

WOULDN'T WORK THAT TIME

For Once It Was a Clutch That Sign. Ordinarily Infallible, Was Doomed to Failure

The talk topic turned to signs, to omens and things like that, the other afternoon, when Congressman Henry T. Hedges of North Dakota contributed the following anecdote:

One day Jones was rambling along the boulevard, when he was talked by his friend Smith. While talking about war, crops and mosquitoes, Jones noticed that Smith occasionally rubbed the palm of his hand.

"What is the world is the matter with your hand?" he finally demanded. "You have been rubbing and scratching it over since we stopped here."

"The palm itches like blazes," answered Jones. "They say that it is a sure sign that you are about to get some money."

SOME MARRIED MEN DO THIS

But the Majority, After a Few Years in the Marriage, Learn to Control Enthusiasm.

Robert W. Chambers, the novelist, prides himself on his knowledge of women, and at the Century Club in New York the other day he told a story in illustration of his knowledge.

"Smith," he began, "was bragging over his cocktail gloomily."

"I'm not going home to dinner to-night," Smith said. "I've quarreled with my wife."

"Quarreled with your wife, eh?" said I. "What about?"

"Why," Smith explained, "my wife said that young Mr. Dash was pretty, and I agreed with her."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Called His Bluff.

There are a lot of four-flushers who four-flush in a fine art. Such are beneath contempt. But one has great admiration for those for who have mastered the game.

"If a man called me a liar," asserted one of our set, "I'd tell him and let him if he weighed 300 pounds."

"Well, you big bluff," answered one who was tired of listening, "I call you right here and now. You're a liar."

"Bluff yourself," came back the answer, without a minute's hesitation.

"You don't weigh more than 150, and you know what I said,"—Hartford Courant.

Technical.

"I have just received word," said the clerk to the telephone company, "that a man has been caught holding $1,000 embezzled from us. What trophy shall I send?"

"Tell him to hang up the receiver," said the president.

PARKE'S HAIR BALM

RESORTING TO ANCIENT METHODS

In their Alpine warfare on the Italians the Austrians are resorting to a trick which is almost as old as the mountains themselves. They pile up huge bowlders on the very edge of the mountain slope up which the Italians must make an ascent in order to attack the Austrian positions, and in start a veritable avalanche of stones down the mountainside in the path of the incoming enemy.

KEEPS LONELY VIGIL

Fire Guard Watches on Icy Peak 11,225 Feet Up.

Rambold Guard, Elijah Coleman, Climbs High Frozen Summit to Mount Hood and Lives Alone to Help Forest Service.

Washington.—At an altitude of 11,225 feet, his only protection against the elements is a four-knockdown hut, Elijah Coleman, mountaineer and guide, maintains a lonely but constant lookout for signs of fire on the Oregon National forest, and a portion of the Columbia National forest, making his observations from the snow-capped summit of the celebrated Mount Hood in the Cascade range.

Coleman was chosen for this hazardous lookout duty because of his familiarity with conditions on Mount Hood, which he ascended numerous times in the capacity of guide.

The mountaineer "goes to pack his food, fuel, and all the other necessities of his own pack for the most perilous part of the journey. Several trips were required. They were packed on the backs of horses as far as the animals could go, then Coleman had to be his own pack mule and bodyguard.

At one point near the summit, which is the crater of an extinct volcano, there is a fumarole, or volcanic opening, from which issue sulphurous fumes and heat sufficient to cook an egg. Unfortunately this point is too far remote from the location of the lookout's hut to be of practical use to him.

Coleman's means of communication with the outer and lower world is through a copper cable line miles in length, which connects his hut with the telephone system of the Oregon National forest below. During the six weeks which he has spent on the top of Mount Hood, this line look-out has reported 30 fires to the fire-protection organizations below, all in time to prevent any considerable damage to the timber on Uncle Sam's preserves.

The station on this lofty peak has been an "unsuspected success," to use the language of forest service officials, in spite of the fact that it is located away above the usual cloud line. The plan to put a lookout station on Mount Hood was opposed by some forest service officials on the ground that at such an altitude the lookout would frequently, if not constantly, find the clouds below him and his vision completely obscured.

