VILLAGE AFFAIRS "LOOKING UP"

Cuba township primary, March 15.
Village primary, March 23.
Township elections, April 1.
School election, April 15.
Village election, April 19.

But little interest is being manifested in the Barrington township primary election which takes place tomorrow, there being no contest for any of the offices. The following are the offices to be filled and the respective candidates: supervisor, C. P. Hawley; highway commissioner, George W. Humphrey; justices of the peace, L. H. Fry and F. H. Fry; constables, George M. Wagner and P. H. Miller; school trustees, H. J. Lageschulte (full term), George M. Meier (to fill vacancy), P. H. Miller is a candidate for constable to succeed August Rohmeyer and Mr. Meier is a candidate for school trustee to fill the vacancy created by the removal of J. W. Waterman from the district. The balance are all officeholders at present and are candidates for re-election. The primary will be held at the village hall, the polls opening at 2:30 and closing at 5:00 p. m.

In the Cuba township primary, which will be held the following day, there is opposition for two offices and it is felt that a goodly vote will be polled. William Gieske heads the ticket to succeed himself as highway commissioner for the southern district. J. E. Catow and John Janke are also candidates for this office. Mr. Gieske has served several terms in that capacity and acquitted himself quite creditably. Mr. Janke gave satisfaction as a commissioner some years ago and is considered his strongest opponent. For thistle commissioner F. A. Cady and Henry Gieske are candidates. Mr. Cady is the present thistle commissioner. For justice of the peace, L. H. Linn and E. P. Harnden are candidates for re-election and for constables John Welch and John Donlea are candidates for re-election. The primary will take place Saturday afternoon at the office of Town Clerk Schaefer from 2:30 to 7:00 o'clock.

In village affairs there have been several new announcements for trustees. The candidates for that office to date are: George F. Atkins, H. J. Lageschulte, George J. Hager, A. W. Sunderland and William Davenport, and three are to be nominated. Messrs. Lageschulte and Hager are re-election candidates and William Peters is the other member of the board whose term expires this year. A. C. Linn, candidate for the office of police magistrate, has no opposition thus far. Candidates for village offices may file petitions with the village clerk to have their names placed upon the ballots until March 24.

H. J. Martin, of Morrison, is authority for the statement that there will be a scarcity of seed corn in this section of the country which will be greater than the one last spring. Mr. Martin has been over the entire state judging corn, and states that the condition of seed corn is very bad, and that the farmers must exercise a great deal of caution in choosing their seed corn or they will have to replant their fields or there will be no crop. In speaking of the corn, Mr. Martin states that the crop was a good one, the ears were large and contained every element except that of generation, and that he found only a few counties where he believed the entire crop could safely be used for seed.

DISPLAYING OUR NATIONAL FLAG

Rules Adopted by the United States Government Which Should Be Familiar to All.

Many of the following rules for displaying the national flag are probably unknown to a majority of people. They should be studied and adhered to. These are the rules adopted by the United States government: "There are several days in the year when the flag should be hoisted. These are: February 12, Lincoln's birthday; February 15, anniversary of the sinking of the Maine; February 22, Washington's birthday; April 19, anniversary of the battle of Lexington; May 30, Memorial day; June 14, flag day; June 17, anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill; July 4, Independence day; October 12, Columbus day; October 17, anniversary of the battle of Saratoga; October 19, anniversary of the surrender of Yorktown; November 25, anniversary of the evacuation of Yorktown.

"On all of the dates given above the flag should be hoisted at full mast, with the exception of Memorial day, May 30, and the anniversary of the sinking of the Maine, February 15, when the flag should be at half-mast.

"A flag at half-mast should be half way between the middle of the flag pole and the top, or actually three-quarters mast. In hoisting the flag to half-mast, the flag should first be hoisted to the top of the pole and then lowered to the position half-mast. In lowering the flag from this position it should be hoisted to the top of the pole and then lowered.

"The hours for displaying the flag are from sunrise to sunset, and the flag should not be allowed to remain hoisted during the night. The flag should not remain at half-mast during the entire day, but only from sunrise until noon. At the latter hour it should be hoisted to full mast. When the flag is placed at half-mast on the occasion of the funeral of one whom it is desired to honor in this manner, the flag should remain at half-mast until after the hour of the funeral, when it should be returned to full mast.

