VILLAGE BOARD MEETS IN REGULAR SESSION

Trustees Transact Routine Business and Allow Monthly Bills Monday Night.

ALL BUT $100 PAID ON SEPTIC TANK

Committee Reports "No Street Lights in Morning"—Arrangements May Yet Be Made.

The village board met in regular session at the village hall Monday evening with all members present except Trustee Lageschulte, who was ill and unable to attend.

The minutes of the previous meeting and the treasurer's monthly report for November were read and approved. The bill of Frank L. Stone, engineer in the building of the septic tank, for $104.45, balance due him under contract, was allowed and ordered paid. This bill had been laid over at a prior meeting.

A. M. Lanyon, contractor for the building of the septic tank, was present and requested that his bill be accepted and that he be paid the balance due him under contract of $629.80, leaving $100 in reserve. This motion was carried. Final acceptance of the job was delayed until a report on the work was given by Engineer Stone.

The bill of the Pacific Plank Tank company for $80 for license was laid over.

The members to whom was referred the matter of securing street lights in the morning, reported that they had taken the matter up with L. C. Stephens, superintendent for the Public Service company of this district, and that he said the company would be glad to enter into a new contract for lights to burn on every night, all night schedule, but that their general contract agent said that they were not in a position to furnish the morning service as desired. The village does not feel able to pay extra cost of maintaining all night schedule and it is hoped that some arrangement may be made to secure the service desired from the company.

Raymond Hager complained that Mrs. A. E. Keeler and daughter Irene, who are his neighbors, were disturbing the peace and desired that some action be taken against them. He was referred to H. P. Castle, village attorney.

ASK HELP FOR POOR

Barrington Churches Wish to Aid in Clothing and Feeding Chicago's Poor.

By Rev. O. F. MATTHEWSON

Persons having clothing they can spare for the poor of Chicago may send it to the Methodist church in Barrington, and it will be used for and sent to the mission on South Wabash avenue. A call from there for help has just been given. The present prospect is that an unusually large number of persons in the city will be out of work this winter.

The board of United Charities is seeking to raise a fund of $350,000 in satisfaction of the coming need.

Boltoners of funds are being appointed in the different Chicago churches. Persons in Barrington who would like to contribute money, can hand it to any of the pastors, and it will be sent to the United Charities.

THANKSGIVING SERMON LAUDED

George E. Lockhart Praised by Beloit Papers for Forceful Speech.

Rev. George E. Lockhart, former pastor of the local Baptist church, and one of the present pastors, who is now in charge of the First Baptist church of Beloit, had charge of the Thanksgiving service in that city last week.

The Beloit Daily Free Press has this to say about Rev. George E. Lockhart's Thanksgiving sermon: "A fine audience attended the Thanksgiving service Thursday morning in the Baptist church. The Rev. George E. Lockhart made one of the most brilliant speeches for such an occasion heard in this city in a long time. He dealt with the dangers to American citizenship and American opportunity in a most comprehensive, forceful and entertaining way."

The Beloit Daily News said of the same sermon: "The sermon was forceful in manner, the congregation was large and the musical program was finely given."

Advertising Pays.

A. W. Meyer, proprietor of "The Big Store," has always been an enthusiastic believer in advertising, and through its medium has built a modern department store in this village from a small beginning. Lately he has been devoting almost his entire advertising expenditure to newspaper advertising, and this week the REVIEW carries a notice for four departments of the establishment, wherein many bargains are displayed.

Mr. Meyer backs up his announcements by giving good service and selling the good merchandise at reasonable prices as every successful advertiser must do.

Advertising won't sell "a pig in a poke," but if you can "deliver the goods" it's the next greatest factor towards your success in business. People have learned that the store that advertises continuously is one where they can buy to the best advantage.

Ernest S. Smith, principal of the local schools, is secretary of the association.

The Governor's action follows the lead of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, which has chosen December 7 for a special study of the white plague situation. CARY BAZAR WONDERFUL SUCCESS

Original Four Days Increased by One—Barrington Booth "Shop of the 400."

