John Brazel has taken the contract to erect a 40x72 foot garage at Wauconda for George W. Spunner of this village and put a force of men at work today. Les Brown and Arthur Bohmer of Wheeling, a former resident of this village, will conduct the business.

An escaped inmate of the Northern Illinois Hospital for the Insane, located at Elgin, was picked up here by Marshal Peters last Friday. He gave his name as Thomas Peterson and said he was from Lansing, Michigan, and was 25 years old. The authorities of the hospital were notified and came for him the next day.

Seventeen ladies, members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church in Barrington, attended a meeting in Palestine last Friday. The meeting was addressed by Miss Poyell, a member of the hospital staff in Peking, China. The Palestine ladies proved to be excellent hosts.

The home baking sale given by the girls' sewing club of the Salem church last Saturday afternoon in the Groff building was extremely successful, and in less than ten minutes all of the bread and doughnuts were sold and everything was disposed of by 3:30. The young ladies realized about $23.

Members of the local lodge of Odd Fellows went to Palestine last evening where the degree class of this lodge put on work. Mr. Lockhart will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

CHANGES LOCATION.

Atkins Moves May 1 to Miller Building—Plans Larger and Better Restaurant.

George F. Atkins has rented the Mrs. Paul Miller building on Main street, next door to his present location, and will remove his restaurant to that place before May 1. His new quarters, when renovated and repaired in accordance with his ideas, will be considerably of an improvement over his present restaurant. He intends in the future to devote practically his entire time to the restaurant business and cater particularly to automobile parties and out of town visitors, but at the same time will welcome all home trade.

He has conducted a restaurant here for the past four years and enjoys a good patronage, which he expects to increase with his improved quarters. With such a change of the general hotel life is the only place in town available for transients and there is little competition between the two places as Mr. Atkins will furnish only meals while the Commercial furnishes lodging as well, hence both are enjoyable.

Mrs. Miller will continue to reside in the upper part of her building and Mr. and Mrs. Atkins and family will live in the new house which they have recently erected in the Landover subdivision.

McGowan-Neimeyer. The marriage of Jesse Raymond McGowan to Miss Vera E. Neimeyer took place yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist church, Rev. J. F. Mattison, pastor of that church, officiating.

Jesse McGowan was for some years an employee of the Northwestern railroad, and was the son of the late John McGowan, who was a section of the track between North Crystal Lake and Arlington Heights. He is now engaged on the Hart farm west of town.

Miss Neimeyer has been employed in the Barrington laundry until quite recently and is the daughter of Mrs. Barney Neimeyer, a well known resident of Barrington. Both of these young people are members of the Methodist Episcopal church, and are highly esteemed by all who know them. They will live in the house belonging to John McGowan, in the Hager subdivision. The house has been fully furnished and is ready for occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. McGowan will have the hearty congratulations of many friends and their best wishes for a happy life.

High School Team Wins. The high school baseball team went to Crystal Lake last Friday and defeated the high school team there badly, the score being 11-1. In favor of the local boys. The Crystal Lake pitcher was Edw. Johnson, a former resident of this village, who conducted the game. He took nine runs the first inning, but he gathered up his courage after that and held them down very well for the other eight.

Paul Thoren was the pitcher and Reuben Auerad was the catcher for Barrington team. Thoren pitched a good game, allowing only a few hits, and had good support.

This afternoon the high school team played the Maine township high school team at the O. V. club's grounds.

To Discuss Dust Question. The dust has become so thick of late that it has been very disagreeable and is the cause of much inconvenience, and down-town business men have decided that it is time some action be taken to abate the nuisance, and have called a mass meeting to be held at the village hall next Saturday evening to discuss the advisability of closing the streets of the village. All citizens are most earnestly requested to be present.

Harry Kirschnere and family moved Friday from Mrs. Kate Berghal's house on Hiram street and Grove avenue to the old Kampert home on the Wauconda road, and the Peterson family who have been occupying Miss Daisy Rothman's house, the old Marshall property on Cook and Russell streets, have moved to the Berghal home.

The board of village trustees met at the village hall last Thursday evening and canvassed the votes cast at the recent election, finding the result the same as previously reported. They then allowed the salary bills of the members and village officers after which they adjourned. Monday evening, May 6, the newly elected president and trustees will be installed, the board will organize for the coming year, and the president will announce the committee and committee members. Mr. Lockhart presented William Peters as a trustee, the latter retiring voluntarily after serving on the board a number of years. The board will meet in the parsonage of the church.

