BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1912

$1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

SIX ARE TO GRADUATE

Commencement Exercises To Be Held Next Thursday Evening, June 20, at Salem Church.

A small class of six graduates of the Barrington high school have reached the period in their lives where they must turn from their school books and studies to face the stern and more intricate problems of life. They are Ruth M. Carlow, Mabel P. Kamper, Alla K. Smith, Josephine A. Carlow, Leah M. Meyer and Homer H. Plagge, president of the class.

Their class motto is "No wind serves him who has no destined port." The class colors are purple and white and the class flower is the white rose.

The commencement exercises will take place at the Salem church next Thursday evening, June 20, 1912. The most important number on the program will be the address by Hon. Francis G. Blair, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who will speak on the timely subject of "The High School Graduate." The invocation will be pronounced by the Rev. E. H. Thoren of the Salem church and Rev. O. F. Mattison of the Methodist church will deliver the benediction. The balance of the program will be musical selections by home talent and outside agencies, these are three numbers to be given by the Barrington Concert company. The Misses Almada Plagge and Violet Ulficht will each give a piano solo and W. J. Cameron will sing.

The festivities of commencement week will begin Saturday with the Faculty reception. On Sunday the baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. J. Buente, pastor of the Zion church, at the Salem church. Tuesday, June 18, the class day exercises will be held at eight o'clock at the B. E. S. Assembly hall where a fine program will be rendered. The junior reception for seniors will be held as above stated. Saturday, June 22, is the date of the alumni banquet. The class picnic on Monday, June 24, ends the exercises and the class will then bid goodbye to their high school days and be ready to pass out into the world to face the battles of life and to make a name for themselves and their school.

SCHOOL NOTES

(Written by B. H. S. students.)

The seventh and eighth grades will have their class picnic next Thursday.

The eighth grade have had their spelling examination and half of the class were excused because they had an average above ninety.

This week closes the regular school work for this year. The final examinations will begin on Monday.

The sewing class are completing their sewing for this year and have good reason to be pleased with the results. They are planning an exhibit of their work.

The final meeting of B. H. S. club was a banquet given by Isaacus to H. M. M.'s at which all present became optimists and partook of a sumptuous repast. The table was placed in the long, upper hall and was decorated with beautiful bouquets and strewn with ferns and flowers, giving a very pretty effect. Each one found their plate by a hand painted placard in the high school colors, a remembrance of the club, and a menu card.

The menu consisted of five courses as follows: tomato bulletin, meat loaf, potato salad, pickles, olives, sandwiches, fruit salad, wafer, ice cream, cake, mince, lemonade. The classes were seated together. Miss Leah Meyer, being seasick, the banquet opened by remarks from her in regard to the past year's work in the club. The leader of Invictus, Howard Harnden, welcomed the H. M. M. Frances Plagge, leader of H. M. M. responded.

WRITTEN BY PUPILS OF ROOM THREE.

Walter Witte has been stork for the past three weeks with appendicitis.

The following have been neither absent nor tardy for the past school year: Edith Thoren, Julia Robertson, Dorothy Leachman, Vernon Schroeder and Danice Butler.

POPULAR YOUNG LADY WEDDED.

Miss Elizabeth Brandt Married Yesterday Afternoon to Albert L. Weidenbeck of Cottage Grove, Wisconsin.

Yesterday afternoon at one o'clock at the Baptist church in this village occurred the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Brandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brandt, of Williams street, to Albert L. Weidenbeck, of Cottage Grove, Wisconsin. Rev. G. E. Lockhart performing the ceremony which was witnessed only by immediate friends and relatives.

Immediately after the ceremony they returned to the bride's home where they received the congratulations of friends. At two o'clock they departed for the groom's home at Cottage Grove, Wisconsin, where they will reside.

Miss Brandt has been a resident of Barrington for the past eighteen years and is well known and liked by everyone. For the past two years she has been employed as waitress at Miss Jake's store. She has been prominent in church and social affairs in this village and has a host of friends who wish her all the success and happiness possible in her new home. She is a member of the Royal Neighbors lodge of this village.

Mr. Weidenbeck, while not as well known here as the bride, is a young man with exemplary habits and a pleasing personality. He is a graduate of the Wisconsin state university at Madison and for the past two years has been engaged in the lumber business at Cottage Grove.

The friends extend congratulations to the happy couple.

BASE BALL NOTES.

News About the Games Played by Barrington's Two Teams at Home and on Other Ground.

The game last Saturday between the Lexingtons of Chicago and the Omnes team was won by the latter by the score of 11 to 7. Pomeroy and Shearer formed the local battery. Next Saturday the Hamilton Athletic club team of Chicago will play here. The O. V. team has now won seven out of eight games.

Last Sunday Lester Brown, who has been pitching for the locals, pitched for the Lyons' Colts in Chicago against the Lyons' Colts, a semi-pro team and won his game 8 to 6. He struck out 15 men and shut them out for seven innings.

The game to have been played between the Barrington and the Arlington Heights high school teams last Friday was forfeited to the Barrington team because of the latter's failure to appear.

Tomorrow the high school team will play the Maine township high school team here.

VICINITY NEWS NOTES.

A petition is being circulated in and around Woodstock to have the office of county physician abolished and to give to the McAllister hospital the $2,000 that is paid him.

