FALLEN HEROES TO BE HONORED SOON

Appropriate Observance of Memorial and Decoration Day in Barrington Next Week, May 28 and 29.

REV. GAGE OF CHICAGO TO SPEAK

Dr. W. J. Libberton, Local Pastor, will Deliver Address Sunday Morning at Methodist Church

Barrington will observe Memorial and Decoration Day next week—the former to take place Sunday, the latter on Tuesday.

In accordance to and for the benefit of all those interested in the above time-honored celebrations, the REVIEW has been requested to ask everybody, old and young, to enter onto the field with the old soldiers of our village and help them observe their two great days with honor and enthusiasm.

Their ranks are fast thinning out, their step has lost its vigor, and today we have only a few hundred of the "bronzed button" men to pay homage, as compared to a few years ago when their membership totaled thousands. To those old veterans we owe a special favor, to let us show our appreciation by attending these services, especially when such an occasion presents itself only once a year.

Memorial Day

May 28—Memorial Sunday and the local G. A. R. post will attend services in the morning at the Methodist church at 10:45. Dr. W. J. Libberton will deliver the address. In the afternoon the old soldiers and Dr. W. R. C. will attend Barrington Center church at 2:30 o'clock, leaving here at 1:30, accompanied by the high school band. Rev. T. L. O. Sub, a returned missionary from China, will speak. After the service the post will repair to Barrington Center cemetery and decorate the graves of old soldiers and comrades.

Decoration Day

On Tuesday, May 29, special Decoration Day services will be held in Barrington, under the auspices of General Thomas W. Sweeny Post No. 223, G. A. R., assisted by the W. R. C. The procession will form on the public square at 10 o'clock a. m. and march to Evergreen Cemetery, where the graves of the fallen will be placed and suitable memorials will be placed. The children of the public school, assisted by the decorations, then will march to the public square and "break ranks" for dinner. The procession will again form at 1:30 p. m. and march to the Saltus church, where an appropriate program will be given, and where the address of the day will be delivered by Rev. Charles A. Gage, of Chicago, a son of an old veteran.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will prepare and serve dinner at noon on the basement of the Methodist church, to which all old soldiers, their wives and visiting comrades are cordially invited.

LOCAL PASTOR SURPRISED BY FRIENDS ON BIRTHDAY

About forty people from the Baptist church gathered at the home of their pastor, Rev. George H. Lockhart, on Monday evening to help him celebrate his fifty-seventh birthday. The affair came as a complete surprise to him, but he quickly recovered his composure and joined in helping to entertain the company.

Vocal solos by Messrs. Mattison and Cameron, an instrumental solo by Mr. Wheeler, a recitation by Virginia Babcock, and games of various kinds made the evening pass very pleasantly. Mr. Banks made an appropriate little speech in presenting Rev. Lockhart with his silk umbrella as a reminder of the occasion and as a small token of the regard in which the Baptist people hold their pastor, who, during the three years he has lived in Barrington, has formed a wide circle of friends both in and outside of his own church.

Superintendent Blair May Speak

As was announced in last week's issue of the school festival will be held at Deer Grove park, Friday, June 2. Plan to lay aside your books and spend a day with the children. It will be beneficial to you and them. While this is to be a part of the school activities, children are not required to attend, although it is the desire of the school authorities to have them come, accompanied by their parents or some older person.

The program this year will be better, it is said, than in former years. An effort is being made to secure State Superintendent Blair for an address in the morning. In the afternoon golf games, drills by our scouts, running, jumping and other sports will be enjoyed.

5TH GRADERS WRITE GOOD ESSAYS

Tell Why We Should Care for Teeth, Eyes and Ears and the Importance Connected With Doing So

The following essays, written by pupils of the fifth grade, on "Our Teeth, Eyes and Ears," have been handed the REVIEW for publication. These are very timely and show the interest taken by young pupils in school in this important line of study.

Care of Teeth is Important

"Our teeth are used mainly for chewing our food and preparing it for our stomachs. The teeth help to help us talk; the third, to aid in appearance. As we use our teeth constantly, these need protection. The rules are: Do not bite hard substances, such as nuts. Do not pick the teeth with any metallic instrument or hard substance. To protect the enamel, the male tooth covering, we must not bite thread or change from hot to cold foods, as it is liable to cause a crack in the enamel.

"Our eyes are very delicate and have an important part in the human body. Their use is to see.

