

BARRINGTON REVIEW

VOLUME 31, NUMBER 43

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1915

$1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

R. N. A. CELEBRATES 20TH ANNIVERSARY

lodges All Over the Country Are Celebrating by Getting New Members—District Deputy Was Guest.

24 NEW MEMBERS WERE INITIATED

Woodmen Surprised Neighbors After Literary Work and Fine Luncheon.

Tuesday evening was an important night in the calendar of Mayflower Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, a Barrington woman's Lodge of 87 members, an auxiliary to the Modern Woodmen of America.

This is a jubilee year of that order to mark the 20th anniversary as a beneficiary society and camps, everywhere they exist, are celebrating by festivities and efforts to increase the membership. The Neighbors rank second to the Woodmen which leads in insurance dollar circles in this country and the ladies' membership in the Society is 346,319; 20 new members have been secured in 1915, of which 243 joined during the month of September.

At the meeting this week 24, out of 20 applicants, were initiated into the organization. Miss Ned Boyer is Oracle this year and added the literary work which was exemplified by the local degree stiffs: Mrs. Jenine Chistrom of Evanston, the district Deputy was here to conduct the year's work. Mrs. Amanda Wilson, supervisor of Cook and Lake country camps, was present but illness prevented her presence. Every detail of the work was finely carried out to the glory of the Mayflower officials. Mrs. Chistrom was present with the smooth and a batch of yellow hydrastis to be distributed by her assistants.

The surprise of the evening was the arrival of 40 Woodmen in all sorts of costume, costumed, caravans, lit Jack Lanterns and coral stalks; they marched around and a sudden darkening of the room showered the letters "H. N. A." were formed on the pumpkins, instead of the usual grinning faces. Everyone entered into the Halloween spirit gladly after the solemnity of the initiation program. It was fast and furious with every day happy, particularly when a fine luncheon was served by a committee of the Woodmen and a few neighbors who had been "put wise" to what was forthcoming.

Elgin News Reports Burglary.

Last week Mrs. H. A. Haraden was asked after the telephone from the Review office about the robbery which it was said occurred at her home, but she denied that anything of the kind had happened. The Elgin News of Saturday, October 22, published the following written by that newspaper's Barrington correspondent:

"Some one entered the home of H. A. Haraden last Tuesday morning about 1 a. m. through the basement and gained entrance to Miss Steel's room, and took her purse which was lying on the dresser containing about $1 in change and her railroad ticket. No other articles were taken from the house. Miss Haraden is in the employ of the U. & N. W. Ry. and as last Monday was pay day at their general offices it is thought some one familiar with the working conditions of Miss Haraden entered her room with the intention of stealing her two weeks' pay but was unsuccessful."

Miss Myra Loomis Buried at Elgin.

The funeral of Miss Myra E. Loomis of Sutton Station, Barrington township, was held Sunday at the First Baptist church, Elgin. She died at the Sherman hospital in that city on October 20 at six o'clock in the evening. Her birth was the present Loomis farm, December 17, 1890. She leaves three children, Mrs. Charles Loomis, Mrs. A. E. Loomis, Mrs. C. G. Loomis, and Mrs. E. H. Gould.

Entertained Palatine Corps.

The formal session of the Women's Relief Corps on yesterday afternoon at 54 Barrington Avenue and their guests, 22 ladies from the Palatine corps, made quite a gathering. After business was over, two new members were received into the corps. Mrs. Garbutt of the Grace farm and Mrs. John Williams (Garrett) street. A luncheon was a pleasant feature; later, Quarantine Lifted From 22 Counties. Last Saturday the bureau of animal industry released 22 Illinois counties from quarantine; 24 remain under restrictions, extending from Lake county diagonally to McHenry. No new cases are reported and the Durand herd at Lake Bluff may be killed this week by the government according to the latest reports.

FORMER SALEM PASTOR EXPRISES REGRET HERE FROM 1904-05.

Rev. August Haefel died last Thursday at his home in Highland Park

—Received here from 1904-05.

Rev. August Haefel, died last Thursday at his home in Highland Park

—Received here from 1904-05.

Rev. August Haefel of Highland Park, who lived in Barrington a few years ago, died at his home Thursday morning, October 21, at the age of 65 years. He was a prominent clergyman in the United Methodist church in the Chicago district and had had many charges during his long years in the ministry. His last parish was in Hampstead, where in August of this year he was thrown by a young horse and was breaking. Although bruised he was able to attend the canon meetings here which occurred the next week. Later in the fall he was taken to the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, because he was failing in health and paralysis of the brain had set in. On the Saturday before he died he was taken to his home in Highland Park which he had maintained in that town although stationed in Hampstead.

The funeral, held Saturday, was in charge of Rev. Scheute, presiding elder of the district, who was assisted by joint representatives of the denominations. The pastor was in Naperville. Rev. John Holloman of the Salem church and to him of his congregation went to the funeral.

Mr. Haefel was born in Wurzburg, Germany, in 1850 and came to this country with his parents in 1855. He was licensed to preach in 1873 and was pastor in Highland Park from 1897 to 1901, and in Barrington from 1904 to 1905. When he took the Hampstead church last spring he had been retired two years. Mrs. Haefel died two years ago. There are four children living on the north shore: Clyde, Raymond, Faith and O. V. Haefel.

SCHOOL NOTES.
Ferdinand Peake has returned to town after an absence due to chickenpox at the Peake home.

The Eastern section of the Northern Illinois Teachers' Association will meet at Aurora next Friday and Saturday, November 5 and 6.

The high school boys have successfully solicited local advertisements for the lecture course programs. November 8 is the date of the first number, Colby, the cartoonist, will be the entertainer.

The superintendents of Cook county schools met the second Saturday of each month for luncheon at the grill room, Marshall Field's, Chicago, where questions of school administration are discussed.

Ferdinand Sizer and Matilda Smith joined their classes in the eighth grade the first of the week after an absence of two weeks each, but the latest is absent again on account of the illness of his brother Henry.

Boys of the Athletic association are contemplating the organization of a "Soccer" football team as baseball interest for the season is over. Soccer ball is played by the original football rules which do not permit slugging.

Basket ball teams of five members each are formed in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, each team to play a series of six games. The sport is keen and the enthusiasm intense on the ground at the south end of the school. The eighth grade is leading.

