BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 1913

$1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

VILLAGE PRIMARY TO BE HELD NEXT SATURDAY

Five Candidates Are in Race for the Trusteeship But President Is Without Opposition.

TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS FOLLOW SOON

Annual Town Meetings and Elections Will Take Place Tuesday—Will Be No Opposition.

With five candidates in the field for village trustee, and three to be nominated, the primary election to be held next Saturday afternoon, bids fair to furnish considerable excitement. The candidates are as follows: George J. Hager, A. W. Sutherland, H. J. Lagochulte, George F. Atkins and William C. Davenport. The names will appear on the ballots in the above order. There is also competition for the office of police magistrate. Armit Lane, who is a candidate to succeed himself, being opposed by L. H. Bennett. The present president of the board, Miles T. Lamey, whose term expires this spring, is without opposition.

The primary will be held at the village hall from the hours of 2:00 to 8:00 p. m. A specimen of the ballot to be used will be found on another page of this issue.

It is generally felt that Messrs. Lagochulte and Hager, members of the board at present, will be sent back, but which one of the three candidates, Mr. Atkins, Mr. Sutherland or Mr. Davenport, will be selected as the other nominee is doubtful. They are so evenly matched that no predictions are being made. It is expected that a large vote will be polled.

The township elections, when the candidates nominated two weeks ago will be elected, will be held next Tuesday, April 1. No petitions have been filed so there will be no opposition and it is not likely that many voters will take the trouble to attend in Barrington township anyway. Interest is added in Cuba township by the fact that a vote will be taken upon the proposition of levying a tax at the rate of 80 per cent. on each one hundred dollars for the purpose of constructing gravel roads. The proposition, if passed will provide for this tax for the next five years. It is considered favorably by most of the voters in that township. Such a tax has previously been levied for a number of years and the result is that the township is noted for its good roads now, although there is much more work to be done and the tax can be used to good advantage. Barrington township intended to vote on a special gravel tax this year but the matter was not taken up in time and had to be deferred until another year.

The elections will be held at the usual places in Barrington township at the village hall and in Cuba township at the office of Town Clerk Schnaede, and the polls will be open from 7:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

The town meetings will also be held on this day at the same places, commencing at 2:00 p. m., when the reports of officers will be heard and the annual appropriations will be made. Specimen ballots will be found on page five.

Keep Records and Stop Gambling. "The chief obstacle to progressive dairymaking," says Professor W. J. Frazer, of the University of Illinois, "is carrying it on in a slipshod manner, without the well balanced, intensive methods so important to profitable milk production. Many dairymen attempt to make money without the application of business principles. The milk producer must stop gambling, and know forever that the result will be of the different operations conducted in different ways, and in each case adopt the one that will secure the most profit. It is the net result from one day's work whether it is making a profit or not. We cannot know when that result is if we do not keep a record."

"A great many of the cows milked each day are kept by men who are simply cow boys, and not dairymen. Even so, when would he consider good dairy farming these to frequently careless handling, thoughtless and careless feeding, and careless housing of the cows? All of this results in loss of sufficient returns. The investigation of the dairy conditions of the state, made by this department in the past twelve years shows plainly that the dairy people are not receiving the greatest day from the investments of money, time and labor that are put into their farms."

CATHOLICS ANSWER "THE MENACE"

Respectful Attention and Appreciation Given Lecturers at Palatine By Protestant Audience.

The lecture given at Palatine on Tuesday evening in Selp's hall by the Rev. Father P. J. O'Callaghan and Hon. James Maher of Chicago was well attended by an audience of Protestant people who listened with respectful attention to their words.

An anti-Catholic publication of St. Louis called "The Menace" has been widely scattered through the vicinity containing ridiculous statements as to the Catholic faith. Some discussion arose at Palatine that Father Joseph Loeragan of Barrington arranged this meeting to explain to non-Catholics that the Catholic church as a body has no inclination or power to assume control of the American government as alleged in "The Menace."

Father O'Callaghan dwelt largely on the fact that lack of knowledge of Catholic teaching produces this prejudice existing in some places against that church and that a study of the faith always makes people more in sympathy.