"Our eyes, like our teeth, need constant care, and we must care for them right—get glasses when needed. We must not look at anything that dazes the eyes—the sun especially. Then, when we read we must pay attention to our position. The proper position is to have the light coming over the left shoulder.

"Our ears are used to hear with.

"We must care for our ears also. We should not clean our ears with a lead pencil. We must also be careful how we use other people's ears for it may cause a serious calamity."—Foster Riere.

Teeth Are a Great Aid in Talking

"We have to have teeth to help in talking, to aid our appearance and to help us to chew our food well. If we do not have teeth, we would not look well."

"We should brush our teeth often, for if we don't, they will not look nice. They will get yellow and black and then they will come out. If we take care of them they will stay white and look nice. We should not crack nuts or bite thread, or any kind of metallic substance.

"We have our eyes to see with. If we do not have them we could not do much.

"We should not read lying down or read in the twilight, when it is just getting dark. We ought to wait until it is time to turn on the lights. We should read and write with the light coming over our left shoulder.

"We have our ears to hear with.

"We should clean our ears well, but not with a pin or anything hard, for it buries the ear drum and often causes people to lose their hearing. Our ears are not made to be picked with pins or anything of the kind. If we have hard wax in our ears it might make us lose our hearing, too, so we must take care of them."—Mae Plaugh.

Note—Other essays on the above subject, written by pupils of Room IV, will appear in the REVIEW later.

GOVERNOR DUNNE NAMES JUNE 4TH AS FLAG DAY

Special emphasis is to be paid to the public schools' observation of Flag Day, June 14. Literature suggesting suitable ways to celebrate the day is to be distributed by the department of public instruction.

A proclamation signed by Governor Dunne has been issued by William Sullivan, secretary to the governor.

The proclamation follows:

"I urge that citizens observe the day in all parts of our state in a befitting manner and that the national emblem be displayed upon our public buildings, school houses, business houses and homes on June 14.

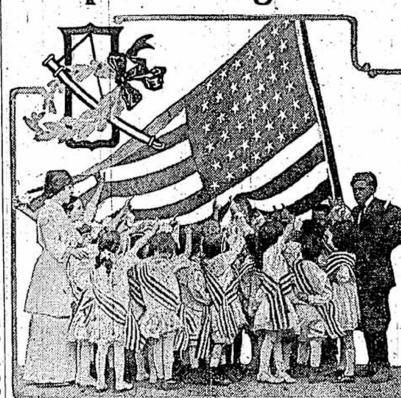

I also recommend that Flag Day be observed by the participation of the citizens in such ceremonies as are appropriate to the occasion and that each citizen wear a small flag in honor of the day."

The governor is particularly anxious that patriotic holidays be observed in Illinois at this time," said Mr. Sullivan, "because of the international situation and consequent desirability of a widespread expression of patriotism by the people of the state."

Fair Officials Meet

A meeting of the presidents and secretaries of the fairs of Libertyville, Woodstock, Bellwood and Palatine was held at the Athletic club rooms in Palatine one day last week and definite arrangements were made in reference to the fairs and the advertising of the Northern Illinois Short Ship Circuit in the horse papers. It is advisable that the fairs be practically the same and the conditions alike in order to attract a good lot of entries for the races and without many entries, a successful fair is nearly impossible.

DRESS FOR SUMMER

DECREE IS THAT SPORTS CLOTHES ARE TO RULE.

For the Majority of Women It Means an Increased Expenditure for the Wardrobe—Gay Colors to Be in Order.

In other days dressmakers did not excel when women insisted that they would wear informal clothes throughout the summer. This meant a number of white duck suits, light-colored wear, shirtwaists aplenty that were picked up here and there, one sweater that was bought for five dollars at a department store and one hat, if any, that did not represent much of an outlay in money.

But today the prophecy that sports clothes will rule for the next four months brings a look of ecstasy into the faces of all who sell woman's apparel, for along this path lie riches.

Sports clothes are de luxe this season. No woman will content herself with one such costume; she will buy as long as her money holds out. This is the reason for the smile that the dressmakers have on their sports wear. Each week is taxed to its utmost in turning out a dozen or more new suggestions, and for all such but there is not only a nibble but a good-sized bite. Women who have indulged in one tailored suit for the spring, which they intended to make serve through the autumn, are buying four suits now, each more elaborate and many accessories to match.