Supt. E. S. Smith will be Wilmette Wednesday to the first monthly session of the superintendents of Cook county schools, outside of Chicago, of which there are about twenty present.

These educators will visit a different school each month, passing the morning in looking over the school work, building, grounds and equipment, then meeting in a business session in the afternoon to deliberate and discuss the superintendents of the school the defects and good points noted.

Recital Well Attended.

The vocal recital given by Prof. Chas. McHenry, baritone singer of Chas. McHenry, on yesterday afternoon at 8:30, Barrington, and their guests, 22 ladies from the Palatine corps, made quite a gathering. After business was over, two new members were received into the corps. Mrs. Garbutt of the Grace farm and Mrs. John Williams (Garrett) street. A luncheon was a pleasant feature; later, Quarantine Lifted From 22 Counties.

Last Saturday the bureau of animal industry released 22 Illinois counties from quarantine; 24 remain under restrictions, extending from Lake county diagonally to McHenry. No new cases are reported and the Durand herd at Lake Bluff may be killed this week by the government according to the latest reports.

—Received here from the Stars School of Music in September.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO LOCAL PEOPLE

Happenings of the Week Told in Short Paragraphs—What's Doing in and Near Our Huddling Village.

The Post club will have its regular meeting at Mr. Arecht's home Tuesday evening.

The Illinois Poultry Farmers' Association will hold the annual show in Waukegan December 1 to 6.

The Women's Country Life association meets tomorrow at the home of Mrs. A. Bowen on Grove avenue.

Arrott, Liles, Will, Blake, Fred and Charles Morrison attended an Odd Fellows meeting at Elgin Friday.

Mr. G. W. Spunner appeared at the Arlinton Heights Women's club program yesterday afternoon, giving their annual lecture.

November 14 is "World's Temperance Sunday." The National W. C. U. publishing house in Elgin will furnish good programs upon application.

The morning service on Sunday at the Salem church will be as usual but in the evening the service will be in charge of a speaker, representing the Anti-Saloon League.

The annual gentleman's gathering of the Women's Thursday club will be observed with a banquet at the home of Miss Eva Castle this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wells of DePaula were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pluto Houghton Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Basley and Mrs. Hazel Basley spent the last of the week at Grayslake.

Miss Rissa Brown visited friends at Irving Park and attended "The Birth of a Nation" in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wells of DePaula were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pluto Houghton Sunday.

Mrs. Acker of Grayslake, a former resident here, is reported seriously ill with cancer of the stomach.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grove of Elgin Park and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kujala called on friends here Saturday.

Misses Irene Kent and Mrs. Glynn and Clarence Kent and Budd Iray of Purdue were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kent Sunday.

Mareno papers announce the marriage of Roy Han and Miss Clara Gierz of that place. Mr. Han was born on a farm near Wauconda and owns a part of the farm his parents occupied at that time.

Captain J. S. Pratt is visiting relatives and friends here, enroute home after attendance at the grand review of the Grand Army of the Republic recently in Washington. This meeting was a notable gathering, and perhaps there were few to whom it meant more than to the Captain. After the meeting adjourned, very probably never to meet in the capital city of the nation again, Captain Pratt, Mr. J. C. of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers at Aurora last week.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The next regular monthly meeting of the W. C. U. will be postponed from Monday evening, November 1, to Saturday evening, November 8, and will be held at the home of the president, Miss Emma Hager, Washington street.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

The Captain's Missionary society will meet Monday evening, November 1, at the Waukegan Pulpit, Mr. C. B., principal of the Waukegan Pulpit, and Mr. Charles Treadwell will be the speakers.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

W. F. MC GEE DELIVERED LECTURE
Under Auspices of Court No. 91, Guardians of Liberty—Makes Attack on Catholic Church.

Happenings in the Villages of Lake Zurich and Wauconda as Written by Regular Correspondents.

WAUCONDA
Mrs. D. S. Hammond spent Sunday here.

WAUCONDA
Mrs. Roger Moffitt spent the first of the week in Chicago.

LEO BROWN and Sister spent Tuesday in North Crystal Lake.

Mrs. C. L. Pratt is the guest of Chago relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburn entertained relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Golding spent Saturday and Sunday in Chicago.

Miss Marguerite Lamphere visited with home folks in Elgin Tuesday.

Mrs. Jane Nevill is spending the week with relatives at Libertyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tomsky of Cary will shortly move to North Crystal Lake.

Mrs. Alice Basley and Mrs. Hazel Basley spent the last of the week at Grayslake.

Miss Rissa Brown visited friends at Irving Park and attended "The Birth of a Nation" in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wells of DePaula were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pluto Houghton Sunday.

Mrs. Acker of Grayslake, a former resident here, is reported seriously ill with cancer of the stomach.

The audience filled the hall and there were quite a good many local people not outside the Court membership and from Palatine. Mr. McGee, sold a little book for twenty-five cents which he had written concerning his life and views and a collection was taken to help him.

If a crisis comes in this country we should find the Catholics true to their national allegiances. I have not the slightest doubt of that. I know that it is not true that Catholics keep arms and are secretly planning to massacre the Protestants and take possession of the country. That is an absurd charge. In any modern country the Catholics and Protestants are on about the same level. Many Protestants are opposed to the Catholic church because it is a church different from their own; they want their sect to predominate. They are wrong, just as wrong as the Catholics.

Captain J. S. Pratt is visiting relatives and friends here, enroute home after the meeting adjourned, very probably never to meet again, probably never to meet in the capital city of the nation again.

Miss Rose Ernst was a Chicago visitor Tuesday.

Miss Rose Ernst has secured a position in Elgin.

Mr. A. E. Fieke is visiting her sister in Chicago.

Albert Hoeff was a Palatine caller Tuesday.

Miss Emma Schneider is now clerking in Carl Ernst's store.

Bert Selp spent several days this week visiting in Waukegan.

A number from here attended the show at Palatine Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Branding and family motored to Elgin Thursday.

Mr. Henry Seip who has been visiting Chicago returned home Friday.

Mrs. Mabel Helfer spent Saturday at the Waukegan Pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dymond spent Saturday and Sunday at their home here.

Mrs. Leo Brikner entertained relatives from Elgin over Saturday and Sunday.

The Oak Park Automobile association held their annual meeting Saturday evening at the Elgin Club.