In most regions of the West this objection would hold good for look-out stations. It appears, however, that the atmospheric and meteorological conditions on Mount Hood are different. Now government scientists propose to make an investigation to determine the cause of this difference.

On account of its location in the very heart of the Cascade range, overlooking one of the most picturesque regions in the country, as well as enormous values in timber and watershed covering, Mount Hood is regarded as one of the most important points of observation in the fire national forest system. It overlooks the Bull Run watershed, from which the city of Portland, Ore., gets its domestic supply, practically the entire Oregon National forest, a good deal of the Columbia National forest, and a large part of the Columbia river scenic highway, recently constructed at a cost of $1,000,000.

The fact that this lofty lookout station has proved a complete success has attracted wide attention among scientists. Experts of the United States weather bureau are as keenly interested in the forest service officials to determine the reason why atmospheric and meteorological conditions about Mount Hood are so different from those surrounding most of the high peaks in that section of the country.

If Coleman, in suffering any inconvenience from his arctic vigil miles above civilization he has given no indication of it over the telephone which connects him with his fellows on the lower levels. To hear him tell it, he is having a "bully" time. Occasionally he knows the wind is blowing and that it is decidedly frosty.

IOWAN'S LETTERS WIN GIRL

Townpeople Applaud Romance of Correspondence Club—Stonebraker is Rusher as Lover.

Shenandoah, Ia.—Half the town turned out to welcome Fayal G. Stonebraker, and his bride, who as Miss Leah Derr, had scorned all the eligible bachelors in Shenandoah, Ia., for a foreign youth, whose acquaintance she made through a Kansas City correspondence club.

In writing love winning letters Stonebraker outshone many of all sorts. Miss Derr's name was filled with photographs of some of the most desperate masculine specimens of idleness, idly, but it was Fayal that won. He made love with a rush.

Throw your baggage down when it comes," he telegraphed. He followed his wife, and the girl surrendered.

LOSES MILK IN A STREAM

Plucky Farmer's Wife is Caught in Flood in Clifty Creek After a Milk.

Columbus, Ind.—When Mrs. William White, who lives near Hartsville, started out to milk, she found her cow had strayed across Clifty creek. There had just been a heavy rain, but the creek was low, so Mrs. White removed her shoes and stockings and waded over. She milked the cow and started back, carrying her pail of milk. In the meantime the stream had risen and when Mrs. White was in the act for the current became so strong she was swept into a deep hole. She managed to scramble out and reached the bank, but the milk was spilled.

COINS 500 YEARS OLD FOUND

Curious Piles Inscribed "Cabot, 1498" Also Discovered by Blacksmith in Indiana.

Sullivan, Ind.—Frank Bennett, a blacksmith, digging at the former site of the brickyard, near here, found a number of copper coins and white metal plates more than 500 years old. They were found five feet under ground, below the old trail used by pioneers, between Terre Haute and Vincennes.

One of the copper coins contains a head with the date 1410, and another contains a raised rim bearing a crown dated 1410. One coin is marked "Six pence—Henry VIII."

The largest white metal plate is about 1 1/2 inches, and is inscribed "On this 7th day of February, 1498, of Our Lord, J. E. demand all our land, John Cabot." Another plate reads "Baptism Cabot, May 5, 1498. Henry VII."

FINDS 68 POUNDS OF HONEY

Bees' Treasure Trove Is Discovered in an Old Vermont Hemlock Tree.

Bellows Falls, Vt.—Eighty-eight pounds of honey, the largest amount taken from wild bees in recent years in this locality, was found by John F. Lawrence and Ralph M. Durfee in a hemlock tree a short distance north of Bellows Falls on the farm of L. C. Lovell.

Some of the honey was made this season and the remainder two or three seasons ago. It was in excellent condition. The honey filled three large galvanized iron pails and an ammunition box and the two men left a large amount in the tree.

Mr. Lawrence has had many years' experience hunting honey, but this is the largest find he ever made. He owns several swarms which he found wild in the woods.

"OLD MAN" IS BOOTLEGGER

Young Miner Disguised With Wig and Beard Said to Be Solution of Mystery.

