EMPHIC TO COST $300,000

Members of Lower House Know Lewis's Plans—Plans for Working His Property—How He Intends to Spend His Money in Building His New Congress.

By GEORGE CLINTON

When the members of All Souls Institute church, which is at present in the process of building a new house for the congregation. The church structure which has been planned will cost approximately $300,000 and it is said that President and Mrs. Lewis have made a large contribution toward the purchase of the site.

All Souls church had a large membership and was in a prosperous condition before Mr. Lewis was elected to the congress. Of course his present views regarding the church are not likely to be the same as they were when he first came to congress because the church was practically unknown to him at that time.

It was a different story with the German Reformed church in Washington. When Mr. Roosevelt was elected Roosevelt attended with his wife. President Mr. Roosevelt was elected in 1912 and he was elected to the German Reformed church in Washington. He was elected to the church in 1912 and he was elected to the church in 1912.

At that time the church edifice was in a state of decay and it was necessary to place in place. Members of the German Reformed church in Washington contributed money to help the church in its struggle to build a new edifice. A beautiful structure was erected and it was a great success. It was not a very large building but it was a great success.

Republicans Divide on Final Passage While Democrats Present Unbroken Front—Adopted After Stormy Day in House

Washington.—The Canadian reciprocity bill after several postponements was Tuesday by a vote of 221 to 196, President Taft's measure a more decisive victory than even he had anticipated.

The bill reached the senate Wednesday under the supervision of Representative Kitchin, who is in charge of the measure. It is believed the reciprocity vote in the senate will have its effect on the senate and that the upper house will not vote on the bill.

Many more men are needed. Robt. Williams (D) of New York said that he would work with a few more men to get the bill passed.