George Carmichael, who is a member of the Apollo Consistory, Knights Templar of Chicago, marched Monday night to the Melrose Temple on the north side to attend a banquet; the Knights are from many points of the order of the Masonic Lodge 17, Chicago.

Y. P. Harron Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Admission including lunch 15 cents.

Subscribe for the Review.

SPENCER OTIS HAS BIG FARM AT SAVANNA

Writer in Fulton Journal Describes Farm Owned by Barrington Resident—Tractors do Plowing.

HAS ALL MODERN CONVENiences

House Has Laundry Equipment of the Best Make—Kitchen, Has Dish-washer—Has Water System.

A writer in the Fulton Journal recently visited the Sheridan Road farm at Savanna and gives the following description of the place.

A visit to the "Sheridan Road" farm, which is owned by Spencer Otis of Barrington and of which Edward Moore is manager, last Monday resulted in being courteously shown about the place by Mr. Moore and by those employed in various occupations. This farm, or "ranch" as it is more often called, covers 4,031 acres, and is situated about 10 miles south of Savanna, on both the C. & S. P. and C. B. & Q. railroads, much of the land extending west to the Mississippi river. Of the land west of these tracks a large part is hay land, although a large number of acres is in crop. Of this last named, there is in all 750 acres.

Soy beans were an experimental crop, but being a native of the more southern country, and this season being unusually cold and wet, they did not prove a success.

The buildings are all of concrete. The house, which is a two-story structure, is modern, having all the conveniences found in a city home. The laundry is en suite, the bath being a separate room.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis are the only ones in the house, and the house is in excellent condition.

The audience filled the hall and there were quite a good many local people not outside the Court membership and from Palatine. Mr. McGee, sold a little book for twenty-five cents which he had written concerning his life and views and a collection was taken to help him.

If a crisis comes in this country we should find the Catholics true to their national allegiances. I have not the slightest doubt of that. I know that it is not true that Catholics keep arms and are secretly planning to massacre the Protestants and take possession of the country. That is an absurd charge.

In any modern country the Catholics and Protestants are on about the same level. Many Protestants are opposed to the Catholic church because it is a church different from their own; they want their sect to predominate. They are wrong, just as wrong as the Catholics.

Captain J. S. Pratt is visiting relatives and friends here, enroute home after the meeting adjourned, very probably never to meet again, probably never to meet in the capital city of the nation again.

Miss Rose Ernst was a Chicago visitor Tuesday.

Miss Rose Ernst has secured a position in Elgin.

Mr. A. E. Fieke is visiting her sister in Chicago.

Albert Hoeff was a Palatine caller Tuesday.

Miss Emma Schneider is now clerking in Carl Ernst's store.

Bert Selp spent several days this week visiting in Waukegan.

A number from here attended the show at Palatine Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Branding and family motored to Elgin Thursday.

Mr. Henry Seip who has been visiting Chicago returned home Friday.

Mrs. Mabel Helfer spent Saturday at the Waukegan Pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dymond spent Saturday and Sunday at their home here.

Mrs. Leo Brikner entertained relatives from Elgin over Saturday and Sunday.

The Oak Park Automobile association held their annual meeting Saturday evening at the Elgin Club.

George Carmichael, who is a member of the Apollo Consistory, Knights Templar of Chicago, marched Monday night to the Melrose Temple on the north side to attend a banquet; the Knights are from many points of the order of the Masonic Lodge 17, Chicago.

Y. P. Harron Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Admission including lunch 15 cents.

Subscribe for the Review.

BARRINGTON REVIEW, BARRINGTON, ILL

BARRINGTON REVIEW

ESTABLISHED 1883

M. T. LAMEY, Editor and Publisher

Published every Thursday, subscription at $1.00 per year. Address all correspondence to M. T. Lamey, Editor at the Barrington postoffice.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance. Advertising rates made known upon application.

All copy for advertisements must be received at least two weeks in advance of publication in that week's issue.

Local news, notices of expositions and all notices of entertainments given for pecuniary benefit must be paid for.

All communications should be addressed to the

BARRINGTON REVIEW, BARRINGTON, ILL

TELEGRAMS TO THE BARRINGTON, ILL

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1915.

PATRIOTISM AND PREPAREDNESS

We read much in the press on the subject of national preparedness, and for our country's sake it is well that it is so. No important country ever stood in greater need of it than we stand today.

But while taking up the subject of building warships and raising army reserves, let us not overlook the matter of patriotism in local communities, for it is upon these people the nation must lean to a great extent in time of stress.

Newspaper publicity and the immobility of our being plunged into war is doing much to convert the adult mind to the necessity of an adequate preparation for defense against invasion, but we should go farther than the adult.

We should begin today to inject a feeling of patriotism into the hearts of the youth of our local communities, a reverence of and devotion to the flag of our country, and a determination to uphold the dignity and preserve the integrity of the nation at all times and under all conditions.

Since the days of '91 and '95 the patriotism of the American people has been declining day by day, until 1915 finds us a nation of but with slight conception of what the flag should mean to us, and with less thought as to the future security of our country.

Patriotism has been left to split for itself, has gone down in the waters of commercialism.

It is time for a change, and the change should begin today.

In every school and in every home of the country little children should be taught to love and respect the stars and stripes, to look upon them as the symbol of liberty and the champion of right and of the weak and the oppressed.

They should be taught that love of country ranks next to their love of God, even to the giving of life itself in its defense.

If the same policy had been pursued in our homes and in our schools and other public places during the past fifty years the nation would not be in its present precarious situation. Patriotism alone would have demanded and secured action by the government and the congress, and the United States today would have been in a state of defense sufficient to guarantee it against aggressive action by any foreign government.

It is useless now to weep over the errors of the past, but we can at least take action to prevent our children facing the same condition of affairs after we have passed away.

If you want forceful illustrations of the lack of patriotism in this country, and of the ignorance of the symbolism of the flag, just watch the little children at the close of some parades. You will most likely see them sitting on curbstones wiping the dust from their shoes with miniature flags of their country.

And when you have seen this, be a patriot yourself and go home and begin the imparting of patriotic impulses to your offspring, and just that the teachers in our schools do their duty to their country as well as to the community.

Protect the adults of tomorrow from the fate that menaces those of today.