WILL REPEAT CONCERT.

Barrington Concert Company Announces Repetition of Entertainment Given Recently.

On April third the Barrington Concert company gave a concert at the Methodist Episcopal church auditorium. The night was bad, raining almost continually, and because of that the audience was small. The orchestra was assisted by Mrs. Emma C. W. Matthews who gave several readings. Mrs. Matthews is so well known here that it hardly seems necessary to say more than that her work, as always, was of a very high grade. The work of the orchestra is capable of seating the auditorium in the case of the violin. In addition to these there was a solo with encore by Miss Arpe of Palestine, the Plagge sisters sang trios to everybody's delight and W. J. Cameron, with Mrs. Cameron at the piano, sang as he knows so well how to do. Of course he did not get off without a recall.

The address of Rev. Mr. Lockhart was on "The Best Man in Barrington" and was a portrayal of the ideal Mr. Barrington. It gave the speaker an opportunity of pointing to some of the weak spots in the average Barringtonian. The hardest hit of all was at the town for putting up with such a depot. "The depot and its surroundings make a most unfavorable impression on strangers coming into the place," he said; "it is like putting the contents of one's back yard in front of the house, a thing that no one would want to do."

H. H. Hubbard was chairman of the meeting and presided with his usual ability and skill. Following the program the club members and their friends adjourned to the church parlors for a social time and to partake of the refreshments provided by the ladies of the church.

Altogether the meeting was one of the most successful of this year. In view of the length of the exercises it was thought best to defer the election of officers until a meeting called for next Monday evening, April 22, at the lecture room of the Methodist church. It is important for the proper continuance of the club that all the members, should, if possible, be present and especially so, as business may be introduced looking to the welfare of the village.

LAKE ZURICH. E. A. Fieck transferred business in Waukegan Monday.

Fred C. Seip is doing jury service in Waukegan this week.

Work on the new school building was commenced this week.

Emil Frank is having his store remodeled for the summer business.

Quite a number of automobile parties were out from Chicago last Sunday.

A new street is being opened up in John Robertson subdivision this week.

Mrs. Mathis and sons, Robert and John, were out from Chicago in their new auto Sunday.

Mrs. Norman Ladd and Miss Emma Schaefer of Libertyville visited their parents here Sunday.

John Hiron went to Wisconsin to buy a new milk cow which he will dispose of at public auction.

John Koffen who had a stroke of paralysis a week ago is slowly recovering under the care of Dr. Wadington.

The base ball club will give their first dance of the season in the Oak Park pavilion a week from Saturday.

Albert Hoffst sold a gasoline engine to Mrs. M. Wilke this week for pumping water on her farm near Lake's corners.

There is some talk here of starting a state bank in this village. It would be welcomed by the citizens and especially the business people of Lake Zurich.

Pul-motor at Des Plaines. The Northwest-Car Light & Coke company has purchased a pul-motor for use in bringing to life persons who have been near asphyxiation or drowning. The machines are, of course, intended primarily for the use of their patrons and workmen in case of gas accidents but they will be gladly loaned in case of any accidents, wherever they are available. The nearest one is stationed at Des Plaines and its existence and location should be remembered by local people and physicians.

6:30 p. m. Sunday. Mrs. J. A. Callie leads the Epworth league devotional service. The topic will be, "The Italian in America."

Last Sunday evening Melville S. Bayder, first vice president of the district league of Chicago led the meeting and made a very favorable impression. He is a young business man in one of the large offices in the city, and a constant accession to the church and league.

9:30 a. m. Sunday. The Sunday school meets. Lesson subject, "The Selling of Joseph into Egypt." Before the lesson five minutes will be given to hearing reports from the Cook county Sunday school convention. Miss Kinsley and others will speak briefly. H. P. Castle gave a partial report last Sunday.

The contest which has been in progress in the Sunday school for some months closes next Sunday. The thing next in order will be the banquet provided by the defeated side. The contest between the "reds" and the "blues" has materially helped in securing regularity of attendance, and indirectly has served to increase the membership. There were four successful last Sunday, an attendance of 112 and a collection of between four and five dollars.