Mr. Maher gave an account of the patriotic Catholics who have fought for America in all her wars, bringing out the proof of the loyalty of Catholic Americans to this country and says that the menace to our country is not "how men worship God, but how many are drifting from God in these modern times."

Miss Elmore Arpa sang twice and by the applause received, it is known that her beautiful voice is appreciated in her home town.

VERMILYA TRIAL HELD SOON

Famous Vermilya Case to Come to Trial in Short Time.

Mrs. Louise Vermilya of Chicago, who was tried for the murder of Richard T. Smith, an Illinois Central suburban passenger train conductor and a lodger in her home, in connection with which the jury disagreed and was discharged on April 6, last—nearly a year ago—left the isolation hospital last week. She had been an inmate for three weeks, severely ill with diphtheria. She is now with friends at 2818 Vernon avenue.

When a mistrial was declared in her case last summer Judge Denis E. Sullivan fixed her bail at $5,000, and she was released pending a new trial. Meanwhile the Wayman administration in the state's attorney's office went out and the Hoyne administration came in. The case was kept upon the books of the office. It was said Monday that it would be assigned to an assistant state's attorney and brought to a hearing shortly.

Following her release on bonds Mrs. Vermilya lived at the home of two sisters, alternately, for a time—Mrs. Laura Hochstetler, 411 East 26th street, and Mrs. Ella Rehweg, 2856 South Park avenue. That following a brief stay in the county hospital where she went to recover her shattered health after the trial. She was living at the home of Mrs. Rehweg when she was stricken with diphtheria and sent to the isolation hospital.

Mrs. Vermilya was first indicted for the murder, by poisoning, of Policeman Arthur Blumenthal. This case was nolle prossed and she was reindicted for the murder of Richard T. Smith. When she is again tried it will be for this second alleged crime. Attorney Joseph R. Burrows is her attorney.

SEAN'S MARCH RECITALS. Twenty-Fourth Annual Recitals Just Completed—Pupils Devoiced Credit.

The twenty-fourth annual March recital of the Sean's school of music has just been completed. The sixteenth recital for the school year was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robertson on Monday evening.

Pupils under the supervision of W. N. Sears, Miss Connelley Smith and Miss Violet Dillish presented the program. Some of the pupils will long remember that at this program they made their initial performance and they deserve great credit for playing so well.

The other pupils received their share of the praise and hearty applause from the audience. Miss Smith and Miss Dillish also delighted their guests and the guests by presenting well executed solos on the piano. Altogether the recital was a pleasant affair and all appreciated the hospitality of the host and hostess.

John J. Hager, trustee of the American University of Illinois, Chicago, has been elected to the position of trustee of the American University of Illinois, Chicago, for the term of one year.

CONCERT COMPANY TO ENTERTAIN

Barrington Orchestra Will Give Vocal and Musical Program at M. E. Church Next Thursday.

The Barrington Concert company will give an entertainment at the Methodist Episcopal church, next Thursday evening, April 3. A good musical program with several new features will be given and Mrs. Emma C. W. Matthews of Chicago will give a number of her excellent readings.

The reputation of the Barrington Concert company for orchestral music is well known here, having read at several local entertainments. She was one of the most popular entertainers of the talent heard at the chautauque here last summer and will probably be remembered by her renditions of "Barbara Fritchie" and the "Pullman Car Drawing Room." This combination of talent will attract a large audience.

The work of this excellent orchestra is always highly spoken of and appreciated, but their entertainments have not been so well patronized as they desire and they announce that this will be their last exhibition unless the audience on this evening is of a size which will indicate the desire of the public to have them continue.

The company is self-supporting and only works to pay expenses, without thought of personal financial gain. Tickets will be on sale for this entertainment by members of the orchestra and at the Barrington pharmacy.

FARMERS ARE STILL HOLDING OUT

Refuse to Take Milk Board's Advice to Sell—Will Meet to Confer at Village Hall Tomorrow.

When asked about the milk situation this morning, one of the leaders of the local union said: "You may say this is the milk question, but it is a question of war. I think that will cover the ground thoroughly."