Daily Thought

A man's own confidence is his sole tribunal and he should care no more for that phantom "opinion" than he should fear meeting a "man" if he crosses the churchyard at dark—try him.

Coughs That Are Sighs.

Country people say that they are stopped. Dr. King's New Discovery is a remedy of tried merit. It has held its own on the market for 40 years. You can have a sample of it for 10 cents and healing qualities. Pneumonia and lung troubles are often caused by delay of treatment. Dr. King's New Discovery stops those backaches and rheumatism. It is a great sedative. Send 10 cents and $1.00.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

ST. ANN'S.

Mass will be at 8:00 o'clock next Sunday morning.

FATHER E. A. McCORMICK, Pastor.

ST. PAUL'S.

The Young People's society meet on the first Tuesday evening of each month at half past seven.

Frauenverein meets at 2:30 o'clock on the first Thursday afternoon of the month.

Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock p. m.

Regular services at 10:30 p. m.

REV. H. THIENE, Pastor.

BAPTIST.

Sunday morning worship, 10:30 o'clock.

Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock.

Sunday evening service at 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting at 7:30 o'clock every Wednesday evening.

The pastor will be pleased to answer all calls for services.

Convent meeting the Wednesday evening before the first Sunday of each month.

Communion the first Sunday of each month, at the close of the morning service.

Parsonage phone 218-W.

REV. G. H. LOCKHART, Pastor.

ZION.

Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Normal service, German, at 11.

Y. P. A. meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Evening service, English, 7:30 p. m.

Choir rehearsal on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Y. P. A. business meeting on the first Tuesday evening of each month.

REV. H. HAAS, Pastor.

METHODIST.

Sunday Services.

9:45 a. m. Sunday school.

10:45 a. m. Public worship.

7:15 p. m. Euphorth League.

7:30 p. m. Public worship.

1. Week-day Meetings.

Prayer and prayer service; Wednesday, 8:30 p. m.

First Tuesday in each month, meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society at 9:15 a. m.

Ladies Aid society on the second Tuesday of each month.

Ornamental Board meeting on the first Monday of each month at 8 o'clock p. m.

Rev. W. J. Libbenton, D. D., North Park minister.

SALEM.

Sunday Meetings.

Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.

Morning worship 10:30 a. m.

Evening service 7:30 p. m.

Senior League 8:45 p. m. upstairs.

Junior League 6:45 p. m. social room.

Weekday meetings:

Prayer meetings Tuesday and Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Choir rehearsal, Friday 8:30 p. m.

Missionary meetings first Wednesday of each month.

W. M. Society first Thursday each month.

Mission band first Sunday of each month.

REV. J. HOERNER, Pastor.

Facts for Sufferers.

Pain results from injury or congestion, rheumatism, rheumatism, rheumatism, rheumatism, rheumatism, rheumatism, pain yields to Sloane's Liniment—brings new fresh blood, dissolves the concretions, relieves the injury, the congestion from your pain, as if by magic.

It doesn't keep you suffering. Get a bottle of Sloane's Liniment, it means instant relief. Price 25c and 60c. 81.00 bottle holds six times as much as the 25c size.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be applied locally. Aromatic spirits of camphor may be given internally if the face is pale.

Scorpion.

The bite of a scorpion is more than two inches in length and more irritating than a bee sting. Large scorpions may carry a dose of poison capable of producing a good deal of local irritation and causing some disturbance of the system. Strong soda water should be

BRIEF MENTION OF NEWS ABOUT TOWN

Happenings of the Week Told in Short
Paragraphs—What's Doing in Our Hometown

Harry Brandy is able to be about his home on crutches this week.

A few local changes in the trade classes are expected on November 1.

The Rebecca Sewing Circle met this afternoon with President, Mrs. Edward Theis.

The St. Paul's Evangelical parochial school on east Main street opened Monday, November 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wendt moved Tuesday into one of Wissman flats on South Hawley street.

Edward Theis will open an electrical supply and repair shop in the remodeled Peters building on Main street.

Holy Communion service will be at 10 a. m. next Sunday at St. Paul's church. Sunday school at 9 a. m.

Work on the Leonard garage has progressed rapidly and the building begins to give an outline of its size.

There will be a Hallowe'en party in the Methodist church parlor this evening for the young people of the church.

Saturday night there will be a Hallowe'en party and dance at the Cuba County club promoted by Mr. and Mrs. David Stuart.

Rev. John Heerse of the Salem church went to DeForest Tuesday to assist his son, Rev. Frank Heerse, in revival meetings this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Landwehr and family moved to De Kalb Sunday to visit Miss Violet Landwehr and Miss Frances Flage who are attending normal school there.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church shipped a barrel of canned fruit and jelly this morning to the Wesleyan hospital, Chelten; there were about fifty quarts.

Rev. George H. Lockhart's pulpit will be filled by an Anti-Saloon League speaker next Sunday morning; in the evening the subject will be "The W. C. T. U. and Its Mighty Leaders."

Peter Balmer and Miss Anna Thompson of Cuba township were married in Chicago at Cook County court house this week.

Wednesday, October 27. His brother, Patrick Balmer and his wife, Lillian Thompson were with them. They live in Elgin with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tremble.

The regular monthly meeting of the officers of the M. E. church will be held on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The Annual service will be observed the first Sunday morning in November; also the first Sunday morning of each alternate month during this conference year.

The Barrington Gun club held its first clay pigeon shoot on the Long Tree farm Sunday afternoon. The traps are located near the northeast section of the farm. Only club members shot but quite a crowd of spectators went out to enjoy the sport.

Fire on the Blume farm, east of Dundee, Monday morning did about $100 worth of damage. Oscar Saadblom, who lives across the street, discovered the blaze in a summer kitchen, caused by an overheated stovepipe when the family were away and had left drafts on the stove open.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boyer of Walnut street left this morning with a touring party from Lake Zurich to visit Elgin, Aurora, the Joliet railroad and the controlling locks of the drainage canal at Lockport. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer formerly lived in Lockport.

They are guests today in the car of Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson of Lake Zurich and there are several other cars in the party.

A large bazaar will be held in the church of St. Margaret's Catholic church at Algonquin on November 11-12 and 13. Bishop Muldoon of Rockford will be there opening night. The church will be dedicated Thanksgiving Day, November 25, and bishops and archbishops from all parts of the country will be present. Bishop J. M. Konz of Superior, Wisconsin, the only Bohemian Bishop in the United States is expected; the Algonquin parish consists largely of Bohemians.