Charleston, W. Va.—The mystery of the "old man of Kelly's Creek," who is alleged to have been one of the most successful bootleggers in the state, is believed by federal officers to be solved in the indictment of Louis Peters, aged twenty-two.

It is alleged that Peters, in the guise of an old man, wearing false gray hair and a patriarchal set of false whiskers, sold whisky in violation of the prohibition laws. Without whiskers and gray hair he worked as a miner.

Oregon Woman Complained Her Husband Wore Pair Seven Weeks at a Time.

Oregon City.—Because she says her husband would wear his socks for seven weeks at a time, Mrs. Elizabeth Little believes she is entitled to a divorce from Sheridan Little. She has filed a complaint in the circuit court.

She also alleges that Sheridan is a little too careful with his cash. When they were married she says he told the minister he had no such change. During their married life of a year she says he gave her only $10, and out of that she had to subscribe to a daily paper.

Gambler's Superstitions.

The tiger is the god of the gambler in China, and a tiger's tooth is regarded as a talisman for good luck in speculation and in games of chance, while the claws and whippers are worn as love-charms, and for success and good fortune generally.

Pigs are also considered lucky, and luck-bringers in the shape of little pigs made of gold and silver are worn to attract fortune's favors; but the black cat, which, in our own country, is regarded as a mascot, is not favored by the Chinese, who believe it to be a harbinger of poverty, misfortune and sickness.

SHOULD MINISTERS SPECULATE?

*The financial troubles of the Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis of New York have brought to the fore the question, "Should Ministers Speculate?"

Unquestionably a minister of the Gospel has as much right to invest his means with a view to pecuniary gain as has any other citizen. He is a man as well as a minister, and his rights as a citizen do not differ in any sense from those of any other citizen.

But the world of today has learned to expect something higher and nobler from the men of God than a scramble in the commercial world for those riches which often they publicly condemn.

To us it would seem that when a minister descends from the pinnacle of his purity and rubs elbows with his fellow men in the game of chance he is blurring the finer edge of his manhood and sacrificing the superior wisdom with which God has endowed him for the purpose of saving the souls of men.

We listen to his sermons with the expectation of hearing of the higher thoughts and the higher side of life; we expect him to lead us in the path of rectitude and give the way to a brighter life yet to come; we look upon him as our guide, our mentor, as the one male being in all this world who is endowed by the Creator with the wisdom and the patience to lead us in manhood as the father led us in our childhood days.

And if we see him side by side with us in our mad scramble for gold it is more than possible we may come to consider his teachings as coming from the lip that has been heard.

The minister is entitled to a salary commensurate with his position and the financial means of his congregation.

He should never be confronted with the necessity of employing outside methods of keeping the wolf from the door.

He should continue to be a minister—the man of God.

IMPROVE THE WINTER MONTHS

Presumably about every person has his or her mind centered upon some form of amusement or entertainment for the winter season.

But will such result in any particular value to the town or countryside as a whole? If not, we are not making the most of our opportunities.

Winter evenings are long and much time must be consumed, and at least a portion of that time might easily be turned to practical purposes.

For instance, we might have a running big public meeting one evening a month, at which some of our oratorical lights could discourse on the ways and means of making this a better and more prosperous community.

Every man or woman might be invited to come to the meetings with suggestions as to what could be done for improving our local conditions. Surely out of such a volume of ideas something tangible should result.

The meetings themselves would serve as an object lesson in fostering a progressive spirit among our people, and would inject life and action into every sphere of local life.

UP TO US NOW

There is a steady, persistent and growing movement afoot over this country for the improvement of roads. You can hardly pick up a paper from any section of the country, but what you will find the question agitated in columns.

It is a good sign, and speaks well for the future of the country as a whole. But what of this community?

What are we going to do toward improving our own roads?

No one else is going to answer this question for us. It is clearly up to our own people.

If we want good roads we must make them ourselves. Other people in other communities will not do it for us.

We suggest the formation of a local organization that will take up this question this winter and brush it out to a logical conclusion, and then let the conclusion produce results.