St. Peter's and St. Paul's Catholic parish of Cary experienced another wonderful success in the bazar held during the past week. It was thought for a time by the management that the unfavorable weather might dampen the ardor and zeal of bazar patrons and workers, but when the receipts were counted up on Monday evening at the bazar had been run over a fifth evening, it was found that the total came very much over the expectations. It is safe to say under more auspicious conditions the record of last year would have been broken and $10,000 more realized. The gross receipts amounted to close to $20,000 and when the expenses of the bazar are made, it may slightly exceed that sum. While nearly all of the more expensive and beautiful prizes were donated, still the expenses of decorations and other things which had to be purchased will amount to about $500, which will leave a balance of $1,400 to be used in reducing the debt on the new edifice.

The hall presented a most pleasing sight with its magnificent decorations and many varied booths, which were complete and conducted in the most expert manner. One of the features was the booth known as "Barrington Booth," which, owing to its splendid and striking appearance, beauty and costliness of contents immediately was designated by bazar patrons as the "shop of the 400." Barrington Booth certainly had reason to be proud of their feature and too much praise cannot be given to the officers, who had charge of the bazar.

After his address the prizes were awarded to their fortunate winners. In this likewise Barrington received its fair share. As a grand finale brought the bazar to a close, Mrs. Mamie Allan of Cary, who through her own efforts realized $225.00, was called to the platform and presented with a diamond ring the gift of Mrs. Charles Gies, the mother of Rev. Joseph L. Gies.

One who was present Monday evening will soon forget the scene at midnight when the pastor surrounded by his bazar managers and committee addressed the crowded hall. He congratulated the workers and thanked in his own name and that of the parish, the patrons, many of whom had come from distant places, and the earnest workers, who had so ably endeavored to make the bazar a success. He promised a carnival or bazaar festival for next year.

After his address the prizes were awarded to their fortunate winners. In this likewise Barrington received its fair share. As a grand finale brought the bazar to a close, Mrs. Mamie Allan of Cary, who through her own efforts realized $225.00, was called to the platform and presented with a diamond ring the gift of Mrs. Charles Gies, the mother of Rev. MRS. CLINGE DEAD

Aged Barrington Woman Passed Away Monday Evening—Funeral to Be Held Tomorrow.

Mrs. Bernadine Clinge, (nee Lageschulte), widow of John Clinge, who died August 19, 1903, died at her home on Cook street, near the cemetery street, at midnight Monday evening. She had been in poor health during the summer, but had practically regained her usual state of mind and bowel trouble Sunday caused her death.

Mrs. Clinge was born in Schalle, Germany, October 30, 1840, and was married in 1859 when they came to America and settled in Northfield township, Cook county. Afterward they lived on a farm near Waukegan for three years and on a farm in Barrington township for several years, moving to this village 18 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinge were the parents of young children, five of whom are living. They are: Eliza (Mrs. Edward Horn), and Bernard of Barrington, William and Emma, (Mrs. Ole Erickson) in the suburbs of Minneapolis, and Lester Adams of Coddingtown, Wisconsin.

She was a member of the Frauenverein of St. Paul's church. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at St. Paul's church, Rev. Eugene Wilkins, pastor, of that church officiating, and interment will be in Evergreen cemetery.

SCHOOLS TO HELP COUNTRY LIFE

Social Problem Greatest One in the Rural Districts Says County Superintendent Tobin.

Edward J. Tobin, superintendent of schools of Cook county, in an address last week before the Massachusetts Teachers' association at Boston, discussed the rural life problem, advising other schools to follow out the plan employed in Cook county, engaging a country director as part of the teaching force. He said:

"Owing to the extreme high prices of the necessities of life, brought about chiefly by the transfer of producing country boys and girls into consuming city dwellers, I think that we will all agree that we have reached a stage in which an effort should be made to increase the proportion of our population, whose lives and energies are engaged in the cultivation of the soil. Before rural life will become popular, it must be adequately, and completely satisfying. Partial satisfaction, even financial satisfaction, will not suffice. An analysis of the United States census report of 1910 will show that the depletion of rural population was greatest in the richest agricultural states.