The wearing of sports clothes keeps you in the atmosphere, say Newport and Bar Harbor, and the woman who has never even wielded a racket at the Casino in Newport or gone on a picnic to Jordan's pond in Bar Harbor, is, nevertheless, getting ready to do both. Women are buying aviator hats, tennis shoes, gay sweaters and colored stockings. All that she is asked to do is sit serenely in the sunshine in her plumage of a paroquet so that she will not make a discordant note in the junglelike riot of colors.

Green and black checks are widely used for sports suits made of cloth, also for sweaters. Women are playing golf in good deal and are making up for a suit with a slightly rippling skirt and a short jacket, made of bright green and black checked homespun; there is also a two-inch belt of the sturdiest black grained leather with a silver harness buckle.

Argument for Black Shoes.

Feet are now so distinctly in evidence that—according to the latest studies and day by day I see it going on, and hear more settling what kind of uppers will go best with a new spring frock. I heard a man say the other day to a pretty girl, "Black, my dear—never put color near your feet; always black, if you value shape and size." But best black—the very best, I mean.

Men are conservative creatures for their own woman-kind.

Most housekeepers have wondered at times why there is "tough" about the best hotel cooking that amateurs can seldom get. It is not because the materials are superior or the recipes exclusive; home cooking can be better than hotel cooking so far as that is concerned. It is partly due to the very high proportion of heat and cooking in the hotel kitchen, everything is hot and miles away, also it adds to the cost.

The most important point is careful handling, for in this way the connective tissue is taken out. And the meat of little girls is also added. The meat, when the meat is pressed together, becomes tough and hard. If a wire broiler is used, the cakes should not be squeezed between the two sides. To avoid this, lay them on top of the broiler and turn them with a fork. The meat, when it is turned out of meat and vegetables offer a very great variety of dishes good in themselves and good

BEST DIET FOR CHILD

ADVICE OF SPECIALISTS OF BUREAU AT WASHINGTON.

Preparations of Meat, Fish, Eggs, and Meat Substitutes Recommended—Almost Innumerable Variety of Stews is Possible.

The following directions for the use of meat, fish, eggs, and meat substitutes in the diet of a child three to six years of age are taken from "Farmers' Bulletin No. 117, 'Food for Young Children,' prepared by specialists of the office of home economics, United States department of agriculture."

The best methods of preparing tender meat.

Tough meat should be stewed or poached, soft-boiled, or coddled, though they may be scrambled for a change if one is careful not to scorch the fat used or to overcook the egg.

One of the most satisfactory ways of cooking eggs is by coddling and is done as follows: Allow a cupful water to each egg, add a little salt, the fat, then the eggs, cover the dish closely, and leave the eggs in the water for about seven minutes.

Milk and eggs, as stated above, are common meat substitutes. Among vegetable foods, dried beans, peas, lentils, and cowpeas which are often clashed together and called legumes, are also used for meat in the diet of older people, chiefly because they have large amounts of nitrogen needed for muscle building.

In this respect they have some advantages, though not a great one, over cereals. Beans and the other legumes are not to be recommended for young children except when milk, meat, eggs, fish, and vegetables are to be obtained.

When used they should be overcooked until they are reduced to a mush.

Since the skins are likely to be tough, it is well to put the cooked legumes through a stove.

The Easiest Way.
Tommy had a cold in his head, which confined him to the house, so his mother sent for him to invite his friend, Jack, to tea.

Afterward the two small boys commenced playing hide-and-seek, and Tommy rushed into the dining room and asked his father to conceal him. This the father did, behind a big armchair.

Presently in came Jack, and instead of beginning his search, calmly threw himself down on the rug before the fire.

"Come, Jack," said Tommy's father, "aren't you going to look?"

"No, sir," was the small boy's calm retort. "I'm waiting till he sniffs."

Not Exactly Confusing Scripture.

At the annual meeting of the Bible Reading association Rev. W. Y. Fullerton of the Baptist Missionary society told a story that illustrate the fact that some people needed guidance in the selection of their Bible's reading.

According to the Westminster Gazette the story is a reminiscence of Mr. Fullerton's ministrations when he came to one of his meetings and told of his efforts to comfort his wife as she lay upon the sickbed.

"I read to her every night," he said. "What did you read to her?" asked the missionary.