Mis Hallelucination.
"When I take too much quinine for my malaria, as I occasionally do," confesses the Old Gogger, "it affects my head and makes me think very foolish things. I remember once of getting so that I heard queer noises in my head, and for nearly a whole day fancied I was an 'Hon.' and was being sought by my many friends to run for the legislature."—Kansas City Star.

Convinced That Counts.
This imperishable conviction, that it is a thing of right it will have to be, is the underlying rock on which all great character is built; and it carries in it a trust implicit if not explicit in the moral government of the world.—J. Martineau.

Mending Curtains.
Try this method of mending lace curtains: After washing carefully, place curtains on frame. Take a needle and thread and sew according to card. Do not knot but tie end of thread to curtain and then proceed to weave in and out curtain as near like the pattern as you can. Small holes may be drawn together. For the larger holes you can readily see what is best to be done. If the curtain begins to dry apply around the holes. When curtains are hung these places will hardly show.

Rice Chicken Pie.
Boil until tender one chicken or a good fowl, barely covering with water, remove and boil two cupsful of rice in the same water; salt, white boiling; put the rice into a dish and stir in one teaspoonful of butter, one quarter-cupful of hot milk and two beaten eggs; season with salt and pepper, put a layer of chicken in a baking dish and then a layer of rice, and so on, until the dish is full, having rice on top; dot with butter and bake till brown.

Celery Roast.
Toast neat slices of bread, butter and trim the crusts from them. Drain, dry and broil small oysters till their edges begin to curl, then spread them over the toast. Sprinkle with salt and cover thickly with finely chopped celery. Pour a cupful of hot cream sauce over the dish and place in the oven for a few moments. Serve very hot.

Apple Omelet.
To eight large apples, stewed very soft and mashed fine, add one cupful of sugar and flavor with nutmeg or cinnamon. When cold stir in three well beaten eggs, one cupful of sugar, melted butter, with salt to taste. Add enough flour to enable you to form the mixture into balls; roll these in flour and fry in deep fat.

Household Hint.
After boiling salt beef leave two or three cold carrots in the liquor until cold. The carrots will absorb the salt and the liquor will be clear.

Napoleon's Estimate.
Napoleon Bonaparte, the most extraordinary product of modern times, contributed extensively by his wars to the population of the unknown world beyond the grave. It was not religious considerations that made him adhere to the old valuation of woman which bore a distinct ratio to her fertility. His own power depended upon the number of soldiers he could bring into the field.

Rose in Revolt.
Johnny, who was more proficient in the art of wheeling the baby buggy than in the selection of his pronouns, became tired of being called on so often to perform this duty. So when mamma summoned him in the midst of an exciting game of tag he relieved his mind thus: "Now, mother, what's the world comin' to? Ever since that baby got here it's been nuthin' but Johnny, wheel sho' all the time."

Natural Inference.
"Day before yesterday," related the landlord of the Putnam tavern, "a fellow that had only been in town half an hour, got into the middle of the street, right out in front here, gave sort of a shout, and dropped dead!" "Was the train so late that he expected to be obliged to stay here overnight?" asked a hypercritical drummer whose sales had not been all that he had desired.—Kansas City Star.

NAVAL PROGRAM APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Five-Year Period Provides for $500,000,000 Outlay—Government to Build Own Vessels.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Secretary Daniels' naval program, which has been approved by President Wilson, provides an expenditure of $500,000,000 during a five-year period.

The exact amount to be expended each year has not been decided, but the first year's program probably will call for two dreadnaughts and three battle cruisers in addition to about twenty-five submarines, sixteen destroyers and probably five scout cruisers.

The five-year program calls for sixteen capital ships—ten dreadnaughts and six battle cruisers. The total amount to be appropriated for construction the first year will be in the neighborhood of $100,000,000, and since about $25,000,000 of this sum is for three battleships authorized last year the total increase in the naval appropriation bill is likely to be approximately $75,000,000.

Secretary Daniels said he wanted to increase the capacity of the various government navy yards and do much of the new warship construction in those yards.