Miss Grace Huppenhamer of 3235 Le Moyne avenue, Chicago, spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Nelle Dillinger, 3115 Main street. Mrs. Leila Louis Roberts of Maywood and Mrs. Leuelle Austin of Elgin, formerly Barrington ladies, to secure permanent positions in the new school, are making and social arrangements. She will be in Barrington on Tuesday and appointments may be made through Mrs. Robertson. The young lady is a graduate of the Moore's School in this work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lockhart's pulpit will be filled by an Anti-Saloon League speaker next Sunday morning; in the evening the subject will be "The W. C. T. U. and Its Mighty Leaders."

Peter Balmer and Miss Anna Thompson of Cuba township were married in Chicago at Cook County court house this week.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Mrs. F. J. Alvernon visited Crystal Lake friends on Tuesday.

Mrs. Rose Volkher has been in Chicago for the past few days visiting relatives.

Miss Clarabelle Salow of Glaston, is visiting at the Banks home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Curry of Oak Park are visiting with Mrs. Curry's sister, Mrs. J. H. Hatje.

George Froelich, Jr., who has been home a month from his position in the west, left here on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Brandling and son who live near the Kelsey school went to Champaign Tuesday to gone a walk.

Mrs. Carrie Martin of Station street in South Elgin, was in St. Anthony's hospital, Chicago, Monday, for an appendicitis operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Garblich and five children motored to Milwaukee Friday morning to visit Mr. Garblich's people; they returned Monday noon.

Guests at the home of Carl Neuber on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. William Goehring, Adam Boxberger and Misses Ida Goehring and Gladys Jordan, all of Elgin.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hawley went to Detroit, Michigan, last evening. They will motor home in a new 56-horse power Studebaker that Mr. Hawley has purchased.

Fred Meister of the Hawthorne Shop returned Wednesday afternoon from a Chicago hospital where he was recently operated on for intestinal adhesions. He is feeling finely.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heffernan of Masonville, Iowa, were guests of their cousin, Miss Margaret Laney, from Thursday to Monday. Mrs. Heffernan was Miss Margaret Laney and was married last week Wednesday.

Andrew J. Redmond of Oak Park, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. John Rose who was elected to be Deputy Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of Illinois at the Masonic convention in Chicago.

Enjoyed "Moonlight Hike."

Mrs. John Caldwell took the Portia club girls for a "moonlight hike" last Thursday night. They walked all over town, enjoying the view of our nice homes and yards in the mellow light and appreciated our miles of concrete walks. Then they went to the Caldwell home on Main street to savour a hot supper served at midnight.

Unclaimed Letters.

The following letters remain at the Barrington post office unclaimed for the past ending October 23, 1915:

Miss Mary Bask
Mr. B. W. Bowers
Miss Susan Canoy
Mr. C. C. Conroy
Mr. H. C. Huntington
Mr. Geo. Colombe
Mr. A. G. Hartman
Mrs. J. Tyson
G. W. SPUNNER, Postmaster.

Card of Thanks.

We are thankful to all friends who grieve with us in our sorrow caused by death and we appreciate all their acts of kindness and sympathy.

ERNEST SCHULTZ AND FAMILY.

Danger in Too Much Method. The methodical man is apt to become fussy if he lives long enough.

THE DUNDEE &amp; ELGIN CASH STORES OF C. F. HALL COMPANY

Matters are fast looking as they did in the old days as the result of low cash prices and extra good merchandise.

Remember that C. F. Hall Co. are cash buyers and cash sellers. Note what follows.

52 inch all wool serge, 25c yd.
28 inch all wool, 12c yd.
Special cutting flannel, 27 inch good weight, 5c each.

Remnants of bleached cambric and sheeting, 5c each.

25c each bleached muslin for $1.50.

Hat prints are still 5c.

Infants' blankets, fancy, 30c, 40c, for 25c.

Sheets, bleached, 40s each.

The ladies' department is showing good things in underwear, waist, silk skirts, and coats for women, misses' and children. All at very attractive prices.

The millinery department is turning out high class work under the care of Misses Mary and Anna Hall.

In the clothing department you can find boy's all wool suits, 2 pairs pants $3.25 per suit.

Men's suits, fine worsteds, 85.75, 88.25 $9.75. Don't miss us on the clothing question.

Our coats in Balmacaan overcoats for $8.85.

Boys' overcoats, 3 to 17, and prices lower than the lowest. It will pay you to come any distance for your clothing.

In hosier we have men's wool hose at 10c and 15c pair.

Men's heavy cotton hose, 5c.

Our children's hose, 15c.

Our children's hose for all ages, at 10c will interest you.

We sell the Home patterns and give six special coats for 25c.

Everything marked in plain figures and one price to all. Trade with us. It will pay you.

Remember that we sell Kobo corsets.

The Colds of Mankind Cured By Pinet.

How colds form when you had a cold. What a vigorous impulse it sent! How you opened wide your lungs to take in those invigorating and mysterious qualities.

See Dr. J. P. Pinet's "How to Cure Those Stimulating Qualities and overcomes hacking coughs. The inner lining of the throat is strengthened in its attack against cold germs. Every family must have a bottle constantly at hand. 25c.

Electric Fixture Display.

Come and see the full display of Electric Fixtures at greatly reduced prices. Call day or night at my home on West Lake street. Satisfaction guaranteed. Price, 25c. Cash or credit. Film or cash. E. G. TURE. Electric Contractor, Barrington, Phone 34-W.

AUCTION SALES.

WILLIAMS, Estate Auctioneer.

The undersigned will sell at public auction at his residence on South Hawley street, Friday, October 29 at 9:00 o'clock, a lot of household furniture. For description see advertisement.

A. D. MURCH.

Twenty-Five Dollars Reward.

I will pay a reward of $25.00 for information that will lead to the recovery of a sorrel mare stolen from my farm Friday morning October 15.

CHRIS HANTZ.

In the same Box.

The Village Grocer (peevishly)—"Look here, Aaron! What makes you hit the air with your fist like that?" "The Honest Farmer" (cheerfully)—"What makes you comb that long scallop over your bald spot?"—Puck.