"When the flag is used in decorations, side by side with other insignia, the flag should always be at the right."

MRS. SPUNNER ENTERTAINS CLUB

Thursday Club Ladies and Their Invited Guests Number Seventy-Eight Anniversary Meeting.

On Thursday evening, March 6, the Thursday club held an evening meeting at the home of Mrs. G. W. Spinner. The club is now nineteen years old and as Mrs. Emily Hawley, chairman for the evening said, "will soon be out of its teens" and in two years can be out of its twenties. This meeting was the annual club birthday celebration which for years was in the nature of a banquet for members and gentlemen guests, but the banquet idea was abandoned three years ago and a program substituted. This year many guests were invited and seventy-eight people were present.

The Spinner home is admirably arranged to receive a large party and Mrs. Spinner are exemplary hosts in that their efforts are untiring to make visitors to their home comfortable and entertained. The members of the club who were appointed to assist Mrs. Spinner in arranging the program were Mrs. H. T. E. White, Miss E. A. Castle, Mrs. Emily Hawley and Mrs. John Gollen.

Miss Virginia Rogers of Sterling, Kansas, a graduate of Cumbeck School of Oratory at Northwestern university, Evanston, gave the program and most graciously pleased each listener. Many eloquent, professional and amateur have appeared in this village with success, but it may be said with sincerity that Miss Rogers is the very best reader who ever enchanted a Barrington audience and it was through Mrs. Spinner's former connection with Prof. Cumbeck's school that gave her guests the privilege of hearing Miss Rogers. The young lady spoke mostly direct selections of different nationalities, rendition of English and is an excellent mimic. Her personality was unusually pleasing. She is taking a post-graduate course and finishes this year.

Miss Violet Ulitch, Mrs. Charles Thies and William Cameron sang and played to the accompaniment of Miss Rogers's piano.

BARRINGTON TO HAVE A STATE BANK SOON

New Institution Will Open Its Doors as Soon as Arrangements Can be Completed.

$30,000 CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIBED

Local Men Take Initiative to Head Off Chicagoans—More Than Fifty on Books.

A state bank with a capital stock of $30,000.00 and a paid in surplus of $6,000.00, and owned by local people, will very soon be one of Barrington's institutions.

Spurred on by the announcement in the Chicago papers that on March 1 a permit had been issued by the state auditor to Messrs. Webster, Ward and Martin of Chicago to organize a bank here, followed by efforts on their part to secure local subscriptions, a number of our business men decided at once to organize a strong state bank, and thus defeat this movement by outsiders to gain a foothold. Accordingly books of subscription were opened Monday evening and by Tuesday evening the amount of capital originally decided on, $25,000.00, had been over-subscribed. It was therefore necessary to increase the capital to $30,000.00 to accommodate some others who desired stock. An application to organize for that amount of capital under the name, First State Bank of Barrington, was sent to Springfield yesterday, and a telegram received today states that a permit has been issued.

As soon as the notice required by law can be given, a meeting of subscribers to the stock to determine the number of, and to elect the directors, will be held. The directors will then issue a call for payment for the stock. The state auditor, upon ascertaining that the authorized capital and surplus has been fully paid in, will authorize the bank to open for business.

The stock has been subscribed by more than fifty persons, of whom all except four or five are local people. Among the outside subscribers is Judge Turtling.

Emm Opatry, proprietor of the Cary picnic grounds, according to the Record-Herald, boasts of the largest family in the state. The following article, accompanied by a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Opatry and their family, appeared in that paper last Monday.

"Emm Opatry of Cary thinks he is the father of one of the largest families of dyed-in-the-wool Illinoisans in the state. The picture represents Mr. and Mrs. Opatry and their twelve children, all living. The father is native of Cary, while Mrs. Opatry was born in Broadwood. They were married in 1893 and the oldest of their dozen children, George, is 18 years old. The oldest girl, Bertha, is 17, while the youngest, Isabel, is just 16 months old. There are six boys and six girls in the family, and all who are of school age are receiving education in the Cary schools. George is an athletic youth and is training his younger brothers to a fondness for outdoor sports. The father owns a hotel and picnic grove at Cary, as well as residence and business property there."

