village for so long, is at last being home again.

Mr. Mary E. Pease and daughter and Frank Ballinger of Elgin are passing the winter here.

The Portia club met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. [unclear].

There are no other intimate relatives.

RELIEF

Revival Continues to Grow in Interest

The union revival under the leadership of Evangelist Dow continues to grow in interest...

Services will be held tonight and tomorrow night at 7:30. Friday night will be school night and the people of the public schools will be the guests of honor.

Monday morning Mr. Dow will preach at the Salem church, in the afternoon at three o'clock...

There will be no service Saturday night, but regular services will be held at all other churches.

Members of the belt line railroad, which is being built...

Proponents of the belt line railroad, which is being built...

Perhaps one of the largest crowds that have ever attended a dance in this town...

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith of this town are happy over the arrival of a baby girl at their home last Friday morning.

E. F. Wood is making his final packing up the rooms above H. H. Banks & Company's new department store.

George Yverson, son of Henry Yverson of this town, returned from the war and will remain at home for some time.

Parade were reviewed last week by Harrington friends, from Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kinsbury, who are visiting here at the [unclear].

The action case of the household goods belonging in Miss Nettie Linn's home will be attended and decided by the court.

Miss F. P. Hansmann and daughter returned to their home in Cary Monday afternoon.

Mr. E. F. Williams of South Hawley street entertained the girls of the [unclear] at their [unclear] party last Saturday evening.

Miss Jeanie McElroy who was called to the [unclear] residence of this village for so long, is at last being home again.

Mr. Mary E. Pease and daughter and Frank Ballinger of Elgin are passing the winter here.

The Portia club met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. [unclear].

There are no other intimate relatives.

The Young People of the Baptist Church Will Make Money for New Window.

A most excellent program will be conducted by the members of the Baptist Church...

CHURCH NOTES.

Public worship and preaching as usual at 10:30 a. m. Sunday by the pastor, Rev. O. F. Mattison...

The bulletins board is attracting considerable attention. It will keep you posted as to the progress of the meeting.

Which one of Mr. Tuttle's songs do you like the best? He has been recording to record "The Holy City," "The Golden Rule" and "The Way of God's Creation."

There will be no service Saturday night, but regular services will be held at all other churches.

Members of the belt line railroad, which is being built...

Proponents of the belt line railroad, which is being built...

Perhaps one of the largest crowds that have ever attended a dance in this town...

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith of this town are happy over the arrival of a baby girl at their home last Friday morning.

E. F. Wood is making his final packing up the rooms above H. H. Banks & Company's new department store.

George Yverson, son of Henry Yverson of this town, returned from the war and will remain at home for some time.

Parade were reviewed last week by Harrington friends, from Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kinsbury, who are visiting here at the [unclear].

The action case of the household goods belonging in Miss Nettie Linn's home will be attended and decided by the court.

Miss F. P. Hansmann and daughter returned to their home in Cary Monday afternoon.

Mr. E. F. Williams of South Hawley street entertained the girls of the [unclear] at their [unclear] party last Saturday evening.

Miss Jeanie McElroy who was called to the [unclear] residence of this village for so long, is at last being home again.

Mr. Mary E. Pease and daughter and Frank Ballinger of Elgin are passing the winter here.

The Portia club met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. [unclear].

There are no other intimate relatives.

The Young People of the Baptist Church Will Make Money for New Window.

A most excellent program will be conducted by the members of the Baptist Church...

CHURCH NOTES.

Public worship and preaching as usual at 10:30 a. m. Sunday by the pastor, Rev. O. F. Mattison...