Persons not attending elsewhere, go on or old, will find a hearty welcome here.

Engineer on Janesville Road. James Lewis, a railroad man, who was a resident of this village 25 years ago and has been engineer on the "Janesville" train for many years, died at his home in Janesville last Friday. His death came very suddenly and heart disease was attributed as the cause. He was 65 years old.

The funeral was held Monday and was attended by Mrs. Nellie Robertson, F. T. Seaver, Franklin Woodding and Robert Darvell of this village. His widow survives him.

Notes to Odd Fellows. On the 22nd inst. a number of members of Barrington lodge number 85, I. O. O. F. will celebrate the ninety-fourth anniversary of the institution of the lodge in America by attending special services at the Temple church at 7:30 p. m. The lodge is composed of the following members: J. A. Callie, president; H. P. Castle, secretary; and others.

FAVOR HIRING OF SOIL-EXPERT

Large Crowd Attends Meeting at Libertyville Saturday—Local Men on the Committee.

The Lyric theater at Libertyville was filled to its capacity last Saturday by men who had come to listen to the plan for securing a soil expert for Lake county. No speaker ever had a more intensely interested audience than did Prof. W. G. Eckhardt of DeKalb county in his address of "Soil Improvement." DeKalb county was the pioneer in the idea of the formation of a soil improvement association and the hiring of an expert to advise with the farmers, and secured Prof. Eckhardt a year ago. The plan proved so valuable there that it has been adopted by McHenry and Kane counties, and Lake county farmers are favoring the movement strongly.

Following Prof. Eckhardt's address, which was illustrated with stereoscopic views showing results which had been achieved by him in DeKalb county, a short business meeting was held and crop improvement township committees of the Lake County Agricultural board were appointed. For Cubes township those appointed were: Fred Kirschnere, E. W. Riley, M. T. Laney and Vincent Davlin; in Wauconda township they were: R. C. Kent, Homer Cook, G. D. Stroker, F. L. Carr, E. W. Brooks and William Brooks.

The committee of supervisors appointed to consider the soil expert matter attended the meeting and reported at a meeting of the board of supervisors Monday that they were much impressed with the idea of bringing a soil expert, and considered that it would be a wise step.

E. W. Riley and John Welch were the only men from Cubes township to attend the meeting.

WAUCONDA. E. W. Brooks spent Friday in Waukegan.

Harry Haggerty is running a new Ford auto.

Frank Rosay transacted business in Chicago Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark spent Friday in Woodstock.

Mrs. M. S. Ford and Miss Lora Harrison spent Monday in Chicago.

Will Shaw and family of Rockfeller spent Sunday at J. B. Turnbull's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gilbert spent Sunday with relatives at North Crystal Lake.

Mrs. Kittle Miller and Miss Della Kirschnere spent the first of the week in Chicago.

Dr. Davies and wife of Belvidere have been the guest of relatives here for the past few days.

C. E. Jenks entertained a number of friends from Chicago Sunday including Mr. and Mrs. Huff.

C. L. Pratt and John Maurer are white-washing the stables at the Libertyville race track.

Mrs. Lyle Sowles returned to Grayslake Friday after a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Glynch.

Mrs. Ahren and family will move into the house formerly occupied by Erickson Oaks and family.

Miss Emily Bates, Mrs. Ned Duers, Miss Hazel Duers and Mrs. F. L. Carr were Chicago visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Carr spent Saturday in Libertyville, the former attending the farmer's convention held there.

George Jepson has received news of the serious illness of his mother in Vermont and may be called to go at any time.

William Tidmarsh received the news that his son Arthur's wife lies at the point of death at their home in Hudson Falls, New York.

Richard Haesler and family visited the first of the week with relatives here. They will move in the near future from Des Plaines to Grayslake.

Mrs. Henry Schaefer and friend of McHenry were recently calling on the former's grandmother, Mrs. Geary, who has been quite poorly of late, and who will be 100 years old in May.

A number of young people from here attended the dance at Round Lake Saturday night, among them were Arthur Dally, Howard Hutchinson, Leighton Tiffany, Willie Dally, Lewis Cook, Lloyd Thern, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carr and Misses Fern Hutchinson, Teresa Donovan, Beatrice Kimball, Ruth Brownson, Nellie Tiffany and Ethel Jayne.