"The census shows that the rural population of Iowa decreased 7 per cent in the decade, while 68 counties in Illinois showed an annual loss in the rural population. These two states, all agree, are more favorable for agricultural products than any others. This shows that more than financial reward is needed to keep our boys and girls on the farm. Man is naturally a gregarious animal and like geese, cows and wolves he persists in congregating in flocks, herds and droves. Man loves company, especially in the evening. Some one has said that the problem of rural life is what to do in the evening.

"The rural school can do more than any other agency to make rural life socially satisfying. The school is the one common meeting place, the only place where all feel free and equal, the only place where prejudice of race or creed bars none.

"What we need is well paid, well prepared school and country life directors, possessing energy and enthusiasm, who have the ability and the faculty to organize the people of their division, the young and the old, into debating, choral and dramatic societies and farmer's clubs, to organize hawking bees or even old time spelling bees, or who have much to teach. The main thing is that something be done to bring the people together, to add to and variety to the life of the rural districts, so that without losing any of their own attractiveness they may acquire some of that now possessed by cities.

"The rural schools of the United States have been in a deplorable state; they have been shamefully neglected. Many nations we think of as being far beneath us in civilization are so far ahead of us in their rural schools that we could with profit go to school to them to learn how to establish an efficient system.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT GOOD

Lower Grade Pupils Show Talent and Ability in Dramatic Art.

The school entertainment Thanksgiving evening was a delightful little show and the assembly room was well filled with admiring relatives and friends of the children. Mrs. Reuben Plagge, grade teacher, was the stage manager, instructor, musician and on the whole the main factor in the success of the various sketches given. It is not an easy task to train a group of young children to appear dramatically, but everything proceeded so smoothly that one hardly realized the amount of work Mrs. Plagge had put into the rehearsal.

A play about a little girl lost among the fairies and brownies was so cunning and the costumes so adapted to each character that one was surprised to find that each child from little tots to those of twelve or so, took part with amusing mimicry and some real dramatic talent was seen.

Short acts followed of readings, songs, duets, etc., by various aged children. A group of Indians rushed on in full dress parade and marched around in the old time kitchen with a grandpa and grandma therein well staged with a real stove and spinning-wheel; a band of Brownies danced; George Cameron, gotten up as a big turkey banded and sang. Little Miss Smith appeared as a French doll and spoke very sweetly.

Day your wife a Dunlop Pneumatic Sweeper for a Christmas present and save yourself beating rugs. 67-4 FRANK DORNEYER, Agent.

A. M. Lanyon of Waukegan, who had been in the building of the septic tank in this village, was here Monday evening and attended the meeting of the village board.

MUCH DEPENDS UPON SELECTING GOOD SEED

Donald Blair, Agricultural Expert, Gives Advice Concerning Seed Corn, Oats and Hay.

OATS SHOULD BE GRADED TWICE

Weather Often Blamed for Poor Crops When Unwise Selection of Seed Is Cause.

By DONALD BLAIR.

The matter of seed is of extreme importance to every farmer who realizes that we are depending absolutely on what the seed produces for our net return from year to year. Unless the seed produces satisfactorily, the valuation of the land, our investment of machinery is made at a loss, but good crops mean increase in land value and general prosperity.

"Poor seed, poor crops" is a pretty true saying. Each seed contains a complete little plant in itself. The root and stem are developed and all ready for growing, and are supplied with plenty of good material to keep them growing until the roots get firmly implanted in the ground. We can readily understand then why it is necessary to grade oats, for instance. The poorly developed seed will give the plant a poor start, and especially in an off year, and will naturally result in smaller crops.