Secretary Garrison's plan for strengthening the military establishment and organizing a great continental army for defense purposes the following:

1. Regular army of 140,000 men, an increase of 50,000 men in the present establishment.

2. A continental army, 60,000 strong, enlisted for six years for service within the continental United States. These men would serve two months a year for the first three years with the colors, undergoing a period of intensive training.

3. The following military casualties, in addition to the one announced last night, have been reported: Fourteen killed and 15 wounded.

"The home office announces the following casualties other than the military casualties reported above:

Men. Women. Children. Total.
Killed 15 39 12 143
Injured 45 30 7 101
Total 151 69 19 263
Of these casualties 32 killed and 85 injured were in the London area."

JERSEY WOMEN LOSE

HEAD OF STATE SUFFRAGE BODY ADMITS DEFEAT AT THE POLLS.

WILSON CAST HIS BALLOT

494 Precincts Give Majority of 12,814 Against Adoption of Constitutional Amendment to Enfranchise Women—Students Welcome President.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 21.—Defeat of woman suffrage in New Jersey was conceded on Tuesday night by Mrs. E. F. Peckert, president of the New Jersey Woman's State Suffrage association.

Four hundred and ninety-four of the state's 1,891 voting precincts gave a majority of 12,814 against the adoption of the constitutional amendment to enfranchise women. The figures were: For, 34,610; against, 47,124. These returns were mostly from the large cities.

Unofficial returns from 15 districts in Jersey City, Elizabeth and Plainfield give 1,620 votes for and 1,719 against adoption of the woman suffrage amendment.

Complete unofficial returns from three districts in Trenton and partial returns from seven others give 535 votes for and 1,123 against the amendment.

A heavy vote was cast throughout the state at the special election on these three proposed constitutional amendments.

Women watchers were stationed at the polls in nearly every precinct. The election was orderly and with only isolated instances of alleged irregularities. In Newark women watchers reported they had been ejected from the polling places, but this apparently was due to lack of proper credentials.

Washington, Oct. 21.—President Wilson returned to Washington on Tuesday night from Princeton after casting the first ballot ever given by a chief executive of the United States in favor of woman suffrage.

The president's brief visit to his legal residence was marked by a more enthusiastic welcome from the Princeton students than ever before, had been given him on any of his numerous trips there since he entered the White House.

Woman suffragists were not cast in evidence during the president's visit.

PREMIER ASQUITH STRICKEN

Leader of British Cabinet Taken Ill After Meeting—Conscription Delayed.

London, Oct. 21.—In the absence of Premier Asquith, who is ill, David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, refused on Tuesday to give the house of commons any real light on Sir Edward Carson's resignation from the cabinet. It is generally agreed that for the moment at least the controversy over recruiting has been stilled, for the conscriptionists, or a majority of them, have decided to give Lord Derby a new chance to give the trial. Sir Asquith, consulted a physician, who ordered him to remain in bed several days. The following bulletin was issued at Downing street:

"The prime minister is suffering from an attack of gastro-intestinal catarrh."

What Kept Him Busy.

"I suppose you are well posted on the subject of sun spots, aren't you?" suggested the lady.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think it more interesting to tell you how I was saved by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound than to tell you how I was cured."

"I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a dangerous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I just believe in operations."

"I had fainting spells, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. REED, 1300 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner."

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (conductors), Lowell, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

BLACK LEG

LOSSES SURELY PREVENTED FROM BEING PAID BY THE NEW YORK COMMONS.

On the basis of a Huntington, W. Va., dispatch, describing Dr. E. W. Grover's recommendation of the "pat" as a substitute for the unhygienic glass, Puck estimates a few million dollars' worth of literature to null, as follows:

"He put a passenger's outfit up on his upturned check, . . . under the miter, and in another instant Clarence had deftly pat-patted her."

"How dare you pat-pat me, sir!" she cried.

"It is useless for you to struggle, my proud beauty," he blazed.

Seizing her roughly, Dalton pushed the stiletto back back, back, and leered into the frightened eyes.

"I am going to pat-pat you; do you hear, girl?" To pat-pat-pat!" he cried.

"And now, gentlemen," said Terence, our guide, "would any of you like to pat the Blarney stone?"