Mattison, "The Training of the School" by Prof. E. S. Smith, "The Work of the University" by Rev. G. E. Lockhart, and "Life's Wider Field" by Rev. H. H. Thoren. Brave though she was, Molly felt a thrill of terror when she saw the driver had abandoned the stage and that the Indians were closing in. Then—hardly in time—Sergeant Hamlin appeared.

It was one man against a score of savages, but this was the hero of a dozen daring exploits—"Black" Hamlin of the gallant Seventh Cavalry—"the lad who brought in Dupes," and the name who made the famous ride from Washita to Camp Supply with Custer's report to Sheridan.

But there's no need to tell you what Mr. Parrish can do with an opening like this. If you want to read the finest Randall Parrish story in years, read

New York, March 8.—Denial of any intention on the part of the United States Steel corporation to secure a monopoly of iron ore was voted by James Gayley, former vice-president of the corporation, on the witness stand in the government's suit to dissolve the so-called trust.

The question of monopoly never entered my head," Mr. Gayley testified. "My whole ambition was to see that the corporation had a supply of ore for a long term of years as a matter of self-protection."

The witness added that monopolization was never a subject of discussion among the men with whom he was associated.

FIFTY SLAIN BY BLAST

VESSEL LOADING DYNAMITE IS BLOWN TO ATOMS.

U. S. Collier Jason Wrecked—Many Craft Damaged Explosion in Baltimore Harbor.

Baltimore, Md., March 10.—Fifty lives were lost and 100 were injured Friday when nearly 350 tons of dynamite which had been loaded into the hold of the British steamer Alum China, at anchor in the Patuxent river near Hawkins Point, exploded. The property damage will amount to fully $5,000,000.

The explosive had been loaded into the vessel to be taken to Panama to be used in the construction of the canal. A fire of unknown origin broke out on the vessel while the last of the explosive was being loaded. It spread with lightning rapidity to the dynamite and when the explosion occurred the vessel was blown into bits and sent hurtling in all directions through the air.

Bits of the steel sides of the Alum China were blown with such force that they tore their way through the armored sides of the collier Jason nearly a mile away, killing four men and injuring ten others aboard the collier. The tug Atlantic of the Atlantic Transport company caught fire while rescuing some of those on the ill-fated ship and was sunk. Other damage was caused by the breaking of glass and wood work in dwellings as far as several miles from the scene.

DARROW TRIAL IS FAILURE

Calling McNamara's Workers for Great Cause and Not Slayers Hung Jury—New Trial March 31.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 11.—Clarence S. Darrow, the Chicago attorney who defended the McNamara brothers, and who has been on trial for alleged bribery of one of the jurors in the case, was himself responsible for his failure to go free, according to one of the jurors, who requested his name be withheld. The jury after being out 48 hours, stood 4 to 4 for conviction late Saturday.

Just one declaration of the lawyer during his plea for liberty settled the case, destroyed in a spectacular fire in the heart of Boston's business district.

The fire started in a four-story building on Summer street and before it was discovered by a watchman, had scorched great headway and spread to an adjoining building. The damage is estimated at $100,000. Several persons were injured.

AUNT ROXY'S DIVORCE

Finally Discovered That She Had No Cause.

By LAWRENCE ALFRED CLAY

When Adam Perkins, farmer's hired man, came courting Roxy Smith, farmer's hired girl they told her that "he was a good-looking fellow, a nice man. That was about the best that could be said of him. He got less wages than any other hired man in Medina county, but he didn't kick about that. He realized that he didn't earn any more than he was paid."

Miss Roxy was a hard-working young woman, and she detested a lazy man. She married Adam because she believed she could reform him. She was told that such a reform had never been worked in this world, but she was a woman of self-confidence. When the marriage came of they retired to a little farm of their own.

For three years the wife had hopes. She plied and she argued and she led the way, and now and then Adam would take a spurt and work like a horse for half a day at a time. Then his ambition would be gone. He readily acknowledged his laziness, but he just couldn't help it. If he was found in a shady fence corner while the corn needed hoeing his argument was:

"The Lord made corn to grow wild, and it was never intended that man should get the backache chopping out the weeds. Nothing can hurt if we leave things as the Lord made 'em. There came a day when the wife, after carrying a sober, thoughtful face for a week, said to the husband: "Adam, you put in about five days' work in the past month."