The Milk Producers' association is advising the dairymen to sell to friendly companies such as Bowman's and Koe & Chappel, but the majority are refusing to do this. There is a difference of only 10 cents between the prices asked by the association and those offered by the Bowman company, and the association officials look upon the fight as a success so far as this company is concerned but the dairymen are refusing to sign up unless they get exactly the price asked. A meeting was held at Crystal Lake and Palatine this morning and one will be held here tomorrow morning at the village hall at 10:00 o'clock, and it is now planned to have representatives of the local associations of the three towns confer on Saturday, so that they may take action in union.

At the Borden stations they are still holding out and making arrangements to market their milk in Chicago or separate it if the price asked is not paid. At a meeting at Woodstock yesterday $5,000 were raised for this purpose. The local superintendents of the Borden plants are asking the farmers to defer action until Saturday, when they expect to be able to offer a better price. The superintendent of the Borden company came from New York yesterday and conferred with his assistants in Chicago and is hurrying back to call a meeting of the board of directors. At Dundee 40,000 pounds of milk were sold to the Oatman company yesterday at an average price of $1.50 for 3.5 milk.

SEVERE STORM CAUSES DAMAGE

Telephone and Telegraph Wires Put Out of Order—Residents Fear for Friends in Flooded Districts.

Sunday night's severe storm, which has done so much damage in Nebraska, Indiana and Ohio, did not overlook this section of the country entirely. A number of barns and small outbuildings were demolished, hay stacks upset and wind mills blown down. The most serious accident which occurred near here happened at Des Plaines when a brick chimney fell onto the caboose of a moving train on the Soo line, killing the conductor and a brakeman. L. Olander's barn near Felsoline was overturned and four horses and seven cows were killed. The Des Plaines river is on a rampage and the Fox river has been anxiously watched although no danger is anticipated from that source now as it was reported yesterday that the water had dropped three inches during the day.

Roselle takes first place in the number and unusual character of storm freaks in northern Illinois. Here are a few of them: A farmer had just completed a modern residence, but was still living in the old farmhouse nearby. The storm knocked the house into kindling, but left the old one, with the family, intact.

A barn was scattered to the four winds, but left two horses tied to their mangers, and didn't even remove the night's ration of hay.

Another barn assumed the dignity of an aeroplane, ascending into space and leaving a haystack standing, well loaded, on the barn floor.

The greatest source of worry to local people at present is the fear for the safety of relatives who lived in the flood districts. The Volker family of Main street have relatives at Piqua, Ohio, which is in the heart of the flooded territory in that state. One sister of Mrs. Volker, Mrs. Schlusser, has visited here several times and is quite well known locally. Mr. and Mrs. George Atkins have a number of relatives in Dayton, Ohio, and there are many others who have relatives whom they consider may be in danger. None of them have been able to get into communication with their friends or relatives as yet.

Word was received this morning from Rev. Eugene Wilking and family, who left here Tuesday night for New York, from which place they will leave for Germany, stating that they had a trying time on their trip through early after being delayed for hours. Mr. Wilking says: "The trouble began at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and came to an end at Columbus, Ohio. The country is over-flooded and the train ran through water, sometimes three and four feet deep, and at one time a car was derailed, but a wreck was averted and we passed the danger line safely, although hours behind schedule."

Continued on pages two and three.

LAKE SURCH. Paul Patton of Palatine was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Miss Anna Schumacher is visiting friends at Barrington.

Leonard Young of Chicago Heights spent Sunday with his parents here.

E. A. Flock attended a meeting of the supervisors at Waukegan yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Beixton visited the latter's parents at Libertyville Easter Sunday.

Quite a number of the surrounding farmers have contracted to raise sugar beets this year.

Miss Hannah Scholz returned Saturday from a week's stay in Chicago with her sister, Mrs. R.

Mrs. Herman Wostenberg and Charles Goodrich, Sr., are under the doctor's care at present.

We are glad to state that William Grebe and his family, who have been sick for over a month are greatly improved.

O. H. Patten pays $1.50 per hundred pounds for milk for the next six months, which is the price asked by his patrons.

The local school board has closed the school for two weeks on account of the severe fever morn, although we have had no case here. The school is in two and one-half miles north of here.

John Robertson has had some more fun arranged in his sub-divisions, which is a fact that is not to be overlooked. He has a number of friends and relatives who are making their future home in the Adams farm, and intend to place this year.