Card of Thanks. We wish to heartily thank all for the sympathy shown on the death of our dear friend, Mrs. F. L. Carr, who died April 22nd.

Mrs. A. F. Carr and Family.

LOCATION OF GOOD ROADS

In Its Report to the Legislature the Committee Which Investigated Highways Says:

"In five contiguous counties in the northeastern corner, over one-half of the public roads are improved, Kane (42.58 per cent.), McHenry, DuPage, Cook and Kendall. These counties are the only ones in the State where the percentage of improved roads is over 40 per cent. In the next group are DeKalb, Lake, Bureau, LaSalle, and will each have from 25 to 40 per cent. of their roads improved. These twelve northeastern counties contain nearly one-third of all the improved roads in the State, and nearly one-half of all the public roads in this group of counties are improved roads.

"A second main group of counties includes those with from 10 to 25 per cent. of improved roads. This includes fourteen counties—Peoria, Edgar, Whiteside, Ogle, Rock Island, Grundy, Vermilion, Putnam, Lee, Macon, Ford, Adams, Stephenson and McLean. Several of these are north of the Illinois river, and near the northeastern corner of the State; but others are counties in the central part of the State, usually containing a city of some size. These fourteen counties contain more than a fifth of the improved roads in Illinois.

"The twenty-six counties in these two groups, with about 90 per cent. of the total public roads in the State, contain nearly 90 per cent. of all the improved roads.

"The remaining seventy-six counties, comprising five-eighths of the area and with 70 per cent. of the total mileage of public roads, had in 1909 less than 900 miles of improved roads, but little more than one per cent. of the total mileage of public roads in these counties. The reports of the rural carriers for these counties for 1912 show a total of 1,400 miles of improved roads for these counties in 1912, which is more than 60 per cent. larger than the data for 1909. But even these figures amount to little more than three per cent. of the mileage of rural routes reported, and barely two per cent. of the total mileage of public roads in these counties."

Permanent Road Improvement.

In reply to the question as to the per cent. of the labor and money expended upon the roads which secures results of a permanent character, 641 rural letter carriers reported very little or none, while those averaging in percentage figures averaged 36.3 per cent., says the report of the Tice investigating committee of the legislature.

The counties from which the percentages averaged over 50 per cent. were: Alexander, 56; Boone, 72; Cook, 64; Putnam, 58; Kane, 57; Lake, 54; Will, 53; DeKalb, 53; McDonough, 51; Henry, 51; McHenry, 51; Kendall, 50. All of these except Alexander are in the northern part of the State. The counties from which the smallest percentages were reported were: Hardin, 6; Calhoun, 6; Monroe, 10; Perry, 16; Macon, 17; Jasper, 17.

The farm is worth more when it is on the side of a good road.

Gov. Dunne and Good Roads.
One of the strong features of the inaugural address of Governor Dunne is the portion relating to the good roads question. The governor shows a surprisingly familiar grasp of all the details of this important topic and considered it from a broad viewpoint. There are few who will not agree with him when he says that the entire citizenship of the State is affected by the present bad condition of Illinois roads and that, therefore, the State should spend in building good roads.

Wise the governor points out that the main highways carry the great bulk of the traffic and suggests that the State aid the cities in improving these main thoroughfares. He also advocates the compulsory use of the road fund on such roads and that the State automobile tax fund, which will amount to about $750,000 by July, be used as the nucleus of a State aid fund. It is his further suggestion that, contrary to the usual practice, the State should employ more and more money in the improvement of road material and that short-term contracts be made in total road work when necessary.

The governor's suggestions are actively provided. If they are carried out Illinois will be in the way of having $1,000,000 that is now wasted in the way of road work and will get increased money to show for it. There may be details of this important question on which there may be a difference of opinion, but the governor's suggestions are sound and will receive the warm support of the committee of the legislature and the people of the State.

AT THE CHICAGO THEATRES

PRINCESS.
William Collier, America's foremost farceur and wit, plays in support at the Princess theatre, Chicago, in his newest farce play "Never Say Die" in which he was seen for nearly six months at the Forty-Eighth Street theatre in New York City. With him is the entire New York cast without the change of a single name.

For continuous and uninterupted laughter "Never Say Die" has been equalled on the American stage in recent years.