"Well," said the man, "I began at the first chapter of the Book of Proverbs, and when I had finished the book she died."

TOLD TO OBEY LAWS

KAISER ORDERS GERMANS TO OBSERVE NEUTRALITY.

German Emperor Seeks to Prevent War Plots—Consuls Instructed to Inform Countrymen.

Washington, May 20.—Germany, through Ambassador von Bernstorff, has instructed all German consuls in the United States to advise German citizens in their districts to observe American law scrupulously. This is done in an effort to end various alleged violations of American neutrality.

The ambassador acted on instructions given him on Thursday from the Berlin foreign office. The action was taken in the interest of the safety of German citizens in the United States.

In consequence of cases which have occurred of late, the German ambassador has sent instructions to all German consuls in the United States to strongly impress upon German citizens living in their districts that it is their duty scrupulously to obey the laws of the state in which they reside.

It was said that the German embassy instructed the consuls to prevent plots or lawlessness on the part of German citizens who might be disposed to engage in such. The German government, it was said, looks with great disfavor upon any such conduct.

STATE READY TO INSPECT DAIRIES

Paul Skoog Placed at Head of New Service.

HEADQUARTERS AT CAPITAL

Particular Attention to Be Paid Where No Inspection Is Made of Products Shipped Away—Another Health Laboratory Opens.

Springfield.—Paul Skoog of this city is the new head of the dairy inspection service of the state board of health, which has been increased to a new office of this new department of the board of health is located in Springfield. Mr. Skoog, whose new title is dairy inspector, has been in the state service for some time and was formerly in the office of the city health department.

The new inspection will relate to the operation of these dairies whose products have been excluded from those municipalities which maintain local inspection. Such inspections only exclude milk intended for local consumption, and the shipper gets free to send his product anywhere else in the state.

The Champaign laboratory of the state board of health has been opened at Champaign, making three such laboratories now in operation—the one in Springfield and the other at Mount Vernon. The Champaign laboratory will serve the eastern section of the state and one of the new objects in operation is to detect and eliminate in suspected cases of diphtheria. Under the old system much valuable time was lost in determining whether suspected cases in the extreme eastern part of the state are really cases of diphtheria.

The Champaign laboratory is in charge of Dr. E. S. Sperry.

Woman Still Judge.
Miss Josie Westfall will remain city judge of Macomb until, at the next term of the Illinois supreme court, it is decided whether there shall be a re-hearing of the Macomb antitrust case.

One other order has been issued by Chief Justice Dean of the Illinois supreme court, staying the mandate of the supreme court which, at the last term, held that Dean Franklin had been elected city judge of Macomb, as he had received a preponderance of men's votes at an election which women could not legally vote.

Four of the judges signed the opinion which said that Franklin had been elected and three of them signed a dissenting opinion in which they set forth their belief that women had a right to vote for city judges in Illinois and that, therefore, Miss Westfall should continue to be "Judge Westfall."

Miss Westfall has continued her duties as city judge despite the court's decision, as an order of execution has not been issued.

Ruling on Osteopaths.
Osteopaths have a right to sign death certificates, and certificates signed by them are valid according to an opinion rendered by Attorney General Lucey on application of the state board of health. The osteopaths must sign the certificates as such and as physicians, however.

The Springfield health authorities received a collective opinion signed by an osteopath, a pediatrician, and several other health officers took the same ground, acting on advice from the state board.

The opinion settles the matter, as the state board will instruct health officers to follow the ruling.

This opinion, however, does not give authority to the osteopaths to sign birth certificates unless they hold valid certificates.

State Wants Power.

The leasing for twenty years of the water power privileges of the Jackson street dam in the city of Joliet, of the Illinois and Michigan Canal will be conditioned on the parties leasing the power developing it to its full capacity.

This was determined upon at a conference held here in the office of Governor Dunn, at which were present the members of the Illinois and Michigan Canal commission and the Illinois waterway commission, their engineers and attorneys, and the contractors and speculators for the proposed line were discussed. The lease to the Illinois Light and Power company, formerly the Economy Power company, expires July 17, 1916.

Finds Two Violations.

Miss Carolyn Van Blarcom, field agent of the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness, has been appointed special agent of the state board of health to enforce the new state law for the prevention of infantile blindness. She already has found two violations of the law and will prosecute the offenders.

Urge War on Mosquito.

