MEET MANY QUEER OBJECTIONS

Fun Committee Have Some Funny Answers From People Who They Ask to Give Donations.

There was a meeting last Thursday evening in the bank directors' room in the Lageschulte building of committees from different organizations of the town who discussed with the committee from the village council the plans for the depot park. John Plagge was chairman. John Braswell was employed to set out stakes showing position of shrubbery to be planted as designed by the horticultural department of the University of Illinois. A committee of citizens was appointed to collect funds for the expense of parking the land which the railway company has donated for the beautifying of the business district and depot surroundings. Those appointed were Mrs. Emily Hawley, Mrs. E. S. Smith, Miles T. Laney, A. W. Meyer and George Hager. George will solicit from non-residents of the village.

The people in the park committee are expected to solicit as large funds as possible and the ladies will accept smaller donations. Those collecting this week have had great insight into big and generous natures and into small ones. Those giving the most hand out the money quickly and placidly; those not donating at all are the ones with all the objections, such as: "I don't like the people who are spending the money;" "I won't give anything because a man interested in promoting the park isn't a tax payer himself;" "I have lived here 77 years and wouldn't give five cents to see a park;" "I don't care to give money because I have no use for a man who was favored in the park design;" and other remarks. Oh, it's a great world.

Tuesday morning G. W. Daily, General Superintendent of the Wisconsin division of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, J. J. Burris, Train Master and C. Neuberg, Road Master, were in town and looked over the proposed park and conditions on the right-of-way with members of the village council, President Laney and President-elect Meyer.

IT'S UP TO US.

A paragraph is flitting around in the press to the effect that "the future may be bright for some, but the road will always be dark for others."

Of course some pessimists write to us for pessimists always mill around in the shadows.

As a matter of hard fact, this world is always just about what we choose to make it.

If we pull a long face and go out hunting for troubles, WE WILL FIND THEM—in bunches.

If we saddle ourselves with a cast of the blues in the morning, and hang on to it with a death grip all day, and take it to bed with us at night, we will probably find life's pathway shrouded in gloom. . . .

But it will be gloom of our own making, and we will be getting only that which we sought.

But how different is the other side! God inflicts us all with certain troubles, but He also gives us, joys, and determination, and a will-power with which to raise above the petty perplexities and tribulations of life.

The bright side of existence is all around us—in front of us—everywhere we turn—constantly knocking for admission.

It is up to the taking.

The man or the woman, who cannot feel thankful for the pure air and the bright sunshine and three meals a day is something less than a normal human being.

Even the animals of the earth and the birds of the air are not so degenerate in their class; for they seek always for the brightness of life.

And our intelligence and our will-power inferior to theirs, that we should live with an angle and with a grudge.

Every trouble inflicted upon us is for our own ultimate good, and they are infinitesimal when compared with the joys of a bright mind, a clear conscience and a determination to rear to the fullness of life's blessings.

If the road is dark to some, it is because they do not use the briars which God gave them in overcoming the obstacles which lie in His wisdom's path placed in their pathway.

Our future is up to us, to make or to mar, as we choose.

A BIG PLUM—GRAHIT.

There's a juicy commercial plum right within our reach.

Prior to the war Russia imported nearly all of her manufactured articles from Germany—enormous quantities of them.

Now Russia seeks to establish direct trade relations with the United States.

She wants to buy her hundreds of millions of dollars worth of supplies from us, and she has the gold with which to pay.

Great possibilities for the future are opened up to the manufacturers of this country—if they will but grasp them.

It will require the adjusting of financial conditions to harmonize with those existing in Russia in the matter of credits, which are quite at variance with our American methods.

But what Germany has been able to do, WE CAN DO—if we try.

It is a simple matter for our manufacturing interests to send representatives to Russia, and pave the way for this tremendous volume of business.

It is too big a plum to cast aside, and it is to be hoped manufacturing and financial men of affairs will be equal to the emergency.

THE MAN WHO ADVERTISES.

There are two classes of merchants—those who ADVERTISE and those who DO NOT.

The man who advertises has the BEST OF THE DEAL.

He keeps HIMSELF before the public—he keeps HIS WARES before the public—and he keeps their PUBLIC MIND.

People TALK about the man who ADVERTISES, because they know he is something WITHIN advertising, and he wouldn't advertise.

Cobwebs never grow in the store of the man who advertises, because he DOES buy his goods, because he DOES advertise.

People READ the advertisements they LOOK for them and EXPECT to find them—and often end in FORGETTING the man who does NOT advertise.

Advertising PAYs.

Get the habit, and GROW WITH YOUR ADOPTS.

BABIES PRETTIER THAN EVER.

Even in the midwest France finds time to rejoice over the fact that babies born during the past six months are healthier and prettier than ever before. It is a source of much pride to the republic.

But pretty babies are becoming an old story in America, and no longer occasions more than passing comment.

Of all the civilized people of the earth, there are no healthier babies born than those of the United States.

Of all the peoples of the world, there are none so pretty as our American babies.

And of all the pretty babies in existence, there are none to compare with the babies of our own.