Doing so hardly be considered a humorous business and yet it furnishes the basis for a clever new play. The story concerns the adventures of a young American millionaire who finds himself prey to a complication of diseases and who is doomed to die within a month by a distinguished English specialist. He has a friend who is engaged to marry a charming young girl but who finds himself unable to do so because of his poverty. The young millionaire, believing himself doomed to certain death, proposes to marry the young lady, she to leave him immediately following the ceremony and await his death. Having no relatives he plans to leave his entire fortune thus enabling both she and his friend to marry and live in luxury. The ceremony takes place but instead of dying the young man immediately begins to recover and from this point on a number of exceedingly humorous situations arise.

Expensive Taste.

A woman who tastes in France is said to earn nearly $25,000 a year, as her services are in good demand. Not many women have adopted this profession, but a half dozen or so have been famed for their powers. It takes a rare sense of taste to be able to tell as soon as a drop of wine touches the tongue in just what part of the world the grapes are grown.

Many who suffer with backache and weak kidneys are miserably irritable and fretful. Bad kidneys fail to eliminate all the uric acid from the system, keeping you "on edge" and causing rheumatic, neuritic pain.

When your back aches, and you notice signs of bladder irregularities, inspect your kidneys and begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, the best recommended special kidney remedy.

"THE CLIMATE OF WESTERN CANADA."

AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN CANADA'S IMMIGRATION.

A letter dated February 3, 1913, published in a "People's Voice" column in a Swedish paper, while dealing with other conditions in Canada, such as grain yield, social conditions, etc., says: "We have had fine weather until New Year's, when some snow fell and it was cold for a few days, but during the past few days we have lovely weather again." The writer, who lives near Davidson, Sask., says they got from 30 to 35 bushels of wheat per acre, 60 bushels of oats and about 20 bushels of flax. All homesteads are taken in the vicinity, but wild land can be bought at reasonable figures. Word from Alberta gives the information that up to the 12nd of February there were eight-four and a quarter hours of bright sunshine, but that did not come up to the corresponding month of 1912, when the meteorological department registered 120 hours for the 29 days.

February was exceptionally fine all through, but 1912 was one better, and was a glorious month. However, taking the weather generally throughout the northern hemisphere, February has been marked by serious and severe disturbances resulting in heavy storms, bad weather and low temperatures in many other parts.

The coldest temperature this week occurred on Tuesday morning, when the thermometer registered 23.5 below, and the coldest Wednesday was 11 below. During the last fortnight of February 5 and 6.7 hours of bright sunshine spread its glorious rays over Edmonton, and this put of a possible total of about ten hours is something to talk about.—Advertiser.

The Holy Spirit

By REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D.D.
 Dean of the Holy Trinity, London, Chicago

TEXT.—"Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed?" Acts XIX. 1.

Paul met certain disciples in Ephesus whom at first he supposed to be Christian disciples, but in whose testimony there was that which led to the inquiry, "Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed?" It is evident, therefore, from these words and from the sequel that it is one thing to be a disciple, and another thing to "receive the Holy Ghost." This brings up the whole question as to the relation of the Holy Spirit to the disciple, or the believer in Christ.

1. The personality of the Holy Spirit. We should keep in mind that the Holy Spirit is a divine person. Personality consists in self-consciousness and free will, and that the Holy Spirit possesses personality in this sense is evident from three things: (a) He has the attributes of personality; (b) He does the works of a personality; (c) He has the right of a personality. Speaking of his attributes, there is one which, more than any other, helps to a realization of his personality. His attribute of love, which is referred to only in Romans 15:30. Do you know that the Holy Spirit loves you, as a believer in Christ, with a love in some sense distinct from that of either the Father or the Son? How marvelously near that brings him to our hearts! The Father's love manifested itself in the giving of his Son; the Son's love in the offering of himself upon the cross, and the Holy Spirit's love in taking up his abode in us.

2. The indwelling of the Holy Spirit. This brings us to the second thought, viz., the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. That indwelling was promised in John 14:16-17. He had dwelt "with" the disciples therefore, but he was to dwell "in them" by and by. He had been as a power acting on them from without, but thereafter he was to influence them from within. The promise was renewed again in Acts 1:4-5, where the indwelling was spoken of as the "baptism" of the Holy Spirit. The realization came on the day of Pentecost, when the disciples were indwelt, baptized and filled with the Holy Spirit at one and the same time.