"As much as that, Roxy?" he asked in surprise.
"About that."
"Well, the Lord never intended that man should work. If he had he would have given Adam something to do except loaf around."

"Our crops won't be half a yield this fall."
"Well, there will be other folks just as bad off."

"We've had a poor showing for three years."
"We've got along and no one's back has been broke. What you fussing about, Roxy?"

"I've been thinking, Adam, and I have come to a conclusion. I have hoped to make you a hustling man, but it's no use thinking of success. I am going to leave you."

"Shoo!"
"Yes, going to get a divorce."
"But what have I done?"
"It's laziness. I'll get a divorce and work out again."

Tears came to Adam's eyes and he made promises. He hadn't been the square thing for him to loaf around the way he had, and he would do better. He would begin that very minute, and he would feed the horse and shut the hen-house door to prove that a great change had suddenly come over him. Next morning he built the breakfast fire for the first time in two years, and for half a day he wielded the hoe with great vigor. Then his wife came down to the corfield and found him asleep. It had been discovered, however, that any talk of divorce, so Adam, and the wife planned to use the weapon. About once a month for the year the matter came up. Now it would be that her sister advised her—again it would be what the little peddler said—then what she had concluded. These "talks" were always held by Adam along for a week, but as the years went on and the "talks" went on they lost their force and got to be an old story. And, too, the wife made a mistake by not confining them to laziness alone. It got so at last that when she wanted a new pair of shoes, for instance, she would threaten a divorce to get them. The weapon wore out at last, as she might have anticipated. At break fast one morning the wife quietly asked:

"Adam, what about my teeth?"
"Got 'em, hasn't you?" he replied.
"You got to have a false plate."
"Goes git along mighty well with only one set."

"I shall go to the village tomorrow and get that the plate or a divorce!"
"Wait a divorce, do you?"
"I do."

"Then you kin have it!"
The rope had broken at last, and the wife was so astonished that minute that she hardly knew she could ask: "Adam, don't you care about my teeth?"

"Gaul darn 'em!" was the vigorous answer.
"Very well, it shall be divorce!"
Aunt Roxy, as the wife was now old enough to be called, had made her bluff and her hand had been called. She must either back down or go ahead. It didn't take her a minute to decide. Shoving back from the table, she said:

"I will leave the divorce for you to wash."
"All right."
She got dressed to go down to her sister's, three miles away, and as she was departing she said to her husband:

"Adam, I set snappings last night and you'd better take a look at them pretty soon. They may sour on you."

He sat on the doorstep and watched her go down the road, and when she could no longer be seen he went into the house and went to bed and slept the day through till sundown.

"What's the matter?" asked Aunt Roxy's sister when the house was reached.
"Divorce!" was the brief reply.
"For what?"
"Adam broke away at last."

"Shoo! You don't say!"
"I said I'd have the teeth or a divorce, and he said gaul darn the teeth!"

"Well, if it's come, then it's come. Did you leave him with clean sheets and pillow-cases?"
"I was going to change 'em today. Better go back the first thing in the morning. I knowed a woman who failed to win a divorce because she left the house with the bed all tumbled up."

After a rest Aunt Roxy went on to the next farmhouse to tell the news.
"Going to get a divorce, eh?" exclaimed one of the women.
"Yes, I'm drove to it."

"What driv' ye?"
"Adam gauld my teeth!"
"Stars and garters! Well, I've felt for the last four weeks as if something was going to happen. Did you notice what time it was when he gauld you?"

"Bout eight o'clock, I guess."
"Then you may lose your case. A woman has got to swear to the very minute when she's been sworn at. You ought to have got up and stopped the clock."

"Stars and garters! Well, I've felt for the last four weeks as if something was going to happen. Did you notice what time it was when he gauld you?"

"No."

