Saved By His Wife.
She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Brainreer, Va., is of that kind. She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F., "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for cough and cold is the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—croup, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50c and $1.00 Guaranteed by Barrington Pharmacy.

High School Team Defeated.
Last Friday the Maine township high school basketball team came here and defeated the players of the local high school by a score of seven to two. "The local boys played a good game, the score being two to nothing in their favor up to the fourth inning," says their press agent. He continues: "The main feature of the game was the fast playing of our little 'shin' basketballer, the speedy and heroic work of the center and the magnificent twisting of the local pitcher, Paul Thoenes." The Waukegan team may be here to play the local team tomorrow.

A Natural Death.
John—You say the man died a natural death?—Witness—Yes, your honor, but I thought he was dead, but he was practicing his profession at the time—You know

A number from here attended the funeral of Charles Fredericks Tuesday at Fremont cemetery. He was accidentally shot and instantly killed by a young man in his employ, who supposed the gun which he was cleaning was not loaded. The deceased was about 25 years of age and was a son-in-law of Peter Meyer of Fremont. He leaves a wife and three small children.

A Lox on the Track.
Of the fast express men's serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite, it means lack of vitality, loss of strength, loss of nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quick—the stomachic cause by toning up the system. Michael Hosselmer of Lincoln, Nebraska, has been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure relief, strong relief, good digestion. Only 50 cents at Barrington Pharmacy.

Rally Day.
Sunday, September 29, was rally day at the Methodist church for church and Sunday school. The increased interest in the Sunday school was especially noticeable. There were 114 present. The singing was led by an orchestra of six pieces, and every body seemed to be in a happy frame of mind. One thing that contributed to the pleasure of the occasion was the presence in the school of Dr. George Lytle, a former resident and popular Sunday school superintendent. The doctor made an address to the school which was much appreciated.

Saves Leg of Boy.
"It seemed to me," 10-year-old boy was having to lose his leg, on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad burn, writes Dr. E. H. Howard, Agonize, N. C. No Small to It.
Doctor's Wife (as patient departs)—Mercy! What a monstrous man. Wants treatment for obesity. I suppose Doctor—No, he complains of pains in the wall of his back.

IN THE CLUTCHES OF GOLF FRENZY

"There is nothing else so sad," declared the woman who had the golf fever. He becomes as a small boy who runs home joyously to relate how he played 'keepe' and won all the marbles from the other small boys, or else wants comfort because they won his marbles.

"After a successful afternoon at his club Edward returns to his family so excited that he doesn't know whether the dth before him is picked dromatis or portochous steak. He begins talking at once, while I wait for a break in his talk, so that I can rise for more butter or ask for water, and while the children hold on to their chairs by main force, starving to death because he has forgotten to serve them, and they know he is talking not be interrupted when

"Yes, Edward says, 'I licked 'em today! Never saw such a score.' (Business of fishing score card from pocket.) Why the third and sixth and seventh I made in two less than bogey—think of it, two less! And the first and fourth and the next three over the twelfth I did in bogey and the others in just one over—no, by Jove, I did the nineteenth in less than bogey, too!"

"Why I murmur. That was a score, certainly. Will you pass—'Hopkins plays a close game,' Edward chirps cheerily. 'I had to look sharp to win over him. I thought I was lost when he did that 229-yard drive at the third hole, and if I do say it I'm strong on driving!'"

"Yes, you are, dear," I agree, brightly. "Will you please give Eddie some of these—"

"The committee ought to have the long grass on the tenth mowed," Edward breaks in fiercely. "It's a disgrace to the club." The caddies deliberately lose the balls in that grass. I nearly reported my caddy today at paid no attention to the game at all. I made a fine drive and he was looking the other way. I—"

"'Boo-hoo-oo!' some one of the children wails when hunger grows unendurable. Then Edward peers about him wistfully and says he did not know what on earth his Eddie or Jane suggest that if they get a share of the dinner they may feel better.

"Sometimes I go out to the club to join Edward for dinner. If you are on the terrace when the golfers come in, hot and grimy and dehydrated after their round, you get it full force. You see two on the green and abouting like a political convention and getting purple in the face and acting as though they were just waiting to be dived to jump at each other and claw and screech. But all in the world that is happening is that one of them is explaining why he lost a stroke at seventh hole and the other is insisting that he should by good rights have lost two if he had scored correctly. Or, maybe one of them is saying the green at the eleventh hole slopes up and the other is declaring that it slopes down.

"I admit the reserve force in a golfer. He will tramp five miles under a sun that would fry eggs, using up good muscle swatting a ball around, and arrive at the club looking as though he was going to die of apoplexy. If not just plain exhaustion. As you wildly start to bring him first aid to the injured another golfer in fine condition makes some remark to which he objects and then they're off at a mile a minute, arms whirling like windmills, cursing over the hole by way to get a ball out of the gully lolling the twelfth green.

"The winners are the worst. They take a shower and put on their night clothes and prance up and down the street evening, explaining just how bad the other fellows were. 'Golf is the only game in which it is sportsmanlike to run down your opponent. It is really expected of you and if you don't do it you are instantly suspected of being no gentleman.

"Still, I approve of golf clubs—except're such nice places to go for a dinner on a hot night when your cook has left!"—Chicago Daily News.

Formation of Diamonds.
Vol Bolton thinks that diamonds were formed in nature by the action of metal vapors, such as iron or magnesium, on carbon dioxide. He has succeeded in making microscopic diamonds by the action of mercury vapor on carbon.

Finger Prints in Banks.
German banks, according to news paper dispatches, have begun to introduce the finger print as a mark of identification on checks. The method is already in use in the United States.

The Author Who Bores.
The author who speaks about his own books is almost as bad as a mother who talks about her own children.—Benjamin Disraeli.

Their Reward.
"I wonder what the twinkling stars really are," said little Eva. "Oh, I guess they are good little night lamps that have died and gone to heaven," little Olga replied.

Always Some Remedy.
Dr. Woods Hutchinson says that poverty is a disease. Well, there is the good cure.—Judge.

Fortunes in Faces.
There's often much truth in the saying 'never said where pinches, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes figure it. I suppose blood is back of them all, and about the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25 cents at Barrington Pharmacy.

Wild Red Rice.
In general red rice grows wild. The fields in which it grows are inundated regularly by the Senegal or by its affluents, and in measure as the tide rises the rice plant rises above the flood. The grain is very red and very hard and it swells in the water and as it swells loses some of its rich color. It is very nourishing and requires no cultivation.—Harper's Weekly.

The House Party.
Post—"Why did you demiss your glorious cook?" Parker—"It was the only way to get our guests to go home."—Lippincott's.