This transaction, however, as far as the first two terms are concerned, was not limited to the church assembled on that day, but applies to the whole church since. Such would seem to be suggested by 1. Corinthians 12:13, where 20 years after Pentecost we are taught that as believers "we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body." What "body" is meant if not the body of Christ, the church? And that "baptism" if not that "one baptism" on the day of Pentecost?

3. The filling of the Holy Spirit. This brings us to the third term of that transaction on the day of Pentecost, the indwelling and the baptism (which are one) were for the whole church potentially, and for all time, yet the same does not apply to the third, the filling of the Holy Spirit. There is but one indwelling, but many fillings. We gather this from Acts 5:31, where the same persons who were "filled" on the day of Pentecost were re-filled on a subsequent occasion. And again, in Acts 8, when men are to be chosen to the office of deacon it must be by those who are "full of the Holy Spirit," as if some were thus spiritually equipped while others were not. It is something corresponding to this, therefore, which Paul has in mind in our text, when he said: "Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed?" The reception of the Holy Ghost on their part resulted in an enlargement of power, but in other places of the Acts, notably the fourth chapter, it is seen to have resulted not only in the spirit of power, but of unity and love. It is this that we ministers, evangelists and Christian workers need and that the whole church needs in order to accomplish her mission for Jesus Christ on earth.

How may the filling of the Holy Spirit be received by the believer on the Lord Jesus Christ? Prayer, obedience and faith seem to be the only conditions, if they may be called conditions. Speaking of faith, there is a sense in which the gift of the Holy Spirit, i. e., the filling of the Holy Spirit, should be received by us daily. It is not an act, or an act of that by which we laid hold of salvation through Jesus Christ; but this faith is not likely to be experienced where there is not power. "And give us the Holy Ghost to them that obey him." Peter says (Acts V.), and this agrees perfectly with the teaching of the Old Testament in Proverbs 1:1. There are no sayings which I will pour out my spirit unto you. Nor is this substance merely coincidental with some great thing, but it is in itself an end.

NEWS FROM FATHERLAND

A Brief Resume of the Most Important Happenings in the German Empire.

The Austro-American Steamship Company has had a good year, and has declared a dividend of eight per cent.

The Vienna Zeit claims that next summer the reichstag will receive a bill for adding 50,000 men to the peace footing of the army.

Otto Schlick, the inventor of the ship's gyroscope for preventing the rolling of vessels at sea, died in Hamburg at the age of 73 years.

Essen.—The local Socialist Democratic party has sent a request to the Reichstag miners not to work overtime for the purpose of exporting coal to Belgium.

The government of Austria-Hungary has announced that an arms factory is to be established at Raab. The local government has granted a large piece of ground for the plant.

A German paper says that the coal miners in the Silesian district is imminent. Meetings are being held daily throughout the district, and it is expected 100,000 men will go out on strike.

The Emperor and the Kaiser at Hamburg. This gives the newspapers a new chance to express their satisfaction with the reconciliation between the imperial family and the Cumberland family.

As Bismarck, at the height of his power, was very popular in America, so the J. Pierpont Morgan was highly appreciated in Germany, and the German press is generally warm in praise of his career. The Tageblatt of Berlin describes him as "a genius of finance who astonished the world by having directed railroads and rehabilitating them, who called into being the mightiest Steel Trust and the globe-encircling Shipping Trust." The Vossische Zeitung mentions that over Jim Fisk and Jay Gould, and gives him the credit of putting American finance on a new and more honorable basis.

The launching of the Zeppelin cruiser "Z. 1" in France is considered to have been an unfortunate affair in many ways. In the first place there was bonfire on board the ship only for a six-hour run. After the French had taken possession of the balloon the Germans were not permitted to return to it until the next day, and they lost sight of the ship. It is open French soldiers and crowds of curious people walked all through the ship. Measurements were made with great care, and photographs were taken. The conduct of the French officers is claimed to have been far from chivalrous. The Tagliche Rundschau says that the incident was scandalous and that the management of the airship was beyond comprehension.

Theodore Roosevelt stayed a while in Dresden while in his teens. In his autobiography he says about the impressions which he received during that stay: "Above all, I gained an impression of the German people which I never got over. From that time to this it would have been quite impossible to make me feel that the Germans were really foreigners. The affection, the 'gemutlichkeit' (a quality which cannot be exactly expressed by single English words), the capacity for hard work, the sense of duty, the delight in studying literature and science, the pride in the new Germany, the more than kind and friendly interest in three strange children—all these manifestations of the German character and of German family life made a subconscious impression upon me which I did not in the least define at the time, but which is very vivid still forty years later."