PROPOSITION MADE TO CONSOLIDATE BANKS

First Stockholders Meeting Held Saturday and Directors Elected—All Prominent Business Men.

NEW DIRECTORS IN FAVOR OF PLAN

Board Met Immediately and Voted Unanimously to Accept—Stockholders Must Decide.

The meeting of subscribers to the stock of First State Bank of Barrington was held Saturday afternoon in the village hall and was well attended, there being represented, either in person or by proxy, two hundred eighty-two of the three hundred shares of stock. The meeting was called to order by G. W. Spunner, one of the four commissioners authorized by the auditor of public accounts to organize the bank, the other commissioners being Henry J. Lagochulte, August W. Meyers and J. L. Meiners. Howard P. Castle was selected to act as chairman, and Miles T. Lamey as secretary of the meeting.

After some discussion as to the number of directors to be elected, a motion was carried placing the number at eight. There were 14 of the stockholders who subscribed for ten shares or more of the stock, thus qualifying them to serve as directors. Of the number, Judge C. S. Cutting, R. H. Hammond, Charles S. Castle, G. W. Lagochulte and Fred Hobeln caused it to be announced that they were not candidates. From the remaining number, the following directors were elected, each receiving one of the first ballot, more than the necessary majority: H. J. Lagochulte, Miles T. Lamey, August W. Meyer, Howard P. Castle, George J. Hager, George W. Spunner, John L. Meiners, Edward W. R. Miller.

After the announcement by the chairman that it would devolve upon the directors to elect the officers of the bank, and to call to the subscribers to the stock for the payment of their subscriptions, the meeting adjourned.

Immediately following the stockholders' meeting, the directors met. The principal business considered was a proposition looking to the consolidation of the new bank and The Barrington Bank of Robertson, Plagge & Company. This proposition had been brought about principally through the efforts of Spencer Otis, who believed that the interests of Barrington would be best served by having one strong bank, in which were combined all the prominent business interests, rather than two banks, which would divide the business, and necessarily reduce the profits of each. The directors voted unanimously to accept the proposition, under which, if ratified by the stockholders at a meeting to be held soon, the capital stock of First State Bank of Barrington will be increased from $20,000 to $50,000, the remaining $30,000 of stock over that now taken to be subscribed by John Robertson, J. C. Plagge and A. L. Robertson and others not included among those who have already subscribed. Additional directors to the number of seven will be elected from those subscribing for the additional stock. Immediately upon the completion of the organization of the new bank, it will take over the business of the present bank.

While it is too early to predict what the bank's policy will be, it is undoubtedly safe to say that it will at once open a savings department, and will provide complete facilities for the convenience of any depositors who hold the stock. The directors and directors will be to give Barrington and vicinity bank accommodations equal to those furnished anywhere in places similarly located.

The work of rescue is going forward rapidly and under excellent organization. The workers are federal and state troops, policemen, firemen and a platoon of volunteers.

The general public is being kept rigidly from the devastated zone, although there have been no attempts at looting since they were feared by Mayor Dahlman when he sent his appeal Sunday night to Governor Moorhead that first apprised the country of the horror into which the city had been plunged.

Death toll will not be complete until at least another twenty-four hours has passed. Several days probably will be required to assemble the tragic details from the small towns and villages that were in the path of the tornado in Iowa and Nebraska.

Today's storm killed men and children are homeless. They are being cared for in hotels and in private homes that were thrown open even before Mayor Dahlman issued his appeal to the citizenry to care for the stricken.

Approximately 1,000 homes have been swept and 150 buildings, including those totally destroyed, are damaged. Expert insurance men place the loss at between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000. Residence sections alone suffered. The greatest loss was in a section of moderate priced homes. The business heart of the city escaped entirely.

Residence Section Struck. The tornado traveled in a north-easterly direction and first swept down on Ralston, manufacturing suburb, three miles west of South Omaha. It struck the city limits of Omaha at the Field club, in the southwest section, and plowed a path six blocks wide straight through the city three and one-half miles in length.