An antimalaria and antimosquito campaign for every town and village in Illinois is recommended by the state board of health in a bulletin. The campaign is to be conducted by women's clubs and commercial organizations are suggested as the best co-operative source of information. The chief thing to be fought is stagnant pools of water.

Phone Merger Approved.

In an order handed down here the state public utilities commission approved the contract for the purchase of the telephone and telegraph companies by the receivers for the Central Union company. The purchase price is $327,700 in cash. The purchasers agree to merge the companies in such a way as not to disturb existing arrangements for toll facilities into and out of the city by independent companies.

Minimum Work Conditions.

Minimum work conditions of civilized society are defined in a section of the report on the survey of Springfield's industries made public here by the Russell Sage foundation. The minimum a workman must receive if the industry in which he is employed has a right to live, says the report, is $1.60. Enough money to support a normal family.

Winter Wheat Damaged.

Nearly one-half of the total area of winter wheat seeded last fall has been destroyed by cold winds and Hessian fly, according to a crop bulletin issued by the state board of health. In the northern division, assuming that the average production per acre for the state is 19 bushels, says the bulletin, the May 1 forecast would show a total of 18,149,180 bushels. In the northern division 38 per cent of the area, seeded was reported destroyed or abandoned, in northern Illinois 49 per cent, and in southern Illinois 40 per cent. The condition of the growing crop on May 1 was 63 per cent of normal. Continuing, the bulletin says:

Old Wheat.—Of the 35,576,052 bushels of wheat raised in Illinois last year, it is estimated that there was on May 1, 3,480,180 bushels, or about 10 per cent of the crop, in the producer's hands.

Winter Rye.—There were 165,775 acres seeded to rye last fall, and the May 1 report shows 18 per cent has been winter-killed, leaving 135,395 acres for harvest. The May 1 condition of the crop was 50 per cent of normal, 49 per cent in northern Illinois, 50 per cent in central Illinois and 51 per cent in southern Illinois.

Oats.—There is an increase of 2 per cent reported in the area seeded to the 1916 crop. The May 1 condition of oats was 91 per cent of normal, 93 per cent in northern Illinois, 90 per cent in central Illinois and 87 per cent in southern Illinois.

Birds.—The area reported in barley this year is 100 per cent as compared with last year, or 45,000 acres, and the May 1 condition is 96 per cent of normal.

Spring Wheat.—In northern Illinois the area seeded to spring wheat is reported as 97 per cent as compared with 1915, and the May 1 condition as 94 per cent of the normal. But very little spring wheat is raised centrally in southern Illinois.

HANDICRAFT FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

A CAMP WAGON.

First you must get two pairs of wheels. If you haven't any, you will most likely find a boy who is willing to sell his wheels or make a trade. By laying flat upon the ground you can determine the proportions necessary for a wagon to sleep in. The iron axles that belong to your wheel will probably be too short. To lengthen them, get a piece of iron pipe just

It is not necessary to have special soap or a patent blower to blow bubbles successfully. There is nothing better than a funnel to blow bubbles for a solution, and a clay pipe like that in Fig. 1, which can be bought at a drug store, is no good as any blower on the market. But for large bubbles, the finest sort of a blower is a tin funnel, 2½ inches in diameter (Fig. 2). Pray, you will have to buy soap in the country. Another blower which you will find handy is a short lemonade straw (Fig. 3).

To make up the solution, shave the soap into a pan of warm water, putting in as much soap as the water will dissolve.

To make a bubble with the tin funnel, place the end into the solution large enough for them to slip into. Go to a blacksmith or a machine shop and have him cut first each axle in half, and then cut the side boards C and D and nail them to the edges, and cut the end boards E and F to fit between. Fasten E between the sides, and form grooves by means of the strips G (Fig. 8) for the end F to drop into. Dashboard H is of the same size as E. Brace it with brackets I.

The wheel axles must be stapled to the two two-by-fours J and K (Fig. 9). Fig. 7 shows the wagon bed. Fasten the boards together by means of the strips L and M (Fig. 10) and nail them to the edges, and cut the end boards E and F to fit between. Fasten E between the sides, and form grooves by means of the strips G (Fig. 8) for the end F to drop into. Dashboard H is of the same size as E. Brace it with brackets I.