Over one hundred men were laid off at the Oliver typewriter factory at Woodstock during the past two or three weeks.

Lake Bluff, a village of two or three stores and a blacksmith shop, as a special election held recently, voted to have an elevated tank for water pressure constructed for the village water supply. This further demonstrates the thrift and enterprise of Lake county people.

Elmer Phillips, one of the oldest residents of Waukegan, died Tuesday morning at Jane McAllister hospital in that city. Mr. Phillips was one of the best known residents of Waukegan and Lake county having lived there for fifty years.

The Sears & Roebuck company have made a report for the first five months of the year which shows a business of $34,322,700 which is a gain of $6,664,187 over the corresponding five months of last year.

Four young men of Harvard were drowned in Delava lake, Wisconsin, Monday, when the boat they were in capsized. None of the four were able to swim.

Shew Was Good.

"The Girl and the Stamped" company which played here three nights last week was not very well attended. The show and the concert that they gave were all good and a great deal better than the usual run of tent shows that have showed here. The company moved Sunday to Algonquin.

Don't overlook our "Business Notes" column. It is one of the most interesting departments in the paper.

MRS. BARBARA FRICK

Mother of Robert, Herman and Emil Frick Died at Former's Home on Last Thursday—Other Deaths.

MRS. BARBARA FRICK, Died, at her home on North Hawley street on Thursday, June 6, 1912. Mrs. Barbara Magdalena Frick aged 74 years, nine months and 25 days. Asthma and old age were the causes of death.

Mrs. Frick, nee Aegretas, was born in Kanton, Zurich, Switzerland on September 1st, 1837. In 1868 she was married to John Ulrich Frick and in 1870 they came to America. To this union five children were born, three sons and two daughters. The two daughters preceded their parents to the great beyond. Mr. Frick died in 1895. Since that time Mrs. Frick had made her home with her son Robert. She was a member of the Queen's church of the St. Paul's church and had never missed a meeting until sickness compelled her to be absent from the last one.

She was a kind and loving mother and was well liked by everybody and will be greatly missed by the sorrowing children, Robert, Herman, Emil and Emil, all of Barrington, one son who lives in Wisconsin, and three grandchildren.

The funeral was held from St. Paul's church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock and was attended by a large number. Rev. Wilking had charge of the services. Burial was made beside her husband in St. Paul's cemetery.

MRS. WILLIAM L. HICKS.

Mrs. William L. Hicks of Palatine, sister of John Robertson of this village, died at the University hospital, Chicago, where she had gone for an operation, Sunday morning, June 9.

Lydia R. Robertson was born in the town of Elm, January 29, 1844, and married William L. Hicks, October 3, 1866. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks have made their home on a farm one mile north of Palatine for a number of years past. Besides her husband she leaves three daughters, Mrs. Perla Young and Miss Mildred Hicks of Palatine and Mrs. Walter Evanson of Chicago; one sister, Mrs. E. R. Clark of Colorado Springs, Colorado; two brothers, John Robertson of this village, and Elmer Robertson of Arkansas.

The funeral was held from her late residence at two o'clock yesterday afternoon.

JOHN EVANSON.

John Evanston, 59 years old, died suddenly at his home in Leroy Tuesday morning. He was preparing to go to Palatine to attend the funeral of his daughter-in-law's mother, Mrs. William L. Hicks, when he was taken suddenly ill and died within a few minutes.

GARY.

Mrs. Pearl Morris was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Ben Raus at Crystal Lake.

Misses Mildred Barr and Marlon Shepland left Saturday morning for their homes after teaching in the public school for several years. Miss Shepland will return to resume her duties in September.

Mrs. Andrew Stein transacted business in Chicago Saturday.

Sails Today For Stockholm.

Jay Graham, amateur champion shot of the United States, left Round Lake Tuesday evening for Stockholm, Sweden, where he will take part in the Olympic games. He will take part in the Olympic games.

In this event championship calibre is maintained and, barring accidents, Mr. Graham should pile up the winning points.

Mr. Graham called this morning at the home of the steamship Finland at St. Charles.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend to our many friends our heartfelt gratitude for the many kind expressions of sympathy, the kindness and aid of our mother.

HOMER, HERMAN AND EMIL FRICK.

CRYSTAL LAKE EDITOR DEAD.

J. V. Beattie, Prominent Editor of McHenry County Died Tuesday Morning After Long Illness.

J. V. Beattie, editor and publisher of the Crystal Lake Herald for the last fifteen years, died at his home in North Crystal lake at 4:45 o'clock Tuesday morning following a long illness.

He was taken ill about nine weeks ago and had been confined to his home most of the time.

Mr. Beattie was born in Abington, Illinois, November 11, 1865. There he obtained his early education later graduating from the Abington college. Shortly after finishing his school work he was employed in the newspaper office of his uncle, H. L. Porter at Geneseo, Illinois. There he got his first start in the newspaper game, the occupation he has followed ever since. Fifteen years ago he moved to North Crystal Lake where he purchased the Crystal Lake Herald, running it successfully for the ensuing years.

Besides his wife he is survived by one adopted son.

Mr. Beattie was a member of Cary lodge L. O. O. F., Young Men of America and the Royal Neighbors. He was also a member of the Illinois Press association.

The funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 at the family home. Burial was at Crystal Lake.