In seed corn we always select as uniform a seed as possible, because we know that it will produce more uniform plants, and then again after seed corn is tested, we throw out the weak or plant for the simple reason that they will produce the same kind of plants and maximum crops can only be had by using the strongest, most vigorous seed produced by strong, vigorous plants the year previous.

I firmly believe that one of the chief reasons that we have not taken the same care in selecting the seed as we do live stock is the fact that seed is smaller, the organs are more compact and it is more difficult to examine or mother, harder to understand. It is a fundamental law that plant and animal life are identical, and the rules that govern one will most assuredly govern the other, and if we are sure of the percentage of this year's seed, carefully selected, we are generally sure, barring adverse weather conditions, as to the kind of crop we will have.

It is thoroughly essential that oats be graded, if possible not once but twice. Every ear of corn should be selected and tested for germination. I have heard a great many people say they could always tell whether seed corn would grow or not by looking at it, and I have had some of these same people in years gone by, bring their samples to my laboratory and test them, and we generally found that the matter of sight in this particular case was not to be trusted. It does not pay to take a chance. Too much depends on the result.

When you buy clover seed, for instance, be sure that it is free and try to get northern grown seed, which will produce the strongest plants. Alfalfa one must buy very carefully for there are several distinct strains of alfalfa seed for sale generally. There is the Turkistan, or imported seed; the southern grown irrigated seed, the southern grown dry land and western grown irrigated seed, and western grown dry land. If it is possible, secure the western northern grown dry land, but by all means do not, and be careful of the Turkistan or imported stuff.

It is only after experimenting with seed for so many years that one can have very important information, that I advise you in regard to this: I personally have sown so many seeds here the weather and things in general were blamed when in reality it was simply a matter of unwise seed selection.

GERMAN CONSUL COMING.

Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany Sends Bible, Inscribed With His Autograph, to St. Paul's Church.

Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany has made St. Paul's church of this village a present of a German bible inscribed with a verse in his own handwriting and bearing his autograph. The bible will be delivered to Rev. Eugene Wilkins, pastor of the church, by the German consul from the Chicago consulate.

The fact that this church celebrated its fiftieth anniversary this year prompted the Kaiser to make this gift. Rev. Wilkins informed him of the jubilee celebration a month ago. The presentation will be made at the morning service next Sunday.

INDIANA CASE IS DECIDED

Upholds Right of State Court to Prevent Government From Submitting to People New Constitution Forged by Legislature.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The Illinois child labor law, which prohibits the employment of boys under sixteen years of age, at dangerous occupations, was declared valid in a decision of the Supreme court Monday.

Justice Hughes, who delivered the opinion, said that manufacturers of Illinois could be compelled by the state "at their peril to ascertain the ages of children employed by them and declared there could be no possible constitutional objection to the law."

That the state courts of Indiana had the right to prevent the government and state officials from submitting to the people for adoption a new constitution framed by the legislature in 1911, was the decision of the Supreme court.

ARMY DEFEATS NAVY

SOLDIERS SPRING SURPRISE BY DEFEATING SAILORS.

Annapolis Boys Are Outclassed From the Start by the West Pointers.

New York, Dec. 2.—The president of the United States and members of his cabinet, together with 42,000 patriotic Americans, surrounded the gridiron in the Brush stadium on Saturday and saw the West Point football eleven furnish a stunning surprise by conquering the midshipmen from Annapolis by a score of 22 to 9.

From the standpoint of the spectators the game and its setting lost nothing of its thrilling grip and interest as a result, and the 42,000 persons present gasped and cheered by turns at the kaleidoscopic playing scenes depicted. The uses of the forward pass repeatedly by the cadets opened up the play to a far greater extent than the more conservative line attack and runs of the midshipmen.

KILL IN STRIKE RIOT

NEGRO SLAIN AND FOUR PER-SONS ARE WOUNDED IN FIGHT AT INDIANAPOLIS.