The tornado area was from the southwest limit, across the west side of the city, which included the west residence section, the most fashionable complete district, which was almost completely destroyed, and thence to the north section, where the death toll was greatest. After twisting across the northeast line of the city the tornado frantically doubled back across the Missouri river, wrecking the Illinois Central bridge and tearing through Council Bluffs, where at least six persons were killed and great property loss caused.

The wonder in the mind of every person who has seen the blocks and blocks of ruins, the shapless heaps of wreckage that were houses and has learned the authentic story, is the stupor by which the houses were blown from their foundations and dashed, four stories high, against sturdy structures, and of the lurching about of locomotives in the Missouri Pacific roundhouse like shreds of the wind, is that the death toll is not greater.

One explanation brought forward is that the tornado came at an hour when a great percentage of the people were on the streets, and that many more than the usual number had responded to the lure of the Easter parade, despite the impending storm. Before the storm there had not been even a hint of wind.

All Omaha hospitals are filled with injured. Scores of them are unidentified and other scores are unconscious. Many severely injured have been taken to the city hospital, where there is room for only a few, and there some adequate provision for the maimed.

Many churches had the doors open at an hour when a great percentage of the people were on the streets, and that many more than the usual number had responded to the lure of the Easter parade, despite the impending storm. Before the storm there had not been even a hint of wind.

sloners in a grant of $50,000 for emergency work, and business men within a few hours raised $75,000. Omaha will handle her own charity if she can and it is not likely that outside relief will be sought.

What has cleared the streets in the stricken section was a deluge of panic-stricken people fleeing from the torrent of flying bricks and timber, while building after building crashed into the street.

Institute a Death House. The Child Saving Institute at 619 South Second street was a veritable death house within half an hour after the storm struck. Every available room there was pressed into service as one after another of the dead were brought into the place.

Scenes of greatest distress are being enacted at all of the morgues and hospitals. In the confusion many persons are reported as missing who doubtless have found refuge, but their relatives are vainly seeking them among the dead and injured. Three troops of mounted police from the nearby fort are aiding the rescue.

Five Killed at Chicago. Chicago, March 15.—Five were killed, fully 50 were injured, several of them perhaps fatally, and a property loss which will exceed $500,000 was caused by the terrific storm that swept Chicago Monday.

Twenty-five bodies were lifted from their foundations and were blown over, injuring many and rendering hundreds homeless. Windows were blown in, telephone poles and street car lines were broken and general havoc was wrought in all sections of the city by the terrific wind and the heavy downpour of rain.

Find 24 Dead in Terre Haute. Terre Haute, Ind., March 15.—Twenty-four victims of the tornado which swept the northwestern part of Terre Haute and Vigo county Sunday night had been identified and more than seventy-five injured were being cared for in local hospitals. Several more bodies are expected to be found when the ruins of 300 homes, leveled by the storm, have been cleared away. In the city and in all Vigo county, the death list may reach fifty.

At the request of Mayor Gerhardt, Governor Ralston ordered out Company B of the Indiana National Guard to patrol the devastated district and help in the rescue work. More than 160 persons were made homeless by the twister, and the city council appropriated $500 to start a relief fund.

Telephone messages reaching here from Prairieville, nine miles south, state that nearly every house in the town was leveled. Several persons had many homes been leveled. Several persons had many homes been leveled.

Torrential rains accompanied the storm, and probably saved many persons, plumed in the wreckage, from burning to death as electric wires and lightning fired several parts of the debris.

Factory is Demolished. The roof glass factory was demolished and the Gartland foundry was severely damaged. The glass plant was completely wrecked and the loss is estimated at $40,000.

The storm was accompanied by a severe electrical display and rain that almost equaled the fury of the storm. Wires and lightning started fire throughout the debris, but they were quenched by the heavy rain.

Lightning was seen striking houses. Men, women and children were crushed to death in bed. Some escaped to the cellar. Whole structures were blown away by the force of the wind. The maimed were rushed to hospitals as fast as they were extricated.

Indiana Mining Town Wiped Out. Perth, a mining town ten miles west of here, was practically wiped out by the tornado. Many persons were injured, but no loss of life has been reported. The property loss is estimated at $50,000.

Nebraska Is Swept. Lincoln, Neb., March 15.—A tornado, forming near Greenwood, swept over the eastern part of the state Sunday night, causing the death of at least twenty persons besides those at Omaha, while ten others are missing and over a hundred are injured.

