VICINITY NEWS NOTES

Happening in the Surrounding Country Which Will be of Interest to Our Tasty Readers.

Dunder baking plans for paying the principal of the town.

Posters are out announcing a big celebration to be given July fourth at Algonquin. Again is another town that will celebrate.

The Elgin Early Settlers' association will hold its annual picnic at Lark's park, July 24. Bicket dinner at 12 o'clock noon and a program at 1:30.

The annual picnic of the employees of the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern railway and their families and friends was held at historic York, Washington, Sunday, July 14.

The picnic given at Plum Grove Sunday by the Palatine band, at which W. N. Sears of this village is leader, was the usual success of affairs given by that excellent organization.

J. B. Hangerford has sold the Waukegan Depot and Viewly Grantee to F. B. and L. F. Sawrei of Pennsylvania. L. F. Sawrei is the editor and manager and took charge last week.

Among new Illinois corporations is the following at Peoria: Pure Air Amalgam company, $2,500, manufacturing and selling pure air and odorizing appliances; J. H. Carlow, William A. Metzger, William F. Schilling, M. D.

Installation of a new system of electric lighting in the new section at Harvard is now practically assured. The system will include the placing of 120 iron poles with three cluster lights, and the removal of the unsightly wooden poles and the overhead wires.

Fred E. Ames, the defaulting Lake county treasurer, has communicated with State's Attorney John H. Boudness through a Waukegan lawyer and wishes to return and square up as much as he can. His return is blocked by the refusal of Dady to allow him to come in on immunity under any consideration.

Lark Zurich is the training station of the Hecht-Sturton Lyman bureau set out on the entertainments in Melfroy last fall and winter. Arthur P. Fair of Waukegan has just accepted the position of second tenor and accompanied with the "Music Makers," a male quartet which made such a hit with the Melfroy theatre goes last winter. The "Music Makers" will take in all the larger church taverns in the east and middle west during the summer months, while the rest of the year they will tour the Atlantic coast, south and Pacific coast.

Wine Fight for Life.
It was a long and bloody battle for the life of James H. Johnson of Newark, N. J., of which he died July 11. He had long been suffering from lung hemorrhages, and was very weak. For eight months he was unable to work. Death seemed close when he took a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and in a few weeks ago, to use Dr. King's New Discovery, he was able to get up. It is doing all that you claim." For more particulars, send for our free catalog, containing our list of all our various cures, barometers, tin grinders, and other household goods. Write to the Herington Pharmacy, 306 and 311 North La Salle Street, Chicago.

The July Woman's Home Companion.
The July Woman's Home Companion contains the first of a series of articles describing intimately the girlhood of some of our most famous women singers. The first article is on Lillian Nordica. Other artists who are to be included in the series are Mary Garden, Jessie Abbott, Emmy Destinn and Schumann-Heink.

The July Companion contains a number of articles which convey information of value to housekeepers in the summer season. These articles, in addition to numerous contributions to the fashion, household, home decoration and handicraft departments, make a great collection of useful and interesting reading.

There are ten stories in the number which are varied and entertaining.

Proposals Wanted.
Sealed proposals will be for the sealing and sinking of a drift well in the Village of Lark Zurich, Lake county, Illinois, in accordance with ordinance passed by the Board of Supervisors of the board of the Village of Lark Zurich.