Our babies are the same of perfection and beauty.

And if you doubt our simple word, JUST ASK THE OTHERS.

SPACE IS FOR SALE.

The "free space greater" wants a newspaper to publish his chestnut out of the fire and when you have done it for him he bears the benefits, while you must varnish and sundry burns, contrasting them with "never again" balm.

The average country newspaper editor is the living Mr. J. Z. Black. Is there any reason why newspaper should give free space to every Tom, Dick and Harry on Benicia with a scheme for raising money, any more than a merchant on a corner should give away his goods for the asking? Space is all a newspaper has to sell. It is the stock in trade. If given away freely how is the editor to pay his printers?

It is up to the taking.

OLYMPIC.

Henry W. Savage's latest comedy triumph, "Along Came Ruth," opens to the Olympic theatre, Chicago, next Sunday, April 25, for an indefinite engagement. The scenes of this comedy are laid in a New England seaport which has been stagnating for 30 years until "Along Came Ruth" to walk up the town. She becomes a clerk in a rattle-trap general store to start with, and from her first hour begins to revolutionize the town.

"The College Widow" and "The County Clerk" by Mr. Savage demonstrate how irresistibly funny and appealing our familiar melodramatic types can be in a "Along Came Ruth" comedy.

Italian Day, the author of "Along Came Ruth," Every reader of the current magazines, to which Mr. Day has for years been a most prolific contributor, knows how faithfully he has absorbed the sentiments and point of view of the picturesque inhabitants of New England and small towns. Those actors who gave distinction to the Broadway run of "Along Came Ruth" will be seen in the same role at the Olympic theatre.

Headed by James Bradbury, Richard Sterling, Frederick Burton, Edgar Nelson, Florence Shirley, Lillian Lawrence and Julia Waller, the cast is one of the most spectacular here in years. Nevertheless the same mesmeric scale of prices has been put into effect at the Olympic, the very best seats in the house for both matinees and night performances being priced $1.00.

GOVERNOR SURE OF WATERWAY MEASURE

Certain That Legislature Will Pass the Bill.

DUNNE EXPECTS BIG VOTE

Chief Executive Declares Passage of Measure Will Benefit Every Citizen in the State of Illinois.

Springfield—Governor Dunne is confident that a sufficient number of votes can be assembled in the house and senate to pass the bill embracing his waterway project in northern Illinois, and therefore he gave the governor expressed from satisfaction at the outcome.

The governor stated that he knows of no project affecting the people of the state that had received more widespread and enthusiastic support from the business men, newspapers and people generally, irrespective of politics, than has the proposed waterway, known as the No. 3, between Lockport and Utica.

"It was very evident," said the governor, "that the bill now pending before the legislature, after being amended in certain necessary details, will be passed in both houses of the legislature by a very conclusive vote."

"The passage of this bill, in my judgment, will benefit every citizen of the state."

The market prices for every bushel of wheat, cotton and other grain in every head of cattle, sheep and lamb made in the great city of Chicago. The opening of this waterway will reduce transportation rates to and from Chicago. In many cases it will cut rates in half and if transportation rates are reduced to and from the central market benefits will be reduced to the producer. The construction upon lumber sleek from the lumber districts of the South to Chicago is now $12 per 1,000 feet. With this waterway opened the rate will be $6 per 1,000 feet or less. The saving upon the freightage alone if half of the lumber goes through this waterway, and the other one-half by railroad, would be $100,000,000 annually.

The opening of the Panama canal has revolutionized transportation in the United States. Upon the eastern seaboard goods can be shipped through the Panama canal to the western coast at much less than it has heretofore been carried by railroad, and the railroads have been compelled to meet the new prices to maintain the competition, and the railroads are now being shipped from the eastern seaboard and thence shipped by ocean steamers to the Pacific coast which have heretofore been shipped directly across the continent by rail.

"Manufacturers in the Illinois valley cannot compete with the manufacturers of the same products on the eastern seaboard unless they avail themselves of waterway transportation.

"A channel of eight feet depth now exists in the Mississippi river between Grafton and Cairo, with no prospect of a greater depth being attained within a generation at least.

The same depth ought to exist in the Illinois river, and the Illinois river is a Mississippi river.

If this gap of eight feet is filled between Lockport and Utica, he opened to commerce with an eight-foot channel as project No. 3 contemplated, it will enable shippers up and down the Mississippi river to ship from New Orleans to Chicago and reduce the cost of transportation secured by waterway transportation of the Mississippi valley will be able to compete with the manufacturers and shippers in all other portions of the country. Unless this waterway be opened the opening of the Panama canal will be of little benefit to the state of Illinois instead of a great deal.

"New Orleans is 1,000 miles nearer the Panama canal than is New York, and if we shipped by water the products of our state to New Orleans, we could avail ourselves of the transportation facilities of the Panama canal, and if we did not have such waterway transportation, it would not seriously affect rates of transportation upon merchandises for passengers, but transportation upon merchandises would be cheaper, not more expensive, than by railroads to such cities."