Kristiania, Norway.—Pallure has overtaken the German Arctic expedition under Lieutenant Schroeder-Stranz. Most of the members are believed to have died from exposure or scurvy, and the commander-in-chief is missing. Four of the men have succeeded in returning to Advent Bay, Spitzbergen, and two others probably are safe at Treurenburg bay. The aviator and coast pilot started. Nothing has been heard from Lieutenant Schroeder-Stranz since he started on a sledge expedition alone in August last year. Captain Ritschel, the first news of the fate of the expedition in January, when he returned to Advent Bay and was thought to be the only survivor. A dispatch from Spitzbergen has revived hopes that a few others may be alive. Among the party, besides the officers and crew, were several German scientists, including a zoologist, a botanist, and an oceanographer. Experience of polar work was almost entirely lacking and the equipment was said to be very poor.

In spite of the powerful current of national feeling which prevails in Germany at this moment, Dr. Liebknecht, a Social Democrat, took occasion to show in a most reckless manner the Prussia of today, as well as the students of the country and their patriotism. Afterwards the leaders of the other parties took him severely to task for his behavior. Dr. von Sigmund, a member of the Center, or Catholic party, spoke very sharply and declared that no parliamentarian would countenance such conduct as that which Dr. Liebknecht had shown toward his country.

Age of Specialists.

There is much of great significance in the report by local experts that, side by side with the inability of a great many men and women to procure employment, there is the inability of employers to get workers to fill the places they have open. This statement reveals clearly that under the complicated processes of modern industry a man's willingness to work is far from qualifying him for work waiting to be done. The person wishing to be sure of employment must specialize in one or more of the many classes of work for which there seems always to be a scarcity of labor. As emphasized in the report referred to, the person who relies upon his ability to perform unspecialized tasks will find himself in constant competition with the three or four like himself to quest of the one job open for them. The very best advice that can be given to a young man or woman today is this: Learn to do some one thing better than most other persons can do it. Specialize and keep up to date in your specialty. There is no end of work to be done in the world and not nearly enough people who know how to do it.—Phila. Telegraph.

Value of Lumber.

There is no one nowadays who indulges in the luxury of the building, or who attempts an investment in the building line, who does not realize that lumber is scarce in this country and that lumber is high in price and not always of best quality. The science of forestry has a great field before it and it is to be hoped that the present generation will respond enthusiastically and intelligently to its own profit and the profit of those who are to come afterwards. The rails which a member of the Illinois convention exhibited and declared were split for him by Abraham Lincoln would be priceless now, but at the time of the incident they were not in it with the present value of cedar rails from fences in Georgia. The demand for lumber is such that Georgia farmers are selling the cedar rails which their farms were fenced a comparatively few years ago. The Lexington (Georgia). Progress states that one farmer in Rutland county recently received $7,000 for the cedar rails on his farm, and there are said to be other farmers having as many to sell.—Manchester Union.

Beautiful London Women.
All the prices at the Folies-Belleville (England) beauty show this summer were won by London residents. This bears out the opinion expressed by Sir Francis Galton, whose passion for eugenics led him to gather materials for a beauty map of the British Isles. He perambulated the streets of many towns, carrying an instrument in his pocket with which he pricked different sized holes in a piece of paper, and thus classed every woman he met as attractive, indifferent or repellent. At the end of his investigation he declared that "London ranks highest for female beauty and Aberdeen lowest."

How Kansas Got Its Name.
The late Colonel Inman always insisted that Kansas got its name through mistake of a procreator. The early Kansas Indians were Kaws, a diminutive of Kansas. In revising the works of a missionary the procreator mistook the "a" for an inverted "n" and changed it to "n." Since then it has been Kansas.

Retort Imperative.

Fenelon had repeatedly boned Richelieu for subscriptions to various charitable schemes and the cardinal always retorted upon him. One day Fenelon was telling him that he had been looking at his (Richelieu's) new picture. "Did you ask it for a subscription?" inquired the cardinal. "No; I saw there was no chance," replied Fenelon; "it looked so much like you."
