

WOULD YOU STAKE
LIFE ITSELF, IF—

Items of Local Interest

CLEANED FROM MANY SOURCES

Read the ads—it pays.

Miss Mianie Johnson spent last Friday in Chicago.

Frank Spaulding of Chicago was a Sunday guest of Guy M. Dodge.

Miss Natalie Gillette is spending the week with relatives in Milwaukee.

Henry Bonham and Lester Faull, members of the Custer Grand stand, with home folks.

Mrs. Bertha Darr of Dundee is spending a few days with her brother, William Darr, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Powers of Chicago were visitors at the A. Powers' home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Page and daughter were in town the week end with Mr. and Mrs. John Page.

Mrs. Maude Cecile and son, Wincheste, of Arlington Heights, were guests Monday of Miss Eva Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bottow of Chicago were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fricke of North Avenue streetcar.

Mr. Walter Meyer, formerly Miss Fria Hutchinson, is spending the week with his brother, Charles Hutchinson, and family.

William L. Moore of Barrington, Fred Barker of Ravinia Woods, and Henry Gried of Great Lakes were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore.

Mr. John Dohse and two children of Odell and Mill Hazel Wells of Leroy, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. William Wright of Franklin Park.

A young attendee goes to the children of the First church in observance of an prospective Easter program, which was well rendered.

No more blow-outs or judgments for those who have "Exhibits" filed three days before the show opens.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Parker, of Arlingate Heights, Asst. Dist. At.

The Lauder Ad co-opts the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Georgia Seebert next Tuesday afternoon. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Henry Schaefer of the Deer Grove neighborhood, was operated upon in the Argonaut Hospital, Chicago, Saturday afternoon. He is doing well.

Edwin Peters went to Rockford the first week of the month and made application to enter the medical corps of the U. S. Army. He was instructed to remain there for training.

Worship has been highly engrossed this week on the foundation of the new Schroeder building and with favorable weather the new structure will be completed in a few days.

Miss Jeanne Linn, who is attending the DePaul, spent her Easter vacation visiting her sister, Mrs. Leon Newell of Maywood and her mother, Mrs. Anna Newell, of Chicago.

A KEYSTONE COMEDY and a Hearns Photo News.

8:30 P. M. 10 and 20c.

