$1,000 Cash.
The era of the $1,000 cash has arrived, in the opinion of President S. C. Davis of Newbury, who opened the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at Hartford, Connecticut, last week.
Mr. Davis, chief of Amherst, Massachusetts, said that a few years ago he talked of the $100 cash, but now the talk is of the $1,000 cash, and he added, "as he will be worth it."

Shocking Sounds.
The noise of the modern world has become a terrible earthquake, that warns of a coming day of wrath. The things are terrible. That dull pain or ache which we pay money to have taken away, may be a warning of a more serious ailment if you would cease to ignore it. It may be a warning of a more serious ailment if you would cease to ignore it. It may be a warning of a more serious ailment if you would cease to ignore it.
