The Kitchen Cabinet

SOME people are always grumbling because there are things to be thankful that there are.

We need never hear more than one kind of complaint in a time because people have these things, and all they expect to have more, and all they expect to have more.

THE OYSTER SEASON.

Spiced Oysters.—Drain a quart of oysters from their liquor and handle each one to be sure there are no bits of shell to cause discomfort, then dry between the folds of a towel. Cut pieces of bacon half the size of the oysters and arrange the oysters and bacon in alternate layers on wooden skewers, being careful to pierce the hard muscle of the oyster. Place in a hot pan and bake until the bacon is done. Serve a skewer on a slice of toast to each person. The oyster liquor may be heated and poured over the toast just before serving.

Supreme Oysters.—Melt two tablespoons of butter and fry until a yellow color, two tablespoons of minced onion, add four tablespoons of flour and when well blended add half cup each of cream, chicken stock and oyster liquor. Season with salt, egg yolk and nutmeg. Cook five minutes, then add half a cup of finely cut chicken, the yolks of three eggs well beaten, when thick, cool. Parboil a pint of oysters dry and cover each with the chicken mixture, dip in egg and crumbs and fry in hot fat. Serve on a hot dish, garnish with lemon and parsley.

Oyster Soup Amsterdam Style.—Clean, pick over and chop one quart of oysters, parboil, drain and add to the liquor enough water to make a quart. Brown three tablespoons of butter and add three and a half tablespoons of flour. Pour on gradually, stirring constantly the oyster liquor. Let simmer a half hour. Season with salt, paprika, celery salt, and just before serving add a cup of cream.

Oysters are valuable in the diet, as they add to the flavors and variety and are easily digested. As to nutrition, there is not much in a pint of oysters.

PIES GALORE.

The time draws near when the mince meat for the time-honored day. In each family the cherished recipe is carefully read and meticulously gathered, and, strange to say, there is no mince meat which tastes quite like that "that mother used to make." Here are a few which are handed down, and these who have no cherished one, may perhaps find one which sounds good.

Mince Pie Meringue.—Cook together four pounds of lean beef and two pounds of suet cooked; chop and take twice the amount of chopped baldwin apples. Add three chopped quinces, three pounds of brown sugar, two cups of molasses, two quarts of currants, four pounds of raisins, three pounds of currants, half a pound of citron finely cut, a quart of stock in which the meat was cooked, a tablespoonful each of cinnamon, mace and cloves, two grated nutmegs and salt to taste. Cook all together two hours, except the currants, which is added at the last.

Mince Pie.—Take a half-cup of sugar, a cup of molasses, a third of a cup of lemon juice, one cup of raisins, half a cup of butter, two well-beaten eggs, salt to taste. Bake with two crusts. This makes two pies.

WHY ROOSEVELT IS LOSING GROUND

Lifelong and loyal Republicans will not follow him out of the Republican party. The American people will not gratify the disappointed ambition of a man who in a spirit of revenge, would wreck the Republican party because it refused him a presidential nomination. The country does not want for president a man who eagerly grasps at every wild and radical idea merely to gain votes. Honest men will not support a candidate who has incurred dishonest contests to help his nomination and who accuses men of his campaign from the Harvester and Steel trust of swindlers. Thousands of Republicans do not believe that men of unblemished character who disavow that Roosevelt are thieves and flars. Right-thinking people cannot trust a candidate who violates his solemn pledges. Republicans are beginning to realize that the only possible effect of his candidacy may be the election of Wilson, and they are not letration merely to gratify one man's hatred or ambition. The people will not tolerate the United States by electing to the presidency a man who declares that he sees no objection to harboring the enemy provided there is a recall. This is if again made Roosevelt's policy. What Washington would not take until the people drove him out. What Washington would not take until the people drove him out. Roosevelt shall not have.

CANVASS OF INDIANA

It Shows That the Roosevelt Movement is Now on the Decline.

Indianapolis, Ind. Sept. 30.—A careful canvass has been made of the Roosevelt sentiment in every county in this state. The inquiry was started by a prominent business man of this city, who was anxious to learn of himself the true condition of affairs. He sent out a large number of letters to more in each of the counties who were not politicians and who would have no incentive to falsify the situation. The replies showed that in every county in the state, with one exception, there had been a marked decrease in the Roosevelt sentiment. The opinion was universally expressed that the Third Term candidate had lost the support of the Indiana than at any time since the campaign opened and this number was steadily decreasing. A few of these reports summarized are as follows:

White county.—One of the agricultural communities and the farmers all seem satisfied with conditions and are not calling for change. I see no evidence of Bull Mooseism here, but in the contrary, it is weaker than at first.

Steeben county.—The Third Term party is as strong as a month later as they are now.

Lake county.—Settlement for the Progressives is weakened, especially among the farmers. Sentiment is now more and more favorable to the administration.

Montgomery county.—The Bull Moose sentiment here is waning. The Third Term party is losing as the campaign progresses.

Do Kalb county.—There will not be many Bull Moose voters here. Taft quite a number.

Miami county.—The changes are very considerable. There are no more Roosevelt men in the Republican ranks.

Thompson county.—The Bull Moose sentiment is subsiding. Reports from Allen and La Grange counties are to the same effect.

SLIDING BACK IN NEVADA

Roosevelt Has Reached His Limit and is Rapidly Receding.

Revo, Nev., Sept. 25.—The decline of the Roosevelt movement, noticeable throughout the country, is very apparent in Nevada.

"The interest in the Bull Moose movement has crystallized in Roosevelt," says the Evening Gazette, "and that interest is waning." The Gazette further states that Roosevelt's disappointing speech in this state, the fact that he is regarded as a failure from the point of view of the people, and that he is being supported only by cast-off politicians, are important factors in his defeat. The Gazette sums up the situation in Nevada as follows:

"Roosevelt has reached the limit of his power and is sinking rapidly."