WASHINGTON TEMPLE

THE SEVENTH DAY OR EPOCH

IN this presentation of Creation, we are following a line of thought which seems to be growing in acceptance among Bible students. We are now living in the Seventh Creative Epoch or Day—that began where the Sixth one closed, just after God had created Adam in His own image and likeness. God there rested from His work—from creating. He foreknew the permission of sin and its dire effects upon humanity. He foreknew the steps He would take in providing ultimately a Redeemer for the race, and that the Redeemer eventually would select a little company of believers, figuratively styled the Bride of Christ. To this Redeemer and His Bride God intended to give the rule, dominion, control of Earth. God purposed that Messiah's Kingdom of Righteousness should eventually uplift all the obedient of mankind from sin and death. God rested from His work of creating in the sense that He abstained from blotting humanity out of existence because of sin, and in the sense that He did not actively employ His Divine Power to overthrow sin and uplift mankind. God rested the entire matter in the hands of the Redeemer, Jesus, to be accomplished through His sacrifice for sin and His glorious reign for the release of mankind. Messiah in His thousand-year reign soon to begin will complete the work of Creation. Not only will the race be brought to human perfection, but each and every man will have obtained the needed experience in respect to good and evil. Meantime, also, the Earth will be gradually coming to a state of perfection. Both human perfection and the perfection of the Earth were fittingly represented in Eden.

THEY WORD IS TRUTH

"But the husband ought to, too."
"He was probably too overcome. Wait 'till I call Henry in."
The farmer-blacksmith came in and heard the news, and, after looking wise for a time, he asked Aunt Roxy:
"Did Adam gaul darn your eyes?"
"No, my teeth."
"The false teeth you were to get?"
"Yes."
"Then you've no case. Under the law you've got to gaul darn a living object, and false teeth are not alive. Better give it up."
It was candle light when Aunt Roxy resumed the sale and walked up the path. Adam sat in the doorway, hungry and lonely, and wondering she sat down beside him and his arm stole around her.
"I don't want a divorce," she said.
"And gaul darn my bones. I'm going to work in earnest in the morning!"

WE HATE PEOPLE AND THINGS WE CANNOT UNDERSTAND.

Ignorance and hate come go together. When we are not informed upon a matter, we accept nothing until we have become familiar with it, except through superstition and idolatry; and superstition and idolatry involve no belief but faith.

We hang men for killing others only when we do not understand them. When we understand them we classify the act as insanity or self-defense, and pity both the victim and the slayer. When "we don't understand why he could do such a thing," we call it murder.

We despise men as villanous and brutish only when what they do is beneath the understanding of honest and pure minds.

We ridicule sentiments that are either too low or too high for our own intellects. Murder or act that seems sleepy and impossible, seems so because we do not understand it.

Samuel Johnson said: "I hate that man, because I do not know him; if I know him, I would love him."

There is hardly to be found a criminal so low that all men hate him. Those who know him and understand his state of mind may pity, but do not hate.

It follows that knowledge is the enemy of hatred, and education the necessary basis of appreciation and love.

To educate one's self is to become superior to the ignorance that causes hate. One does not hate men—not even with a perfect hatred; for he understands men.

When we understand, we love.

IS SURE SIGN OF SUMMER

Irish Woman Shows Great Solicitude for Lady Bug She Picked From Longpole's Neck.

The other day Mr. Longpole went over to Brooklyn on business. He boarded a Pullman street car, and scarcely had taken his seat when an amply-proportioned, good-natured looking Irishwoman plumped down next him. A few moments later Mr. Longpole felt that the woman had turned part way round and was regarding him attentively. Presently she raised one fat hand and, with the fingers brought closely together at the tips, cautiously approached it toward his neck, saying at the same time in a loud, cheerful voice:

"Tis sure me, but you've a lady bug crawlin' on yer neck, an' I'll take it off for ye, careful-like, so as not to frighten poor baste." With that she advanced her hand still further and gently plucked the insect from Mr. Longpole's neck. "There!" she said triumphantly. "I have it in me two fingers. See!" and she held the bug up for his inspection. Then, contemplating it more closely and cordially including all the passengers in her remark, she said: "Lady bugs do be a sign of summer, I'm tould!"—New York Press.

National Spirit is Aroused.

The world, this country, is gradually waking up to a realization of how hideously ugly our cities are, how forlorn are the houses and the lives of people outside of the cities. They are beginning to demand something better. No, the spirit of art is not dying. It is preparing for a mighty resurrection compared to what the boasted Renaissance would be like a rush light in the full blaze of day.