Yutan, sixteen miles north of Ashland, suffered most severely of any city. With winds reaching 100 miles an hour, a fire started and the entire place was threatened with destruction.

Twelve Lives Near Greenwood. Valley Hill, north of Yutan, was hard hit. Property running into thousands of dollars was destroyed by the wind. The heaviest loss occurred near Greenwood and north of Ashland.

At Ralston much property was destroyed and the railroad lines were blocked with debris, necessitating the holding of several trains.

Hundreds Homeless in Indiana. South Bend, Ind., March 15.—Anchored miniature cyclone swept northwestern Indiana early Monday, doing damage which may prove as extensive as that suffered in the storm of several days ago in the same section.

The tornado cut a path no more than a yard wide but in which scores of the city.

Lafayette, Ind., March 15.—Two lives were claimed here by the flood. Ray had severe spinal injury, eight-year-old son of Dr. J. W. Rathbun, of Lafayette, was drowned in Walnut creek, six miles west of here, when their boat struck a sand bar.

Many Homes Wiped Out. Kansas, Mo., March 15.—More than thirty homes in the residence district were completely wrecked. It is estimated that the loss from the storm will reach $50,000. Many buildings were blown down in the western part of the country.

PRESIDENT IS DISPLEASED

NO More Diplomatic Appointments Will Be Announced Until Acceptances Are Received.

Washington, March 21.—It was announced at the White House Tuesday that President Wilson was considering the names of Henry C. Morgenthau, Augustus Thomas, Thomas Nelson Page and Joseph Willard for appointment to important posts in the diplomatic service.

The president is said to feel very keenly the fact that his first selections in Richard Olney and Dr. Charles William Eliot to go to London, and William F. McCombs for France, were declined. Due to this embarrassment, no further selections will be made until the acceptances are received at the White House.

It is considered certain that Augustus Thomas will be sent to either Switzerland or Italy.

Probably Know What He Meant.
In an address of welcome to a student magistrate at Calcutta, Transvaal, South Africa, the Kaiser spoke, the other day thus expressed himself: "We cordially welcome your black and goodness in wearing knowing such pusillanimity and unwhole some ignorant people. We are overjoyed to get such a weak, non-excit- ible, superlatively harmonious one as a magistrate."

Best Known Cough Remedy.
For forty-three years Dr. King's New Discovery has been known throughout the world as the most reliable cough remedy. Over three million bottles were used last year. Isn't this proof? It will get rid of your cough, or we will refund your money. J. J. Owens, of Allendale, S. C., writes the way, hundreds of others have done: "After twenty years, I find that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds that I have ever used." For coughs or colds and all throat and lung troubles, it has no equal. 50c and $1.00 at Barrington Pharmacy.

Seek Something to Replace Coal.
Coal offers to mankind solar energy in its most concentrated form. Indeed modern civilization may be said to be the daughter of coal. But the supply of coal is not inexhaustible and every ton of it taken out of the earth leaves just that much less for the future needs of the world. Hence it is that today we are looking about us so anxiously for some other source of fuel.

Had Good Precedent.
When J. Stuart Russell, of New York was making one of his campaigns for congress his Democratic opponent derided him because he parts his name in the middle. "I admit it," said Russell, "I have even afterward, and I am not ashamed of it. So long as E. Pluribus Unum can stand it to have his name parted in the middle I think I can, too."

The Cause of Rheumatism.
Stomach trouble, lazy liver and de- ranged kidneys are the cause of rheumatism. Get your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels in healthy condition by taking Electric Bitters, and you will not be troubled with the "aches of rheumatism." Charles B. Allen, a school principal, of Sylva, Ga., who suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys, writes: "All remedies failed until I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Maybe your rheumatic pains come from stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Electric Bitters will give you prompt relief. 50c and $1.00. Recommended by Barrington Pharmacy.

WORDS OF TRUTH

TON

MOTHER EVE REQUIRED.
THE New Testament bears out the story of Genesis, of Mother Eve's deception, and that Father Adam yielded to disobedience through her influence. St. Paul declares that Adam was not deceived, and that he therefore had the greater responsibility. The Scriptures everywhere portray that it is through Adam's disobedience that the condemnation passed upon his race. He was its responsible head. Rom. 5:12.