What Kept Him Busy.

"I suppose you are well posted on the subject of sun spots, aren't you?" suggested the lady.

HARD ON CHILDREN

When Teacher Has Coffee's Habit.

"That is best, and best will ever live." When a person feels this way about Postum, he is also giving testimony for the benefit of others.

A school teacher down in Miss. says: "I had been a coffee drinker since my childhood, and the last few years it had injured me seriously."

"One cup of coffee taken at breakfast, would cause me to become so nervous that I could scarcely go through with the day's duties, and this nervousness was often accompanied by deep depression of spirits and heart palpitation."

"I am a teacher by profession, and when under the influence of coffee had to struggle against crossness when in the school room."

"When talking this over with my physician, he suggested that I try Postum. So I purchased a package and made it carefully according to directions; found it excellent of flavor, and nourishing."

"In a short time I noticed very gratifying effects. My nervousness disappeared. I was not irritated by my pupils, life seemed full of sunshine, and my heart troubled me no longer."

who has spent several weeks here left for his home Saturday. He was accompanied by David McJannet who will spend the winter there.

J. S. Hammond who has been very sick for sometime has passed through a surgical operation, in hope of relief from the ill affecting. Mrs. Hammond was with him through the trying period, but returned at his suggestion to look after things at home. Another operation will be performed later in the week when Mrs. Hammond will be with her husband to encourage and comfort him. Many friends are watching in hope of encouraging reports from the hospital where he is being treated.

A Clogged System Needs Attention.
Are you bilious, dizzy and listless?
Dr. King's Life Pills taken at once clear up constipation and start the bowels moving naturally and easily. Moreover it acts without irritation. Neglect of a clogged system often leads to most serious complications. Follow-ous matters and a body poorly functioning need immediate attention. If you wish to wake up to-morrow morning happy in mind and entirely satisfied start your treatment tonight. 25c a bottle.

Aids and Abets Disease.
Doctors have learned that worry means bacteria, nervous dyspepsia, hysteria, that it weakens the bodily defenses and aids the attack of diseases of microbic origin. It is the precursor or predisposing cause of many bodily ills; it is the one thing which saps the patient's vitality—which, broadly speaking, is his power to will to get well.

What Every Woman Should Know.
A woman is not expected to know much about Russian history or the internal workings of the Austrian empire, but every husband expects his wife to know right off the bat where he threw his key to the last time he took it off.—Detroit Free Press.

of the proximity of an iceberg.

credit, in the ballot box at our store. At certain periods extra credits will be given for purchases and

There will be lots of fun and excitement. But better than this will be the correspondence course in salesmanship and business relations that will be of great value in after life. One day each week there will be a sale on some special article, on which we shall give extra coupons. This article will be changed from week to week. WATCH for these specials.

Booster Club, and then join. There is no initiation fee, and no dues. This is an opportunity that may never come your way again.

We want a 1000 or more persons to become active helpers for the members of our Booster Club. In order that you may help your favorite, we shall give Booster Coupons free to each person, over 10 years old, who comes to our store on Saturday, November 6th, and registers in a book provided for that purpose.

The Booster Club Campaign will close March 15.

6 PER CENT. REAL ESTATE FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS are steadily growing in popularity and their advantages over other classes of bonds and individual mortgages are numerous. First, the value of the security underlying REAL ESTATE FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS can easily be determined, and the property be personally inspected by the investor before making purchases, whereas on the other hand, experience and tedious study is necessary to exactly value the security of such corporation bonds, Railroads, Public Utilities and Industrials. Furthermore the stability in price of REAL ESTATE
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS has been demonstrated; they have maintained their full par value when other bonds, even of the highest character, have suffered severe declines in times of depression. Also REAL ESTATE FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS are issued in most convenient denominations of $100, $500 and $1000 and the interest is paid promptly on the date of maturity. These moderate sizes enable the investor to buy small amounts of bonds, and, in need of funds, to sell portions of his holdings.

Our customers have never suffered any loss of money nor any delay in the payment of principal or interest on CHICAGO
REAL ESTATE FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS bought from us.