SPECIAL POLICE USE GUNS

Men Employed to Guard Ice Company's Wagon Shot When Attempt Is Made to Block Way—Officers Arrest Five Special Policemen.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 4.—A negro was killed, another was probably fatally wounded and two were shot but not seriously wounded in a strike riot at Indiana and Capitol avenues on Tuesday. The dead man is Claude Lewis, J. M. Mason, a negro barber, was shot in the abdomen and is not expected to live. John Ashby, a white man, was shot through the foot. Archie Smith, a negro saloon porter, was shot through the shoulder.

The shooting was done by three negroes and two white men—employees of the Citizens' Ice company, who had been deputized with special police power.

The men on the ice wagon drove up to a saloon on Indiana avenue and started to unload some ice. A crowd gathered around and some rocks were thrown. Suddenly some men in the melee pulled a gun and shot and then four or five shots rang out in rapid succession.

Bicycle policemen rushed to the scene and other emergency police soon got there. They found one negro dead, two others and one white man shot. They took the five ice company deputies in charge.

The special police on the ice wagon claim that some one in the crowd fired first, but witnesses to the accident declared that no one in the crowd fired at all—that all the shooting was done by the men on the ice wagon.

While Claude Lewis, negro, was being taken to the morgue it was discovered that he was not yet dead and he was rushed to a hospital, where he died within a few minutes. Lewis was a spectator.

CHICAGO STREET DOPS 6 FEET

Half Block of Pavement Sinks and Buildings Are Periled—Big Maine Break.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Randolph street, from North Wabash avenue half way to State street, caved in on Tuesday night when two water mains broke, endangering two of the largest buildings within the loop, Marshall Field's retail store and the Masonic temple.

The cave-in occurred a few seconds after an Archer avenue car containing more than a score of passengers had traversed the track directly over the broken main. At one point the pavement sank to a point 12 feet below the street level.

The break occurred at 10:55 o'clock, at an hour when several loop theaters were pouring forth their crowds into the streets. People thronged to the scene of the cave-in, attracted by swiftly flying reports that the Marshall Field building and the Masonic temple were in danger of collapsing and falling into the streets. Fire companies and squads of police arrived early on the scene to shut off the water.

The first cave-in occurred directly in front of the entrance of the new addition of Marshall Field's store which is being erected on the southeast corner of North Wabash avenue and East Randolph street, on the site of the old Trade building. Scores of laborers who were at work on the structure fled to the street in terror.

30-FOOT WAVE FATAL TO 10

Water Coming Down Nolan Creek
Floods Belton, Tex., and Causes Death.

Belton, Tex., Dec. 4.—Ten persons were reported to have perished in a 30-foot wave which came without warning down Nolan creek before daybreak. The creek runs through the center of this city. Fifty houses along the creek's banks in Belton were swept away. In the heart of the town Mrs. W. C. Polk and her four children drowned. Polk, carrying the fifth child, an infant, escaped to high ground. Five fatalities, a man, his wife and three children—were reported in another family, that of a camper. His name was not known here.

When the 30-foot street bridge in Temple, Tex., was demolished by the wave an unidentified man was on the structure. He was seen to go into the water. He believed he perished. The creek's rise was the result of a downpour of four hours' duration.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Dec. 4.—Hundreds of miners, working in shafts of 25 minutes each, struggled to reach three men entombed in the Golden Circle mine here, the property of J. T. Milliken of St. Louis.

Agricultural Fact.
Poisons excreted by past crops and left behind in the soil depress the growth of succeeding crops of the same kind have been reported, and believed in, by agricultural experts. Their theory is disproved by work conducted by the great Rothamsted experimental station in England, and presented in the transactions of the Royal society of London by Alfred D. Hall, F. R. S., and his assistants, Winifred R. Brenchley and Lilian Marion Upton. Their research yielded "no evidence of the existence in soils on which a particular plant had been growing for sixty years and upward of a soluble toxin" having a depressing effect upon the growth of that plant."