The Bible account tells of Mother Eve's thirst for knowledge, and that Satan took advantage of this desire and beguiled her into disobedience. We need not suppose that the Serpent spoke audibly, rather, as we often say, "Actions speak louder than words." It is probable that the Serpent spoke in this manner. God had authorized our first parents to freely eat of all the fruits of Paradise except of the species called "The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil." It was forbidden for a time as a test of their loyalty. The eating of the fruit of this tree, they were forewarned, would bring upon them the curse—the Death Sentence. The Serpent ate of the various fruits, and seemed especially fond of the forbidden fruit. Observation proved that the fruit of the tree did not kill the Serpent, and the inference drawn by Mother Eve was that God had forbidden the use of the very best tree in Eden. Her conclusion was that God had a selfish motive in forbidding the use of that fruit.

Mother Eve did not broach these suspicions to her husband. She would eat, acquire the knowledge God was withholding and then assist Adam to it.

Father Adam realized the seriousness of Eve's disobedience, and concluded that it meant the death of his wife. He thought of the long days before he had her companionship and that now, shortly, he would be lonely again. In his desperation Adam determined to join Eve in the sin and its penalty. Adam's death was a slow suicide. His dying lasted 350 years.

PASTOR RUSSELL.

Almost Too Much to Believe.
A gunner of the royal marines tells a story, says an English paper, of how a seagull rescued an exhausted lunnet from the sea and deposited it on the deck of a warship. We can stand a good deal, but this story should, we think, have been told by its narrator exclusively to his fellow marines.

AMBITION TALKS

WE SUCCEEDED IN PROPORTION TO THE SERVICE WE RENDERED OTHERS.

Nearly all professional men whose services are of value are engaged in making their own occupation unnecessary.

It is the effort of the doctor to prevent all sickness.

The teacher must instruct others as to how they can get along without him.

The honest lawyer guards men against the quarrels by which he earns his fees, and even the preacher, if he should accomplish his purpose, would be out of a job.

The same principal applies in business lines, though not to the same extent. The clothier, the butcher and the baker render the best service, and succeed most when they reduce the amount of expenditure necessary for the very articles on which they make a profit and the railroad section hand labors to complete what he depends upon for pay.

Men learn that the rule of the universe is progress, and that no one deserves to be employed at something else who has not worked himself out of a former job by doing it.

And hence the popular rule: No man can successfully work in his own interest, except by working against his own interest.

Even the most active minds forget sometimes:—The man whose memory doesn't slip these days has little on his mind.

Concentration of mind implies forgetfulness, for the time, of other matters. It isn't serious, because we have the telephone.

If you leave your grip in the train, or forget the order to be given or cancelled, or the social duty of the evening, look about you for the sign of the Blue Bell.

The Long Distance Telephone is the antidote for absent-mindedness.

GOOD LOOKING MEN

Are Always Successful in Business

USUALLY ADMIRER BY THE FAIR SEX

The men of Chicago have suddenly acquired an attractive complexion. The reason for this, in that they are now shaving their faces with the new process, called "the Velver-Edge Safety Razor Blade Sharpener," which gives that velvety smooth skin to the constant shaver.

You men who use safety razors and want a velvety skin, shaved with the delicate softness so much desired, with a keen cutting edge, and your dull safety razor blades at once to Chicago, and have them sharpened by the new electrical process, which makes the dull blades better than the new, and your old blades are returned to you a perfect new blade.

Don't those razor men who use safety razors, but who use them today, well wrapped, and do not delay it until tomorrow.

Price 25c per dozen for all safety razor blades, which include Gillette's, Every-Ready Shave, and other brands.

Your blades will be returned to you in a few days, and you will find them in perfect condition. If you are in a hurry, we will deliver them to you in a day.

Charm in Small Courtships. Small kindnesses, small courtesies, small considerations, habitually practiced in our social intercourse, give a greater charm to our character than the display of great talents and accomplishments.

In the International Family. "You don't figure very strongly in diplomatic relations," said the great Nation. "No," replied the small struggling government. "I'm one of the poor relations."—Washington Star.