Come in and try our

Home Made Candy. It is made with the purest and best of materials and is the "best ever."

Once you have tried it you will become a regular customer.

A fresh line of Cigars and Tobaccos always in stock. Don't forget that we have Ice Cream at all times.

J. A. MCLEISTER

I CATER TO PARTICULAR PEOPLE

MONTH END SPECIALS!

Big Leader Store

FRIDAY & SATURDAY ONLY

Shinola 10c box

Fancy roll, cotton 20c val. pr roll 15c

Lima Beans per lb. 8c

Mercerized table damask 45c value, per yd 35c

Our Regular 30c

Coffee 4 lbs $1

Royal Cocoa 20c

White Table Oil Cloth, per yd 19c

reg 2 cans 29c

per yd 19c

Visit our stores and examine the bargain prices. There's something that will catch your eye.

Everything marked in plain figures and one price to all.

It will pay you to come and see us.

W. N. LANDWER & CO.

TELEPHONE 81-J TELEPHONE 31-J TELEPHONE 31-J

MERSCH BROTHERS

Successors to F. W. Stott

Wholesale and Retail Florists

Flowers of all kinds furnished for Weddings, Funerals, Etc.

Assorted Table Ferns, 5 in a pot, while they last . . . . . 45c

Also a Special Fern, called Maidenhair, now on hand.

Only the best of Bulbs and Seeds of all kinds furnished.

Carnations and Perns of all kinds now for sale. Telephone 58-J.

C. F. HALL COMPANY

Cash Department Store

See our this week's offers at Dundees or Elgin stores. Good merchandise at low prices. Your money refunded if goods are not right.

Imported Worsted, big very unusual values in range of colors. Suits men's wool suits, garments usually selling at $1.75. See these this week for . . . . . $1.39

VALUES IN HOSIERY

Ladies ribbed top black wool hose only . . . . . 17c

Ladies' extra Rockford

Wool hose, grey and blue . . . . . 19c

Men's linen hose and too blue, grey and green . . . . . 25c

These compare well with the regular $1.00 and $1.25.

Men's everyday business suits, dark and navy blues, grey and grey mixtures, good wool cases, smooches for only . . . . . $8.75

Ladies' fancy ribbed garments, assoried, only 9c each.

$13.50 SAILOR SUIT

38 inch Poplina . . . . . 60c

38 inch Messalines, all sizes . . . . . 75c

All silk Boudinnes only . . . . . 40c

LADIES' 50c DRESS

SALE 36 inch striped Messalines

All wool serge in now and . . . . . 50c

late styles. Serge and silk combinations, styles suitable for Ladies' Misses and Juniors.

LADIES' CLOAKS

This season's offerings exceed any values of previous years. All styles

of garments in fancy

wools, silk fabrics, plaid

and velvets. Big varieties in ladies' misses and children's garments.

SILK SALE

Jay Silks . . . . . 37c

38 inch Poplina . . . . . 60c

38 inch Messalines, all

$1.00 values . . . . . 75c

All silk Boudinnes only . . . . . 40c

LADIES' 50c DRESS

SALE 36 inch striped Messalines

All wool serge in now and . . . . . 50c

TWO STORES: MAIN STREET, DUNDEE; MILWAUKEE AND RIVER STREETS (ONE BLOCK FROM FOUNTAIN SQUIRE) ELGIN.

MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK
CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kernals Collected From Events of Mention in All Parts of the World—
Of Interest to All the People Everywhere.

European War News

Three air attacks were made against Venetian by Austrian aeroplanes. A bomb struck the Escola Dugl Sciati church, destroying the interior with a large fire. One of the bombs fell in the plaza of St. Mark.

A fierce attack in the Tabor district of Champagne has resulted in the capture of the Escola Dugl Sciati, the important German position known as La Courtine, on the salient north of Le Menil, according to a Paris official communiqué.

The Buchanan, Roushman, correspondent of the London Times, has the following: "Serbian troops have withdrawn from the neighborhood of the Danube and the Austrians have crossed the river, traversing the island of Orahovac. The Austrian forces will now obtain free passage through Bulgaria to Greece."

King George of England is visiting the British army in France and while there hopes also to visit the lines of the allied French army; as well, according to an announcement made by the official press service at London.

According to German advices, 3,000 Bulgarians wounded in Serbia have arrived at Philadelphia. The Bulgarians lost 6,000 before they captured Ishtik.

The bombardment of Dedeagach by the allies' fleet caused the death of ten civilians; and more than a thousand soldiers; and there also were a large number of soldiers wounded, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company of Paris.

A message to the Monde National at Rome says that the entente powers have presented an energetic note to Athens and have fixed a period for a reply. Negotiations are reported continuing with little hope of success.

Bulgarian subjects liable for military service have been ordered to report to the German commander, according to a dispatch at London from Amsterdam. Seven thousand five hundred so far have been deported to Germany.

King George of England issued an appeal at London to all classes of the British people to come forward and share their responsibility in the war.

Domestic

Details of a plot to hamper the shipment of munitions of war to the enemies allies by placing clockwork bombs on the U.S. S. Maine of 10,000 tons, so that this ship should be disabled on the way across the Atlantic, were disclosed in the confession of Robert Fay, a lieutenant of the Sixteenth Saxon regiment and one of five men charged in a complaint filed by the U.S. attorney's office at New York with conspiracy to violate a federal statute.

Twelve girls and one man lost their lives in a fire that started in their lives in the U.S. S. Maine at Pittsburgh, Pa., on November 25, Thanksgiving day.

President Wilson issued an order, issued in Washington, forbidding the export of arms and ammunition to Mexico, so that this country should be disabled on the way across the Atlantic, were disclosed in the confession of Robert Fay, a lieutenant of the Sixteenth Saxon regiment and one of five men charged in a complaint filed by the U.S. attorney's office at New York with conspiracy to violate a federal statute.

A detachment of the Sixth cavalry fired on and killed two supposed Mexican bandits who were crossing the Rio Grande at the San Pedro ranch, twelve miles from Brownsville, Tex. Both were dead.

On application of the attorney general of Indiana in behalf of the state building and loan department, J. C. S. Sowar was appointed receiver for the Citizens Building and Loan association of Brazil, Ind. The state officers allege that a shortage of $12,000 was found in the treasury of the association.