SCALP ITCHED AND BURNED

833 South Soloto St., Circleville, Ohio.—"My little girl's trouble started on her head in a bunch of little pimples full of yellow-looking matter and they would spread to large places. In a short time they would open. Her scalp was awfully red and inflamed and the burning and itching were so intense that she would scratch and rub till it would leave ugly sores. The sores also appeared on her body, and her clothing irritated them so that I had to put real soft cloth next to her body. She would have fits of nights and was very worrisome. At times she was tortured with itching and burning."

"I tried different remedies with no benefit for months. I had given up all hope of her ever getting rid of it, then I concluded to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The second application gave relief. In a short time she was entirely cured." (Signed) Mrs. Alice Kirlin, Nov. 4, 1912.

DO YOU WANT A FARM ADVISOR?

The Lake county agricultural improvement society, placing this county on an equal footing with other advanced counties in this section, is fairly under way. At the meeting of the board of supervisors at Waukegan next week the matter of appropriating $2,000 a year for three years to assist in maintaining the society and paying the salary of the farm advisor and the expenses of his office will come before the board. This appropriation is only asked providing $5,000 can be raised from outside sources, making a total of $10,000. It will be easy to raise this amount if the supervisors sanction the project by making the appropriation. In fact much of it is now pledged.

The matter of securing the appropriation is very important, inasmuch as it will mean the sure establishment of the work, while if it should not be made the result is rather doubtful.

Most of our neighboring counties have employed a farm advisor during the past year—some of them for several years, and the farmers of these counties are enthusiastic concerning the work. The REVIEW is heartily in sympathy with the movement and we believe that it will mean a lot to the county as a whole, and further believe that the residents of the county generally are thoroughly in accord with it. Mr. Supervisor, vote for this appropriation, and Mr. Reader, if you would do your duty by yourself and the farmer residents of your county, sign the coupon on this page and forward it at once to Farm Improvement Headquarters, P. O. Box 287, Libertyville, Illinois.

Will Have Electric Lights.

At a meeting of the board of village trustees Monday evening the trustees decided to contract with the Public Service company for lighting the village streets. Twenty 60-candle-power Mazda lights will be installed making this village the best lighted for its size in this section. E. C. Thies of Barrington, local manager for the Public Service company, has visited this village at each meeting the last three months in an attempt to interest the board in lighting the streets with electricity. At first he met with no encouragement, but he has been able to convince the trustees that electric lights will be better and cheaper, and as our village authorities are always on the lookout for modern and up-to-date improvements he had little trouble at the last meeting in getting his contract accepted.

DON'T TRIFLE WITH COUGHS OR COLDS.

Many Have Filled Consumptive Graves Because They Neglected a Cough or Cold.

You never know how soon a cold will become a serious malady. It may be in the head to-day; in the lungs to-morrow; and the next day you may be fighting deadly pneumonia for your life. It's much the same with a cough. Inflamed and cough-worn throat and lungs offer the best chance to consumption germs to begin their murderous work. There's only one way to prevent these deadly diseases getting a hold on you. As soon as a cough or cold attacks you, take Dr. King's New Discovery until you are entirely cured. Sometimes a dose or two will do the business, saving you suffering and a doctor's bill. Thousands of cures like these below prove its wonderful power to cure coughs and colds.

Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption to-day, if I had not used this great remedy."

"I take great pleasure in recommending your Dr. King's New Discovery for the benefit of suffering humanity. It's a thoroughly reliable remedy for all coughs, croup and lung troubles. We have used it in our family for fourteen years with the best results. It saved my mother when two doctors gave her up. She had a very severe case of pneumonia and was in bed seven weeks and part of the time 'out of her mind' so that she did not know me. I told father to get me two 50c bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, which he did, and on taking it she soon began to improve, and four bottles cured her entirely. You may publish this if you wish and I will answer all inquiries, with postage enclosed for reply."

"I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Morton.

"Yours respectfully,
"Wm. Cogger."

The material must be dependable—the style the best designers can devise—the workmanship and finish must be careful and thorough. That is why so many of the women in this community come to us for real value in coats.