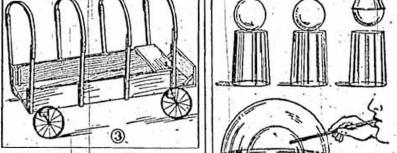

The wheel axles must be stapled to the two two-by-fours J and K (Fig. 9).

Fig. 5 shows how to blow a bubble upon a small cloth or a ribbon with a funnel. Steps A, B and C (Fig. 4) indicate how to release the bubble by inverting the funnel and tossing the bubble out of it.

Fig. 6 shows how to blow a bubble upon your arm. By dropping your arm slightly as the bubbles develop, as indicated by the dotted lines, the bubbles will burst with less shock.

Fig. 6 shows how to blow a bubble into the funnel spout without bursting the bubble.

Place several glass tumblers upon a table, and blow a bubble upon each

Make these pieces of the length of crosspieces A and B (Fig. 7). Nail J to crosspiece A, and pivot K at its center to crosspiece B with a carriage bolt long enough to extend through both. Fasten the end of the strips L and M to the hole in K so the bolt head will not come down flush and allow the iron axle to pass over it. In bolting on the front wheels, slip an iron washer over the carriage bolt so that it will come between crosspieces A and B, and place another next to the bolt nut.

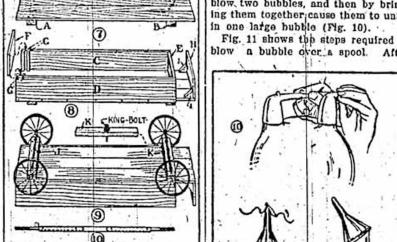

Fig. 3 shows the wagon with the front end to the top covered in position. Measure the distance of four iron bolts (Fig. 4) for the arched top of the frame (L, Fig. 5), and nail each to a pair of stick uprights (M). Then nail a pair of wedge-shaped blocks (N, Fig. 6) to the uprights, so

Fig. 7, then add other tumblers and blow bubbles upon them you can place before this first meet bubbles.

Fig. 8 shows how to blow one bubble within another. First blow a large bubble on a pie tin having a depth of one-quarter inch of solution in it. Blow the bubble as you raise the funnel, then turn the funnel sideways and sift it off of the bubble. The bubble is blown with a lemonade straw.

If you have two clay pipes, you can blow two bubbles, and then by bringing them together cause them to unite in one large bubble (Fig. 10).

Fig. 11 shows tuppenny spoons required to blow a bubble over a spoon. After when the frames are nailed to the wagon box sides, the uprights will stand outward (Fig. 3).

Fig. 12 shows a piece of board cut out of a board, with circles nailed across its under side (Fig. 6) to fit closely against the sides of the wagon box. This seat must be removable if you intend to use the wagon to sleep in.

Figs. 1 and 2 show how to attach them to the axles, and carry them round the sides, through screw eyes, the back, for steering when pushing the camp wagon. Another pair of them may be provided for pulling the wagon.

Bad teeth handicap children. Today is the best day to clean up. Insufficient sleep endangers health. Polluted drinking water causes many deaths.

Fresh air, food, rest—these three combat tuberculosis.

An efficient health officer is a good community investment.

Overeating, constipation, lack of exercise, foul air, eye strain, may produce headache.

The U. S. Public Health Service has reduced typhoid fever 80 per cent in some communities.

Natural Gift.

Now comes every fall girl telling us that debutantes should be eliminated from female colleges. Oh, let 'em alone. It is a natural gift, as men know who have married noncollege girls.—House Post.

Baptist Church Notes

The Mendota assistance of choir director, Hugh T. Matison; musicians, Mrs. W. J. Cameron and Cleve Wheeler; soldiers and chorus singers make the services doubly effective at this church—the stranger's Sabbath home.

A good sized congregation witnessed the choice featured program given at the church Sunday evening. Tissot's superb pictures of the "Life of Christ" were pronounced the best ever given here. They were artistic, educational and religious. Men, women and children are made better by spending an evening with such a subject and worldwide artist. Willard Abbott took the place of Arnett Lines at the harp.

Rev. Lockhart's subjects for next Sunday are: 10:30 a.m., "Finding Man," 7:30 p.m., "Patriotism," and in honor of the soldiers of our Civil War a number of beautiful and truthful pictures will be shown, entitled "The Grand Army of the Republic." These pictures are made vivid and real through the additional appeal to the eye. All friends of the soldiers of '61 to '65 are especially invited and will be made welcome.