Joseph Johnson of Washington, D. C., aged twenty-two, was killed when an automobile belonging to State Senator John Dallier of Illinois was overturned, near Streeter, Ill. Dallier, his wife and daughter, Lucille, and Attorney Hugh Wilson of Peoria, Ill., were also injured.

The first time in history wireless waves flashed the human voice across the Atlantic, when officials of the navy department talked with Parsons. The wireless equipment was being completed through the wireless apparatus at Arlington, which carried the impulses reproducing the voice to the Eiffel tower station, a distance of 4,000 miles.

Manhattan witnessed the greatest exchange of fire, the world has ever known. More than 25,000 women marched down Fifth Avenue, New York.

Washington

Following a conference with President Wilson at Washington, James H. May, chairman of the house committee on military affairs, came out strong for the military program of the administration.

President Yuan Shih Kai announced at Peking the appointment of Dr. Wellington Koo, minister to Mexico, Peru and Cuba, to be Chinese minister to the United States in succession to Kai Fu Shih, who is recalled.

The American Red Cross at Washington appealed to the churches of the country to make a special offering to help the aid of the association in its work to alleviate suffering in the war-torn countries.

Although an official statement is lacking, from Washington, it has become known that the Panama canal will again be ready for traffic not later than January 1 next.

Confidence that the country will approve of the administration's plan for strengthening the national defenses was expressed by President Wilson at Washington in addressing a committee from the conference at the White House, which called at the White House.

President Wilson issued his annual message to Congress at Washington, dwelling strongly on the fact that this country has escaped being drawn into the world war that is raging in Europe. His proclamation at Thursday, November 25, as Thanksgiving day.

Mexican Revolt

Twenty men of the Fourth United States infantry, on guard at the bridge near Brownsville, Tex., which was attacked after holding it for two hours, were attacked by Mexican bandits. One American, Private H. E. Moore, was wounded. The American guard drove the Mexicans off.

President Wilson issued an order, issued in Washington, forbidding the export of arms and ammunition to Mexico. The president signed a supplementary order, however, which except Carmen's government from the embargo.

Personal

Justice Orin N. Carter of the state supreme court of Illinois is ill at his home in Evanston, Ill. He apparently is suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

A dispatch to London from Ayer, Andrus says that the sultan's daughter Samba was married quietly Sunday to Prince Ismael Davout, aide-de-camp of the sultan.

Anton Lang, who became world famous through his interpretation of the life of Christ in the Passion play given at Oberammergau, has been killed in battle, according to word received from Berlin.

John H. Biddle, sixty-three, retired judge of the United States district court, died at Goshen, Ind. Stomach trouble caused his death.

Rear Admiral H. N. Mannay, U. S. N. retired, died at San Diego, Cal., of pneumonia.

Foreign

Porter Charlton of New York, son of Judge Charlton of the United States court in Porto Rico, was found guilty of the murder of his actress wife, Mrs. Anna Held, in New York City. The court sentenced him to six years' imprisonment, but allowed the time he has already been in prison. He will be free in less than three months.

All matches, employed by Akron rubber corporation, and auto insurance, about 1,500 in all, were notified that their wages would be increased 15 per cent. The wage increase is made voluntarily by the employers.

"DID YOU EVER SEE SUCH A NUT?"

KILL 3 U. S. SOLDIERS GREECE WON'T FIGHT

SEVENTY-FIVE MEXICANS AT TACK IS AMERICANS.

ATHENS GOVERNMENT REFUSES TO ACCEPT BRITAIN'S OFFER.

Eight Yankees Troops Are Wounded—Outlaws Flee When Re-enforcements Arrive.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 23.—Three United States soldiers were killed and eight others wounded in an engagement with Mexican bandits near Ojo de Agua. The two outlaws were captured. The group guarding the place, which is near Mission, Tex., and about thirty miles north of Brownsville, were attacked by a large band.

List of dead: Sergeant Shaffer, Troop G, Third cavalry; Private Joyce, Company C, First cavalry; and Private McConnell, same company.

Capt. Frank R. McCoy arrived with relieving troops, and the bandits fled back in the brush between Ojo de Agua and the Rio Grande. Additional troops were rushed to the scene, nearby border patrol stations, and a company of cavalry was sent to the scene.

The bandits apparently failed in their purpose to take the American troops by surprise. A picket reported their presence in time to give the troops a chance to take position for their desperate resistance against the bandits.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The Greek reply, which is lengthy, informs the foreign office Friday night that the text of the note was not made public.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The Greek reply, which is lengthy, informs the foreign office Friday night that the text of the note was not made public.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

The reply was not unexpected. It had been stated in official circles that both Roumanians and Greeks were withholding their assistance until the allies either won a decisive victory or their opinions had changed a stage which would include the overrunning of the country by the forces of the central powers or the Turkish and Balkan allies.

WANT THE DURAND HERD DESTROYED

Live Stock Commissioners File Motion in Supreme Court.

OPPOSED TO FURTHER DELAY

Ask That Order of Judge Donnelly Continuing His Injunction Against the State Be Set Aside.

Springfield.—The state board of live stock commissioners in its effort to prevent any further delay in the slaughtering of the herd of cattle of Mrs. Scott Durand in Lake county, which are afflicted with the foot-and-mouth disease, filed a motion in the supreme court in the case of Durand v. State. Other live stock commissioners and the state board of live stock commissioners, to set aside the order of Judge H. Donnelly in the circuit court of Lake county continuing the injunction that he had issued restraining the state board from slaughtering the cattle pending the appeal of the case to the supreme court. The motion was taken under advisement by the court.

The court allowed the joint motion to place the cause on the hearing docket of the present term, and a decision in the case will probably be rendered at the December term of court.

Mrs. Durand in her suit questions the constitutionality of the statute under which affected cattle are slaughtered. She claims that the foot-and-mouth disease can be cured, and that there is no necessity for slaughter. Any law, therefore, that gives state authority to condemn the cattle and to have them killed is a violation of the constitution, she alleges.

If her contention is upheld by the court, the present injunction against the foot-and-mouth disease will be held, and the cattle will be spared from every state in the Union by federal authorities and authorities of other states.

Plans to Increase Military.

President E. J. Jones of the University of Illinois left for Washington with President Wilson and Secretary of War Garrison on the subject of military instruction at the land grant colleges of the country.

President Jones' idea is that those institutions ought to be made more valuable in a military sense than they are. He will call on the department of defense and the secretary of war to recommend to congress the extension of military instruction to four years, instead of two or three, his opinion being that such extended instruction would soon supply the country with a sufficient number of well-instructed drill officers to take prompt hold of the drill in the event the army should necessarily usurp the schools.

From the various acts of congress, the University of Illinois last year received $12,422, and other land grant institutions had like assistance. Add to this the appropriations the state makes for the support of the military department of the university, and the amount of money received by the state at large may justly be claimed to deserve more direct benefit than from that it is getting.

Probation Body Names Heads.

Reforms in practically every phase of probation work in Illinois was urged by delegates to the State Probation Conference, which was held in connection with the annual Illinois State Conference of Charities.

Officers elected:

President—Joseph L. Mosa, Chicago; Vice-president—W. A. Golden, Rock Island; Secretary—Helen M. Jewell, Chicago.

House of State Charities.

State charities conference at Danville elected Dr. George Palmer, Springfield, president; Dr. Charles J. East, St. Louis, vice-president; Dr. F. R. Riddle, St. Paul, Minn., treasurer; Dr. Daniel F. Fagan, Chicago, treasurer; executive committee, Doctor Pacific, Chicago; Dr. Ethan Gray, Chicago; George Perkins, Chicago; Herbert Mathews, Jekins; Dr. Theodoras Sack, Chicago; Doctor Taylor, Springfield; Dr. William Evans, Chicago.

Statewide general council, Dr. Frank Sibley, Carroll, and Miss Violet Jensen, Rockford. Plan to raise three dollars of the state charities for state society treasury instead of house community, but exempting Chicago from rule, because of violent protests and after much debate was referred to a committee with power to draw in working working plans.

Incorporations.

Brewster Coal Company, Peoria; capital, $1,000. Incorporators—William M. Sibley, Peoria; John Brewster and Thomas H. Johnson.

Dykes Tire Mechanic Company, Chicago; capital, $160,000. Incorporators—Earl W. Wilkinson, J. W. Lawrence, and Michael Gallegos; correspondents, Michael F. Gallagher, Chicago.

Imperial Garage Company, Springfield; capital, $200,000. Incorporators—Louis Vogel, Robert L. Conn, correspondent, Avery M. Weston.

Free Quarantine Area Extended.

The order also takes four counties out of the closed area and places them in the free area, which is much larger by an order from the bureau of animal industry in Washington, D. C., placing 21 more counties in the free district. These counties formerly were in the partially restricted area.

The order also takes four counties out of the closed area and places them in the free area, which is much larger by an order from the bureau of animal industry in Washington, D. C., placing 21 more counties in the free district. These counties formerly were in the partially restricted area.

The following are the central Illinois counties taken from the restricted area and placed in the free area: Adams, Boone, Brown, Cass, Ford, Henry, Iroquois, Logan, Marion, McLean, McLean and Woodford. Those in the northern section are Carroll, Kankakee, Mercer, Ogle, Rock Island, Stark, Stephenson, Whiteside and Winnebago.

Those in the southern section are Hancock and Schuyler. Northern Illinois counties placed in the partially restricted area are Bureau and Putnam.

Forty counties, almost half the state, have been released from foot-and-mouth disease by the bureau of animal industry in Washington in the past week. A telegram was received October 16 releasing 18 central Illinois counties.

Opposed to Detention Home.

A petition asking for an injunction to prevent the location of the Springfield Detention home at the Lloyd F. Hamilton residence, North Seventh street, has been filed in the circuit court.

The petitioners are Ernest E. Eck and John J. Conroy, who own property in the vicinity of the Hamilton home, which has been leased for the detention home. The complainants desire the establishment of the home at that address will prove a nuisance to the neighborhood. The suit is directed against the county and Mr. Hamilton.

A motion for new trial is in the case of Anna Roth and Claudia March against John Jeffries, in which the plaintiffs are seeking to break a will, was overruled by Judge Crisp.

Judge Crisp denied the motion for new trial of Charles E. Wyatt against Walter H. Mills of Decatur and the plaintiff by his attorney excepted to the ruling. Wyatt died for a commission alleged to be due him for attempting to negotiate a loan of $12,000 for Mills.

Illinois Relies on Home.

BARRINGTON REVIEW, BARRINGTON, ILL.

Interessante Neigkeiten aus Welt und Leben und allen Landteilen.

Schwäche der kleinen Staaten gegen England.

Wie vielmals hat England die

Freiheit der kleinen Staaten, gewis

se immer zu kleinen beginnt,

zu rücksichtlos und so aufsichtig mit

gewis getreut, wie in diesem fallen.

Es begann mit Portugal, das

gezwungen werden sollte, Deutschland

zu unterwerfen, und so

der nationalen Fragen eingreifen

und eventuell den madlen Kongress

des Kongress, das

die kleinen Staaten von Japan aus

und so eigene Freiheit

gewis gewis gewis gewis gewis

IN THE FATHERLAND

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS FROM THE GREAT GERMAN EMPIRE.

WHAT'S DOING IN OLD HOME

Summary of the Most Important Happenings in the Land of the Kaiser.

—Timely Items for the German Readers.

Foreign Minister von Jagow in an interview regarding the action of the allies in landing troops at Saloniki, Greece, says in part: "Certainly the violation of Belgian neutrality, and especially that of the neutral countries England and France cannot be compared, for in the first instance the question resolves itself about the threatening French advance through Belgium against the existence of the German troops in the Balkans.

England and France cannot be compared, for the Belgian government most liberal offers to spare that country from war's horrors.

England and France are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

are not to be compared, for

the Belgian government has

not been asked to do the same.

England and France

The Barrington Business House Directory

Kirmse & Lerch
Painters and Decorators

Plain and Artistic Paper Hanging and Interior Decorating
ESTIMATES FURNISHED

Phones: 61-J and 41-R

Barrington, Illinois

COMMERCIAL HOTEL

THE TRAVELLING MAN'S HOME
WHEN IN BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS

PHONES

Long Distance 20
Local 38-W

L. R. LINES,
Proprietor

F. J. Hawley & Son
Fresh, Salt and Smoked Meats
VEGETABLES, BAKERY GOODS, ETC.

Phone 28

Barrington, Illinois